HOUSE PARTIES GRAND SUCCESS

Each Frat Reports
"Best Time Ever"

MANY OUTSIDE GUESTS

All Fraternities Hold Dances Saturday Evening—Picnics, Canoeing, Bowling, Tennis Form Amusement for Visitors

House Parties and Junior Prom were a great success. The Junior Prom, this year a formal dance, according to customs of the college, but which was made informal last year, was an undoubted success. The Prom week festivities were ushered in on Thursday night when the Men's Musical Club gave a fine concert.

The six fraternities on the campus had their house parties on Friday and Saturday and each reports "the best ever."

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity gave an informal dance and entertainment at their house on Saturday evening. Their own jazz band consisting of "Monk" Bauer, pianist, Cotton, cornetist, and "Epie" Gove, traps, furnished the music.

The guests were Mrs. K. G. Cavis of Bristol, N. H., Prof. and Mrs. W. H. Wolf of Durham; Miss Agnes B. Kroil, Washington, D. C.; Miss Lillian Abbott, Gloucester, Mass.; Miss Mildred Brown, Haverhill, Mass.; Miss Helen Murphy, Miss Hortense Cavis, Miss Helen Meader, Miss Sarah Sanders, Miss Marion Sprague, all of Durham; and Mr. Elmer Stewart, a Sigma Chi from Dartmouth.

KAPPA SIGMA

Kappa Sigma held its largest house party in years and many alumni joined with the active members in the celebration. A trip to Simpson's on Saturday noon was followed in the evening by a dance at the house with music by the Kay S Jazz Orchestra, with I. W. Doolittle, leader.

The guests were: Misses Pauline Hill, Concord, N. H.; Marjorie Anderson, Haverhill, Mass.; Dorothy Rice, Dover, N. H.; Brenda Copeland, Rochester, N. H.; Irma Lary, Portland, Me.; Corinne Parsons, Portsmouth, N. H.; Delia Langley, Durham, N. H.; Helen Pettingell, Salisbury, N. H.; Blanche Nutting, Nashua, N. H.; Francis R. Remick, Portsmouth, N. BLUE AND WHITE AT N. E. I. A. A. TODAY

Enters Fast Competition—First Attempt—Picked Alongside of Wesleyan and M. I. T. for Top Honors

The Blue and White track team is in Boston today, fighting to hold her position with the best college track teams of New England. Although this is the thirty-third annual N. E. I. A. A. meet, it is New Hampshire's first appearance in such fast competition. It is expected that she will do as well, if not better than at Springfield in the E. I. A. A. meet.

Last year the meet was won by M. I. T. with 74 points, but it is expected that the points will be more evenly divided this year. M. I. T. is again one of the favorites with New Hampshire and Wesleyan also picked as possible winners. At the present time, it looks as if twenty-five points will win the trophy. New Hampshire will be represented by twelve competitors and it is expected that they will all figure in the scoring. Nightingale and Leath are expected to turn in at least thirteen points in the mile and two mile. Melville should score in the 440 as his time last Saturday seems good enough to warrant a place. Felker will do his best to repeat his Springfield performances and O'Leary is out for a place in the 880. Andrews, Sawyer and Batchelder look good for places in the weights after their record-breaking efforts in the Tufts meet. The Blue and White will miss Stevens in the hurdles, as he will be unable to compete. Mansell's leg is in questionable condition and it is doubtful as to whether he will be able to compete. Nute will certainly give a good account of himself in the pole vault.

RUMFORD FUND AVAILABLE HERE FOR RESEARCH WORK.

Dr. Howes of the Physics department has received a grant of $500 from the Rumford Fund of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences for research work in physics. This fund is used only for research in physics and was founded in honor of Count Benjamin Rumford, the great English-American student of heat and electricity. It is of interest to remember that Count Rumford was at one time a resident of the State of New Hampshire.

The grant is given to aid in a study of the luminescence of the rare earths at various temperatures. Dr. Howes has been interested in this field of optics for several years and will make a partial study of the subject at Cornell University this summer.

