

3-15-2019

Table of Contents

Editorial Board

University of New Hampshire School of Law

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholars.unh.edu/unh_lr

Part of the Law Commons

Repository Citation

Editorial Board, Table of Contents, Volume 17, Number Two, 2019, 17 U.N.H. L. Rev. ii (2019).

This Prefatory Matter is brought to you for free and open access by the University of New Hampshire – School of Law at University of New Hampshire Scholars' Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in The University of New Hampshire Law Review by an authorized editor of University of New Hampshire Scholars' Repository. For more information, please contact ellen.phillips@law.unh.edu.

Volume 17, Number 2

The University of New Hampshire Law Review

March 2019

ARTICLES

Lading and Weight: Suggested Evidentiary Burdens in Senate Judicial-Nominee Hearings Post-Kavanaugh 229
Brendan T. Beery

The Low Water Mark for Beach Access: Defending Government Protection of Intertidal Recreation as a Lawful Exercise of State Power 287
Alexander Gazikas

BOOK REVIEW

Confronting a Monument: The Great Chief Justice in an Age of Historical Reckoning 315
Michael S. Lewis

NOTES

Environmental Personhood and Standing for Nature: Examining the Colorado River case..... 355
Matthew Miller

No Good Deed Goes Unpunished: How the New Hampshire Probate Court Has Strengthened the Power of the Attorney General in Charitable Trust Suits 379
Angelina M. Spilios