Varsity Beats Conn. Aggies

Lose Three Games During Trip Through New York

Pitching Staff Weak

Providence College, New York Athletic Club and Fordham, Trip Varsity—Small Scores Indicate Close Games—Lack of Pitchers Responsible for Losses

The varsity baseball team returned from its New York trip last Sunday afternoon with one victory to its credit out of four games. The team on its trip played the strong Providence College nine and was nosed out of a victory by a six to five score on Wednesday, May 20. The next day the team journeyed to New York and beat the New York Athletic Club by a 10 to 6 score. Fordham was the next team to conquer the Durham aggregation and in this game the score stood 16 to 5 at the end of the ninth. Connecticut took the scalps of the New Hampshire team at Storrs on Saturday, May 23, by a seven to five score.

This trip is the biggest event on the baseball schedule and is one that all the team looks forward to each year. Coach Swasey took but four substitutes on this trip. Metcalf was brought along as general utility man and as an extra catcher, while Fudge, Drew, and Barnes were brought along as extra pitchers. The rest of the line-up was practically the same as in the preceding games of this season. Lose to Providence

The game played with the Providence College nine was probably the fastest game of the trip. It was a question, all during the game as to which team had the advantage. The runs piled in evenly for both teams. At the beginning of the ninth, with the score tied, it looked as though an extra inning would have to be played. A home run by the Providence team won the game and the team from New Hampshire was forced to suffer defeat in the first game of the trip. Garvin pitched a very good game; he was steady all the time and allowed few hits. The hits that were obtained from him were made at irregular intervals.

Defeat N. Y. A. C.

Thursday at New York the team was able to taste a victory and they walked all over the powerful New York Athletic Club that has gone through the season with very few losses and a great many victories. In this game there was seldom any doubt about the outcome. New Hampshire started in with a fast pitcher which greatly hindered the opposition. The varsity was also able to get into their good stick work which enabled them to send 10 men across the plate and to obtain a four run lead. Barnes did excellent work in this game. He pitched throughout and was never erratic.

Friday, Fordham put up a stiff fight for her supremacy. This was a fast game from the beginning and (Continued on page 3)

Lolly Pops To Be Sold By Y. W. C. A.

Drive to Be for Benefit of Missionary—Girls to Sell Before, Between and After Classes

Remember when you were a kid and you asked your mother for a penny to buy a lolly pop? And do you remember how much enjoyment you got out of it? And do you remember as you grew older how often you yearned for one of those old time "all day suckers"? And do you remember how your dignity prevented you from buying one and eating it in public? And do you remember how much you always missed those "good old days"? And do you know that in a few days, June third, to be exact, that you are going around this campus with a lolly pop sticking out of your mouth? And do you know that you are not going to allow your dignity to interfere with your pleasure because everybody is going to have one?

The truth is this. The Y.W.C.A. is conducting a drive, June 3, for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. Missionary, Blanch Best. There will be girls selling lolly pops before, between, and after, classes and everyone is going to buy at least one.

Scenery Feature of Spring Production of Mask and Dagger

Draperies Prove Effective Setting for Sheridan's "The School for Scandal" in Community House on May 20 and 21

The beauty and effectiveness of the drapes used as scenery in the Mask and Dagger production of Sheridan's classic, "The School for Scandal" on the nights of May 20 and 21 made the show one of the most distinctive in the history of the dramatic organization. The combination of lattice work and curtains designed and executed under the direction of Professor Hennessey and Louis Viola, '25, was a happy departure from the conventional flats of previous productions.

Mask and Dagger, under the direction of Mr. Hennessey, has produced several costume plays. The outstanding ones were last year's play "The Rivals" and this year's production "The School for Scandal", both by Richard Brinsley Sheridan. Both plays, "The School for Scandal" especially, are the finest examples of eighteenth century drama, abounding in satirical wit and comedy of the lightest sort. Both productions are difficult to play with an amateur cast because of the very lightness of the comedy. The cast for "The School for Scandal" showed the result of painstaking work on the part not only of the director but also of the cast, but lacked the polish which comes of inspired playing.

In addition to Professor Hennessey, the staff of production included Louis Viola, '25, Elroy Chase, '26, Glenroy Hamdy, '26 and Norman Berry, '27.

Faculty Members Attend Meeting of Academy of Science

Session of Leading Scientists of State Held at New London Last Week End

A large number of faculty members of the University of New Hampshire attended the sixth annual meeting of the New Hampshire Academy of Science held last Friday, Saturday and Sunday in New London, N. H. Addresses were delivered by some of the leading scientists and professors from both Dartmouth College and the University of New Hampshire.

Professor W. C. O'Kane, of the department of entomology here, retiring president of the Academy, gave the presidential address on Saturday evening, his subject being "The Open Mind". On Saturday afternoon papers were read by Edythe M. Tingley of the department of zoology on "Chemical Factors Limiting the Distribution of Food Fish"; and by Prof. J. M. Fuller on "Determining the Keeping Quality of Milk". In the evening Prof. D. C. Babcock of the History department, spoke on "A New Social Function for History"; and Prof. H. F. Rudd, Dr. J. W. Twente, and Dean A. N. French gave a symposium, "Can We Dispense With Instincts in Psychology, Education, and Social Science?" T. W. Kalijarvi was also one of the speakers.

Professor J. O. Wellman and D. G. Barton, '24, were elected to membership in the Academy.

A trip to the summit of Mt. Kearsarge on Sunday concluded the session.

