Howard A. Rattis, '25, Chosen as Chairman of Committee Members Are Out to Make Them Feel at Home.

Plans for the annual college fair are getting under way and according to all indications it will be bigger and better than ever. As a matter of fact, they have been planning it for several weeks and will continue to do so as long as possible. The committee is composed of twenty-five students and has been chosen by the faculty of the college with the exception of the officers.

THE MAN BEHIND THE SCENES

He is not our purpose to enumerate all the various activities and leaves others apparently, to operate from behind the scenes for their fellow men but whose efforts are rarely recognized, the field of his work is peculiar in a large degree, "the man behind the movement."

FOR FIFTY-SECOND

OF COLLEGE

Class Day Will Feature Varied Program—Dynamic Club to Entertain During Breakfast—May Day Festival Will Surpass Professor's Expectations

In previous years commencement exercises have been adjourned after the laying of the cornerstone, but this year the order of exercises has been changed. The fund-raising program is in advance of the laying of the cornerstone, and arrangements are being made for a gala entertainment following for the fifty-second annual Commencement.

Annual Day, Saturday, June 10

The work of the "Kamp Kampanys," as the graduating class is known, is to be presented in the form of a dinner dance beginning at 8:00 p.m. on the evening of June 13. The proceeds from the entertainment will be used to help the expense of the Life Today Society, an organization for the purpose of fostering higher ideals among the students of the college.

KIMBROUGH CLASS HEADS LIST FROM LIBMAN

One of the functions of the college library is to promote the reading of good books. The student who has enjoyed the reading habit during his college years will find that he has acquired a valuable companion. A good book can give him relaxation and recreation in times of stress; it is interesting to read it and to pass it on to others.

The first table gives the number of books from the library classified by the type of fiction available: action and adventure, science fiction, mystery and detective novels, and other works. The second table gives the number of books from the library classified by the type of literature available: poetry, drama, biography, and history.

The third table gives the number of books from the library classified by the type of religion available: religious books, religious works, and non-religious works. The fourth table gives the number of books from the library classified by the type of language available: English, French, German, Spanish, and other languages.

The fifth table gives the number of books from the library classified by the type of art available: art books, art works, and art catalogues. The sixth table gives the number of books from the library classified by the type of music available: music books, music works, and music catalogues.
