FACULTY TRAVEL THROUGH CIE

NELSON BARBER - ITALY

This annual scholarly meeting of the VDQS chapter of the European Association of Wine Economists represents all European specialists and noted world specialists about wine production, economics and consumer marketing.

JANET GOLD - HONDURAS

To gain more first-hand knowledge of the workings of NGOs in Honduras, I spent ten days in Santa Lucía, a village in the mountains outside of Tegucigalpa...

SEAN MOORE - ENGLAND

...I was the only English professor among an international group of economists and financial historians who used a lot more econometric data about the period than I did.

JULIE BRYCE - ITALY

My motivation to visit Ferrara, Italy, could be put into one word: mantle. Earth's mantle is its large rocky layer that extends beneath the crust on which we stand down to Earth's metallic core.

LINA LEE - SPAIN

Using ethnographic interviews is a dynamic and profound way to understand the target culture from the point of view of its members...
