International Education Week 2018 Will Be Unforgettable! Mark Your Calendar: Nov. 3-11

Wednesday, October 31, 2018

The University of New Hampshire is thrilled to celebrate International Education Week with UNH's 1,000-plus international student and scholars, and the global programs that enrich the student experience, campus life and local communities. The festivities begin on Saturday, November 3rd with the UNH Powwow and culminate with the high energy antics of Diwali on Sunday, November 11th (tickets sell out, so pick them up early in the MUB). In between, you won't want to miss Tomorrow's Challenges: Expanding Intercultural Competencies, Spoken Word Poet Amal Kassir, the ever-popular International Food Luncheon, Teas & Coffees from Around the World, International Karaoke Night and much, much more!

The Week's events are made possible through the efforts of numerous UNH offices and student organizations, including the Memorial Union & Student Activities, Global Education Center, English Second Language Institute, College of Liberal Arts, Global Student Success Program, Confucius Institute, Desi, MOSAICO, and Buddies Without Borders.