NEW HAMPSHIRE DEFEATS TUFTS

Five College Records Broken at Meet

SCORE 81-45

Melville, Nightingale, Sawyer, Batchelder and Andrews Break Records—Team Has Walkaway with Meet

New Hampshire track team defeated Tufts in the big athletic event of Prom week last Friday afternoon by a big margin, 81-45, being outclassed in practically every event. The victory looms up in the annals of New Hampshire College athletics owing to the fact that five New Hampshire records, consisting of the 440-yard dash, the mile run, the shot put, the hammer throw and the discus, were broken.

The 100-yard was won in fine style by Machia, Tufts' crack sprinter, Felker and Melville finishing second and third.

"STEVE" WINS HURDLES

The 120-yard high hurdles was the best hurdle race of the day. Fitch, the Tufts hurdler, held the lead for the first 60 yards, when Stevens slowly began to gain on him and after making the last hurdle, made a final spurt, giving him the victory.

Capt. Nightingale broke his own record in the mile, clipping 13 seconds from the old record. Capt. Nightingale took the lead at the first of the race and after the first lap it was evident to all that "Night" would make a new record. The average time for each lap in this race was a fraction over 65 seconds.

QUARTER A THRILLER

The 440-yard dash was the surprise of the day. "Bobby" Blair, Tufts' star quarter miler, took the lead at the crack of the gun with Melville tugging at his heels. Shoulder to shoulder they ran until within 100 yards of the finish when Melville by a tremendous spurt passed by Blair and won by more than a yard in the fast time of 52 3-5 seconds.

The two-mile run was a walkaway for New Hampshire, Tufts sole entry failing to place at all. Billingham led the way for several laps until Capt. Nightingale and Leath speeded up, forcing him into third place.

The half-mile was easily won by O'Leary. The Tufts men were not able to keep up with "Chris" in his final sprint which gave him a comfortable margin at the finish of the race.

JUNIOR "PROM" WAS A GREAT SUCCESS

Juniors Continue Custom of Pre-War Prom—House Party Guests Enjoy Formal Dance

The annual Junior "Prom" was held on Friday evening, May 16, at 8.00 o'clock in the college gymnasium and was attended by approximately 140 couples. Palms in the center of the floor and evenly distributed about the hall, together with the blue and white streamers which floated idly over head and the banners of various college organizations transformed the gym into a pleasant place for "tripping the light fantastic toe."

Music was furnished by Hick's Orchestra of Boston and a fine concert program was rendered before the dancing began. The merry strains of music were good to listen to and the new gym floor was much appreciated by all who have known the old one.

The dance, according to custom was formal and was the first formal dance to be held at New Hampshire since (Continued on Page Three.)

FRESHMEN TRIM GODDARD.

The Freshmen nine won their second victory Thursday, May 15, at the expense of Goddard Seminary, 7-3. "Crap" Brackett had his usual line, coaching the visitors and remonstrating with the umpire. The freshmen, with the aid of Broderick, Smith, Rumazza and Harris, played good ball, slugging the pill for nine hits including two home runs by Marsh and Rumazza. Carpenter also got two safeties. Broderick was in luck, reaching first three times on free tickets and sacrificing his fourth. The freshies started right out by getting three when Broderick got hit, stopping at second on Keane's single. After a double steal, Rumazza cleaned up with a fine homer to left center. Gourley and Howard played good ball for Goddard.

The score:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
1922,	3	1	1	0	0	0	2	x	—7
Goddard,	0	2	1	0	0	0	0	0	—3

Batteries, 1922: Martin, Smith; Goddard: Howard, Lassi. Umpire, McKay.

NOTICE.

If there are any changes to be made in the lists of the War Records Committee, please notify the "New Hampshire" at once. Men who were in the O. T. C. especially are requested to see that they are so classified in the lists.

"DOC" BELL, '18 TALKS AT CHAPEL

Ex-Football Star Tells
Of His War Adventures

AMUSES AUDIENCE

Tells of Meeting Alumni Over There—Relates Tales of Battlefield—Was Near at Hand at Time of "Dad" Booma's Death

Lieutenant E. L. Bell, Jr., ex-'18, spoke on his experience in France at Convocation, Wednesday, May 14. Lieut. Bell has probably seen more fighting than any other New Hampshire student except perhaps Colonel C. A. Hunt. He left the United States late in 1917 and returned about a month ago. Lieut. Bell's father, Dr. E. L. Bell, and his brother, Capt. Leslie Bell, '20, have also been in France.

