“The absurd man is he who never changes.” Auguste Bartheleme, 1831. Why quote a hundred year old philosopher? Because, perhaps, it is time for me and other square dancers to change. At our Florida State Convention someone said that it is time for us to change. He mentioned the dreaded “C” word. Yes, I mean competition. I and most everyone I know dance for fun – not competition – but (and this hurts me) why not? The first question I hear when I enter a place with my square dance clothes on is, “Did you win?” Do an informal survey for yourself. After your next convention or dance, as you enter a restaurant someone may comment, “What a pretty costume,” usually followed by your reply about square dancing and usually they will ask, “Did you win?” Ballroom dancing is now an Olympic sport. Ballroom dancing requires thousands of dollars and years of training to even think about being competitive. If square dancing was made a competitive sport in school, well just think about the possibilities. Callerlab, ACA, Callers, are you listening? The problem becomes apparent at the onset. If such a program were initiated, where do the callers come from? Can you envision a competitive square dance program in every school? Can you envision programs where children want to dance and compete? As in Ballroom dancing many people continue to dance for recreation. The same would hold true for Square Dancing. The majority of us would continue to dance for fun. Consider the additional possibility, parents watching their children and wanting to learn. Consider local businesses sponsoring a school team to compete at state or national level. While all of this excites me, I still feel that trepidation of change. Will this activity I love become something new again? Over the years much has changed and in future years things will change again. This is true in business, life and dancing.
Your Roving Corners

Jim and Betsy are known as “Your Roving Corners” and have enjoyed dancing across the USA, China and Europe. They have developed a great fondness for dancing with dancers around the world. They have contributed a number of articles to American Square Dance.

We just read an editorial in last month’s Santa Clara Valley Prompter, (a Square Dance publication from Northern California.) The author said that square dancers are like a family. What a wonderful analysis of the good part of square dancing! (Are there any bad parts?) How like a family we all are! We have a wonderful extended family that reaches backward to the quadrille, early Appalachian dancing in the US and down through barn dancing and through Pappy Lloyd Shaw, the beginnings of Callerlab and to the present day. Square Dancing today reaches around the world, with clubs in almost every country on earth. German square dancers recently took our favorite activity to Russia where they assisted in forming new clubs and training dancers and callers.

The person who coined the phrase “Square Dancing is Friendship Set to Music” was certainly a genius! What a perfect description of square dancing! Europeans say, “Friendship is Square Dancing’s Greatest Reward.” Certainly the friends we make are among the greatest reward we get from our loved activity. It is important to continue to bring new people on board, to spread the word, to tell the world what a wonderful activity square dancing truly is! The friends we have formed through square dancing truly make our life worth living.

It is important for each of us to continue to dance, to continue to enjoy dancing, to continue to take advantage of all that square dancing offers.

To that end, we left Livingston, Texas on June 1, heading for the Texas Hill Country, to dance in and around Kerrville. As I write this in late May, we have great plans for the summer. We have several days of dancing scheduled before heading for “Big D” Dallas, where the Texas State Convention will be held in nearby Mesquite.

From Mesquite, we will wend our way North and West to Denver, Colorado, visiting various clubs along the way. The 53rd National Square Dance Convention... will be held in Denver on June 23, 24, 25, and 26. We are eagerly looking forward to seeing you and many other friends there. We are particularly interested in meeting with the leader of Denim and Lace, from Lamar, Colorado. This dance troop is composed of every school-aged youngster in Lamar—over 500 of them! Denim and Lace Seniors have performed at every National Square Dance Convention for over 10 years. This year, for the first time, every member of the troop will make the trip and perform! They are a perfect example of youth dancing at its best.

When the founder of Denim and Lace, Trudy Harmon, died of cancer several years ago, the club teetered, but did not topple, as others stepped forward and caught the torch and brought new leadership. The club specializes in “High Energy” dancing, a combination of square dancing and clogging.

There are many wonderful, heartwarming stories in square dancing, and more are created annually. One of our favorite activities at the National Convention is cementing our relationships with so many dancers. We enjoy walking down the halls, stopping again and again to meet, to greet, and to confirm again our love of one another.

We are deeply involved in the 54th National Square Dance Convention which will be in Portland, on June 22, 23, 24, and 25 of 2005. All the dancing will be in the beautiful, convenient, user friendly Oregon Convention Center. We recently received word of how many dancers will be coming from overseas. It appears that more international dancers will attend in 2005 than there have been in many years.

People will arrive in Portland by car, airplane, train, and motor home. A special caravan of motor homes and trailers will come from St. Louis, following the Lewis and Clark Trail. People who fly to Portland can catch the light rail Max Line at the airport to the Convention Center. A special Amtrak train will depart San Diego and gather dancers all the way up the Pacific Coast!

Many tours are planned for dancers in Portland. City tours, Mt. St. Helens tours, tours to the Colombia River Gorge, tours to Mt. Hood and many more. Numerous educational activities are scheduled for each day, and dancing, dancing, dancing! The 54th National Square Dance Convention in Portland will truly be a memorable event.

Following the convention, many dancers will embark on a cruise to Alaska! (See web site www.54NSDC.com for details.)

The National Square Dance Convention is a unifying activity for square dancing. It is the largest event annually in the United States that is operated and led totally by volunteers. It is truly Square Dancing’s greatest achievement. We hope to see you in 2005 Portland, Oregon. We will look for you!
Valley Trailers 50th Anniversary

On April 17 and 18, the Valley Trailers celebrated their 50th Anniversary with a fabulous weekend with Mike Seastrom, Tony Oxendine and Tim Marriner, with Cindy Mower cueing the rounds. The weekend started at the Glendale Civic Auditorium at 1:00pm on Saturday the 17th with an advanced (A1/A2) dance until 4:00pm. Then at 7:00pm, Mike, Tony, Tim and Cindy were back for a plus level dance until 11:00pm. If you have never seen these three superstars together, you have no idea how much fun you missed. The Saturday night dance was followed by an hour of entertainment, skits by Mike (and two unsuspecting dancers), Tony, Tim and Bob and Barbara Stephens. There was also singing by Tony, Tim and John Nash.

Then on Sunday, a trail out dance was held from 11:00am to 2:00pm at Wilkinson Senior Center, again featuring the same callers and cuer.

Unfortunately, the dance was not supported by any of the clubs and very few dancers from the San Fernando and Simi Valleys, however, dancers traveled from up and down the State of California and from other states in the southwest to help the Valley Trailers celebrate this milestone. Those in attendance all commented on what a wonderful and fun time they had and that they were glad they traveled the distance for this occasion.

It's Fun To Get Fit For Under A Fin

by Corben Geis

It's FUN! There’s no doubt about it, modern western square dancing is fun! What is FUN about square dancing? Finding FRIENDS UNBELIEVABLY NICE. The friends that you make and the corners you meet in the square dance world are totally remarkable and irreplaceable. Since I love to play with words, let's have FUN with the term “square dances” to list some of the sociable aspects and characteristics it provides and the health benefits it shares, both physically and mentally.

SOCIABILITY  DEXTERITY
QUIZZICAL  ALERTNESS
UNIQUENESS  NOSTALGIC
AGILENESS  COORDINATION
REMINISCING  EXERCISING
ENTERTAINMENT  SING-A-LONGS

It’s FITNESS at its best. Some folks will even comment on how much exercise they are getting in an evening of square dancing, unaware of the actual results the activity is providing for them. With square dancing, you are exercising the brain and the body simultaneously. You are getting a real work out without even realizing it because it is so much fun. Square dancing is a great cardiovascular exercise. Movement to music is melodious to the mind.

It’s FREE! Usually the first night or two of new classes are free fun nights. After that, for about five bucks, you and your partner are guaranteed a dance for a couple of hours. (F.Y.I. At a regular line dance, folks pay five dollars plus+ per person instead of $5 per couple. In addition you have to pay for your food and the instructor is rarely as entertaining as a square dance caller. At a square dance you’ll sometimes get round and line dancing included for no extra charge.) Cheap is expensive!

It’s Fun to get Fit for under a Fin ($5). Another great slogan for the square dance activity. I have used it for my advertising and lots of dancers enjoy the posters and flyers I create with this catchy phrase. Come up with some of your own personal propagandas, bandwagons and testimonials to attract all types of audiences.

Have fun!
YΣΔ of America

We are accustomed to the double square, the square and circle, the frog, music notes, etc. We accepted those symbols when the time was right. Perhaps the time is right, now, for “A symbol for Youth Dancers.”

The United Square Dancers of America have adopted the Greek Letters, YΣΔ, to represent the Youth Square Dancers. All of us have known for a long time that the name “Square” dancing has been a drawback in trying to attract youth. Especially youth in the city and urban areas where there are so many other “cool” things to do. We believe it is time to give Youth square dancing a “New Image.”

We have tried several things to change our image. We have changed our music to an upbeat, stepping out, get down sound. We have become very flexible in our thinking about what they can wear while dancing. We have worn stickers and dangles to let them know we would enjoy dancing with them. We have offered them scholarships, made a video and distributed it all over the United States and many parts of the world. We have all tried many things, some worked, some didn’t.

We are launching a campaign for youth to be identified with the Greek letters YΣΔ to be pronounced Upsilon Sigma Delta. These letters will represent the Youth Dancers of the United Square Dancers of America.

This campaign will be kicked off at the National Convention in Denver. We will accomplish it with tee shirts, dangles, patches, I.D. cards, badges, etc.

This same campaign could be introduced into schools, colleges or anywhere we find young people. Anywhere we can promote Youth Square Dancing.

