The eighteenth amendment and the twentieth amendment have been brought about largely through the efforts of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, led by such women as Carrie Chapman Catt and others, who have been working for the past twenty years for the sake of woman suffrage. The National American Woman Suffrage Association was founded in 1890 and has had a membership of over a million women at various times. The organization has been working for the extension of the franchise to women and has been instrumental in the passage of the Nineteenth Amendment to the Constitution, which granted women the right to vote.

The National American Woman Suffrage Association has been involved in numerous activities to promote the cause of woman suffrage. It has conducted educational campaigns, lobbied Congress, and worked with state legislatures to pass suffrage laws. The organization has also supported candidates who are supportive of woman suffrage and has worked to elect them to office.

The National American Woman Suffrage Association has also been involved in international activities. It has worked to promote the cause of woman suffrage in other countries and has been involved in the work of the International Woman Suffrage Alliance. The International Woman Suffrage Alliance was founded in 1904 and has been working for the extension of the franchise to women in many countries around the world.

The National American Woman Suffrage Association has played a significant role in the history of woman suffrage. It has been instrumental in the passage of the Nineteenth Amendment to the Constitution and has been involved in numerous activities to promote the cause of woman suffrage. The organization continues to work for the extension of the franchise to women and for the advancement of women's rights.
SUCCESS TO THE SOPHOMORES
This article is not written in an attempt to suggest that there is the best in the New Hampshire of today, but it is written in the belief that the institution of higher education at the University be one of them.

The question of the University’s greatness is one that Yale has hit upon a real solution. Yet there is not enough interest in any department would result in an accurate judgment of things worthwhile, words, it is the salvaging of the smallest of details.

VANDALISM, NOTHING LESS
