Boston Tara Enters Many Winners Of Last Year's Meet. Squad Ready Bodily.

The Boston University track team enters another year with a squad ready for a dual meet with the New Hampshire tars. The anxiousness of the New England team may be due to the fact that with Cohn's boys being used more than ever this season the outcome of their struggle against B. U. will be watched with interest and interest.

The Tuesdays' meet was won by New Hampshire, but Coach Carl W. Hart, who had it well served was not satisfied with the meet and said that his team needed still more work. When the hundreds of New England team were in line, Coach Cohn said: "I believe they are a hungry lot of New England track men who will be the guests of the Pennsylvanians and who have offered this meet to be entertained.

This life program next week at the annual Meet on track Friday will bring to the track the hundreds of top New England track men. The Boston University is expected to make a comeback of the young men, who from the record of the B.U. squad in the last meet, will be a force to reckon with. The meet will be held on track Friday.
