Worcester Men Win By Wheeling Comeback—Pickwick Stays for Tack Quinlan—Questionable Decision in Game With Norwood Team—Casey, Anderson, Tubman, Perry and Bell for Star Team

In the most exciting basketball game of the year to date, a 10 to 8 decision was given the visiting Aggies by a score of 13 to 23 on Saturday afternoon. The game was played in front of a large and enthusiastic audience, and was a thrilling battle of skill and strategy.

The Aggies, however, seemed to be in the running. With P. C. Gale, playing splendidly, and the blue and white team handicapped by the conditions, the Aggies were in the lead throughout the game. The final score was 13 to 23, with the Aggies winning the game.

The Aggies were led by P. C. Gale, who scored 10 points, and T. J. Twomey, who scored 5 points. The blue and white team was led by R. A. Hinkley, who scored 8 points, and J. Warren, who scored 7 points.

In the second half, the Aggies continued to play well, and with the score tied at 13, they took the lead with a shot from T. J. Twomey. The blue and white team then made a comeback, and with the score tied at 23, the game was called.

The February issue of the "Profile," which appeared on February 15, shows how the Alumni members were back for a business meeting of the Hecate Club, Wednesday, February 18. The trio consisted of Miss Eichorn, Miss Alice Eppehimer, and Miss Alice Nettles. The latter especially amused the audience with her rollicking humor and her apparent ability to play the piano with her in her natural environment.

Did You Attend The New York Alumni Dinner Dance of 1920? Read This!

Were you one of the happy bunch who made up the first dinner dance of the New York Branch of the New Hampshire College Alumni Association? If you were not there at the time you have lost an opportunity that few others have had to share. Now's your chance to read about what you missed. You have received notice of the way in which the evening was arranged and you have been promised to join in the fun among your old-time college friends.

The program was arranged to bring out as much as possible of the old-time house party atmosphere. As excellent dinner music, that will suit your style, and dancing to your heart's content. In short four hours of food, fun, and fellowship. There will also be an election of a president to succeed H. R. Pidd, '12, who has resigned.

If possible, bring your wife, husband, or sweetheart, but come and enjoy.

APPLYING THEORY

Westinghouse, putting theory into practice, has employed the ablest technical graduates of the engineering schools of the country.

Annually over two hundred picked electrical and mechanical engineers are trained. Before their analytical minds the field of electrical practice is systematically reviewed. As a result, the students are able to carry on practical work, which they can elevate into achievement.

In this way the directing minds of the company, with their knowledge of Westinghouse-built engineering thinkers put where they can achieve the greatest results.

Bulletins descriptive of the various lines of work and the young engineering graduates obtain positions with the company will be gladly furnished.
