KERRY, BENSON HOLD NARROW LEADS

Durham, NH – John Kerry’s slim lead over George Bush in New Hampshire has narrowed slightly. Incumbent governor Craig Benson continues to lead Democratic challenger John Lynch.

These findings are based on the 2004 WMUR / UNH New Hampshire Tracking Poll, conducted by the University of New Hampshire Survey Center. This survey is sponsored by WMUR-TV Manchester and the University of New Hampshire.* Eight hundred forty-one (841) likely New Hampshire voters were interviewed between October 26 and October 28, 2004. The potential sampling error for the survey is $\pm 3.4\%$. (For more information about the NH Election Tracking Poll, go to www.unh.edu/survey-center/track04.html)

Presidential Election

The race between John Kerry and George Bush in New Hampshire is closer than ever. In the latest WMUR / UNH tracking poll, 49 percent of likely voters say they will vote for Kerry, 47 percent will vote for Bush, 1 percent will vote for Ralph Nader or some other candidate, and 3 percent remain undecided. The most important issues to voters in the presidential election continue to be the war in Iraq (24%), jobs and the economy (20%), and the war on terrorism (19%).

Kerry runs strongest among Democrats and in the North Country and the Connecticut Valley. Bush does best among Republicans and in the Manchester area. Kerry leads among swing voters by 54 percent to 34 percent.

Gubernatorial Election

In the race for New Hampshire Governor, incumbent Republican Craig Benson has widened his slight lead over John Lynch. Currently 47 percent of New Hampshire voters say they plan to vote for Benson, 42 prefer Lynch, 1 percent favor some other candidate, and 9 percent are undecided. In yesterday’s WMUR / UNH tracking poll, Benson held a 47 percent to 44 percent lead over Lynch.

Benson and Lynch do well among their partisans and are now tied among swing voters. Benson does best in Massachusetts border towns, where his anti-tax message plays especially well, and in Manchester. Lynch’s strongest support comes from voters in the Connecticut Valley.

U.S. Senate

Incumbent Republican Senator Judd Gregg holds a commanding 63 percent to 22 percent lead over Democratic challenger “Granny D” Haddock with 1 percent preferring some other candidate and 14 percent remaining undecided. Gregg has maintained a wide lead over Granny D throughout the race.

U.S. Congress

In New Hampshire’s First Congressional district there has been no change in the race between incumbent Republican Jeb Bradley and Democrat Justin Nadeau. Currently, 60 percent of likely voters say they will vote for Bradley, 26 percent prefer Nadeau, and 14 percent are undecided.

In the Second District, incumbent Republican Charlie Bass leads Democrat Paul Hodes 57 percent to 31 percent, with 1 percent preferring some other candidate and 11 percent undecided.
