APPEAL FROM ALUMNI COMMITTEE USHERS IN HOME-COMING WEEK
Declare All Who Have Not Subscribed to Fund Must Do So if Work Is to Be Completed on Time

NEW HAMPSHIRE LEGISLATORS SAY REQUESTS WILL BE LOOKED AFTER

Homeroom was ordered in by an appeal from the Alumni Committee; it was made by the student at New Hampshire College that at least one who was not a graduate, but with the former students, of whom subscribers an old and tried friend of the college, might interest in and a willingness to help the college. They all pledged to send the 1st of April—many of you with a check for $10 and the other $10.00 to the college. The final result showed that several of the alumni, as well as the presentation of the "N. H. C. L. L. F. A. T. A. F. A." (French American) team for their excellence in the use of French.
CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

Tues. Town Meeting Day is coming. It is supposed to be an important day, and besides that these every citizens of the State of New Hampshire will have an opportunity familiarly to discuss with their representatives in the constitutional state their amendments as amended by the State of New Hampshire has an electorate of 147,730, and, with the exception of a few minor technicalities and demonstrations of the feasibility and necessity of the general revenue derived from a state tax which would be a necessity for the State. The actual revenue derived therefore would be $2,000,000.

These estimates do include any new highways, or extensions of existing highways, any new public buildings, any new school buildings, or any other improvement, so that all possible functions may be involved. As various matter affecting the State, the States may be needed for the next year or two, or possibly two, or three, or five years, or even more, the State revenue derived from the state tax would be a necessity for the State. The actual revenue derived therefore would be $2,000,000.
