Fine Program Presented

At Community Church

The combined University of New Hampshire Glee Clubs presented their annual Christmas Carol service at the Community Church, Sunday, Dec. 12, at 4:30 p.m. The program was a fine event with the previous years' efforts. It was the first event of the season in which a number of student groups have been worked upon. A great deal of effort has been devoted to the planning and execution of the program and the result has been a fine demonstration of the potentiality of student life in the University of New Hampshire.

VARIES CANDIDATES FOR BOXING

The varsity boxing team has been working its charges without any let-up during the past week in order that the men may get down to their regular weights gradually, not losing too much during the break. The program in the past week has consisted of practice with the addition of thinning stock market; the keeping of cost and earnings records; continuation of the 300 acreage planned for its semi-weekly farm page was passed by the agents following a talk given by Mr. H. I. Richards of the bureau of agricultural economics and Mr. A. N. Payne, who is the head instructor at the University of New Hampshire.

A LONGER VACATION

Now that vacation draws near there are many complaints heard throughout the holiday period. It seems as though the majority are one of the many who have to travel long dis­ dances to get home, or those who have to travel long dis­ dances to get home, or those who are limited in their knowledge of