At Convocation Lieut. Bell said in part:

"It is indeed a great honor for me to come back and have the pleasure of addressing you. It is an honor which I never thought I should have. It is one of those tricks either of fate or of Professor Whoriskey's.

"After I left New York I went to Liverpool. The first thing I noticed there was the scarcity of food. I stayed in England about ten days and then went to France. I had been worrying about what we were going to have to eat, but there was plenty of food there."

In France Lieut. Bell was ordered to duty with the 165th Infantry, 42nd Division. In this division he met many prominent athletes from American colleges. There were George Berrian from Brown, Captain Brooks from Colgate and Red Wilkinson from Syracuse, who were on All-American teams.

In February, 1918, Lieut. Bell saw his first fighting. He was sent out near Luneville with fifty-four men and four machine guns. Twenty-three of his men and one officer were buried alive in a dugout, these were the first casualties of his regiment. Shortly after, they were relieved by the 77th Division from New York and went back to Luneville. The day they moved out a German machine dropped a message down to them. It was: "Goodbye 42nd. Welcome 77th."

BOOMA'S DEATH

At the Champagne sector in July Bell met a lieutenant from the 151st Artillery, who had been with Lieut. Frank Booma at the time he was killed. Lieut. Booma was in a trench with three other officers, two of these officers were killed also, while the third—who told the story—was wounded.

After leaving Champagne Lieut. Bell's regiment was sent to Chateau Thierry to relieve the 26th Division of N. E. Here on the 26th of July he was ordered to cross a river to the little town of Seicheprey from which the Prussian Guards were driven seven times.

"A little later," Lieut. Bell continued, "I went to Paris for a rest. I stayed at the Hotel Continental. I left the hotel on a Sunday night, and an hour after I left my father registered there. We were greatly disappointed to miss seeing each other.

PROTEGE KILLED

"While at Luneville some Americans were sent 'sight-seeing.' I had with me an orderly named Hauskey—a boy of German descent—who had been at Chateau Thierry. A battery of Austrian 88 was doing heavy damage to our infantry. I was looking for the battery when a sniper appeared. The boy-orderly said, 'You'd better get down, Lieutenant, or they are going to get you.' He jumped up in front of me and tried to push me back—receiving at the same time a shot in the face—dying for me. Later I think he was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor.

WEDDING ENDS WAR ROMANCE

"Ed." Downing, '15, Takes As War Bride Girl Who Nursed Him Back to Life—Alumni Hold Get-together at Beaune, France

Edward H. Downing, '15, of Alton, N. H., has married the French girl who nursed him back to life when he was ill with a serious attack of influenza and rheumatic fever, while in France. The girl is Jeanne Rouquette Valleton, the only daughter of Monsieur and Madame Rouquette, a wealthy merchant of Bordeaux, France. She has a little son, three years old, by her first husband who lost his life in this war. At the time of Downing's illness she was a successful milliner in Bordeaux and later in Paullac, France, devoting her extra time to the relieving of suffering among the soldiers. It was during one of her acts of mercy that she met Edward Downing, took him to her own home and gave him the attention of a trained nurse.

Edward H. Downing attended New Hampshire College for two years and was in the 1915 class. He was a member of the Beta Phi fraternity. He left New Hampshire to attend the Wentworth Institute, Boston. He was called into active service in the Naval Reserves, November 19, 1917, at the Charlestown Navy Yard as first machinist's mate. He was here three months on boat patrol duty around Boston harbor and then went to Columbia University in the aviation service, January, 1918. In March he was transferred to Detroit to receive special instruction concerning the Liberty Motor Co. Completing his course he was transferred to Philadelphia where he received a rating of warrant machinist. He went to France in May, 1918, where he was given charge of all the repair work on Liberty motors for France, which was carried out in Panillac, Gironde, France, the main naval aviation station. It was while serving in this line of duty that he incurred the serious illness which nearly cost him his life. He was nursed by the girl who later became his war bride until he was able to return to this country November 17, 1918, on the U. S. S. Northern Pacific. He convalesced in several American hospitals until last month when he was allowed to return to his home in Alton, N. H. His bride-to-be arrived in New York on the U. S. S. Chicago, Sunday, April 27 and they were married in Alton the following day by the Rev. Burt Leon Yorke, pastor of the Congregational church.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Downing are to live in Alton where he is to take up his former position in the garage there.