There seems to be a mystic quality about Greek letters and their use with clubs and organizations...Sure this is way out, but if it attracted more kids to square dance, wouldn’t that be GREAT??!!

American Square Dance, July 2004
Are we squaring up with our new dancers? Several months ago we planted a new dancer garden and we certainly hope that your square dance garden is flourishing. Here are some good points of gardening in our square dance community.

1. First plant four rows of Peas:
   PRESENCE – Attend your club often
   PREPAREDNESS – Know your level of dancing
   PERSEVERANCE – Dance with new dancers
   PROMPTNESS – Get up & dance when the music starts

2. Next, plant three rows of Squash:
   SQUASH GOSSIP- Don't gossip about your members
   SQUASH CRITICISM- Leave your criticism at the door
   SQUASH INDIFFERENCE- Show interest in the club & the members

3. Now, put in three rows of Lettuce:
   LET US BE FAITHFUL – To our clubs & the members
   LET US OBEY RULES & REGULATIONS
   LET US SHOW FELLOWSHIP TO ONE ANOTHER

4. No garden is complete without Turnips:
   TURN UP for meetings
   TURN UP with a smile
   TURN UP with new ideas
   TURN UP with determination to make everything count for something good and worthwhile
   TURN UP on time

   Enjoy your new dancer garden. Share the fun and fellowship with all and watch it GROW...

Adam Christman, Caller Extraordinaire

Last night, May 21, we drove 60 miles to a square dance graduation. The caller had to go 82 miles.

“What’s unique about that?”

Well – notice, I didn’t say the caller had to drive 82 miles. He doesn’t have a driver’s license.

This caller, Adam Christman from Kalispell, just turned 13 years old. He started his club, The Montana Mavericks, in Plains when he was only 12. His mother, Lorrie, (a round dance instructor and cuer) is his chauffeur for the weekly 164 mile round trip.

Adam was square dancing before he was born. He started calling guest tips for our Club when he was about four years old. He couldn’t read yet.

He’s certainly a full-fledged caller now, and is a pleasure to listen and dance to.

Dixieland Swing (Cross Country) — CCCD 132
Art Mattews

Bourbon Street sound from a piano, clarinet, bass, horns, guitar and drums. Recorded in 3 keys. Check it out as a hoedown. The called track is remastered from a record recorded in the late 1950’s. Hds (Sds) Up & Back, Lead Right, Circle to a Line, Pass thru, Wheel Across, Star Thru, DoSaDo, Swing Thru 2X’s, Pass Thru, Swing Corner, Promenade.

No Place Like Hawaii (MacGregor) — MAC 2448CD
Al Stevens

An island sound from a guitar, accordian, bass, muted horns and xylophone with a percussion track. This one will add some sway to that Luau theme dance. Hds (Sds) Promenade Half, R & L Thru, Same Ladies Chain, Side Men Turn ‘Em, Half Sashay, All Circle, Swing the Corner, Promenade.

---

CD Hoedowns

Witch Doctor (C Bar C) — C-CCD 604
David Cox

An upbeat electronic, modern edge version of Witch Doctor. Check it out. Track 2 is an extended version. David calls easy A-2 on track 3. MP3 available.

Going To Arkansas / Quest (Pioneer) — PIO502CD

Going to Arkansas is a rhythm number with a guitar, electronic keyboard and percussion track. Quest is an upbeat number from a guitar, banjo and bass.

Dixie Hoedown / Fiddlers Dream-Chain Lightning (Black Mt Valley) — BMV3068CD

Dixie Hoedown is a traditional sound with a Dixieland feel from a banjo, fiddle, bass, guitar and drums. Fiddlers Dream has that Old Timey feel from a fiddle, bass and drums.

Turkey In The Straw (Coyote) — COY 805 CD
Don Coy

An updated version of an old standard. Banjo, mandolin, bass and drums. Don cues the Virginia Reel on the vocal track. A good CD for those party nights.

Scoot Back / Rollaway / Crossfire (Ozark Productions) — OP 0054CD
Mike Kelly

Three hoedowns for the price of one. All three are electronic arrangements. Check them out on your tape service for some variety. Mike calls Advanced on track 4 to the Crossfire music.

The record producers were busy this month getting releases out for the National Convention. Lots of good music. Check it out on your tape service. Hope everyone is having a great summer. It’s not too early to begin recruiting for your fall ‘new dancer’ sessions. Keep your dancing and calling FUN!

The Alliance of Round, Traditional and Square Dancing (ARTS)

In January of 2004, ACA’ S Viewpoint addressed the ARTS Alliance. ACA is proud to have participated for the past 24 months with many square, traditional and round dancing groups who have been meeting to form an organization called the ARTS to revitalize square dancing.

The ARTS Alliance concept was a by-product of the Callerlab Phoenix Plan, which was a study to determine why square dancing was declining in the numbers of dancers. The Phoenix Plan demonstrated that the decline was from changing life styles of groups like the Baby Boomers and Generations X and Y, rural image of square dancers, complicated entry program into square dancing, and the lack of sponsors. Formation meetings of the ARTS Alliance were held in Florida, Washington, D.C., Oklahoma City, and Orlando, Florida, and Portland, Oregon.

The ARTS Alliance mission is to generate public awareness and promote growth and acceptance of contemporary Square Round, and Traditional Folk dancing by encouraging and assisting in a coalition of allied dance groups. The ARTS Alliance will provide leadership and resources necessary to create an achievable marketing program. The ARTS Alliance will encourage, promote, and support healthy lifestyles through dance programs and events that provide fun and effective exercise for both mind and body, all within a unique system of social interactions.

What has the ARTS Alliance accomplished to date?
- Completed its organization actions including a Constitution and Bylaws and Articles of Incorporation

- Gained approval of a 501C3 Internal Revenue Service Non Profit/Tax Exempt Status.
- Elected Officers through October 2005
  President — Jim Maczko - U.S.A. West
  Vice President — Henry Israel — American Callers’ Association
  Treasurer — Edythe Webber — United Square Dancers of America
  Secretary — Jerry Reed - Callerlab.
- Conducted fund raising dances to help the ARTS get started in San Diego, California and in Montgomery, Alabama with others scheduled for Birmingham, Alabama, and Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.
- Developed a plan to attract and gain a corporate sponsorship to market square dancing to the non square dancing public.
- Developed a plan to attract and enhance the image of square dancing to one of fun, friendship and fellowship with exceptional health and social benefits.
- Developed a plan to seek and gain the assistance of professional fund raising companies to support the ARTS objectives.
- Developed a plan to seek and gain the support of a lobbyist organization with governmental and non-profit organizations.
- Conducting marketing research by doing a national survey to learn more about who are our “dancers.” Callerlab is conducting a demographic survey through its sources. United Square Dancers of America will be conducting a survey at the National Square Dance in Denver.
- Focus on solution to problems common to all member groups.
- Create a necessary image of unity that helps attract external support. The image of unity is coming to fruition.
- Limit itself to a few main issues not to the individual agendas of its members.
- To date eleven national dance organizations have joined the ARTS’
  These ARTS objectives are ambitious, critical and difficult to accomplish. The coming together of all the groups can make it happen. ACA is optimistic that in the long run, the ARTS Alliance leaders can effect a reversal in the decline of square dancing and views an optimistic future for square dancing. In support of the ARTS Alliance, ACA, through its newsletter, has urged its member callers to host fund raiser dances to help support the ARTS Alliance Initiatives. You may learn more about the ARTS by checking Arts-Dance.org.

Any individual, club, caller, or association who wishes to communicate his/her opinions on this subject or communicate their success story in recruiting is encouraged to contact the American Callers’ Association at Loulet@aol.com or Dr. Patrick Demerath at pdemerath@troyest.edu.

Until next time: Happy Dancing.
Let's open the column this month with a delightful circle mixer written by the late Jack Murtha of Sacramento, CA.

HI NEIGHBOR

By Jack Murtha

Formation: Couples facing counterclockwise around the hall with near hand joined. Opposite footwork for the man and the lady.

Record: Square Dancetime SD-500 or Jewel 700 “Hi Neighbor”

Routine:

Cues

Intro  - - - - - - - - , Walk forward

1-8  - Face & slide twice, - - - Walk forward

9-16  - Face & slide twice, - - Back away & clap

17-24  - - Move right & clap, - - Back away & clap

25-32  - - Move right & clap, - - Walk forward

Description

9-16 Repeat 1-8

17-24 Back away from your partner 4 steps. Clap your hands on the 4th step. Face diagonally to your right to face a new person and walk forward 4 steps. Clap the opposite person’s hands on the 4th step.

25-32 Repeat 17-24 and finish with the lady on the man’s right hand side facing counterclockwise around the hall. Each dancer has now moved two positions around the hall.

Notes: A clever addition to this routine is to have people wave to each other on beat 24 and say, “Hi”.

Heiner Fischle of Hanover, Germany sent an email last month alerting me to the fact that in the March EASY LEVEL column, I had inadvertently left out the first half of the dance, IRISH WASHERWOMAN, with the reason that the lyrics used the words that were there, primarily why the women were stamping their feet. Following is Heiner’s letter to me:

“Hello Bob,

I just got the March issue of ASD, and found there Irish Washerwoman. But you gave only the second half of the dance. The first half is:
All the ladies into the middle and stomp yer feet in time with the fiddle. Wash them clothes, wash them clean, now back out and form a ring. Circle left ....
That was the old way of washing: Throw the clothes on a sandy spot in a shallow river, and then stomp on them to work out the worst dirt. Of course, the ladies must raise the hem of the skirt while jigging, to avoid to get wet.”