Others from the University who attended the meeting were: Dr. G. N. Bauer, Mrs. Helen F. McLaughlin, Prof. and Mrs. C. F. Jackson, M. F. Crowell, Dr. Mabel M. Brown, Helen G. Cushing, Prof. J. H. Marceau, Prof. Harry Smith, and Dorothy Smith, '27.

Girls Play in Tennis Tournament

Much Interest in Elimination Contest for Cup Donated by Miss MacDonald

The first rounds of the women's interclass tennis tournament are being played this week on the Smith Hall court. Entries in each class are playing singles for class championship, the champions to play for the University championship. The winner is to receive a cup offered by Miss MacDonald. To win a match it is necessary for a player to win two sets out of three.

Captain Coughlin of the varsity track team sets up new record of 51 4-5 seconds in quarter for local track against Maine. The following week he lowered this mark by 1-5 of a second.

N. H. Scores at New Englands

Davis Wins First Place in Running Broad Jump

PEASLEE AND EVANS STAR

New Hampshire Track Team Scores 11 3-4 Points by Taking a First, Two Seconds, and a Third at Cambridge Meet

With the smallest representation in years the New Hampshire track team made the best score it has yet earned at the New Englands which were held at the Tech Field in Cambridge last week-end. Although New Hampshire qualified only three men in the meet, those three men managed to score one first, two seconds, and a tie for third place. Phil Davis, former captain of the track team, was the individual star of the team scoring five and three-quarters points. Evans and Peaslee each scored three points making the total 11 3-4 points. Undoubtedly the critics were surprised as Coach Sweet sent only a few men to the meet.

R. H. Evans broke the New Englands record for the javelin throw but he was the holder of the record for only one day. Riday of Wesleyan managed to better Evan's record by throwing the javelin 176 ft. 1 3-4 inches in the finals. Phil Davis jumped 22 ft. 11 1-4 in. for a first place in the broad jump and also tied for third place in the high jump. "Duke" Peaslee ran a pretty race against Lermond, the Boston College star two-miler, but was beaten in the last lap. Lermond, a runner of the first degree, won by 40 yards after sprinting the entire last lap. To win the race against Peaslee, Lermond broke the New England record by running the two miles in nine minutes and 33 seconds.

The meet finished in a tie between Bowdoin College and Boston College. Although New Hampshire placed seventh, both the coaches, Sweet and Cowell, were well pleased

Spring Meeting of Home Economics Association Here

About Fifty Teachers Convene at University—Addressed by President Hetzel and Faculty Members—Luncheon Served at Commons

The spring meeting of the New Hampshire Home Economics Association was held here last week. President Hetzel and several members of the university faculty addressed the meeting. About fifty members of the association were present for the meeting. Luncheon was served to them at the Commons Dining Hall. Following luncheon, reports of committees and various discussions were held. The addresses and business meetings were held in the Home Economics room on the main floor of Thompson Hall.

The program was as follows:

10.30—Meeting called to order by the president of the association, Mrs. Helen F. McLaughlin, Professor of Home Economics, University of New Hampshire.

10.45—Address of Welcome—President Ralph D. Hetzel.

11.15—Professionalism in Teaching—Dr. J. W. Twente, Prof. J. O. Wellman, Department of Education, University of New Hampshire.

11.45—Report of Committee on Revision of the state high school course of study in Home Economics—Chairman Miss Carrie A. Lyford, supervisor of teacher training in Home Economics.

12.30—Luncheon at University Commons.

1.30—Report of Sectional Meetings by district leaders.

with the showing. They were as surprised at the critics.

The next and final meet of the year against Mass. Aggies will take place next Saturday, May 30, at Durham. Mass. Aggies scored but three points in the New Englands, those points being scored by a second to Davis of New Hampshire in the broad jump.

Junior House Parties Called Most Successful in Many Years

Perley Breed's Orchestra Plays for Junior Prom in Gymnasium Beautifully Decorated for Event

FRATERNITIES HOLD HOUSE DANCES FOR GUESTS

Weather Man Is Kindly for Annual Junior Social Events—Parties at Many Nearby Resorts Feature of Week-End—Many Fair Visitors in Town to Attend Festivities

The gym lost its customary gaunt appearance under a wealth of novel decorations on last Friday night when the Class of 1926 extended its greetings to its guests at the Junior Promenade, the opening event of the annual House Parties. The walls were cloaked in evergreen and apple blossoms while overhead a canopy of pink and white streamers heightened the effect of an apple orchard in blossom-time. At one end of the building a double colonial staircase enclosed the orchestra in its gracefully curving arms. The stairs, erected purposely for the Prom, gave easy access to the balcony, as contrasted with the old unsightly stairs in the lobby of the gymnasium. The Committee achieved distinction not only in its decorations but also in its favors which were, for the ladies, feather fans with a choice of six colors, and for their escorts, billfolds in blue leather with the seal of the University in gold.

The function began at eight o'clock with a reception by the patrons and patronesses. At 8.30, Wendell Davis, president of the class, led the Grand March from the balcony, down the double stairs and across the floor. This was the first Prom in several years of which the march was a feature and its success was unquestioned. Dancing followed the march until one o'clock. Perley Breed's Colonial orchestra furnished the music.

The chaperones were: Captain and Mrs. Ayotte, Mr. and Mrs. Kendall, Dr. and Mrs. Richards, and Mr. and Mrs. Walsh.

The ushers were: Edward Blewett, John Cassily, Edward Henderson, Ellsworth Mitchell, and Edward Sweeney.

