"BUGGY RIDE" TO MT. CHOCORUA

Rainstorm Prevents Party From Climbing Mountain

George Washington Brown Visits
Camp—Barn Dance Held at Freedom—Bryant Startles Members of Party

The first of the annual "buggy rides" to Mt. Chocorua by the members of the advanced course of the R. O. T. C. took place last Saturday. There was the usual conglomeration of fun and mishaps, and although rain prevented the party from climbing the mountain, the trip was voted a complete success.

Leaving Durham at various times between 10 in the morning and two in the afternoon on Saturday, the party traveled by auto to the foot of Mt. Chocorua and proceeded to make camp. William Gelpke, by right of former possession during past "buggy rides", claimed the log cabin, near which the party camped, and placarded it with the sign "Hotel de Gelpke". A select few were admitted as "guests" and the rest spent the night in the open.

A steak supper was cooked by Capt. Pettee and Stanley King. George Washington Brown, native of the country and hunter extraordi-

YEARLINGS LOSE TO CLARK SCHOOL TEAM

Prep School Eleven Scores Through Field Goal and Safety to Win, 5 to 0—Punting Duel Between Tracy and Winkler

The Blue and White freshman football team lost its first game of the season to the strong Clark School eleven last Saturday on Memorial Field by the low score of 5 to 0. Fumbles on both sides prevented the teams from scoring any touchdowns. Clark School scored their points through a field goal from the thirty-five yard line by Tracy, captain of the visiting team, and a safety made by Farland, right guard on the 1930 eleven.

The teams were evenly matched, both teams starting off in a manner that indicated a scoreless contest. The yearlings were in position to score at least three times, but lost the ball on fumbles inside the fifteen yard line. The punting on both teams was exceptionally good with Tracy having the better of the duel with Winkler, fullback of the freshmen. Few college teams could boast of better punting than exhibited in the game last Saturday.

The freshmen were sadly lacking forward passes while the Clark School players featured in the aerial attack, scoring most of their yardage by this method. Small, sub halfback for the frosh, made the only long run for his team when he went thirty-five yards on an end run, completing the spectacular dash through a broken field.

PROF. ALLEN PLANS 1927 TRAVEL SCHOOL

Trip to France and England Planned for Summer Vacation—Courses in French Literature, History, and Drama Given

Professor Hamilton F. Allen, head of the department of Modern Languages, is making plans for his 1927 Travel School in France. This school was very successful this summer when several students under the leadership of Professor Allen went to France during the summer vacation. In addition to the tour of France, it is planned to give the students registering for the course in this coming year an opportunity to visit England.

The school is for the purpose of coming in closer contact with the French language. Courses are offered in French literature, history, and drama. The course is of six weeks duration and with the trip and tours takes up nearly the whole of the summer vacation. University credit is given for this course.

This summer the party sailed from Montreal, Canada, on June 26. Headquarters were made in France from July 5 to 14, when tours were made to interesting places in France. July 14 to 16 was spent in visiting Tours, Blois and Orleans, where the party saw the famous chateaux of Touraine.

The party then went to Jouy-en-Josas and Le Montcel where the school is held. Jouy-en-Josas is only ten miles from Paris, so it was possible for members of the party to visit the city in the afternoon and evening.

Those making the trip were: Professor Hamilton F. Allen, leader; Doris S. Barnes, Hamilton F. Allen, Jr., Iva Floyd, Laura B. Gilmore, Vivian I. Landman, Wilma M. Paine, Carolyn H. Ricker, Louise Toby, William G. Wilkinson.

SPECIAL HALLOWE'EN DANCE IN "T" HALL GYM SATURDAY

The Thompson Hall gymnasium will be the scene of an unusually attractive dance on Saturday night, which will be in the form of a Halloween festival. Colorful harvesting effects, as autumn leaves and cornstalks, will be the theme of the decorations.

Plans are being made for a battle of music between two well-known local orchestras and a committee composed of members of the faculty will judge the winning team. The usual Halloween refreshments consisting of cider and doughnuts will be dispensed at intermission.

The principal feature of the evening's entertainment will be an apple-bobbing contest, in which all are expected to participate.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC TEAMS TO BE PICKED FRIDAY

Hockey and soccer tryouts will be held at the women's athletic field on Friday for those girls wishing to compete for places on class teams. Soccer tryouts will be at 3:30 and hockey at 4:30 for all, including seniors.

