Report of School Board

In rendering our yearly report of our schools we have little that is new to offer but would again urge the parents to visit the schoolroom more frequently, thus knowing just what is being done there instead of depending on what the children say themselves, for we all know, on reflection, that their opinion cannot be wholly fair and unbiased to say the least.

We feel that one great trouble with our schools is the want of cooperation of the parents with the teachers.

We have maintained two schools which have been in session thirty weeks during the year and we feel that the teachers have been faithful and conscientious in their work. Whole number of visitors for the year, 127.

Roll of Honor. Spring term—Ona Morse, Aquilla Morse, Mary Russell, Ruth Russell, Fred Morse, Oscar Morse, Vear Whiteman, Rodney Adams, Marion Chase, Eva Smith, Edith Merry, John Perry, Donald Esty. Fall term—Katherine Moore, Marion Chase, Alta Braley, Edna Rogers, Clarence Esty, Donald Esty, Marion Adams, Ona Morse, Oscar Morse, Aquilla Morse. Winter term—Ona Morse, Aquilla Morse, Oscar Morse, Fred Morse, Mary Russell, Ruth Russell, Manson Smith, Katherine Moore, Marion Chase, Alta Braley, Edna Rogers, Eva Smith, Ada Braley, Nellie Perry, Clarence Esty, Donald Esty. For the year—Donald Esty, Marion Chase, Oscar Morse, Aquilla Morse, Ona Morse.

Library Trustees' Report

Our report can differ but little from those of former years.

With the money we have had from the town we have been able to add a number of new books. Mr. Albert Powers of New York gave some magazines to the library and we have had also a box of books sent from the Somerville, Mass., public library.

The librarian's report will show the library has been open every Saturday afternoon.
