DURHAM, N.H. - Last year faculty and staff experts from the University of New Hampshire participated in more than 120 engagements around the state reaching 3,000 residents. The UNH Speakers Bureau connects faculty and staff with opportunities to educate and impact the lives of New Hampshire citizens with speaking engagements for non-profits and civic groups around the state. Don't miss this opportunity to schedule a free speaker.

The UNH Speakers Bureau is an outreach service made possible by volunteer speakers from among the faculty and staff who teach, conduct research, study and work at UNH. Speakers have an unparalleled enthusiasm for sharing their expertise and extending the learning community to every corner of New Hampshire. Last year 62 organizations – nonprofits, schools, municipalities, and civic groups -- booked one of the more than 200 speakers available on 525 different topics. All at no cost.

Visit www.unh.edu/speakersbureau to search the database that is constantly updated with new speakers and topics. For more information or to schedule a speaker, contact program coordinator Nora Molloy at speakers.bureau@unh.edu or (603) 862-4401.