Faculty members, stenographers, or any women connected with the University, who are interested in athletics, will meet in T. Hall gym, Wednesday, October 27, at 7 o'clock.

JOINT MEETINGS SCHEDULED FOR "Y" ON SUNDAY EVENINGS

Joint meetings of the Y. M. and Y. W. are to be held from 6:30 to 7:30 in the Commons Club Room on those Sunday evenings which are not devoted to movies. At these meetings, not only ethical, moral, and religious questions will be discussed, but a cozy fire, good music, sociability, and leadership will await those who attend.

MAINE HARRIERS LOSE CLOSE MEET

Wildcat Team Upholds Nine Year Record By Win

Littlefield Finishes First in Time of 33 min. 50 4-5 sec.—New Hampshire Places Six Men in First
Ten to Win By 27 to 28 Score

The varsity cross-country team won its initial meet by taking the fast Maine harriers into camp last Friday, 27 to 28. Coach Paul Sweet had his men in perfect condition, defeating what Coach Kanaly termed as one of the best teams he had ever produced.

Runners of both universities worked hard to uphold the honors, which were at stake. New Hampshire had failed to taste defeat on its home course for nine years while Maine had the reputation of not losing a dual meet in a long period of years. The meet was close, and interesting from start to finish. Not until New Hampshire's last man had crossed the line was victory sure. A stiff wind hindered the runners, but the Blue and White hill-and-dalers seemed to be in the best condition, as six of the first ten men to finish wore blue and white jerseys.

Capt. Littlefield was the first to come in, completing the five and one-half mile course in the fast time of 33 minutes 50 4-5 seconds. Taylor of Maine was the next to finish with Cahalan of New Hampshire close on his heels.

The squad leaves for Lewiston today to run Bates Friday. Bates won the N. E. I. C. A. A. meet last fall. This meet should prove to be very close, as both colleges have top notch teams.

The summary of the Maine meet last Friday is as follows: Littlefield, New Hampshire; Taylor, Maine; Callahan, New Hampshire; MacNoughton, Maine; Stinson, Maine; Willard, New Hampshire; Noyes, Maine; Weeks, New Hampshire; Eastman, New Hampshire; Whitney, New Hampshire; Noble, Maine; White, New Hampshire.

SEPARATE CONVOCATIONS BY EACH COLLEGE WEDNESDAY

Convocation hour next Wednesday will be conducted by each college separately. This is a new departure in the weekly meetings of the students and is planned in order to have speakers here on specialized subjects and to give the Deans an opportunity to bring up matters pertaining to their respective colleges.

Liberal Arts students will meet in the Big Gymnasium, the Technology students in the Thompson Hall Gymnasium, and the Agricultural students in the Aggie Club Room on the top floor of Morrill Hall.

This form of Convocation will be repeated several times during the school year.

A. T. O. AND KAPPA SIGMA WIN IN INTRAMURAL GAMES

O. five overran the Theta Kappa Phi team by a margin of twelve points, winning out 24 to 12.

INFANTRY JUNIORS HAVE MAP PROBLEM

Advance Course Students Sketching
Cross Country Course as Part of Term's Work

A map of the varsity cross country course is the unusual problem which has been given to the infantry juniors in the R. O. T. C. under Capt. Pettee for the first part of their term's work.

Paul Sweet, coach of cross country, has been handicapped for lack of a map with which to make visiting teams acquainted with the local course. After a conference with Capt. Pettee, it was decided that mapping the route followed by the cross country men and the surrounding country would be a good problem for the advance course students.

Last week Capt. Pettee ran a preliminary traverse of the ground to be covered. This area has been divided up into nine sections. Four men have been assigned to each of the nine sub-areas. These men will pair off in twos in making their sketches, so that two maps of each section will be turned in. From these maps a composite map of the entire area will be drawn and blue prints made from it.

ENTRIES FOR HANDICAPS CLOSE TOMORROW AT FOUR

The plans for the Fall Handicaps are getting underway and a large number of entries is expected by Coach Sweet. Last year there were about two hundred entered and indications point to a banner year for 1926.

The lists are in Coach Sweet's office and all entries will close promptly at four tomorrow afternoon. All contestants registering after that hour will be obliged to run from scratch regardless of any previous record.

