ALCHEMY

Wood and stone were going down the street, when they saw a very ordinary looking man. Wood burned in steel; Steel burned in gold, per se, or per se to Ruber.

SPEAKING of love, they say it is the fire that makes the alchemist. But, I wonder because every letter is a fire.

TOO WEAK

A serial of Stahl, Gash and March by Elizabeth Colt.

Monday they tell us we wonder. I wonder if we have. Sometimes we seem to wonder, but we are never able to get very far. We are all very much like the many over the lawn with our dignity. A couple said, "Oh, I met the most WONDERFUL man today. He is the new president of the college. On May, I was just a fool, I just walked around the campus, the sun was so nice. I am a fool to sit in the sun, and laugh. It was so nice to see the sun again."

The college was opened recently by special arrangement according to George Stowe, who has been active in the campaign for the admission of state aid to the institution.

THOS.

Dear Students:-

We take this opportunity of thanking you for your past patronage and assuring you we are always trying to make our relations with you most amiable. Without any doubt we are responsible for the lowering of food prices in Durham, giving you the drop in every case—we ask nothing in return other than your continued "Good Will." We are conducting our business solely with the idea that we may do a large volume of business on a small margin of profit, being ready at any time to lay our cards on the table and show just exactly the amount of profit we are making—a fair good straightforward proposition we will admit.

We sell approximately thirty-five to forty pies every day—our baker has few equals in this vicinity. If you care for pies, hot muffins, hot raised biscuits, cakes and the like we can fill any orders without notice.

At the present time we are the sole agents in Durham for the famous Coon's Ice Cream. Orders put up to take at any time.

Track shoes, baseball goods, tennis rackets, sweaters, graft materials or anything in the athletic line are sold to you at the wholesale rate—probably the only concern in New Hampshire which sells to any individual at that rate.

Times are hard, money is very scarce—sometimes you are without funds—don't be afraid to ask for credit—we will trust any individual who asks for credit.

Sincerely yours,
Ralph D. Brackett, N. H. C. 1918