The Junior Prom committee consisted of Daniel Matthews, chairman, Marion Arthur, Winifred Scott, Wendell Davis, Clinton Currier, Laurence Jensen, Frank Kirk, Myron Leighton, Floyd MacDonald, Eugene Tetzlaff, and Edward Vatter.

The officers of the Junior class are: Wendell Davis, president, Winifred Scott, vice-president, Stanley King, treasurer, and Edna Henderson, secretary.

Annual Party of Theta Chi Held at Wolfboro

Zeta Chapter Theta Chi Fraternity held a most successful House Party at the Casino in Wolfboro, N. H. last Saturday night. The party arrived in Wolfboro at about seven o'clock. After a lunch and refreshments the annual dance was held in the Casino reception hall. A Sunday dinner was served at the fraternity home to the guests and the party broke up during the afternoon.

The chaperones for the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. DePew, and Mr. and Mrs. Hill. The guests were: Miss Penelope Ridgway, Newton Center, Mass.; Miss Emma Woodbury, Allston, Mass.; Miss Louise Caldwell, Malden, Mass.; Miss Mildred Nelson, Contoocook, N. H.; Miss Louise Blanchard, Tilton, N. H.; Miss Estelle Blanchard, Tilton, N. H.; Miss Katharine Crowley, Lawrence, Mass.; Miss Margaret Brown, Manchester, N.H.; Miss Marion Nims; Miss Winifred Soderlund; Miss Virginia McCrillis; Miss Alice Osgood; Miss Bea Noyes; Miss Rachel Davis; and Miss Willena Burpee.

S. A. E. Fraternity Dances at Harrisonia Manor

The principal event in the Sigma Alpha Epsilon House Party was a dinner and dance at Harrisonia Manor in Nashua. The house party began with the Junior Prom on Friday night and closed with a dinner in the chapter house on Sunday.

The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Peterman, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip B. Pasquale, and Mr. (Continued on page 2)

A. W. O. L.

Isn't it a relief? The New Hampshire is not crusading this week. There are no long and labored treatises for you to wade through. We are not attempting to revise the curriculum, the faculty, the administration, the town officials, nor the co-eds. Of course you do not have to read the editorials anyway, but generally you do because you want to know what we are "panning" out.

It's a relief to us too. When the New Hampshire comes out this week, ye editors can walk about the campus with heads up, a clear conscience and with the knowledge that no new enemies are prowling around for their scalps.

Of course we have not forgotten that the University should have a better and more consistent cut system; we still feel with the more enlightened members of the faculty that a two semester system is better than three terms; we acknowledge that the Liberal Arts curriculum might be overhauled; we hope that the point is never reached when the ENTIRE spring term is handed over to the army for the more intimate and intensive training of our lower classmen in the gentle, manly, and skillful art of war; we still are boosting better University spirit, higher scholarship, less frivolity, more application, and all the other "Better and More Worthwhile Things" for which a college paper is supposed to stand.

Oh yes, we still have knightly ambitions, but some of our best editorial writers are at the front with the army; others are recovering from the general lassitude which accompanies House Parties, and the rest are out strolling through the countryside where apple trees are in full bloom, the grass is at its greenest, and a warm sun makes gentle sloping hillsides a pleasant place to lie upon.

FROM OUR MAIL BAG

Dear Editor:

With the greatest plans progressing that have ever been suggested for the University, we have raised our hopes to the highest degree. We are all looking forward to the day when we can look at New Hampshire University as the greatest college in the east. We have all seen the models that have been exhibited in Thompson Hall and we are all proud of the great additions that are about to be built in the near future. But with progression we must have protection.

We now have, belonging to the university, one fire truck which is of the latest model and is equipped with the latest firefighting devices. But is this sufficient? It is absurd to think that the equipment on that one truck is sufficient to protect our campus as well as the whole town of Durham. What if the barracks should ignite and break out in flames? There is probably enough hose on that truck to cover one side of one building of the barracks. And in the mean time the other side is to be left to the mercy of the flames. In this event it is perfectly plausible that the entire buildings would be destroyed. Of course there would be the usual "bucket" brigades, but these would have little or no effect on the fire.

With so many wooden buildings on the campus and around the town it would seem advisable to protect them to a certain degree. The in-

SUMMER SCHOOL PLANS COMPLETE

Out of State Enrollment
Leads Local Response

CONVOCAION REQUIRED

Dr. Slobin Head of Session—Miss Salome Colby to Lead Girls' Recreational Activities

The plans for the 1925 Summer School have been progressing under the leadership of Dr. H. L. Slobin. Provision has been made for the social side of the session in a program mapped out by Prof. Perley. The steady increase in enrollment forecasts a successful season.

The out of state enrollment has been especially large so far and it is very wide spread. Applications have been received from as far south as the Carolinas. At the present time the enrollment of teachers far surpasses that of the students. That is an expected situation, however, as students are invariably slow in enrolling.

The Social Committee headed by Prof. Perley has planned an excellent recreational program which provides a variety of weekly get-togethers. Salome Colby, '25, has been appointed house president at the dormitory. She will have charge of physical education and will carry out the program of the Social Committee. The following is the program of recreation: Reception, July 1; Hike, July 10; Informal, July 17; Clambake, July 24; Water Sports, July 31.

A number of requests have been made for free hand drawing and the fine arts and so Mr. Paul Schram has been added to the Summer School faculty. Students who intend to take these subjects should notify Dr. Slobin as soon as possible in order that a time schedule for Mr. Schram's courses may be arranged.

