REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board of Auburn:

Since my services in Auburn began with the present school year, the report for the year completed in June, 1929, is of necessity statistical. However, I wish to deal briefly with the present organization, buildings and equipment, and health activities.

The following class of seven pupils was graduated from the eighth grade in June:

No. 2 School—Mary Willis.

No. 7 School—John Szumiesz.

Emilia M. Ziarko.

Severance School—Edward H. Caron.

Kenneth Emery.

Celina Gahert.

Yvonne Landry.

The cost per pupil in the elementary schools of Auburn for the year 1928-1929 was $71.01, compared with $83.35, the median cost per pupil in the state. Of the 244 New Hampshire school districts arranged in the ascending order of cost, per thousand of equalized valuation for all school purposes, Auburn stood two hundred third. For the same period Auburn received state aid to the amount of $4.99 per thousand of its equalized valuation.

ORGANIZATION.

The withdrawal of several teachers last June necessitated opening the present year with new teachers in three of the six schools. In September, Natalie P. Davis, a 1928 graduate of Plymouth Normal School and a teacher last year in the Bristol Union, succeeded Miss Fisher at the Village School. Zelma Labbee and Dorothy Goodale, both recent graduates of Keene Normal School, were elected to succeed Miss Grevior at Bunker Hill and Miss Crafts at No. 2 School respectively.

Upon the resignation of Miss Davis in January, Elizabeth Donahue of Worcester, Mass., was elected teacher of the Village School. Miss Donahue is also a recent graduate of the Normal School at Keene.

You are fortunate in the retention of experienced teachers in both rooms at Severance and in the No. 7 School.

BUILDINGS AND EQUIPMENT.

The two-room building at Severance, located on the main highway, is indicative of a progressive spirit in Auburn and of a keen community interest in adequate school facilities. This year the equipment has been improved by the purchase of a new teacher's desk for the primary room. In addition to the seasonal cleaning of rooms and the oiling of floors, extensive repairs and new parts were found necessary in the chemical toilet equipment. These have now been put in good condition, and, with regular attention to draining and re-charging with new chemical, the tanks should give several added years of service.

The No. 7 school room was equipped last summer with individual chairs and desks for the pupils. Before another year a sheet-iron jacket should be placed on the present stove and a system of indirect ventilation installed. The latter may be secured by a fresh-air inlet flue to the stove jacket and a foul-air exit flue at the base of the chimney. There is much need of a new teacher's desk with adequate space for keeping records and materials and for filing the completed work of the pupils. This building approaches standard conditions more nearly than any other one-room school in town.

Unless the schools now occupying the Bunker Hill, No. 2 and Village buildings are soon to be combined in a new school plant, these three one-room buildings should be equipped with correct lighting and ventilating facilities.

HEALTH ACTIVITIES.

Auburn and the four other towns of this union are fortunate to retain the services of Margaret E. Cronin, R. N., for the entire period of the present school year. Her report for the six months ending June, 1929, follows:

Number of Auburn pupils under the supervision of nurse, 145

Report of Examinations and Follow-up Work.

Defects	Number of pupils affected	Pupils receiving treatment	Number of defects corrected
Underweight (10 per cent).....	13	8	1
Defective vision	7	4	3
Defective hearing	4	2	3
Nervous condition	1	1	0
Cardiac disease	1	1	0
Deformity	3	2	0
Defective teeth	46	6	0
Diseased tonsils	24	5	1

Enlarged glands	3	0	0
Defective speech	1	1	0
Totals	103	30	5

Cases of communicable disease—Chicken pox, 1; scarlet fever, 9; mumps, 1; pediculosis, 9; skin disease, 1; total, 21.

On April 29 at a clinic conducted at the Severance School by Dr. F. N. Rogers, twenty-nine Auburn pupils were examined. The following June twenty-six pupils were treated at a vaccination clinic at the No. 7 School. A boy at the Elliot Hospital and a girl at the Balch Hospital were treated by Dr. Jones. A boy was operated on for removal of a dumoid cyst at the Notre Dame Hospital. This operation required daily dressing for three weeks.

MARGARET E. CRONIN, R. N.,
School Nurse.

In addition to the visits to schools recorded in the Table of Statistics for 1928-1929, there should be added sixty-five visits to pupils homes, which constitute a particularly effective feature of the nurses work in securing corrective treatments.

An excellent project, providing a hot drink, chowder or soup to supplement the noon lunches of the pupils in cold weather, is being conducted by Miss Goodale at the No. 2 School. I believe this is a winter activity of much benefit, and is worthy of extension where any number of pupils bring their lunches to school.

IN CONCLUSION.

I wish to commend the progress made and the careful consideration now being given by the school board, town officials and other citizens to the extension of modern school facilities in Auburn.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE H. HARMON,

February 10, 1930.

Superintendent of Schools.