COVER OF 1928 YEAR BOOK DECIDED UPON

Will be Black With Wildcat's Head
Embossed in Bronze—Color Scheme of Book to be Red and Black

A meeting of the Granite board was held Monday evening at which several matters of importance were discussed. It was decided to have a stiff cover of Levant grain imitation leather for the 1928 issue. An embossed wildcat head of bronze color and of a circular design will be the only decoration on the cover.

The color scheme will be red and black throughout. The art work on the division and title pages is completed and the proofs in red and black have been made. The art centers around the wildcat motif and the art editors have done considerable work to make the cuts as varied as possible.

A list of the Juniors has been posted on the bulletin board in front of Thompson Hall. Any who do not desire to have their picture in the Granite should see Ned Elliott at once. Seniors who have not previously had their pictures in the Granite and campus Juniors who wish to have their pictures in the year book should also see Ned Elliott. Work will begin on the pictures the first of November and the list of the students who are to have their pictures in the book must be complete by that time.

Several new heeleders have been added to the list of those working on the current issue of the Granite. They are: Elizabeth Bauer, David Beck, Fred Smith, Julia Taylor and Everard French. A meeting of the heeleders will be held Monday evening and assignments will then be given out.

From these voluntary stories the club will attempt to define just what makes an experience valuable. Following this there will be a group sing.

WILDCATS BEAT RHODE ISLAND

Fumble in Second Period Enables Varsity to Score

Nicora Scores Only Touchdown and Kicks Deciding Goal—Rhode Island
Nosed Out By 7 to 6 Score—
New Players Star

The Wildcat football team barely nosed out the Rhode Island State College eleven at Kingston last Saturday by the score of 7 to 6. The two elevens battled evenly throughout the contest with the Rhode Island team having the edge in the passing game. Nicora scored the only touchdown for New Hampshire, picking up a fumble and running seventy yards to chalk up the Wildcat's score. "Nic" also kicked the point after touchdown which gave New Hampshire the slender margin of victory.

Rhode Island made the first score in the opening period of the game on a forward pass from Brown to Donald, the latter crossing the goal line for a touchdown. Rhode Island failed, however, to make its try for goal. This touchdown seemed a good margin of victory until the "break" came in the second period for New Hampshire.

Rhode Island was on New Hampshire's thirty yard line when O'Leary and Nicora tackled an opposing half-back hard enough to cause the Rhode Island man to drop the ball. Nicora scooped up the rolling ball and started for the goal line, which he reached without much opposition. On the next play Nicora kicked a drop kick for the deciding point of the game. For the remainder of the contest the two teams see-sawed back and forth with New Hampshire on the defensive most of the time.

Coach Cowell started the lineup that had been used all week in prac-

IOTA CHI HOLDS FIRST MEETING OF SCHOOL YEAR

The first meeting of the year of Iota Chi, the honorary journalistic fraternity, was held in the wing of the Commons building on Friday, October 15. The matter of fraternity badges was discussed and left over until the next meeting while the members consider them. The designs of two pins, best liked by the committee, are on the bulletin board at THE NEW HAMPSHIRE office awaiting the vote of the members.

A committee composed of Jane Blake, '29; Elizabeth Ricker, '29 and Victor Sanborn, '27 was appointed to arrange for a convention of high school and prep school editors. Plans will be made to have the editors visit the university some time during the school year with the object of promoting an interest in journalism in the preparatory schools.

The meetings this year will be held every two weeks, the night to be decided later.

AFFIRMATIVE TEAMS WIN TWO IMPORTANT CAMPUS DEBATES

The time worn and tongue torn subject, "Compulsory Freshman Board at the Commons" and "A First Year Third Term Freshman Rushing Rule" were again re-hashed in formal debates on the Campus Tuesday morning; and in both cases the affirmative team won. The vote favoring the Commons protagonists was overwhelming, 17 to 3, while the advocates of the Third Term Rushing barely gained the decision, 13 to 12.

Robert Hanson, Gladys Rollins and E. B. Bruce with Howard Crins as alternate, affirmative, bowed to John Manning, Gertrude Nye, and Ned Ward with Margaret Woodman as alternate, negative on the question, "Resolved, that the University of New Hampshire Freshman Compulsory Board Regulation should apply only during the first term."