An added feature this year will be required attendance at Convocation. This is not likely to prove any hardship, however, as the calibre of the speakers is such that they will be well worth hearing. They are all experts in their particular fields, and men who are much in demand as speakers in the various summer schools. Convocations will be open to the public and everyone is invited to attend. The following is a list of the speakers: Pres. R. D. Hetzel, University of New Hampshire; Prof. W. H. Burnham, Clark University; Prof. Crafts, '15, Columbia University; J. Adams Puffer, National Lecturer; C. C. Batchelder, Lecturer, New York University.

Dr. Slobin suggests that those students who have friends coming here next fall should tell them about the Summer School and advise them to take a course in it if possible. The transition from high school to college is a great one and many students flunk, not from a lack of ability, but from an error in the course elected. Flunking during the regular session means being dropped from college; flunking at Summer School does not. Dr. Slobin believes that Summer School is an excellent place for the prospective student to allocate himself and to discover what he is best fitted for.

ENGAGEMENT OF VIVIAN HEWITT, '23, ANNOUNCED

The engagement of Miss Vivian E. Hewitt and Mr. Carl N. Dickinson was recently announced. Miss Hewitt was of the class of 1923 and is the daughter of Dean Charles E. Hewitt, formerly of the College of Technology of this University. She is now head dietitian of the Laconia City Hospital, Laconia, N. H.

mates of the dormitories might escape with their lives if they were lucky, but what of the tremendous loss in buildings and personal belongings.

Before we start our building campaign, it would seem advisable that we should prepare for them so that when we do have them and if anything unforeseen comes up, such as a fire we will have the necessary devices for combating the flames. By doing this we will not only save valuable money that the people of the state have given us but we will probably be saving human lives.

The initial cost may be large but the ultimate savings will warrant such an outlay and we will be affording the future students of the university protection as well as proving to the people of the state that we realize the value of their money and efforts.

WORRIED, '27.

THE CYNICQUILL

THE WOMAN WHO WOULD BE QUEEN

(With the most profound genuflections to my friend Mr. Kipling for the title and to good old George for the form.)

I believe in quotations in prefacing any of my selections. In the first place they give the impression that I know an awful lot and in the second place they form a link between the subject matter of my little jottings which is often (according to some people) obscure and the title which, almost as often, needs as much handicap in the way of light as I can give it. So I looked these up in Bartlett (a charming volume by the bye) as an introduction to my theme, for your sake:

There was a woman and she was wise.—Ballads of a Chechako.

A woman in this humor.—King Richard the Third.

The voice of the turtle is heard in the land.—The Song of Solomon. (There is a masterly touch.)

Fools are my theme, let satire be my song.—English Bards.

Once upon a Time in one of our Large Cities there Dwelt a shy Maiden who Knew she had Charm. Every night as she Gazed on her Lovely Self reflected in the Triple Glass (that, gentle reader, is a most moral poet called the Manton) before Smearing on the Grease which Preserved her Coal Tar Complexion, she Cast about in what a Zoologist would have Called her Mind for New Fields to Conquer. For you must Know that in her Own Bailiwick this little Lassie was Considered by the Haut Ton, the Bon Ton, and Tout Le Monde à sa Femme, a Grande Dame. (You know, some People, our Very best Butter, have been Kind enough to Say that I am Positively Bi-lingual.)

At last the Lady had an Idea. College was the Place for Her, where, among the Simple Souls, She might be a Reigning Beauty. So one fine September day found Her in a Day Coach, with a Billet for Durham, a brand New pair of Ear-rings and Just Loads of Determination. She even Paralyzed the Brakeman with Her siren Lure and Consequently it was quite a shock to Her when she Stretched her Flesh colored Full Fashioned on the Platform in Mud-Burg and found herself Merely a Co-ed. But she had Been in Competition before and Her Technic was perfect. She knew that this Flapper Stuff was an exploded Theory and she Began by Practicing Reserve. During her freshman Sojourn she Managed to Give the Impression that She Was intelligent and the General Hand Down from Those That Know was that Bella was a Sweet little Kid and that she was Also thoroughly Conversant with her Vegetables. Be that As it May, when she Returned as a sophomore she Soon discovered that They had Changed the Rules, and that she Would have to Mingle in the Mele for What she Got. In the First place most of Her boy Chums of the Previous parade had been Translated to Another Sphere and she found herself Under the Necessity of Replenishing her Circle. In the second place Everybody came Back (those Who did Come back) quite Blase after a Summer of infinitely Various Femininity and her Bashful Sniggers received no Demands for Encores in the Drug Store Rodeo. In the Third place there was a New batch of Freshman Ponies and the Old Stagers were looking For Freshness. On the Whole the year was a Famine. Dear little Bella was Face to Face with the Earnestness of Life and the Exigencies forced her to become a Manageress. By a Lot of Chasing around and What-not she won a Reputation for Capability and was Given no end of Important Positions. All this helped Her Standing With the Home Folks but didn't add Particularly to the Savor of Things and Punch was what She was on the Outlook for. She came again the Next Year to meet a New set of Vicissitudes. She had Subjected her Style to a Close Scrutiny and she Knew she was a Great Deal Better. During this year she Made immense Strides. She enveloped Herself in Mystery and even the Cynical were Mildly Interested. It was in the Home stretch along in May that she Took to Going to an Outstanding Spot in New Hampshire's Thirteen Miles and—got Caught. The results were terrible. She couldn't Trot down to the Drug Store any more for her Noonday ice and Adulation, the Cinema was Verboten and as for Strolling with a Man—Oh Ma Ma. But even this Episode aided her Prestige and she felt that The Crown was hers to Hock wherever she Pleased. When she came to the End of her Salad Days she felt that She had Arrived, that she was a Total Success. Let us See what her Senior year held In Store for Her. You must Know that she no Longer looked at a freshman unless—well Unless. Freshman Females looked up to Her with awe and Trembling and called her The Big Finger. All in All her position was Unassailable. But it was Romance she was Looking for and all this Power didn't mean Much. For a Time she went in for Glamour but she Woke up with Pains in the Cerebellum and no great Acquisitions of Popularity. She looked back with Regret upon her Salad Days and resigned herself Perforce to the Generally accepted title of "The Woman Who Would Be Queen".