Charles B. Durgin, '18, is employed at the United States Fixed Nitrogen Research Laboratories in Washington, D. C. His address is 1422 Webster St., Washington, D. C. He was commissioned second lieutenant before he was discharged from the army.

G. N. Elam was a member of the medical corps of the army as a private and was stationed at the Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D. C., before his death.

Carleton B. Came, '17, has been discharged from the service and has resumed his old position with the Bureau of Standards, Washington, D. C. W. O. Robinson, '05, has been discharged from the army and has returned to the Bureau of Soils, Washington, D. C.

E. S. Ross, '17, has a position with the Charlotte Chemical Company of Charlotte, North Carolina, in the capacity of research chemist.

L. C. Hayes, '09, was promoted to sergeant before he left France.

Reuben S. Groves, 2-yr. '14, was given undue honors in a previous issue of "The New Hampshire." He is not a second lieutenant but only a first class private in the army.

John H. Rollins, '17 has a position with a rubber company in Ohio.

Captain D. P. Crockett, '16, was instrumental in providing a "Chat and Banquet" with eight other N. H. C. men at Beaune, France, last month. Among the guests were G. R. Booth, '21, E. A. Wiggin, '17, N. F. Whippen, '18, W. A. Megrath, 2-yr. '16,

E. D. Joslyn, 2-yr. '16, H. J. Whitcomb, 2 -yr. '16, D. E. Carleton, 2-yr. '16, and J. A. Purington, '17. Lester E. Merrill, '18, who is also at Beaune was called away so that he was unable to enjoy the get-together with the others. The menu included soup, ham, eggs, French fried potatoes, radishes, cake, raisin pie, tarts, coffee, bread and butter. It is said that the Q. M. C. belt with all its extensions wasn't big enough when the boys got through. The meal was topped off with the reading of one of "Aunt Lotie" Thompson's circular letters by Captain Crockett followed by a discussion until after midnight of New Hampshire college, its doings and its people.

Lieut. W. T. Tapley, '17, was met by J. A. Purington, '17, while the latter was on his way back to Paris after a short furlough. Lieut. Tapley at that time was returning to a school.

J. A. Purington, '17, will not return with his unit which left this month for the states. Purington does not expect to leave France until the end of the school term, July 1. He has been instructor in Farm Crops at the A. E. F. school since April 2. The school is situated on the rivers Saone and Loire, on the Allerey side. Across the river is the town and little village of Verdun. His address is A. E. F. University, A. P. O. No. 909, Beaune, France.

FURTHER HONORS FOR COLONEL C. A. HUNT, '01.

Grand Quartier Général des Armées Françaises de l'Est, Etat-Major, Bureau du Personnel (Decorations.) Order No. 13,978, "D" (Extract)
With the approval of the Commander-in-Chief of the American Expeditionary Forces in France, the Marshal of France, Commander-in-Chief of the French Armies of the East Cities in this Army Order:

The 18th United States Infantry: "Magnificent assault regiment, animated with an ardent aggressive spirit. On July 18th, under the energetic impulse of its commander, Colonel Frank Parker, this regiment won the admiration of its neighboring units, taking in severe combat and with the utmost steadiness all objectives which had been assigned to it." "Despite heavy losses, continued on the following days to evince the same aggressiveness and the same determination in its attacks."

"In October, 1918, under the able command of Colonel Charles A. Hunt assisted by his able group of splendid officers animated with the same spirit of sacrifice, this regiment delivered most energetic assaults against strongly defended positions, continuously driving back the enemy and imposing upon him its determined will to conquer."

At General Headquarters, Mar. 4, 1919. The Marshal, Commander-in-Chief of the French Armies of the East. Petain.
Official: The Lieutenant Colonel, Chief of the Personnel Bureau, (Signed) Lallemand.