The affirmative team of Burnham Davis, Frank Horne, Jerry Bond, and Edward Henderson alternate got the lucky 13 over the negative team of Charles Johnson, Albert Van Allen, Gunner Michelson, and Stewart Weston alternate, on the question, "Resolved, that Casque and Casket should adopt a First Year Third Term Freshman Rushing Rule."

ARE COLLEGE MEN WANTED—ARE THEY?

According to a statement made by A. W. Armstrong in the Atlantic Monthly, college men are highly desirable by Big Business. There is one chief difficulty which arises from the co-partnership of college men and Big Business.

The general attitude of the college man on graduating from his school of higher learning is of dominance over the mere high school graduate. The college man feels that the cultural background which he received through his studies at college fit him for positions involving leadership in business organization, and that he is far better equipped to fill positions of importance in large organizations. The college man not only wants to be "pushed" to the high positions, but also expects that his education should be considered when advancements are made. He leaves college with high ambitions for executive positions, but on finding himself confronted with the problem of "How much are you worth to Big Business?" the college man finds himself perplexed and cannot fully understand the why of the question.

The general tendency of Big Business during the last few years has not been to employ college men who come highly recommended by college professors due, undoubtedly, to the scholastic ranks attained at the higher institutions of learning, but to employ the high school graduates who are seemingly endowed with not only the ambition to advance, but also the ability to be worth while to Big Business. Consequently, college men feel that they are being left out in the cold and they have begun to give serious thought to the question "Are College Men Wanted?"

To be frank and truthful, college men have the greatest opportunities in this modern age of profiteering and prosperous business, to advance to the highest possible positions of prominence in Big Business. The college men receive a general knowledge of business through their studies. But Big Business cannot be satisfied with general knowledge. What is wanted is the practical knowledge and the stick-to-it attitude. Big Business would rather build up an organization including men who can make successes of the problems which confront them. If those men cannot be found in college ranks Big Business looks elsewhere.

And that is just what has happened. Big Business, which is governed largely by men who have not had the advantages of college educations but who have worked their way up to the top via the self-made method, is out looking for able men who can fill the executive positions. The saying, "No more college men—please", has almost become a slogan with some corporation employment agencies.

The outstanding criticism against the college man is his overweening desire to be advanced faster than his own development and the exigencies of business permit. It is granted that in the long run the man with a collegiate education will, other things being equal, have a decided advantage over the man without it. But from the executive standpoint, no educational training offers an acceptable substitute for a reasonable period of actual work in a business organization. But that is where the rub comes. A reasonable period! In the mind of a college man it is only a matter of a few months—a year or so at the most. In the executive's mind it is from two to five years at the least.

The trouble with the college man is that he is too eager to capitalize on what he considers a considerable investment—his education. There is a time worn saying that knowledge is the possession of facts, but wisdom the ability to use them. Perhaps the college men have failed to judge wisely their possibilities of advancement.

Yes. College men are wanted. But before college men can be of any use to Big Business they must realize the fact that there are millions of other people in this world who are just as eager for advancement.

LIBRARY NOTES

The Fiftieth Anniversary Conference of the American Library Association held in Atlantic City, New Jersey and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania was a very unusual and noteworthy gathering. One of the sessions was held in the latter city, where the organization was founded fifty years ago. Addresses were delivered by the founders, Robert R. Bowker and Melvil Dewey. Thirty delegates were present, representing all the important libraries in foreign countries, and including Mr. Guppy, librarian of the John Rylands Library of Manchester, England and president of the Library Association of the United Kingdom, which holds its fiftieth anniversary celebration in Edinburgh, Scotland, next year. A number of these foreign delegates gave addresses in their own tongues and in English, concerning library progress and the world of books in their own countries and libraries.

The addresses and reports of committees indicate a forward looking movement on the part of the association with the aim of making the second fifty years of the association surpass even the first in achievement. George H. Locke, librarian of the Toronto Public Library, Canada, is the new president of the association and the next meeting will be in Toronto.

Among the noteworthy features of the conference was the presentation of the Newberry medal, for the best children's book of the year, to A. B. Chrisman for his "Shen of the Sea." The large and unusual displays of book dealers, book-binders and library supply houses, and the fact that the attendance of twenty-five hundred delegates was recorded, made this the largest conference ever held. Mr. Lewis and Miss Cushing represented the University Library.

A large and unusual library exhibit is on display in the Educational building at the Sesquicentennial Exposition, and a large number of the libraries of the country are holding special exhibits of their own.