Moral: Don't dream.

PHI MU DELTA FRATERNITY
DANCES AT SUNTAUG INN

The program of the Phi Mu Delta Fraternity House party began with the Junior Prom on Friday night and ended with a shore picnic on Sunday. After breakfast in the chapter house on Saturday morning the guests of the fraternity and their escorts motored along the beaches to Boston and Marblehead for lunch. Saturday evening's program consisted of a dinner and dance at the Suntaug Inn in Lynnfield, Mass. Following the dance the party motored home. The house party closed with a shore picnic on Sunday. The guests were: Doris Heath, Wheaton College; Mildred Chaplin, Nashua; Marion Williams, Portsmouth; Fannie Spencer, Boston, Mass.; Doris Clark, Boston; Barbara Hunt, '26; Bertha Hill, '26; Ingeborg Laaby, '23; and Elliott Weiman, '26. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith and Lieutenant and Mrs. Alfred E. McKenny.

THETA UPSILON TRAVELS TO WOLFEBORO FOR PARTY

The evening of May 22 twelve couples from Theta Upsilon Omega Fraternity attended the Junior Prom at the big gym. The next day shortly after lunch twenty seven couples from the chapter started by automobile for Wolfboro, N. H. Dinner was served at the Elmwood Inn at 6.30 and dancing followed until eleven o'clock. Because the day was cold and inclement the guests were entertained at the chapter house.

The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Studley; Mr. and Mrs. Stolworthy; and Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Henderson. The other guests were: Helen Reid, '28; Margaret Flint, '28; Miss Thelma Newell, '27; Miss Elinor Sampson, '26; Miss Harriet Brady, '26; Miss Evelyn Bidwell, '26; Miss Marion Robinson, '26; Miss Irene Wentworth, '26; Miss Esther Eastman, '25; Miss Jean MacKenzie, Everett, Mass.; Mrs. E. S. Temple, Concord, N. H.; Miss Janet MacCollloch, Salem, Mass.; Miss C. M. Collins, Durham; Miss Irma Dunn, Manchester, N. H.; Miss A. Viola Carlson, Concord, N. H.; Miss Silberberg, Winthrop, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. L. Gordon, Keene, N. H.; Miss Rachel Stickney, Keene, N. H.; Miss Ruth Sweet, Concord, N. H.; Miss Ruth Collier, Lowell, Mass.; Miss Madeline Nudd, Hampton, N. H.

PHI ALPHAS GO TO DOVER
POINT FOR HOUSE PARTY

Phi Alpha Fraternity held a highly successful house party at Hilton Hall, Dover Point, Saturday, May 23. The hall was beautifully decorated in the fraternity colors—blue and maroon—with Japanese lanterns in the home and on the porch, beautiful favors bearing the fraternity seal were presented to the guests.