FINAL LECTURE COURSE NUMBER

Ladies' Philanthropic Orchestra of Boston to Present Musical Program—Well Selected Artists

On May 29th the final lecture course number is to be offered. For this entertainment the Ladies' Philharmonic Orchestra of Boston, with Rulon Robinson, tenor, conducted by Hazel Clark, will present a concert.

The Ladies' Philharmonic Orchestra has appeared twice in Boston Symphony Hall, twice at Jordan Hall, twice at the Boston City Club, at Newburyport, Worcester, Manchester, N. H., and many other of the principal centers of New England. The musicians comprising this organization are all selected because of their excellence and in every instance are soloists.

Hazel Clark, the conductor, will be remembered for her splendid work as soloist at the last concert on May 7th and will undoubtedly receive a warm welcome. Rulon Robinson, the tenor, is one of Boston's younger artists. His voice is lyric in quality but at the same time possesses brilliancy and smoothness. His range is unusual and it will be a pleasure to hear this singer render his offerings in a manner in keeping with his reputation.

The program in detail will be as follows:

Star Spangled Banner
March, Bagdad,	Herbert
Overture, Raymond,	Thomas
Tenor Solo, Aria from Elisir d'Amore,	Donizetti
Waltz, Ballscenen,	Czibulka
Popular Melodies,
Ja-Da

Wandering Minstrel,	Sullivan
Thou Art Like Unto a Flower,	Chadwick
Chorus Gentlemen,	Lohr
Fair Tales,	Komiza
Petit Pas,	udessi
Stars and Stripes,	Sousa

BLUE AND WHITE TO PLAY SPRINGFIELD AT DOVER.

On Memorial Day, May 30th, the New Hampshire College base ball team will play Springfield Y. M. C. A. College at Central Park, Dover. Springfield has a well balanced team and with the Blue and White in good condition a great game should be in order.

The game will start at 3.00 and Coach Cowell hopes that every student will make plans to attend. The train which leaves Durham at 2.14 will allow plenty of time for all to reach the park before the contest starts. Unless an extra inning game results all will be able to reach Durham on the 5.33 train from Dover.

A. A. tickets are good for this game and this will be an opportunity for all to show college loyalty and spirit. Let every one make an attempt to be at the game and help the team to win.

B. C. WINS FROM NEW HAMPSHIRE

Pitcher's Battle Results in Win for
Maroon and Gold—Score 3-0—
Blue and White Played Good
Ball

New Hampshire lost to the strong Boston College nine last Tuesday, 3-0. It was a close game and the outcome was not certain until the last man was out in the ninth. The Blue and White almost started a rally in the ninth, when Davis smashed a hard single to left center but was marooned there when Lorden and Anderson died at first. B. C. played errorless ball and N. H. made but three. Andie pitched a fine game, holding the Boston sluggers to but three hits. Both pitchers fielded nice games, Fitzpatrick getting eight assists and Anderson nine. Davis, Rumazza, and Broderick played excellent ball for N. H., while Fitzpatrick and Dempsey gave the best exhibition for B. C.

TEACHERS' UNIONS HAVE RAPID GROWTH.

The May number of School Life points out the fact that there is taking place at the present time a rapid growth in the number of teachers' unions throughout the United States. Since July 1st, 1918, the number affiliated with the American Federation of Labor has increased from 23 to 72, and they are distributed from the Pacific to the Atlantic, and from the Gulf to Canada. In some cities the unions represent 91 per cent. membership of the teachers. The movement has also made some headway in several universities of the country. "Among the chief aims of the teachers' unions," says Dr. Stillman of Chicago, President of the American Federation of Teachers, "are democratization of the schools and fair working conditions for teachers."

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

The Sunday dinner was the final event of a very pleasant party at the A. T. O. House. Guests were entertained at the House for lunch and dinners. Canoeing, tennis and pool games filled in every spare moment between festivities. On Saturday the party motored to the beach for a picnic. Rain prevented the lawn party on Saturday night so there was informal dancing at the house, and a lively search for favors which were attached to the ends of long tangled strings.

Chaperones were President and Mrs. R. D. Hetzel, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson of Portsmouth, Prof. and Mrs. W. H. Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Cleveland. Alumni present were, R. B. Emery, ex-'19; R. C. Whitman, ex-
