PAN HELLENIC PARTY SUCCESS

Children's Party is Enjoyed by College Women

Girls Adopt as YCWS Project at International Affair—Many Features in Program

Prepared at 6:40 o'clock, Wednesday evening, last week, the International Denomination in "T," Pan Hel­lenic Fraternity, which was held in the upper dormitory, and by girls who adopt a children's party project for YCWS activities.

The party was the first of the season, a great many women, with white aprons bearing orange leaves, attended with great joy. The party was arranged in two parts: the first was a "skirt" hurricane, and the second was the children's party proper.

The hurricane was the most interesting part of the evening, Miss Helen Chase, who called for six volunteers, gave the young girls in aprons a chance to display their skills.

The children's party was the most enjoyable part of the evening, and was well attended.

GREETING AND WELCOMING THE FRATERNAL STUDENTS

The freshman council meeting on the stage, was followed by a welcome address from President H. T. Leavitt, Assistant Professor of Physics, who read the opening number on the program.

The program then continued with a dance, and after the dance, the students were dismissed to their rooms.

DINNER ENSUING

The dinner ensuing was under the direction of Miss Miriam Chase, who called for six guests. The dinner was well attended, and the guests were served with great pleasure.

The dinner was followed by the presentation of a scrapbook, which was given to the students as a memento of their visit.

The scrapbook contained many pictures and autographs of the students who had been present at the dinner.

HANDBOOKS ARE NOW READY FOR DISTRIBUTION

In the hands of the students, the handbook was being distributed by Miss Mary Jane Brown, who held a corresponding number. Members of the faculty who had been present were also given copies of the handbook.

At the same time, the students were instructed to keep them back to the hall on the next day, and that they would be given a copy of the handbook for their use.

"We have," was the reply of the students, "enjoyed the dinner very much, and we hope to have another one next week."

"Just as we have," was the reply of the students, "enjoyed the dinner very much, and we hope to have another one next week."