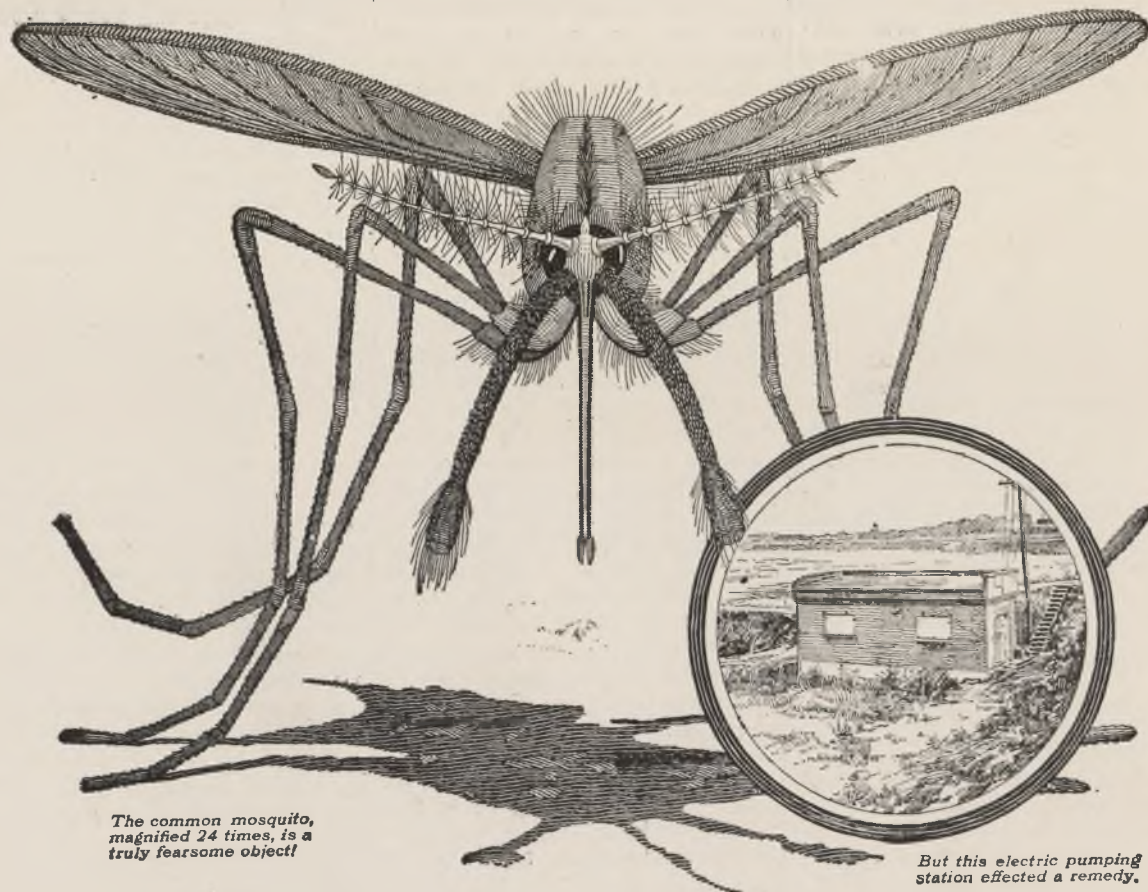

Music was furnished by Ben Bloomfield's orchestra.

The fraternity entertained the following guests: David Epstein and Doris Cohen, Boston, Mass.; David Levine, Winthrop, Mass. and Dorothy Halpern, Salem, Mass.; Samuel Dopkeen, Boston, Mass. and Marietta Newman, Peabody, Mass.; Matthew Cohen, Salem, Mass., and Sadye Sharausk, Gertrude Dworkin, Lawrence, Mass.; Anna Franks, Lawrence, Mass.; Elsie Gordon, Haverhill, Mass.; Lillian Rovin, Malden, Mass.; Ethel Riley, Medford, Mass.; Rose Simkin, Pittsfield, Mass.; Lena Cohen, Portsmouth; Betty Cohen, Portsmouth; Ida Sharausk, Portsmouth. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freedman of Lawrence, Mass.; Prof. Robert Manton, Dr. H. Snierston, Binghamton, N. Y.

TRI GAMMAS REPORT VERY SUCCESSFUL HOUSE PARTY

The Tri Gammas started their week-end by attending the Junior Prom, Friday night, and were well represented there. Saturday morning the boys prepared for the afternoon and evening. In the afternoon the automobiles were called out, one party journeying to Portland, Me., another to Kennebunkport and still a third to Ham's Cafe, Portsmouth, thence to Hampton Beach and Rochester. An informal tea was served in the house at 5.00 p. m.

The dance in the evening was a most enjoyable affair—everyone reporting the best time yet. Music was furnished by Miss Gladys. (Continued on page 4)

The common mosquito, magnified 24 times, is a truly fearsome object!

But this electric pumping station effected a remedy.

Do what Toledo did

Once Toledo had a nuisance, a tract of swamp land near the lake, a breeder of mosquitoes, foul odors and fogs.

Study what electricity is doing to make a better and happier America; remember that you will live in an electrical age, full of new services to humanity. The monogram "G-E" which you see above is placed on the epoch-making products of the General Electric Company.

If you are interested to learn more about what electricity is doing, write for Reprint No. AR391 containing a complete set of these advertisements.

But an automatic pumping station, equipped with motors made by the General Electric Company, turned the swamp into dry land—and abolished the menace to the city.

This is one example of what electricity can do. As you meet life's problems, think of electricity as a valiant and ever-ready ally.

ALUMNI DAY TO BE BEST EVER

Preliminary Interest Promises Big Celebration

RESERVATIONS TAKEN NOW

Class Parades Including Costumes and Bands to Take up Afternoon with Big Banquet and Jollification in Evening

The Committee on Alumni Day arrangements is holding weekly meetings and the reports which came in at the Tuesday night meeting indicate that on June 20th the Durham Campus will have more pep than it has ever witnessed.

Already many of the class organizers have placed orders for their class costumes. The class of 1923 have assured the committee that more than 75 of their number will be in costume and that the 1923 Scholarship Fund is going over the top. One or two classes are attempting to round up a class band for the alumni parade, and it is claimed that a big variety of novel stunts are to be on the afternoon program. It is sure that the afternoon will have more events than a three ring circus.

Rooms may be at a premium and it is suggested that all alumni communicate with Miss Edythe Tingley, '22, of Durham if they desire room reservations.

Lester Langley, '15, of Durham, is already on the job to make necessary accommodations for class luncheons during the noon hour and the class leaders will find all sorts of co-operation by getting in touch with him.

The Chairman of the committee, Prof. M. G. Eastman, '13, asks that reservations for the banquet be made at an early date. No guarantee can be made for any grad who has not made an advance banquet ticket reservation. The senior men and women will be the guests of the alumni at the banquet which begins at 6.30 P. M. President Hetzel and Prof. James Tufts of the Board of Trustees will address the alumni. The banquet will be over not later than 9.00 P. M. and thus permit many to drive to their homes the same night. Class stunts will be in order during and between the various courses of the banquet. The members of each class will be seated together and this will afford ample opportunity for a lot of life. It is expected that dining facilities for the full three hundred will be taxed to the limit, so all grads are cautioned to make reservations at once.

SEVENTEEN ELECTED TO HONORARY SENIOR SOCIETY

At a meeting of the Honorary Senior Society "Blue Key," 17 members of the class of 1926 were elected to membership. Blue Key was formed November 16, 1921 by a representative group headed by "Dutch" Connors, having for its purpose the fostering of worthwhile campus activities.