Thanks Heiner. I’ll enjoy calling the dance again next March, knowing the significance of the stamping routine.

Note: The first half of the dance appeared in the past March issue.

Lori Morin of Chepachet, RI was listening to one of the late Dick Leger’s tapes and shared the following routine with me. It is a smoothy.

Formation: Square
Music:
Routine: Head pass thru, both turn right single file around one come into middle and all pass thru (left shoulder pass thru) Split the outside 2 3/4 both turn left around 1, come into the middle with a left hand star, Turn it to the corner, R & L Thru, Dive Thru, Square Thru 3, Allemande the Corner.

Note: You’ll have to do some teaching if you plan to use this one at a one-night-stand.

Bill Alkire of Wooster, OH shared the following contra with me several years ago and gave it a name that it did not deserve, I don’t believe, as it flows very smoothly and has never confused any of the many contra dancers for whom I have ever prompted. Bill named it - - -

BILL’S BLUNDER

Formation: Alternate duple. 1,3,5, etc. active and crossed over.
Music: Any 32 bar tune.

Routine:
A1 With the one below double balance and swing
A2 Face across the set, in lines go forward & back
   Right hand star once around, exactly once
B1 Gents loop out and the ladies chain
   Chain them back

That’s it for July.
See you next month.
Stay well and stay lucky.
In Memoriam - Rich Lock

Rich Lock passed away suddenly on February 5 at the age of 42. His short life was filled with much happiness from his family, friends, and round dancing. Rich loved the activity which was a big part of his and his sister Alison’s lives for 25 years. Beloved cuer and teachers, they choreographed many dances including “Any Dream 2000,” “It’s My Party,” and “Next Door to an Angel.”

Over 500 family members, friends, callers, cuers, and dancers attended his funeral service. When someone told Tim Crawford he was really a great guy for having come all the way from Canada for the funeral, he replied, “No, the really great guy is the reason why we are all here.”

On April 18, the Pen Del District held a benefit dance for Rich’s son, Justin. Kenny Farris called, and the cueing was done by Steve Bradt, Julie Dixon, Russ Booz and Dave Roberts. Over 26 squares were in attendance and more than $2,000 was raised.

To contribute to a fund set up for Rich and Dawn’s son, Justin, mail your check payable to the Justin R. Lock Education Fund to: Commerce Bank, 2600 MacDade Blvd., Holmes, PA 19043.

Condolence cards may be mailed to Dawn and Justin at 406 Urban Avenue, Norwood, PA 19074, and to Alison Lock DiObilda at 220 Monacy Road, Coatesville, PA 19320 or aldiobilda@aol.com.

We have been observing John and Anne Godsman’s efforts to market the 14th National Canadian Convention, Festival 2004, which will be held July 29, 30 and 31, 2004 in Calgary, Alberta, Canada. They are the Vice Chair in charge of Advertising and Publicity. For more information about the 14th National Canadian Convention please go to their website: www.festival2004.org or email: festival2004@cadvision.com or telephone 877-850-2004.

John and Anne placed “paid for” ads in many square and round dance publications in the United States. Apparently their efforts are paying off - 2249 people have registered for their convention as of May 12, 2004. On May 13, their registration chairmen received 39 registration forms in the mail! Not bad! They even have two dancers coming from Wisconsin, my home state!

We will report more details of the Godsman’s marketing the 14th Canadian National Convention in a future column.

Tom Rudebock reported that the 44th Ohio Square & Round Dance Convention was held May 7, 8 & 9, 2004 in Cleveland, Ohio. Total attendance was 1170 dancers, 21 round dance cuers, 40 square dance callers and several Country Western, Clogging and Contra leaders. Congratulations, Ohio! The Ohio State Corporation of Square Dance Clubs hosted a couple of ‘Mini Legacy’ sessions at the convention. Next year’s convention will be held on May 6 and 7, 2005 in Covington, Kentucky, near Cincinnati, Ohio.

We are trying something new in the Midwest to encourage more participation of out of state dancers at each state’s square and round dance convention. Each state’s publication is printing full page ads and registration forms for the other states’ conventions on a “no cost to the conventions” basis (reciprocating ads). The states involved in this marketing effort are: Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and Michigan. Cooperative marketing is probably the wave of the future. We will report the results of this effort in a future column. The price is right and the results should be interesting.

Our comments about the loss of clubs over the years based on information in several issues of the National Square Dance Directory generated a few phone calls and email messages. People are just not aware of the specifics concerning the decline of clubs as well as dancers because the change is gradual. A club here folds and a club there folds; a dancer here quits dancing and a dancer there quits dancing. And only when you look at the big picture do the statistics stand out and get our attention. The Square Dance Directory has loads of information and could be the resource for a major study of the decline of modern Western Square Dancing as we know it today. State and provincial organizations could do a study of their respective state or province by studying their state's or province's listing in several issues of the National Square Dance Directory. If you are not getting the National Square Dance Directory, you are missing a very valuable publication. They even offer lifetime subscriptions.

Modern Western Square Dancing (MWSD) is here to stay and the activity will never return to traditional square dancing. However, MWSD needs an overhaul or at least a major tune-up. MWSD has too many calls in its entrance programs (Mainstream where there are Mainstream clubs & Plus where there are no Mainstream clubs.) The problem of too many calls is made worse by callers calling Mainstream and Plus from all positions. And what happens? The new dancers vote with their feet and leave the activity. Why? Because square dancing is more of a continuous learning activity rather than a fun activity that many can do and enjoy. Only the “die-hards” stay. If this is what our leaders in the activity want, fine, but don’t expect to see any positive changes in our numbers. Continuous decline will continue until major changes are made. Some state that the “one floor concept” called square dancing is the answer. No, it is not the answer because the new dancer still has too many calls to learn. The current Community Dance Program (CDP) is what square dancing will eventually look like as we see it. Some say, well let’s go with the CDP concept. Unfortunately, CDP is an excellent solution to the activity’s problem but this solution does not have the acceptance factor from callers as well as most of today’s experienced dancers which is needed to get CDP to be a viable solution.

Solutions to real problems need to have high quality factors as well as high acceptance factors of those involved in the solution. Putting it another way, the current dancers and the current callers need to be involved in the problem solving process so that the solutions will be accepted by the current dancers and current callers.

Earlier I mentioned that dancing needs to be fun. If we asked ten different dancers what their definition of fun is, we would get ten different answers. Many current dancers probably feel that a dance has to have some vanilla plus calls in it in order for it to be fun. Some dancers really want to be challenged by the caller in order to have fun. What is your definition of fun? What is my definition of fun? Maybe we better go to Mr. Webster to get his definition. According to Mr. Webster, the primary definition of fun is “what provides amusement or enjoyment.” I guess that definition leaves nothing out - what you enjoy is fun.

As you can see the picture gets quite complicated. One would have to break down the “fun” activities into individual and group activities. Fun to Carolyn and me as round dancers is to dance Feelin’ successfully. As square dancers, our fun is having a good time, having very few breakdowns, dancing to the beat of the music, and seeing smiles on most faces of the other dancers. Also, we don’t want to be able to predict the next call for most of the night. We don’t like workshops at any dance - we are at the dance to have fun and learning new stuff is not fun as we see it.

We don’t like all position dancing. Why? Because most dancers, especially new dancers, can’t dance APD. So if most dancers can’t dance ADP, we should not be calling ADP. Dancers HATE when squares keep breaking down tip after tip because of “unusual” calling. The dancers want calling in the usual way so let’s give them what they want rather than what the caller thinks the dancers want.

As always our goal is stimulate the thought process. We are not being positive or negative in our observations - just telling it like it is as we see it. Change is inevitable if we like it or not. So maybe we should start accepting and supporting change for the betterment of the activity.

Till next time, happy dancing!

Hanhurst’s Tape & Record Service

Caller Education Scholarship Fund Awards

The Hanhurst’s Tape Service Scholarship Fund for caller education was established by Bill and Peggy Heyman to enable both new and experienced callers to further their professional caller education by attending a Caller’s College providing a full CALLERLAB curriculum.

It is with particular pleasure that Hanhurst’s Tape & Record Service announces that the following individuals and Callers Associations are the recipients of partial scholarships for 2004:

- Matt Barnes, Bryan Texas
- Gavin Seim, Ephrata, Washington
- John Shanks, Lancaster, California
- Sarah Riegelhaupt-Herzig, California

They will all be attending Caller’s Colleges taught by highly qualified caller coaches during the summer and fall of 2004. To date, 64 partial scholarships have been awarded to new and experienced callers attending caller’s colleges in the U.S.A. and overseas.
I was in Europe once and had the opportunity to listen to a Swedish caller in the Mainstream hall. I was hoping to get some ideas in choreography to bring back to the U.S. In less than two minutes I was not disappointed. I never thought to call 1/2 of a half sashay. Remember the right-hand person does not ROLL 360° to the other side of the person (like they do on a rollaway). They simply shuffle to the other side. So, a 1/2 of a half sashay puts the dancers in single file with the centers looking in. I hope you find this as exciting as I did.

Peek Into a Caller’s Record Case

Larry Cole, Marion, Indiana, started Square Dancing in 1973. Larry began calling in 1975 and joined CALLERLAB in 1981. He is a strong supporter of the principles and ideals of CALLERLAB. Larry has attended 23 CALLERLAB convention and one MiniLab.