A. cabinet and the following twelve were elected: Marion Frame, Evangeline Durgin, Helen Huovinen, Eleanor Hartford, Ruth Adams, Marion Smith, Winifred Lowe, Ellen Farley, Faith Meader, Ruth Bunker, Alice Davis, and Thelma Bunker. "Y" MONEY DRIVE BEGINS NOV. 3

Failure of Campus Chest Necessitates Canvassing

Extensive Program Covered During Year By Christian Association—Organization Again Sponsors Discussion Groups

The University Y. M. C. A. will launch its annual four day drive for funds with which to carry out an extensive program for the year on November 3.

It was originally planned to raise this money by means of a Campus Chest from which all the Christian Associations would draw expenses, but because of lack of interest on the part of influential bodies, it has been deemed advisable to lay this matter on the table for this year at least. Therefore students will be approached by the "Y" Finance Committee to give them an opportunity to contribute to this cause.

The functions of the Y. are many. They begin with the Freshman Reception, which is the opening social event at the University. It is followed by get-togethers, joint Y. M.-Y. W. meetings, smokers, and meetings with special speakers and entertainments.

In view of the success of the fraternity discussion groups begun last year, it is expected that a similar policy will be followed this winter. Full benefit has been taken of the mistakes and shortcomings of the initial attempt and the stage is set to make these groups an institution on the campus.

For students interested in deputations, opportunities are given in this direction by frequent trips to nearby towns and schools to spread the principles and ideals for which the "Y" stands. During the past year teams have been sent to Tilton School, Brewster Free Academy, Madbury, Lee, and Newfields.

Employment Bureau
 Two of the most beneficial departments of the University Y. M. C. A. are the Employment Bureau and the Book Exchange. During the past year the scope of both has increased several fold. So far this year, 250 have registered for work and jobs are being filled at the rate of ten a day. The Book Exchange. During the past year small shelf of books to a collection requiring two large cases.

It is to support these activities that the Christian Associations are coming to the student body for help.

PRINCE ALBERT stepped out into the world nearly twenty years ago. Success was immediate . . . and outstanding. Because P. A. measures up to the first and greatest rule for success: It has the goods! The school of experience has produced no finer tobacco than this.

Just buy yourself a tidy red tin of P. A. and tamp a load flush with the muzzle of your old jimmy-pipe. Connect with a match, and let that first wonderful drag tell you that no other tobacco can come within a mile of this for sheer pipe-quality.

Cool as a dormitory radiator. Sweet as an extra cut. Fragrant as a peach-orchard. P. A. can't bite your tongue or parch your throat—another important detail. Get yourself some Prince Albert today. No other tobacco can bring you so much downright smoke-pleasure.

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

MARSHALL'S EQUIPMENT MOST MODERN OBTAINABLE

These "peppy" autumn days find The University of New Hampshire in a mood of progress which has typified it among the colleges of the East during the last decade. New buildings fast raising their heads to the sky, a student body that is fast growing bigger and better and a faculty imbued with the spirit of education are all factors of prime importance in the genesis of what is now, and shall continue to be New Hampshire's greatest institution. Durham too is keeping abreast of the times by enlarging its business facilities and making improvements in the town.

Chief among Durham's thriving little business houses is The Marshall House and The Marshall House Cafe.

The Marshall House came to Durham, so to speak, with the Class of 1927, because it was in the Fall of 1923 that this fine restaurant opened its doors to the students and townspeople. From those days when New Hampshire was experiencing the thrill of becoming a University, The Marshall House has been progressing with the steady onward march of the colleges. Each year has found a bigger dining room and better equipment. Each year has found a larger number of satisfied patrons and a greater group of friends and well-wishers among the alumni. It might be well to digress here for a moment and speak of the site on which The Marshall House is located. The House was known as The Jenkins House. It is one of Durham's old houses and under the present ownership is fast becoming one of Durham's show places. It has been variously used as a restaurant, fraternity house, rooming house and since it came into the possession of Mr. Marshall it has become a typical College Town Inn, well regulated and well kept.

