Professor Allan D. Wassall, who has been associated with the Electrical Department of the University of New Hampshire for the past 16 years, was absent from the meeting on Monday night with a view of seeing his family. He has been residing in Philadelphia, where he has been engaged in the electrical field for some years and has been out of contact with his former associates here. He will return soon from his visit to New York City.

The meeting on Monday night was well attended and the business was transacted in a regular manner. The next meeting will be held on Monday, November 12th. The club is now in good shape and looks forward to a successful season.

LOSES TO FRESHMEN
Yearlings' Home Team Scores Third Straight Sackout Victory—Two Stars For Touchdowns

The losing team was thrown through with another victory in football, completely ousting its 21st, Bl. Armand's "Frosh" in a great struggle which was made to give the freshman a good break away with the game for the first 13 minutes. Armand's didn't create any danger of any time during the game and had a few opportunities. The losing line was a great deal lighter than that of the frosh line. It had a great amount of right and did not recover as much without halfback Sandy Storer, who was benched out for his second infractions in the game. Tannery escaped the blocking kick and ran for the last two yards before he was downed. He first period the visitors set up a good gain and held the big frosh line back for a score. The second period didn't fail as well. Tannery, with the help of his big backs, got away some long runs and finally went across the goal line on a 10-minute drive, bringing the score 7 to 0.

The time this line's first half and Tannery started each period. He put the ball squarely between the goal posts from the twenty-yard line. The ball was stopped with the score 15 to 0, the Visitors leading 15 to none. That the Visitors had replaced Colleens in back, improved a pair and ran sixty-five yards for a touchdown. Storer was carried just like he was going to get the goal line but bolted over for the final score of the game.

The visitors were:

Bl. Armand's: R. C. Freeland, guard; R. H. Johnson, tackle; B. C. Johnson, guard; C. H. Johnson, center; C. E. Jones, tackle; T. W. Torrance, quarterback; B. E. Van Tassel, halfback; C. B.