Larry serves on the Board of Governors, the Executive Committee and is currently the Vice Chairman of the Board. He previously served as Chairman of the Board and the Mainstream Committee Chairman. Larry is an Accredited CALLER COACH and enjoys any opportunity to help Callers with their calling. He has been with Rawhide-Buckskin Records for eighteen years as a recording artist and associate vocal producer. Larry has a home program of three clubs and travels whenever he can. He has worked thirty-nine years in business management.

Larry believes that Square Dancing should be fun and is very pleased when someone says “I had fun tonight”.

CALLER’S NOTES

Norm Wilcox (norm.wilcox@sympatico.ca)

The first page of this month’s issue includes singing call figures for the Mainstream and A-1 programs.

This month’s subject of “Adding Creativity To Your Choreography” focuses on calling Acey Deucey 1. When danced from ocean waves, the ending formation is a 6-dancer wave, with 2 dancers by themselves positioned way down the wave. This can also be called from Diamonds, Inverted Lines, and other assorted formations.

The Mainstream 53 (Basic) features the call Ladies Chain. “Combining Ladies Chain with Two Couple Circles allows us to duplicate calls such as Star Thru and Square Thru.”

The Mainstream featured call is Scoot Back. Since this call can be called from a box circulate formation, besides ocean waves it can also be called from columns, just the centers of the columns, the centers of an ocean wave or two-faced lines. Scoot Back can also be called for a Quarter Tag formation.

In this month’s Plus Program section, Trade the Wave and Roll is the featured call. All the dancers can roll, or just the centers or ends could roll. A full page of choreo ‘Dancing the Plus Program’ follows.

For those calling Advanced, Norm workshops Cross Over Circulate from 3 in 1 Lines. Each call is followed by sequences ‘Dancing the Advanced Program’. The A-2 Program call is the Hourglass formation. Some ways to get into the Hourglass formation are: Waves – Switch to an Hourglass; Diamonds – Centers switch to a Diamond; Normal Columns – Circulate 1 , Girls Trade and spread apart.

JOHN’S NOTES

John Saunders (johnnysa@aol.com or http://squaredancing.org/johnsnotes/)

John includes a record review and things of interest section. There are several singing call figures included that are used in the newly released songs.

‘Patriot’s Jig’ is the “Blast From The Past” Contra dance this month. It uses regular basics that can be followed quite easily.

In the Workshop Ideas section this month is a page of singing call figures from the called side of the record. ‘Tandem Squares’ is a gimmick that is set-up

If you publish a note service and would like it reviewed in future issues of this magazine, please send them to: 9836 E. Foothill Blvd. #6108, Upland, CA 91786. I will be glad to include your notes in future reviews.

Thanks, Frank.
by having one square inside another, all facing the center of the square. Calls can be given to the inside square, “insiders”, or the outside square, “outsiders”.

The Mainstream (1-53) Program call this month is Separate. Recycle (from left-hand waves) is the call of the month in the ‘Dancing the Mainstream Program’. When teaching the call, let the center dancer know that they will be facing the same way at the finish as at the start and that they will be a step back of where they start.

Dancing the Plus Program this month looks at the call (Anything) and Spread. There are three ways this call can be applied. 1) Designated dancers are told to spread (Heads Star Thru and Spread); 2) When the call finishes in lines or waves, the original centers slide apart to become the ends, and the original ends move to the nearest center position; 3) When the call finishes in tandem couples, the lead dancers slide apart sideways, while the trailing dancers step forward between them.

The Advanced and Challenge Supplement includes: Split Square Thru; Trade Circulate from Two-Faced Lines; Relay the Shadow.

It Had To Be You
Phase IV+1 (Chasse rolls) - 2step/Fox/Jive – J Records 21249 by Rod Steward – Lucille & Wayne Harris
Dance opens in varsouvienne position both vine up and back, intro is 2 step. Part A is Foxtrot, has hover corte, telemark, feather, and standard foxtrot figures. Part B is Jive. With pretzel turn and American spin. Ending is also jive. This routine is nicely done.

Unchain Me
Phase VI+2 (Unphased Fig. Back 3 step, reverse o/s spin) – Foxtrot – Capital F 3055
Unchained Melody by Les Baxter – Bob & Kay “Ski’s” Kurczewski
Good music accompanies this nice foxtrot. Jete point, telespin, reverse outside spit, challenge line double reverse are some of the figures in this choreography.

Fever 3 Cha
Phase III – Cha Cha – Coll. 3179 or Eric 273 - Fever flip of Hang on Sloopy – Shirley & Don Underwood
Fun dance. Has no hands joined vine sequence in the intro. Other figures are figure 8, sandstep, underarm turn, new Yorkers. Fits the music to a “T”.

Dinkin’ Bone
Phase III+1 (Flirt) – Cha Cha – CD RCA 07863-67032 Track #1 by Tracy Byrd – Bob & Kay “Ski’s” Kurczewski
Choreographer suggests you slow for comfort as is on CD. Good cha cha beat to this routine. Crabwalks, figure 8, flirt, chase with double peek a boo.

No Particular Place To Go
Phase III+1 (Chicken Walks) - +1 Unphased (Open Vine 8) – Jive – CD Chuck Berry 20th Century Masters: Best of Chuck Berry or Record Coll. 3422 – Bob & Jackie Scott
Triples, points steps, chicken walks, change places, good basic jive to introduce these figures to the dancers at the Phase III level.

I’ll Never Know
Phase IV – Foxtrot – STAR 140 – Bob & Judith Haworth
We found this dances better if you slow for comfort. Reverse turn, feather finish, hesitation change, diamond turn, prom. Weave. Ending is Quick side corte.

Besame Mucho IV
Phase IV+1 (Cuddles) – Rumba – Dance Ranch CD 1005 Tracks II & IV Besame Mucho Amore – Jim & Adele Chico
Excellent music to a very nicely written rumba. Figures included in the routine are serpienteaida, cuddles, crab walk to an unwind in 4.

Love Walked In IV
This is a wonderful blend of great music and a very useable routine. Hockey stick, fenceline, crabwalks, flirt that blends into 3 sweethearts. Nicely done, if you have the capability of speeding it up a bit, it dances more comfortably.

Do’s & Don’t
Phase II+1 – 2 Step – MGR 058 – Dorothy Sanders
Basic pure vanilla 2 step, can be danced on cues.

House Of Blue Lights Two
Phase II+1 (Fishtail) – 2 Step – Epic 15-08461 by Ray Benson – Daxine & Dale Springer
Routine has wrap and unwrap sequence, rock the boat, circle chase, fishtail. Part C has an option you can replace measures 9-10 with a step kick 4.

Baby Baby
Phase III+1(Alemena) – Cha Cha – A&M 8962 Baby Baby by Amy Grant – Mike Seurer
Fenceline, traveling door, circle chase, spot turn. All basic Phase III figures. Good for introducing this rhythm to the Phase II dancer.
Ocean Matador
Phase VI – Paso Doble – Sp. Pr. MRI-008 – Manabu & Reiko Imamura
Contra bota fogo, syncopated separation with chase ending, 16, stork line, grand circle. Routine is definitely for those dancers experienced in Paso Doble.

Dancing In The Street
Phase IV+2 (Stop & Go/Open Hip Twist) +1 (xhand U/A trn w/faceloop) – Cha Cha – Co. 451 or Motown 04514 Dancing In the Street by Martha & the Vandellas – Mark & Pam Prow
Shadow New Yorker to an xhand u/a turn w/face loop, fenceline, parallel chase, hockey stick, and basic cha cha cha figures. Routine fits the music to a “T”.

Jazzy 2 Step
Phase II – 2 Step – MGR 084 – Dorothy Sanders
Basketball turn, traveling box, and all basic Phase II
2 step figures are in this choreography.

Come A Little Closer
Phase II+1 – 2 Step – RCA 62055-7 by Don Williams – Russ & Judy Francis
This cue sheet has only head cues. It is a basic 2 step.

You’re My World
Phase IV+1 (Triple Traveler) – Slow 2 Step – CD Romance Of Love by Tom Jones or Coll. 6363 by Helen Reddy – Desmond & Ruth Cunningham
Trav. Chasses, outside roll, u/a turn, quick roll 4. Switches, and nice music to a nice routine.

Sweet Talk 2
Phase II – 2 Step – Dance A Round DARRCD 514 by Carolina Boys – Fran & Jim Kropf
Left turning box, run and brush sequence, traveling box. Basic 2 step no surprises.

I Got You
Phase II+1(Fishtail) – 2 Step – MCA 54520 by The Mavericks – Mike Seurer
Wrap and unwrap sequence, traveling box, hit, open vine, change sides, all these are included in this routine.

Un Petite Foxtrot
Phase IV+2+1 (Check & Weave, Hinge) (Outside Swivel) – STAR 126 Un P’Tit
Beguine – Jim & Carol Vincent
Wonderful music accompanies this excellent foxtrot. It has quick feathers, reverse wave, cross pivots, promanade weave, back twist vine. Ending is a twist vine 5, pause and flick. Fits the music to a “T” very nicely done.
National Square Dance Campers Association
Camping + Dancing = National Square Dance Campers Association

In the late 1950's a very active group of Wisconsin callers and dancers gathered fairly often to camp and dance together. Then in the early '60's a couple from New Jersey who attended one of their weekends casually asked if they could start such a group back home. After serious discussions the Wisconsin folks suggested forming a National Square Dance Campers Association, for combining the best of both activities - camping with dancing. Membership would be through autonomous chapters who would in turn annually choose national officers to conduct the overall business of this fledgling organization.