Anyone who knew the Old Jenkins House as it was four years ago will concur in the statement that the infinite care and business pride of a man can work wonders in a short time. The outward appearance of the house has improved a hundred percent. This spot in the center of the town which not so long ago was a ramshackle building, is now a source of pride to its owners and to Durham people. More important than this however, is the vast improvement that has been made in the dining room and culinary department of The Marshall House. It has ever been the proprietor's desire to serve the best foods in season, to have them properly cooked and properly served. With these ends in view he has during the four years of his proprietorship, equipped his kitchen so that now without the slightest approach to exaggeration he can state that The Marshall House kitchen is the best equipped kitchen in New Hampshire. Electric bakers, toasters, etc., are only incidental in this equipment. The greatest step in modern kitchen efficiency is found in the Frigidaire refrigerating system which keeps The Marshall House food pure and wholesome. From cool, dry, clean refrigerator, through a clean kitchen, prepared by expert chefs, to your table is the cycle through which Marshall House food goes. Your fruit, fresh vegetables, meats and milk are all preserved in Frigidaire the most modern use of electricity. There is no salt or ammonia around your ice cream when it is packed. The containers are cooled not through contact with the solution but through contact with the casing it is in. The ice served in your iced drinks is made from pure water drawn from the town supply and put into the Frigidaire system to freeze. Everything that is humanly possible to do to protect your food from contamination is done by (Continued on Page 4)

CAN YOU SUGGEST THE CLEVEREST WORDS TO COMPLETE THE HEADLINE IN THE ADVERTISEMENT BELOW?

$2,000⁰⁰ in CASH PRIZES

"Friend,

"You like a strong he-man's cigarette.

"So do I. But that's no reason why you should pay for it with a parched tongue or throat.

"Pick a brand that gives you all the punch you want without any punishment.

"Switch to OLD GOLDS . . . and get all the sweet without any bitter; all the pleasure without any penalty.

"They're smoothest—that's why!"

Some men have the mistaken notion that a real he-man's cigarette must be harsh and coarse. That's "all wet." A fine full-bodied cigarette, like a fine full-bodied Havana, is smooth and mellow. OLD GOLDS are mellowed by a new method that takes out all the bite and leaves in all the "kick." That's why you can smoke them without "throat-tickle"; why you can smoke and enjoy them morning, noon and night—without regret or after-effect.

- (2) Anyone—of either sex—may compete, excepting employees of the P. Lorillard Company, or their affiliated companies.
- (3) Read the text of the advertisement carefully. Study the picture. Then submit the most appropriate headline starting with the word "FRIEND" and using not over ten words all told. The shorter the headline, the better, if it gets over the point.
- (4) Originality, clearness, brevity, neatness and legibility will count.
- (5) Send your suggestion on the coupon in this advertisement, or a sheet of paper, written on one side of sheet, only. Sign your full name and address. You may submit as many suggestions as you like, but each must be on a separate sheet of paper, or a separate coupon—with your name and address in full.
- (6) In the event that several persons submit the same winning headline, with equal neatness and equal respect for the above conditions, the prize for that headline will be divided equally among them.

- GEORGE McDEVITT New York Representative Boston Herald-Traveler
MORTON S. RUTSKY President, Collegiate Special Advertising Agency, Inc.
JULIUS MATHEWS Representative of 48 New England Newspapers
ROBERT W. ORR Lennen & Mitchell, Inc., Advertising Agency

THE P. Lorillard Company plan to publish the above advertisement for OLD GOLD Cigarettes in a list of important newspapers.

In order to secure the most effective headline, they are inviting the men and women of New England to read the text of the advertisement carefully, study the picture and then submit their headline suggestions—each headline suggestion to start with the word "FRIEND" and to contain not over ten words all told.

Perhaps, one of the men in the picture is telling his friend how to get rid of his "tickling throat." He might be saying "FRIEND, DON'T KEEP THAT THROAT-TICKLE; SWITCH TO OLD GOLDS!" Or he may be saying something entirely different pertaining to the excellence of OLD GOLD Cigarettes. You can write your own ticket!

52 prizes totaling $2,000 will be awarded for the 52 headline suggestions which most cleverly get over the point of this advertisement—in the opinion of the judges.

TILTON X-COUNTRY MEN DEFEAT FROSH

Huckins Stars for Tilton—Lowe Takes Second Place for Freshman—Andover Next Opponents

The freshman cross country team was defeated by Tilton School at Tilton last Saturday, by the score of 23 to 32. The freshmen found some difficulty with the course which was mostly on an upgrade.

