Pin Three to One Defeat on Boston University

New Hampshire had little difficulty in handling Lowell Textile in a decisive beating last Wednesday. The game was over before the third inning but did not score again after that time.

The hitting of Clayton for the Visitors and the fielding of Butler and Reynolds stood out prominently in the game.

French books are a thing of the past in New Lebanon school. There is no longer a need for students to carry around books of any sort. Instead, they carry around a slip of paper with a number on it. The number represents the book they are supposed to be reading.

The University of Michigan is to have a Sunday college paper. The paper will contain syllables written by the students in the various departments.

Three hours after they write "At Last" on the lessons of their English composition, the students are unable to say "At Last."—Caldwell News.

At Dartmouth College they are rejecting young men who are not married.

Intelligence tests similar to those used by the army during the war will be used in classifying the new freshmen at the University of South Dakota College. The tests are designed to determine the ability of the students in reading, writing and mathematics, as well as their intelligence in general.

Croots at Northwestern university are learning new words as they go along when dining with a patient. They are learning new words from books, newspapers, magazines, and any other source at their disposal.

Dr. William E. Brown, of the Minneapolis Messenger, has given a series of talks on the subject of money. The talks were given on the occasion of the closing of the college year.