The following men were elected from the Class of 1926: Edward Y. Blewett, Alfred Smith, Lambda Chi Alpha; Charles Gray, Sherman Tarleton, Tri Gamma; Edward O'Connor, George Summerville, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Henry Applin, Gunnar Michelson, Eugene Tetzlaff, Theta Chi; Robert Nicora, Kappa Sigma; Fred Peaslee, Alpha Gamma Rho; Roswell Evans, Theta Upsilon Omega; Carl Garvin, Phi Mu Delta; Fred Fudge, Delta Pi Epsilon; Leslie Hubbard, George Twombly, Alpha Tau Omega; John Cassily, Non Fraternity.

ODD JOB SUPPLY EXCEEDS DEMAND

Y. M. C. A. Employment Bureau Hard Put to Find Men for Week-end Jobs—Many Positions Open For Summer Work

The announcement by the Y. M. C. A. authorities that men can not be procured to perform the many jobs which the Y. Employment Bureau attempts to fill, will undoubtedly surprise many residents of the local community who have been laboring under the impression that a large percentage of the students here are working their way through college. Mr. Joseph Barker, student pastor and secretary of the Y.M.C.A., reports that on the last three Saturdays, the "Y" has had to disappoint several applicants for student laborers, because no response has been received to the numerous advertisements and requests for workers which the association has made. Announcements have been made in Convocation and on many bulletin boards about the campus, but few answers have been returned.

During the fall term, 110 applications for work were filed with the employment bureau. Last term the number dropped to 42, while this time there are less than 40 names on the rolls. Mr. Barker explains this by saying that some of the workers have left college, while many others have obtained steady employment here. Many of the number who are enrolled for this term, do not have to work to live, but merely like to pick up some extra money when the occasion arises. If they wish to leave for the week-end or if there is some other attraction which they desire to see, it is difficult to obtain workers from their ranks for the Saturday afternoon jobs which are the most frequent opportunities which the "Y" has to offer. The "Y" also has many opportunities for summer work on file, and any student interested is urged to drop into the office for further information. The Employment Bureau intends to communicate with employers in Dover and Newmarket for student jobs for next year. The rate charged there will be 50 cents per hour.

Lester Langley, '15, of Durham, is already on the job to make necessary accommodations for class luncheons during the noon hour and the class leaders will find all sorts of co-operation by getting in touch with him.

The Chairman of the committee, Prof. M. G. Eastman, '13, asks that reservations for the banquet be made at an early date. ### FRESHMAN NINE TAKES NEW HAMPTON TEAM, 3-1

In one of the fastest and best games seen here this season, Coach Gustafson's freshman nine took the strong team from New Hampton Institute into camp by the score of 3-1. Slayton, in the box for the locals staged a pitchers battle with Rawlings from New Hampton, with both men about evenly matched. The visitors were unable to score until the ninth inning. Errors were plentiful on both sides. Several of the star players on the New Hampshire team intend to matriculate here next year.

NAME O'LEARY '20 FOR PRESIDENT OF GRAD GROUP

Nominating Committee Submit Three Candidates

TO ELECT N. H. TRUSTEE

Few Members Consent to Run for Office. Wason, '86, and Brown, '11, Nominees for Alumni Trustee

Ballots have been sent out to each member of the Alumni Association for the election of the officers of the association. Elections are held biennially, and the Nominating Committee has had an unusually difficult time this year to entice members of the Association to run for office. As a result, only one nominee for each office appears on the ballot. The election, then, is merely a perfunctory procedure to fulfill the obligations of the constitution, and the officers for the coming two years might well be congratulated now. The nominees include: Chris J. O'Leary, '20 of Norwood, Mass., for president of the Alumni Association; John S. Elliott, '15, Madbury, for vice president, and Howard A. Rollins, '23, Durham, for secretary-treasurer of the Association. The retiring officers are A. H. Brown, '11, of Strafford, N. H., F. D. Buckminster, '12, of Chicago, and G. A. Perley, '08 of Durham, N. H.

In addition to these offices, the position of Alumni Trustee of the University is being filled by a ballot among the Alumni. The nominees for this position are Edward H. Wason, '86, of Nashua, who has been a trustee of the institution since 1906, and A. H. Brown, '11, of Strafford, the retiring president of the Alumni Association. Biographical sketches of the two men, as printed on the ballots, is re-printed here. The Nominating Committee of the Association consists of J. T. Croghan, '08, H. F. Judkins, '11, and J. A. Tufts, Jr., '14. The ballots will not be opened and the results formally announced until the day of the annual meeting in June.

EDWARD HILLS WASON (Biographical Sketch)

Admitted to New Hampshire Bar, March, 1890. Member of the House of Representatives of New Hampshire for three terms, and a member of two Constitutional Conventions. Began practice of law at Nashua, August, 1890, elected to U. S. Congress, March 4, 1913. Member of Congress representing the 2nd New Hampshire Congressional District from 1913 to date. Member of the Board of Education of Nashua, N. H., six years and president thereof two years. Member of the Grange, Knights of Pythias, Elks, and Masonic Order, 32nd degree. Alumni Trustee University of New Hampshire since 1906.

ALBERT HUCKINS BROWN (Biographical Sketch)

Born Strafford, N. H., March 4, 1887. Graduated from Austin-Cate Academy, 1907, and from Agricultural Course at New Hampshire College in 1911. Taught school in first Vocational Agricultural School in Massachusetts for two years. Held town offices in Strafford for ten years.