Barely had bylaws been adopted when in March of '65 the first chapter - #001 Garden State Campers of New Jersey was well underway. And in quick succession various chapters were formed in WI, MI, OH, IA and NY. Ironically the Wisconsin group, who had created the idea in the first place, were so slow in submitting their own application, they were the tenth chapter (#010) formed! Thus they called their group “Pioneers”, since they were first with the idea.

When dancing campers in Ontario, Canada asked to join, the NSDCA decided to identify them by putting a “C” before their chapter number, thus the “Swing ‘N’ Canadians” became #C-028. BY 1970 the NSDCA became a coast to coast organization when a chapter formed in California. Although the fledgling organization had a quarterly magazine, the NSDCA TIMES, devoted to the happenings and schedules of the camping weekends of its chapters, it also realized the importance of providing an event where the chapters could gather and become better acquainted with others in Canada and the United States who shared their love of combining camping and dancing. This annual International Camporee, which is held in the summer, has become a popular event. Their most recent one was held in Horseheads, New York. Oshkosh, Wisconsin is the site for 2004 with Hastings, Nebraska selected for 2005 and Illinois in 2006. Non members are also welcome to come enjoy the fun and fellowship of combining both activities.

Currently there are chapters in 32 states and 3 provinces. It makes no difference what style of camping a dancer enjoys, they are welcome to become a member. Whether they are a tenter, have a pop-up camper, or any kind of RV they are welcome. Most chapters, as well as the International Camporee, are family oriented with children and grandchildren always welcome. Some members are full-time campers while others are only able to spend an occasional weekend camping and dancing. It makes no difference. Besides dancing, campouts usually include a myriad of other activities, including games and sports, tours and sightseeing, potlucks, crafts, shopping, eating out, celebrations, campfires, after parties, visiting with long time friends and meeting new ones...a time of fun and fellowship.

Guest campers are always welcome to attend our International Camporee. We'll gather in mid July in Oshkosh, Wisconsin. If you are interested write the General Chairman of this event Dick and Cathy McClure, 1911 Juniper Street, Green Bay, WI 54302-2311. For information on finding a chapter near you and becoming a member write the NSDCA P.O. Box 224, Little Chute, WI 54140-0224 or visit our web site WWW.NSDCA.ORG.

We hope to meet you around the Square Campfire.

Dancing Tips

In a recent column I discussed the positive effects of the Callerlab lists on square dancing. In the April issue Tom Hansen responded that he is concerned that 2 calls which have been dropped from Plus (Remake the Thar and All Eight Swing Thru) are still being used at Plus by some callers without a walk thru. He says that Callerlab should make sure its members do not call calls which have not been taught.

Tom is correct with his concern, but we need to examine the various shades of grey that exist here.

First, if a caller at a Plus dance simply calls Remake the Thar without a walk thru, this is wrong and should not be done. But what if the caller directionally calls Remake the Thar without ever saying the call name? That is acceptable, because the name has not been used. It is now up to “caller judgement” as to whether the floor will be able to handle the directions. I personally think it would be too difficult for most floors, but an occasional floor could probably handle it.

All Eight Swing Thru is interesting, because it is a variation of the Mainstream call “Swing Thru.” If the caller says “All Eight Swing Thru without a walk thru, this is wrong. But what if, from a wrong way that, the caller says “Swing Thru” and then proceeds to directionally cue it (“All turn 1/2 by the right, centers star 1/2 by the left”)? Now a case can be made that this is acceptable, because it is a variation of an existing call and the caller has cued the floor through it.

A similar situation exists with the As Couples concept, but this is a different shade of grey. Many national traveling callers call easy As Couples calls occasionally at Mainstream and Plus. Because of their skill, no walk thru is needed, they give good directional cues, no one ever breaks down and the dancers enjoy it. So is this wrong?

Finally, it should be noted that Callerlab is not a policeman. It can recommend, but can not force its members to do anything. So if a caller calls Remake the Thar at a Plus dance without a walk thru, Callerlab can not do anything about it. But the dancers can do something. Since the caller has been hired to call a Plus dance, his job is to do that, and if he tosses in a call from another list which some dancers can not do, the dancers (or the club) should complain to the caller.

Fortunately, it seems to be extremely rare that callers call “off the list” at any program, and dancers do seem to complain when this happens.
It’s the People

Have you noticed a difference among clubs. At one dance, everyone just seems to be up and looking forward to a good time: there is excitement in the air even before the dance begins. At another dance, people are quiet, perhaps talking in small groups. When the music starts, it takes forever to fill the last set.

Some clubs can barely dance vanilla, they break down a lot, but they are smiling. And strangely enough, the club retains its membership. Another club dances extremely well; they can do anything the caller demands of them. And they too are smiling and have a strong club. Yet another club dances everything inside out, nothing surprises them, but their membership is falling.

What is the difference? What causes the different attitudes?

The answer, of course, is the people.

We cannot lose sight of the fact that square dancing is a social activity. That means interaction between people. In the first example, the focus of the club is on social interaction, and dancing is the excuse to get together. But the most important thing to these people is spending time with friends. Many of these clubs enjoy other activities besides dancing – club picnics, going to the theater, etc. Conversely, there are clubs that do not dance well, they do not socialize, they...well, they attend club activities because they feel obligated to.

In the second example, the people dance well and they enjoy their dancing. Chances are, these people mix at their dances. There are no ‘set squares,’ and visitors are made to feel welcome. A big part of their camaraderie is helping each other to dance well, to achieve that goal together.

In the third example, choreography has become the focus, and those who cannot keep up with the 'leaders' are left behind. Sometimes you can even hear people say,
"I hope so-and-so does not show up – he/she can't even dance."

The attitude of the club is established by its leadership - whether it is the elected leadership or the 'self-appointed' leadership - and/or the caller. If the caller is too intent on teaching complex choreography to take time to teach styling and manners and friendliness, the dancers will learn choreography, and they will also learn that solving the geometry problems is the most important part of dancing. If the caller likes to socialize with the dancers at the expense of time on learning basics, the dancers will be weak, but they will look to dancing for their friendship. Thank heaven for the caller who can do both because they are the callers who attract and retain dancers.

The same with the club officers and membership. If they do not attend classes, or if they avoid new dancers at dances, they teach the new dancers that they are not wanted. And all too often, cliques form in clubs. No matter the basis for the formation of the clique, those who do not belong feel shut out. A club should be one big clique that has members in every other place they dance - that is, all dancers should be a member of the same clique. Club people should seek out the new dancers to make them feel included. Club dancers should, as they can, attend class and be the first ones to ask a new dancer to join them in a square.

Notice that with a couple of exceptions I have not mentioned what program. This applies to Mainstream, Plus, Advanced, Challenge, Contra, Rounds, Clogging, etc. It is up to the people in dancing to determine how our activity will grow or wither. As a caller of squares, contras and rounds, I know I have made every mistake possible to a dance leader (not quite true: I invent new mistakes on a regular basis). I have socialized too much, I have talked on the mike too much, I have emphasized tricky choreography too much...and on and on.

What does this have to do with contra specifically? Everything. There are times that dancers do want a dance that challenges them, a dance that they need to work at; but they do not want that all night long. They came to dance, not to keep walking through tough stuff. They came to dance, not to listen to the caller tell jokes or lecture on the history of dance. They came to dance, not just to stand around drinking coffee and eating cookies. They came to 'feel the wind in their face.'

Contra dancing does have one advantage over square dancing when it comes to socialization: everyone dances with everyone. The formation itself does that. And as new or weak dancers move through the line, they get to dance with stronger dancers who can help them with formation, figures, flow and styling. No one is stuck with a "weak" set for a whole tip. But the caller still must make the dance fun through the proper balance of dance and music selection and through the style of presentation.

And we must all remember that our only true asset is the people.
The Contrails Contra Dancers
A Brief History

As part of the 1974 Washington State Square Dance Festival, in Seattle, Bob Osgood was the featured contra-dance caller, in addition to his calling square dances. One result was that the Belles and Buoys dance club asked Bob Wright, Sr. to call a series of contradance lessons for them, starting that fall at the Ruth School in the Burien area. Bob was fully booked for that season and suggested that Glen Nickerson be given the opportunity.

In September 1974, a series of 10 contra dance lessons was started and then extended until the full 1974-1975 season of 26 weeks was completed, with Glen as the instructor. That season was finalized with Don Armstrong joining in the last dance at Burien, and then an open dance was held in Everett with Don calling contradances and Bob calling square-dances in a mixed program.

As a result of that “trial” period, Glen continued with open contra-dances on available dates (mostly 5th Saturdays) through 1976 and into 1977. By that time, a small but dedicated group of dancers met regularly and had moved to the North Hill Community Club in Des Moines, WA. One of the members then suggested that, since most of the dancers were Boeing employees, the group become a Boeing Employees Recreation Club and move to the Boeing recreation hall, then at the south end of the Boeing field area. This was accomplished and the group held the first dance in the new location in April 1977. Dancing continued into June 1977, then a summer break was taken and the first full season as a recreation club under the new auspices was Sept. 1977 through May 1978.

In 1977, the club applied for membership in the Square & Folk Dance Federation of Washington. This membership continued until 1984, when it was decided to move to the Promenade Dance Center. Because of that move and other contingencies, the forms for Federation renewal were not completed or submitted. However, the club continued as a non-federated group. With the closure of the Promenade Dance Center in 1998, the group returned to the North Hill Community Club. With a noticeable growth in membership, the group decided to rejoin the State Federation, and was accepted at the January 1999 meeting in Vancouver, WA. The club completed its 25th full season in May 2002.

