ADVERTISING

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE, for the first time this year, will take a decided stand on the problem of advertising. Not that we suddenly find ourselves with a problem, but that we have arrived at the logical conclusion that there is a problem and that it should be faced. We believe that the time has arrived when this publication should forthwith look ahead, see that in advertising there are things that should be avoided, and work for the advancement of those factors that will add to the usefulness of this publication and its usefulness to the students of The University of New Hampshire.

Those business men have supported the Amoskeag Bank Building, Manchester, N. H.

Tennis or Tell?

This time it is not the nature of this collegiate atmosphere which are the factors that should be considered, but rather those who are concerned with the origin of the game and who make no distinction between the game and the sport. By and large, there is a great deal of sentiment among the players that the game should be considered a sport and not a pastime. The game is for all.

In the past, there have been few periodicals to publish the popular side of the game, and perhaps in the immediate future there may be, but certainly in the past there have been few periodicals to publish the popular side of the game. The game was a sport.

TENNIS OR TELL?

This is the time to get at this game and to make it a sport. The game is the main feature of this publication and its usefulness to the students of The University of New Hampshire.

Arizona

Those of us who had the privilege of knowing the Arizona team last year, knew that the season was a success. This year was even more successful, with fewer accidents, with more success, with more success, with more success.

The general regulations state that the Arizona team was not to be a city team, but that it was to be a state team. The Arizona team has been placed in the classification of state teams, and this year, they have been placed in the classification of state teams.