N. H. NINE DEFEATS MASS. AGGIES, 8-6

Score Five Runs in Eighth Inning Rally in Victorious Tilt at Amherst

With Carl Garvin on the mound, the New Hampshire nine defeated Mass. Aggies, 8-6 at Amherst on Tuesday, May 26. The Mass. Aggie players outthit the team from Durham 11 to 7, but timely use of the stick with bunched hits, hung up five tallies for New Hampshire in the eighth inning, which proved to be too much of a lead for the Massachusetts Collegians to overcome. Temple for the opponents got three hits out of four times at bat for his team, one of them a double. Captain Campbell and Nicora starred for New Hampshire, the former stealing three bases and scoring two runs.

VARSITY BEATS CONN AGGIES

at the start of the game it looked as though New Hampshire was the equal of the Fordham nine. New Hampshire started the game off with a "bang" and on the first inning sent a man across the home plate for a run. This gave the team plenty of courage and the men maintained their lead until the end of the fourth. It was then that the New Hampshire pitcher "blew-up" and passed a great many men. Numerous hits were also recorded and in this inning the Fordham nine scored six runs. The varsity also managed to score another run in this inning. In the next inning

Trustee of Austin-Cate Academy. Elected to 1925 House of Representatives. President of the University of New Hampshire Alumni Association, 1921-1925. Past Officer of the Grange, Pomona Grange, Masons. Member of A. T. O., Alpha Zeta. Senior Skulls and Casque and Casket.

the home team again took advantage of the loose pitching of the New Hampshire team and scored 10 runs. In the fifth, sixth, and ninth, the varsity again scored one run, but the lead was too great to overcome and the game ended with Fordham leading by 11 runs.

Aggies Come Through

Saturday the team travelled to Storrs, Connecticut. This game was probably the hardest to lose of any as the New Hampshire team led until the first of the fourth when the "Aggies" got away to a batting spree and piled up five runs. The varsity drove in two runs in this inning but Connecticut still had a two run lead. In the fifth inning, both teams brought home two men. Wells relieved Mansfield in the sixth. From then on neither team scored again.

FOUR MEN TO GO TO SILVER BAY

New Hampshire Students to Attend "Y" Conference

EXPENSES REASONABLE

Finals May Be Given by Mr. Barker to Delegates from Here—Religious Leaders to Conduct Discussion Groups

Four students have already signed up with the Y.M.C.A. officers to attend the annual Silver Bay Conference from June 11 to 19, and it is hoped that at least ten men from New Hampshire will finally attend the big conference at the New York resort. The attendance of the New Hampshire students is dependent upon the consent of the deans of their colleges to excuse them from their final examinations which will be held here during that week; present plans call for the examinations to be given to the men at the Conference under the supervision of Mr. Joseph Barker, the local student pastor.

More than 600 men from over 74 of the leading colleges of the country attended the conference last year. The Conference offers tennis, baseball, track, swimming, canoeing, hikes, and various other outdoor sporting events to the visitors in addition to the various other attractions. A. Ray Petty, H. E. Fosdick, J. Stitt Wilson, Henry S. Coffin, Thomas Mott, Sherwood Eddy, and other well known religious leaders and speakers will conduct the meetings. The delegates are divided up into groups and discussions on the many subjects continually confronting the young man, particularly the college man, take place.

The expenses for the trip are extremely reasonable. The sum of $20.00 is charged for room and board, while a seven dollar registration fee covers all the incidental expenses. The Y.M.C.A. is anxious to get into touch with other young men who are interested in attending the Conference. The men already signed up are: Robert Folsom, '26, A. B. Roger, '26, L. A. Frost, '27, and Neil Proper, '28.

LAMBDA CHI HOLDS DANCE CHAPTER HOUSE SATURDAY

The Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity opened its House Party with a dinner at the chapter house on Friday evening after which the Junior Prom was attended. On Saturday the group, consisting of about 24 couples, enjoyed a picnic at a cottage in Wolfeboro on Lake Winnepesaukee returning to Durham for dinner and a formal dance at the fraternity house in the evening, the Blue Serenaders furnishing the music. The social events were concluded with a dinner party at the chapter home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kendall, Captain and Mrs. C. H. Pettie, and Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Sweet chaperoned the party which was attended by the following guests: Miss Adelaide Simpson of Newton, Mass.; Miss Anne Libby, Wolfeboro, N. H.; Miss Ruth Curtis, Haverhill, Mass.; Miss Marjorie Thompson, Athol, Mass.; Miss Evelyn Maxwell, Braintree, Mass.; Miss Eunice Norton, Newton, Mass.; Miss Eleanor Enslin, Beverly, Mass.; Miss Virginia Whitney, Marlboro, N. START NOVEL COLLECTION AT LOCAL LIBRARY

Beginning with the year 1920, Ralph D. Paine made it a custom to present the library with an autographed copy of all his works as they were published. He also autographed other books by him in the library's collections. These autographed books have all been withdrawn from circulation and will form the nucleus of a "Durham Authors' Collection." Other copies of the Paine books will be purchased as rapidly as funds allow and will be placed on the shelves for circulation.

Professor O'Kane has presented an autographed copy of his new book "Trails and Summits of the White Mountains" for the collection and has promised others. Miss Ryan and Mr. Stevens have presented copies of their poems and plays. It is hoped by the Librarian that all Durham authors will follow the example of Mr. Paine and the other authors who have made it possible to start the collection.
