REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD

OF

Newbury, N. H.

For the Year Ending March 1st, 1887.

The School Board respectfully submit the following report:—

SCHOOL NO. 1.

Spring term of eight weeks taught by Miss Mabel A. Prescott of New London. This was Miss Prescott's first attempt, but the result attained would have been a credit to an experienced teacher. By her gentle, yet firm disposition, she won the love and respect of her pupils.

Fall term of twelve weeks, taught by Miss Grace A. Todd of the same town. Her aim was to teach her pupils to reason for themselves, and not depend too much on their text books, or teacher. She faithfully carried forward the good work which had been commenced the previous term. We are very sorry that part of the scholars and parents do not realize the importance of securing that great boon—a good education.

SCHOOL NO. 2.

Spring term of eight weeks, taught by Miss Marian S. Morse of this town. The examination was highly satisfactory in all studies, showing that teacher and pupil had worked in unison.

Fall term of twelve weeks, taught by Miss Nellie L. Rowe of Newbury. Miss Rowe having had charge of this school in the past, was enabled to accomplish a good term's work.

If some arrangement could be made so that scholars of this school could be accommodated at another place we think it would be a great benefit to them.

SCHOOL NO. 3.

Spring term of seven weeks, taught by Miss Martha A. Williamson of this town. She, also, was a new teacher. When we visited the school the teacher seemed to be trying to do her best. The main quality lacking was self-confidence. There was no examination, as the teacher was unable to keep the last week on account of sickness at home.

Winter term of ten weeks, taught by Miss Maud M. Melvin of Melvin's Mills. A large amount of work was the result by those who attended during all of the term. Here, also, are some who fail to see the benefit to be derived by being punctual in the school room.

SCHOOL NO. 4.

There was no school in the spring, as the scholars, by consent, attended school at No 13.

Fall term of twelve weeks, taught by Miss Emma F. Nichols of Newbury. Excellent progress was made this term in all studies. The majority of the scholars in penmanship excel any of the same age in town.

SCHOOL NO. 5.

Spring term of nine weeks, and fall term of eight weeks, taught by Mrs. Inez D. Fowler of South Newbury. No words of ours are needed to inform the town that Mrs. Fowler is a successful teacher. A large amount of work was accomplished both terms.

Winter term of twelve weeks, taught by Mr. Edwin P. Stickney 2nd of George's Mills. Mr. Stickney was a teacher thoroughly alive to the work of education. The scholars were led by the enthusiasm of their teacher to do their very best. Both teacher and pupils deserve many words of commendation for the improvement made in all studies.

SCHOOL NO. 6.

(Union with Bradford.)

The School Board of Bradford have had charge of this school the past year.

Spring term of nine weeks, taught by Miss Clara J. Nichols of Bradford. Examination was very satisfactory.

Fall term of seven weeks taught by Miss Lizzie F. Peaslee of Bradford. The term was very profitably spent by the scholars. The examination passed credibly to teacher and scholars.

Winter term of eleven and two tenths weeks, taught by Mr. A.H. Gilmore. The School Board were very fortunate in securing the services of so faithful a teacher. Mr. Gilmore labored hard for those he served. The examination being the most interesting it has been our pleasure to witness at this school.

SCHOOL NO. 7.

Spring term of 8 weeks, taught by Miss Effie S. Johnson of Bradford. Miss Johnson was thoroughly interested in her work, and consequently interested her pupils.

Fall term of twelve weeks, taught by same teacher. At our first visit we found everything progressing finely, and have no doubt that a good term's work was accomplished by nearly all, and might have been by ALL, had the parents given the teacher the support she deserved.

SCHOOL NO. 8.

Spring term of eight weeks, taught by Miss Annie G. Morse of South Newbury. Miss Morse passed the best examination of any teacher at our spring examination; therefore we expected she would maintain her standing as a teacher, and were not disappointed.

Miss Abbie Peaslee of Sutton began the fall term of twelve weeks, but after keeping nearly eight, on account of sickness, she was obliged to go home. Miss Peaslee was a thorough teacher and good disciplinarian. It was with much regret we were obliged to lose her. Fortunately we secured Miss Alice J. Gove to finish the term without a break. The advancement made was very good. We are glad that the teachers the past year have had the support of both parents and pupils.

SCHOOL NO. 9.

Spring term of eight weeks, taught by Miss Alice J. Gove of Chandlerville. Possessing the confidence of her pupils at the beginning she was enabled to enter upon a successful term of school and maintained the interest to the close.

Fall term of twelve weeks taught by Mrs. Mary E. Muzzey and Miss Alice J. Gove. Mrs. Muzzey during the eight weeks she taught, accomplished a good, practical work. The last four weeks were taught by Miss Gove, who continued to carry out the work begun the preceding term.

SCHOOL NO. 13.

Spring term of eight week, taught by Miss Lizzie B. Andrews of Sutton. Commendable progress was made.

The selectmen having disposed of our share in this school-house to Sutton before the fall term, we did not have any of the management of the school, but paid a tuition for the scholars that attended from Newbury.

GENERAL REMARKS.

THERE have been in the aggregate two hundred thirteen and two tenths weeks of school the past year, at an expense (including two hundred eighty-three dollars and five cents paid for board of teachers) of eight hundred seventy-two dollars and ninety cents. The average daily attendance has been eighty-three, making the cost of tuition for each scholar, ten dollars