The club continues on a once a month dance schedule from September through May, meeting on the second Saturday from 2:00pm to 5:00pm. The dances are open to all dancers; for those not familiar with contra-dancing or contra-dance movements, teaching is done as necessary during the dances. Except for some movements unique to contradancing, the moves are what most people now call square dance movements. Most dances are preceded by a quick “talk-through” or “walk-through”, then the “needle is dropped” and the enjoyment gets underway.

The group includes couples and singles, and “drop-ins” and caravan visits are always welcome.

Keep smiling!
It makes everyone wonder what you’ve been up to.
Congratulations to the CALLERLAB Executive Committee, the home office staff, and the Board of Governors for another terrific convention. The 31st Annual CALLERLAB Convention successfully took place in Reno, Nevada last April with over 50 hours of seminars, interest sessions, and dance demonstrations for those in attendance. It was another unique opportunity for callers to continue their calling education and share their ideas, knowledge, and opinions. Although it’s impossible to attend all of the interest sessions, CALLERLAB is very fortunate to be working with Scott Argow and Thomas Jimenez of Convention CD’s & Tapes Incorporated located in Miami, Florida. They have tapes and CD’s from each session and orders can be made by calling 1-800-747-6334. These tapes and CD’s make a great gift to you, your club caller, and for your callers association. Call today and inquire about obtaining the cassette tapes or CD’s of your choice.

The Committee for Community Dance (CCD) headed by Chairman Calvin (and Judy) Campbell, conducted a Beginner Party Leader Seminar on the Saturday and Sunday prior to the convention. Those attending, shared information, dances, and experiences about Beginner Parties. The seminar was video taped again this year and there are plans to produce a high quality video or DVD of the event which will be made available to all those interested. Seminars like this will be held prior to future CALLERLAB conventions and subjects will be tailored to meet the needs of leaders who have no experience in calling, prompting, or cueing. Attempts will be made to obtain funding for advertising to the Recreation Departments and the Educational community.

A tribute to Bob Osgood, CALLERLAB’s Founding Father and only Millennium Award recipient, took place at the opening session. Bob’s recorded voice, from past Sets In Order albums, was used to introduce those members that had never missed a convention. Herb Egender, Jon Jones, John Kaltenhauser, Melton Luttrell, Jim Mayo, and Francis and Julia Zeller were all recognized for this amazing accomplishment.

At the Tuesday night banquet, Wade Driver was presented with the CALLERLAB Milestone Award. His significant contributions to the improvement of square dance music has not only stood the test of time, but is still very much a factor in our music and calling styles today.

Quarter Century Awards were given to those callers calling at least 25 years and Half Century Awards, for calling at least 50 years, were presented to Dave Abbs, Ron Black, George Edwards, Marshall Flippo and Kappie Kappenman.

Deborah Carol Jones, Terry Wheeler, and Gerry Hardy each received a Special Recognition Award for outstanding work on behalf of their respective committees. Another Special Recognition Award was presented to John Swindle for his expertise and talent in improving the effectiveness of our home office projects.

Each Chairman of CALLERLAB presents a Chairman’s Award to someone who has worked tirelessly behind the scenes and made their success possible. This recipient could be a spouse, parent, friend, mentor, or even a co-worker. In Reno, Mike and Michelle Jacobs presented the Chairman’s Award to Gail Swindle. Gail is one of several home office staff that work very hard for CALLERLAB and for square dancing. We are grateful to Gail, Jerry Reed, our talented Executive Director, and the entire home office crew for the incredible job they do.

Small World Awards were presented to members residing outside continental North America and Hawaii attending a convention for the first time. Those recipients were Bjorn and Anne Anderson, Denmark; Nishimura and Miyoko Shozo, Japan; Hanna Tenenbaum and Lars Olofson, Sweden; and Masaru Wada, Japan.

The Foundation for the promotion and preservation of square dancing recognizes individuals and organizations on a yearly basis for exceptional service and/or generosity. The highest award the Foundation can present is the Director’s Award. This year Andy Shore received this prestigious award for his leadership and generosity. Andy proposed a challenge to the International Association of Gay Square Dance Clubs last year to donate money to the CALLERLAB Foundation. Members of the IAGSDC donated more than $7,000 and Andy matched that donation, resulting in over $14,000 going to the Foundation. This kind of leadership in square dancing is the kind that makes some clubs and programs succeed where others would fail. Congratulations Andy!

A Patron of the Foundation Award was presented to Jim Hensley. It was Jim’s vision of developing a marketing program for our dance activity that brought about the Focus Group surveys and the Phoenix Plan. Jim tried for many years to help develop more widespread support for the Foundation to be the vehicle for running a professional marketing program for square dancing. When we found that full activity support for the Foundation wasn’t going to be enough to run the Phoenix Plan, it was Jim’s idea that an alliance of all dance organizations would be needed to accomplish this most important task. Jim’s vision is now a reality with the formation of the Alliance for Round, Traditional, and Square Dance (ARTS).

A Patron of the Foundation Award was also given to the North Texas Callers Association. Their outstanding financial support this past year was exceptional and most appreciated.

A sincere thanks was extended to those that attended our 31st Convention representing other national and international organizations. Gene and Connie Triplett represented the National Executive Committee; Al and Linda Shaw and Chuck and Sandi Weiss represented ROUNDALAB; Lyle and Jean Beck and Jim and Edythe Weber represented the United Square Dancers of America; John and Clara Tapparo represented the 53rd

National in Denver, CO; Lee and Barbi Ashwill represented the 54th National in Portland, OR; Wayne and Janice Bowman and Al and Peggy Broadwater represented the 56th National in North Carolina; Jim Maczko and Patty Wilcox represented the USA West Policy Board and the ARTS Alliance; and Bill and JoAnn Boyd represented American Square Dance Magazine.

CALLERLAB members representing other organizations were also recognized. Andy Shore represented the International Association of Gay Square Dance Clubs; Trevor and Chris Day represented the Square Dance Callers Clubs of Great Britain; Ron Counts represented the Lloyd Shaw Foundation; John and Freddie Kaltenthaler represented the Overseas Dancers Association; Martin and Terry Mallard represented the Canadian Square and Round Dance Society; Masaru Wada and Tac Ozaki represented the Japan Square Dance Association; Lone Blume represented the Danish Association of American Square Dance Clubs; and Art Harvey represented CONTRALAB.

CALLERLAB is pleased to be working with so many organizations dedicated to the promotion and preservation of our dance activity. Our challenges cover many issues, and the solutions require more than a few changes along with the slow and steady evolution that has been so much a part of this dance form of ours since it’s inception. CALLERLAB appreciates the teamwork that is now taking place and the vision that is collectively being shared by these organizations individually and through the ARTS Alliance. We are excited that the ARTS Alliance can be the vehicle where all organizations, dance leaders, callers, cuers, prompters, and dancers can work together to promote and spread the health benefits and joy of our dance to more people.
Hot weather is here...it was just a few days, my mind says days but in reality I know it’s been months, ago we were complaining about the cold. Well there is not much we can do about the heat except slow down and just be plain LAID BACK.

I love wearing hats and have many in different colors and with different bands to go with my wardrobe. I came upon a nifty way to refurbish those straw hats. Some of the brims were a little worse for wear or faded from the sun. Did you know you can sew embellishments on the brim? Yes, you can! You can even sew bias tape around the outer brim to give a floppy hat some oomph, then frame the crown with a coordinating tie. You can make several ties in different colors and fasten then on with snaps, making it easy to change your hat to match or coordinate with several outfits. You can sew appliques on the brim and even on the crown if you are careful. You can make a too large hat fit your head by sewing elastic inside the crown. Oh, what fun I’ve had redoing my hats. On one very large brimmed hat I just sewed zigzag stitches around and around and then cut off the outer edge. Some of the older straw hats are too brittle so experiment...and remember...a plain unadorned straw hat is very inexpensive at Wal-Mart or Roses, and then you can make it into an extraordinary chapeau.

While we’re on the subject of embellishments and “fixing-up” things...all the clothe and crocheted handbags that are so popular now can also be personalized. It is very easy to sew on or use tacky glue to apply an applique or embellishment. If you have a free arm sewing machine it is easy to slip the bag under the needle and sew by machine. My solid inexpensive crocheted black bag now has a butterfly appliqued on it. I haven’t tried to embroider one yet but I think that is a possibility too. If you are into making your own handbags and tote bags then the possibilities are endless. It is so much easier to do the embellishments before constructing is finished...less pulling this way and that way.

Well while we’re talking about making things to match...I have made several earrings to match my square dance outfits. Sometimes I amaze myself at how simple it is to make something that looks so hard. One easy way is to take a length of fabric 2” by 4” fold in half lengthwise and sew a running stitch by hand on the raw edge. Pull up the thread to gather the strip into a circle. Stitch this together so it won’t fall apart. Use a glue gun or tacky glue to attach this circle to a piece of cardboard cut to fit or to a flat circle plastic earring backing. Add tiny seed pearls or glitter to the middle of the circle to finish the earring. Multi colored or patterned tissue paper can be torn into small pieces and layered and layered, four layers or more work good, and glued to a piece of card stock and then the card stock is glued to the earring back. Glue on jewels, pearls or sequin and you’re done. These are so simple to make once you have the right earring backs...these can be found in any craft store and come packaged four to a pack, very inexpensive too. You can make great holiday earrings using Christmas wrap. Just let you imagination take over. Keep cool and enjoy the summer.

