DURHAM, N.H. - The Great Bay Coast Watch will hold its annual potluck Chili and Chowdah Fest at the Urban Forestry Center, 45 Elwyn Avenue, Portsmouth, on Friday, Nov. 14, from 5:30 - 7:30 p.m. Anyone interested in celebrating the Watch's 19th season is invited to attend.

The Watch, which is sponsored by NH Sea Grant and UNH Cooperative Extension, had a successful season thanks to its many volunteers. In addition to food and conversation, the Chili and Chowdah Fest will include the announcement of volunteer awards and a showing of the NH Chronicle television segment featuring the Watch from June 2008.

Beverages, breads and desserts will be provided. Those attending are encouraged to bring other items to share, including chili, chowder, appetizers or salads. Recipes for these items are encouraged as well. For more information or to RSVP for the potluck, please contact Great Bay Coast Watch coordinator Ann Reid at 603.749.1565 or ann.reid@unh.edu by Wednesday, November 12.
