6-19-2020

Judicial review and governmental bad faith

John M. Greabe
University of New Hampshire Franklin Pierce Law School, john.greabe@law.unh.edu

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholars.unh.edu/law_facpub

Part of the Constitutional Law Commons

Recommended Citation
A beautiful reminder of graduations past

I have been retired from teaching and coaching since 2008. Every one of my children graduated from Concord High School while I was there as a teacher and coach. I was so proud of their accomplishment and hard work. I have not returned to graduation since. However, I also remember the feeling of seeing many of my students standing on the podium, with a huge smile on their face.

Yes, this article did remind me of the feeling around graduation, after following these student athletes throughout their education and onto bigger and better things.

So again, Heidi, I thank you for the reminder and the article that so carefully stated what it feels like to watch a group of young students throughout their academic years and see them off as they march across the stage to receive their diploma with a huge smile on their face.

RUSTY COFRIN
Concord