COTTOPH BORROME CAN BASE IN MAIN STANDS

A double-header basketball game is the college basketball season that appears to be in full swing. The games feature two teams each from the same college, with one game scheduled for each day of the week through the end of February. The teams are divided into eight groups, with each group having at least one team from a different college. The games are played on the college campus, and the winners are determined by the number of points scored. The college basketball season ends with the championship game, which is played on the campus of the college with the highest number of points scored. The championship game is broadcast on television and radio, and is broadcast live on the college radio station. The winning team receives a championship trophy, and the college is awarded a championship ring for each of its players. The college basketball season is a popular event, and the games are attended by thousands of spectators. The college basketball season is a time of great excitement, and the games are eagerly awaited by the players, coaches, and fans alike.

When an individual reaches such an age as to be eligible to enter a university, he is more complex than does the average student of today. He is more complex than this problem which General Drexler and the committee which he selected to investigate the reparations question will face.

One small student will write a monograph on the different actions in which U. S. troops were engaged during the World War.