Over the years, much time has been spent discussing the definitions of the levels of line dances. What constitutes a beginner, intermediate, or advanced dance? Some say that a beginner line dance should only be a one-wall dance with no turns of any kind. Some say that there should be different sub-levels within each level such as a beginner-beginner, intermediate-beginner, and advance-beginner. I will agree that some dances are more complex than others but not more difficult. Difficulty has more to do with understanding, while complexity has to do with the number of counts of the dance and the way the step patterns are intertwined. I believe in a structured approach to teaching and learning line dances. It is more important to learn a new movement or a new variation in a dance than the dance itself. Once a dancer has a clear understanding of proper step execution and body positioning, learning new dances are no more difficult to learn than stacking building blocks. A thorough understanding of the building blocks of dancing, the basics, is far more important than learning the hot new dance of the day. Dancers, for their part, often forget that dancing is not like ordering from the local fast food restaurant. “I would like to learn 10 dances, and could you add the bucket o’fries to that order?” With the right instructor and patience on their part, dancers can learn any dance regardless of level. I believe that stratification into sub-levels is unnecessary in our activity. In all the years that I have taught dancing, I usually find that dancers just lack the self-confidence as their performance already demonstrates. Dancers should believe that they can do any dance once they understand the building blocks of dance. Instructors need to be cheerleaders for their dancers. If they cannot perform the movements, it might be a reflection of the instructor and not the student. If you have any questions about this dance or a suggestion for a future column, please contact me at P.O. Box 2685, Topeka, Kansas 66601-2685. I can also be reached via e-mail at KSDanceguy@aol.com. Until next time, I will save you a spot on the dance floor.

This Month’s Dance: Auto Moves

Basic Steps (Official NTA Definitions):

Coaster Step: A triple step that changes direction forward and back. Stepping backwards in 4th position on count 1, stepping backwards with other foot bringing the feet together in 1st position on the & count, and stepping forward with the beginning foot in 4th position on count 2. The first two steps of the movement are executed on the ball of the feet with weight slightly forward.

Crossing Triple Step: A syncopated rhythm with 3 weight changes in 2 beats of music, counted 1&2. Crossing Triple steps can begin with either foot and moves sideward beginning with a 5th position crossing step on count 1, a 2nd position side step on count &, and ends with a 5th position crossing step on count 2.

Grapevine: Vine is an abbreviation. A continuous traveling step pattern to the side with crosses behind and/or in front in 3rd or 5th position.

Heel, Ball, Change: A syncopated rhythm with 3 weight changes in 2 beats of music counted 1&2. 1) Tap Heel forward, &) Step on the ball of unweighted foot, 2) Change weight to other foot.

Pivot Turn: AKA Step Turn, Break Turn. A change of direction turn in the opposite direction of the forward foot in 5th position. Usually making a 180° turn, returning or replacing the weight to the original foot.

Rock Step: AKA Break Step, Check Step. Two weight changes in opposite directions using two beats of music. Forward and backward Rock Steps are performed in 5th position (Toe to Heel) while side Rock Steps are performed in 2nd position (shoulder width apart).

Step: The transfer of weight from one foot to the other.

Tap (Touch): The toe or the heel of the free foot taps or touches the floor without a weight change.

American Square Dance, July 2004
From Lee Kopman

Let’s face it...WE ARE IN TROUBLE. Our numbers are dwindling. Beginner Classes, Weekday Dances, Weekends, Festivals – all are showing a decrease in the number of dancers attending. We must initiate new ideas in how to promote our beloved activity.

I have always felt that dancers beget dancers...i.e. – our best salesmen are those presently taking part in our dance programs. I have a proposal that might be of interest to the dance community. If you can’t bring new people to the dance, BRING THE DANCE TO THE PEOPLE.

Here is my idea. Have a dance party at your home. Invite your friends, neighbors and relatives to your home. Put on the CD (as advertised), sit back – and let the instructions and music do the job of introducing Western Square Dancing to the Party.

It’s a winner! After the dance sessions you will have a perfect opportunity to suggest formal lessons.

Give it a try – we have everything to gain and nothing to lose!

Open letter to callers and dancers...

Having trouble getting people to take lessons?

I have a solution to your problem.

IF YOU CAN’T GET PEOPLE TO COME TO A BEGINNER CLASS...
BRING THE CLASS TO THE PEOPLE

Suggest to those who are in your clubs to:

Have a party at their home –
invite their friends, neighbors, relatives...

Play the CD – Those at your party will be dancing in just a few minutes.

The CD is a available for the price of $18.00.
You may need more than one CD to give to members of your club.
The CD is also an excellent tool for callers who are looking for the best way to teach a beginners class.

Square Dancer’s Credit Card Program
Affiliates Share Funds

Great News! Affiliate members will share the proceeds from the Credit Card Program this year.

Distribution of these funds will be made at the USDA annual meeting in Denver, Colorado on June 23, 2004. The funds will be shared at a rate of $100.00 per voting right by all affiliate members in good standing as of December 31, 2003 with the understanding that the affiliate will use these funds in the promotion of Square Dancing.

The Square Dancer’s Credit Card Program was initiated in 1989 with all surplus funds being returned to the USDA Affiliates. Your Directors, at the June 1996 USDA Board Meeting authorized the current distribution plan - one half to the USDA Youth and Handicapable Dancer Programs and the other half to the Affiliates. The youth and handicappable dancer funds are held in escrow and released when authorized.

This is the third sharing of surplus funds by affiliates from the USDA Credit Card Program, the first being in the early nineties.

These funds have been earned by you - the Dancer - with the Square Dancer’s Credit Card. What a super way - an easy way - to provide funds to help support our great activity. Our sincere thanks to all who have the Square Dancer’s Credit Card.

The Square Dancer’s Credit Card has every benefit offered by other credit cards and promotes square dancing every time the card is used. With your help, we are confident the Credit Card Program will continue to grow and generate funds to benefit Square Dancing.

Application forms have been distributed throughout the United States and additional forms can be obtained from the Credit Card Chairman. Also, Dancers may apply via the Internet by accessing USDA’s home page at www.usda.org and clicking on the credit card banner.

Dear Friends,

Hope you have had a wonderful spring and summer and you have easily recovered from the Cicadas song over the country. We have heard them singing daily here in Tennessee through June and thought that someone should capture their song, writing a wonderful dance to this music that we could all enjoy for the next 17 years. Maybe we have given our great choreographers something to ponder about. We are looking forward to what they might come up with. Thank you for your support in this article, please keep your selections coming in.

Was His Prediction Correct?
Extremist Or Moderate?

When I was first introduced to this hobby of ours, I was strongly impressed with the idea that square and round dancing were one and the same. I had been indoctrinated to the principle that both were necessary for dancers to achieve a solid background and that callers used both squares and rounds to program an enjoyable evening of dancing.

The smoothness, rhythm, and timing found in round dances helped the dancers in learning the intricate maneuvers of square dancing. The two blended together to create the desirable qualities in the average dancer. A successful combination of the two seemed to insure that new dancers would remain in the total dance picture for years rather than just months.

How does this picture compare with the one we see today? As a traveling caller in the Midwestern and eastern parts of the country, I have noticed some definite trends. Although these trends are not cause for alarm, they deserve careful thought and consideration.

In square and round dancing we have two extremes, just as we have in national government and other phases of public interest. Also, though, like these other groups, we have a dominant middle-of-the-road contingent. These moderates are the majority members of the square and round dance movement.

Dancers move from the middle-of-the-road group to one of the extremes, either all round dancing, shunning square dancing, or vice versa. Once a dancer has reached an extremist group, he seldom turns back to the middle-of-the-road. So, it is with the moderates that we must work to achieve a well-balanced recreational form for square and round dancing.

The middle-of-the-roaders are the most important, and yet, the most neglected sector of the square and round dance activity. Also, in this group, the best results in the way of progress and dancing pleasure can be obtained.

In the not too distant future, if square and round dance extremists continue to grow in numbers, the two activities will go their separate ways. This has already happened in some areas, but it does not have to spread.

I have many friends in both extremist groups as well as many who are moderates. It will be impossible to get them all happily together, but through thoughtful discussion many problems could be overcome.

As a final thought, consider whether square dancers are leaving round dancing or whether round dancers are leaving square dancing.

What's In a Name?

It's funny, how you can drive by something everyday on the way to work, and not notice things in route. But, if you have a traveling companion with you one day, they will point out something that has been there and you should have noticed but didn’t.

Sort of like Caller Education; for many years now CALLERLAB has had a caller training program with “CALLERLAB Accredited Caller-Coaches.” The list of these coaches is not very long considering the amount of callers throughout the world. But, I would suspect, this is a good thing.

For those of you who are not familiar with this program, or what a “CALLERLAB Accredited Caller-Coach” is, I will explain. These particular individuals are experienced callers, proven and tested over time in their knowledge of the calling activity, in all phases of calling. To become an accredited caller-coach by CALLERLAB, these individuals have to pass a very lengthy written exam and, if successful, have to take an oral exam with two already accredited caller-coaches. This exam could last 3-4 hours in length.

In regards to this exam, virtually all aspects of caller training is discussed in detail. The student should be able to describe how he/she would handle certain situations and also to show their knowledge in the field of calling.

I personally commend all the CALLERLAB Accredited Caller-Coaches for having gone through this rigorous testing system. The system was designed to “bring out” the callers who can effectively lead the training of newer students. This group of individuals is not an “all-inclusive club.” Any caller, who successfully meets the requirements to take the test, can make the effort to become CALLERLAB Accredited. It’s sort of like the old saying “many were called (no pun intended) but few were chosen.”