Hobbs, one of the best runners on the New Hampshire team was forced to slow up in the latter part of the race because of a tightening of the stomach muscles. He finished gamely however, and managed to get eighth place. The outstanding man on the Tilton team was Huckins, who finished first. The order in which they crossed the line is as follows: Huckins, Tilton; Lowe, N. H.; Kasian, T.; Davis, T.; Toothacker, T.; Corpening, N. H.; Roberts, N. H.; Hobbs, N. H.; Sheridan, N. H.; Lovell, T.

The frosh will go to Andover next Saturday to clash with the Andover Academy harriers. Coach Sweet expects to see tradition upset in this meet with a freshman victory.

The New Hampshire squad spent the Friday night before the game at Mansfield Tavern in Mansfield, Mass. A light workout was held there to limber up the players after the long bus ride. Accompanying the squad on the trip were Prof. A. W. Richardson, chairman of the athletic committee; manager, Barney Johnson; and sub-manager, Cummings.

MANUSCRIPTS FOR PRIZE SPEAKING CONTEST BY NOV. 3

All candidates for the Men's Prize Speaking contest must present their completed manuscripts to Mr. Ufford for suggested rhetorical changes and to agree upon a title for the address by Nov. 3. An entrance fee of fifty cents will be collected from all entrants for the Debating Fund from which will be purchased a solid gold medal for the winner. In addition to this medal a silver one will be awarded to the man winning second place and two bronze medals to the men taking the next two places provided that more than twenty competitors enter the contest.

The preliminaries will be held before a board of judges on Nov. 10 and the finals in convocation on Nov. 17. Later in the year the winner will probably represent the university in an intercollegiate contest or public meeting.

Mr. Ufford will be in room 209, Shops, between one-thirty and four-thirty daily and on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from eight to ten and from eleven to twelve. Speeches must be original, not more than ten minutes in length and memorized for delivery.

DR. MAX ABELL ADDED TO EXPERIMENT STATION STAFF

Research work in Agricultural Economics, by the Experiment Station is being expanded this year. Dr. Max Abell, after five years' service at M. A. C., has been added to the staff. Dr. Abell is a graduate of Cornell, later he studied at Ohio State, and then took his Ph. D. from Cornell.

Among projects studied this year will be an investigation of cost of potato production under varying conditions, meeting the demands of the White Mountain Hotels for vegetables and poultry, study of fruit farms and the methods of grain purchasing.

Considerable research work has been planned by Professor Eastman, Professor Potter and Mr. Rollins.

SOCCER TEAM DEFEATED BY SPRINGFIELD ELEVEN

The varsity soccer lost a close game to the strong Springfield College aggregation last Saturday, 4 to 0. The game was hard fought throughout with the odds slightly on the Bay Staters.

Captain Kirk, Currie, and Gustafson starred for Coach Swasey's eleven while Wier of Springfield excelled for his team. Pulsifer, goalie on the New Hampshire team, had a little bad luck when he let in goal in attempting to kick the ball out of danger. Zwick and Braun were fast on the Springfield offense, carrying the ball down the field with perfect team-work.

nary, came in to welcome the crowd and enjoy the feast. He entertained with a fearsome collection of yarns concerning the ferocious aspects of the wild animals in the locality. Gelpke and Chase reciprocated with an impromptu radio concert, which ranged all the way from bedtime stories to the vanquishing of Joe Malou by Jack Dempsey at Quebec.

The concert having been approved by George Washington, everyone proceeded to get ready for the feature of the evening's program, a barn dance at Freedom. Bryant put one over on the rest of the party by producing a razor and announcing his intention of shaving for the affair. Shocked almost to tears at this unexpected desertion from the bearded ranks, Robinson and Day grabbed a pail and started for water to aid the operation. Their helpful efforts ended in a burlesque of the Jack and Jill episode, when Day executed an impromptu roll and slide down the hill culminating in a beautiful swan dive into the brook.

The barn dance was given by Mr. Weed of Freedom and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. At the close of the dance, songs were sung and the party returned to camp.

The next morning it rained and the trip up the mountain had to be abandoned. Bryant and Sgt. Brown confiscated the truck for sleeping quarters and refused to vacate when the breakfast call sounded. A board of strategy was formed and after deep thought, they prepared a smoke attack that drove the delinquents to cover.

After a breakfast of beans, the camp was broken and the group returned to Durham.
