DURHAM, N.H. - The New England Center hotel on the campus of the University of New Hampshire was named one of six Editors' Choices on the New Hampshire Seacoast in Yankee magazine's 2008 summer Travel Guide to New England issue.

One of only two lodging selections, the editors noted that the New England Center facility with 115 guestrooms "features floor-to-ceiling windows looking out on towering pines, plus contemporary amenities such as WiFi and cable TV."

"This is a great honor," said David May, assistant vice president of business affairs at UNH.

"Yankee magazine is a trusted resource for visitors from all over the country looking to enjoy time in New England."