It is not easy to pass these tests. It is an accomplishment that one should feel good about should they become successful. This accreditation also helps add credibility to the “art of caller training.” It is open to anyone, and if someone wants to truly help newer callers, or any caller for that matter, then by all means they should look into it. Notice how I said “truly.” Because, like anything in today’s society, there are those who like to “get around the system” for their own personal gain.

Before I discuss these tactics by those out there who envision making money or personal fame off of an established, time-proven system, let me first say that no one is required to be a CALLERLAB Accredited Caller-Coach to train other callers. Nothing can stop anyone from helping another caller. It is done all over the world, and usually with good intentions and results.

In fact, when you think about it, before CALLERLAB Accredited callers to become “Caller-Coaches,” there was plenty of caller-training going on. Many of the current accredited caller coaches were trained by leaders who were not “accredited,” because there was no formal program at the time. So, it is possible to be an excellent “caller-trainer,” (I know several) without being accredited. It all had to start somewhere. This is also not to say that only those accredited caller-coaches are the “imperial authority” and “best of the best” when it comes to training. I would say, looking at the list, and knowing these individuals, that they are darn close to it by today’s standards. There are hundreds of callers throughout the world that have just as much experience and knowledge as these accredited caller-coaches, but for personal reasons we will never know, choose not to enter into the program.

And that is fine too. The system was designed for those who might want to branch out in their calling careers to add caller training to their repertoire. The CALLERLAB Accredited Caller-Coach program is a time-tested, well established and professional program which has added a great deal to the integrity of caller training throughout the world.

However, there seems to be a "new breed" of caller trainers popping up that call themselves "caller-coaches." I am not quite sure what this means. I know what it means, but what is its intent? Let's look at both sides of this "self proclaimed title." On one hand, you can say it is an experienced caller (one can only hope) who is training callers and wants his hers prospective students to know that they do train callers. It could very well be a true professional who can "ace" the CALLERLAB Accredited Caller-Coach test if they wanted to, but for reasons unbeknownst to us, choose not to. Or, perhaps they aspire to become CALLERLAB accredited, haven't gotten around to it as of yet, and want to see how the words "caller-coach" looks next to their name. Who knows?

On the other hand, they could be individuals who have this personal ambition to satisfy their ego (do callers have egos?) and want to teach other callers and make themselves look important with this title. Some are now running caller's schools. That could be scary. The original "caller-coaches" did not have titles, first of all, they didn't need them back then and second of all, there was no established program for accrediting callers to train other coaches as there is today. The cynic may say these individuals are just circumventing the system for personal gain, and that may well be true. So, it's like anything in life, "buyer beware."

In the end, does putting this title before the name of a caller as a "caller-coach" hurt the activity? I don't believe so. However, we do have an established system now. One which should be given more credit than it probably is. Every Tom, Dick and Jane can spring up around the country self proclaiming themselves as "caller-coaches" just so they can teach someone. That doesn't make it right, nor does it make it wrong. But, from a professional point of view, if someone wants to really get "into the business of training callers," they should use the established routes which hundreds of dedicated professionals before them worked very hard to establish for everyone's gain.
Choreo Corner

with Kenny Farris

A warm welcome to the wonderful world of square dancing to our newest “corners” - and welcome back to the rest of you squares! Thought we’d start the new dance season off with a few reminders on styling.

When holding hands with dancers facing the same direction, men hold palms up, ladies place palms down on men’s hands. This also holds true for Promenade. If same gender are beside each other, the dancer on the left will adopt the men’s styling and the dancer on the right will adopt that of the ladies.

The CALLERLAB - recommended Ocean Wave handhold is hands up, crossed palms, with thumbs “gently closed on the back of the opposing dancer’s hand” - not right-on, not forearms, not hands down low. But do expect to face all of these variations on occasion.

Use a handshake handhold for pull-by calls like R & L Grand, Ladies Chain, Square Thru, etc. Use a forearm for arm turns that do not begin and end in waves, i.e. Turn Thru, Allemande Left, Shoot the Star, and Do Paso. A forearm is also used by leaders in Flutterwheel and by scooters in Scoot Back.

In Ferris Wheel the couples facing in step straight ahead to momentarily form a two-faced line in the center. Only then do they start the Wheel and Deal. No one should be dragged caveman-style through the middle!

Recycle is a no-hands call-- ends Cross Fold as the centers of the wave Fold in behind the ends, follow them around, and then face in and take hands to end in facing couples. Linear Cycle is also a no-hands call after the Single Hinge. Dancers are holding hands in a wave, they Hinge, then hands are let go as the dancers who are facing out Fold and follow. Hands are taken again at the completion of the Peel action.

Square dancing, like everything else in life, has trends. Once upon a time everyone did a Dosado back to back, which is what the French expression “Dos a dos” means. Then the trend was to do the Hungarian Swing (with no apologies to the French, I might add). And now back-to-back is back.

How far should you Promenade? It depends. The handbook suggests everyone Promenade at least a quarter, meaning, if need be, we pass home for another full time around. The trend today is to just stop at home if you are there. This has become accepted as the norm. In fact, many callers have jumped on this trend by occasionally completing a sequence of calls where the dancers end up exactly at home and saying, “You ought to be,” and the dancers shout, “Home!”

BUT, in the singing call PLEASE Promenade at least one half. Most callers try to have the Corner Swing take place at or near home, so that you will do a full promenade. (Sometimes you only have to go half or 3/4.) When you just stop at home without Promenading, you have to stand there doing nothing while the caller sings the refrain - we thought you came to dance!

Finally, this one is to the gentlemen (or not so gentle men), on behalf of the ladies. Some of us are rough in our exuberance; others are rough in trying to keep the square going by pushing others around; others of us are rough when we are unsure of ourselves - in our haste to catch up, we pull hard on people, to the point where you’ll hear someone say later, “I thought that guy was going to pull my arm out of its
The ARTS is an alliance of related dance organizations which have come together to work toward improvement and growth of square, round, traditional, and other related dance forms. The mission of the ARTS is to generate public awareness and promote growth and acceptance of contemporary Square, Round, and Traditional Folk Dance by encouraging and assisting a coalition of allied dance groups. The ARTS will provide leadership and resources necessary to create an achievable marketing program. The ARTS will encourage, promote and support healthy lifestyles through dance programs and events that provide fun and effective exercise for both mind and body, all within a unique system of social interactions.

The first dance to benefit the ARTS was held on April 10, 2004 in San Diego, California. This dance, sponsored by the Square Dance Association of San Diego County, raised $422.00.

Local and area callers, cuers and line dance instructors helped to make this a fun and enjoyable dance. CALLERLAB members Ray Holmes, Ron Nelson and Dennis Young called squares, including traditional square dances, ROUNDALAB member Bud Mighetto cued rounds and Diana Costantino taught line dances.

San Diego Square Dance Association Vice President, Jim & Pam Kidwell and Tami & Andy Allemao and ARTS Governing Board members Michael and Kimberlee Streby (USDA Western Region Vice Presidents) and Patty Wilcox provided refreshments for this entertaining evening of dance.

ARTS Chairman, Jim Maczko, presented San Diego Association President’s Sally Bennett-Schmidt and Lynn McCrary with an ARTS Certificate of Associate Membership for their earlier contribution of $100 to the ARTS. Governing Board members Lyle and Jean Beck (USDA Past Presidents) from Dubuque, Iowa were also in attendance and received their Certificate of Individual Membership in the ARTS.

The second ARTS benefit dance was held in Montgomery, Alabama April 17, 2004. Supported by the Montgomery Area Square Dance Association and Montgomery Area Callers and Cuers Association this dance raised $545.00.

Callers, cuers & line dance instructors donated their time and talents: Wayne Nicholson, Larry Belcher, Willis Simmons, and Patrick Demerath called the squares.

socket!"

Unless the caller is clipping his timing, you should have plenty of time to execute each call without rushing. Just keep your feet stepping on or shuffling to the beat and do each call as it comes. Avoid quick, jerky movements, especially if you are pulling by or turning with another dancer. All handholds should be firm, but gentle.

Relax and enjoy yourself. Most people would rather dance with Mr. Fun-loving-smooth-dancer who breaks down once in a while than Mr. I’ll-just-die-if-our-square-breaks-down who pulls and yanks every arm in sight.

Have fun out there! And remember to take hands with people on either side of you at the completion of each call. See you on the dance floor!

John Williford, Sue Corley, and Wayne Nicholson cued the rounds, and Angela Demerath taught line dances. ARTS Board members, John and Dimple Williford, Charlie and Kitty Holley, and Pat and Angela Demerath provided refreshments. The Montgomery Area Square Dance Association generously donated cold beverages and coffee.

The program included a short description of what the ARTS is all about, what the ARTS' intentions and goals are which is to help our beloved form of dancing. The dancers appeared to enthusiastically welcome the ARTS intentions and goals and encouraged continuous progress with the ARTS initiatives.

The ARTS Governing Board Members are ACA, CALLERLAB, CONTRALAB, IAGSDC, NEC, NSDCA (Campers), ROUNDALAB, SSDUSA (Singles), URDC, USA WEST, and USDA. Other dancers and organizations are encouraged to support the ARTS through individual memberships available to those contributing $50 or more per year and associate memberships for groups donating at least $100 per year. Other groups are urged to schedule dances to benefit the ARTS.
