Buddies Without Borders Expands to Graduate Students

Office of International Students and Scholars

Tuesday, December 5, 2017

Since 2012, UNH's BWB has paired domestic and international students, based on common interest, for cultural exchange and friendship. This fall BWB would like to expand by recruiting and offering to pair domestic graduate students with international graduate students and scholars in programs related to foreign language, communication and culture.

BWB's October 10th fall kickoff event included sampling ice cream flavors from around the world. The program's ambassadors will publicize their small group events related to pop culture, sports and the outdoors and more! Through these theme events and meet-ups, we hope to "Bridge Cultures, Widen Perspectives and Build Friendships."
