CONFERENCE FOR TEACHERS STARTS

Sir John Adams, professor of Education, was the chairman of Opening Resources of the conference held at the Reference for the Schools of Herman.

W. H. Adams is on the faculty of the University.

It was attended by representatives from over 20 states.

Fourteen sessions were held on Tuesday and Wednesday.

The conference will continue until April 29.

Planes COMPLETE FOR MOTHERS' DAY

The New Hampshire varsity baseball team meets the Suffolk High School at 3:30 p.m. today. The team is still in the process of preparing for the upcoming season.

The program will include Group Pictures
of The Mothers at Memorial Field and the Baseball
Gym. The baseball game will follow.

B.O. T. C. LEAVES HERE MAY 22 FOR NASHUA

The Reserve Officers Training Corps
will leave for Nashua on May 22.

Maj. H. E. B. Pottier, president of the University will return at 10 a.m. today.

A dose hotel is planned for the students who will attend the annual spring training camp.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR MOTHERS' DAY

Mothers to Begin Tour of Class Rooms at 9 o'clock

The program will include Group Pictures
of The Mothers at Memorial Field and the Baseball
Gym. The baseball game will follow.

B.O. T. C. LEAVES HERE MAY 22 FOR NASHUA

The Reserve Officers Training Corps
will leave for Nashua on May 22.

Maj. H. E. B. Pottier, president of the University will return at 10 a.m. today.

A dose hotel is planned for the students
who will attend the annual spring training camp.

ELECTIONS FOR MAINE...

STEVENS TO CAPTAIN WINTER SPORTS TEAM

Mr. Raleigh M. Stevens, captain of the
New Hampshire varsity track team.

The varsity track team will get its start on Brackett Field, Monday afternoon. Many of them a chance to show what they can do this season. The team meets the University of Norwich on the gridiron.

WESTON TO CAPTAIN WINTER SPORTS TEAM

Mr. Raleigh M. Stevens, captain of the
New Hampshire varsity track team.

The varsity track team will get its
start on Brackett Field, Monday afternoon. Many of them a chance to show what they can do this season. The team meets the University of Norwich on the gridiron.

NATURAL SCIENCES

Edward M. Lewis, 26, of Connecticut, was elected captain of the various winter sports team of the Uni-ity of New Hampshire on the gridiron.

The varsity track team will get its
start on Brackett Field, Monday afternoon. Many of them a chance to show what they can do this season. The team meets the University of Norwich on the gridiron.

WINTER SPORTS TEAM

Mr. Raleigh M. Stevens, captain of the
New Hampshire varsity track team.

The varsity track team will get its
start on Brackett Field, Monday afternoon. Many of them a chance to show what they can do this season. The team meets the University of Norwich on the gridiron.

WINTER SPORTS TEAM

Mr. Raleigh M. Stevens, captain of the
New Hampshire varsity track team.

The varsity track team will get its
start on Brackett Field, Monday afternoon. Many of them a chance to show what they can do this season. The team meets the University of Norwich on the gridiron.

WINTER SPORTS TEAM

Mr. Raleigh M. Stevens, captain of the
New Hampshire varsity track team.

The varsity track team will get its
start on Brackett Field, Monday afternoon. Many of them a chance to show what they can do this season. The team meets the University of Norwich on the gridiron.

WINTER SPORTS TEAM

Mr. Raleigh M. Stevens, captain of the
New Hampshire varsity track team.

The varsity track team will get its
start on Brackett Field, Monday afternoon. Many of them a chance to show what they can do this season. The team meets the University of Norwich on the gridiron.

WINTER SPORTS TEAM

Mr. Raleigh M. Stevens, captain of the
New Hampshire varsity track team.

The varsity track team will get its
start on Brackett Field, Monday afternoon. Many of them a chance to show what they can do this season. The team meets the University of Norwich on the gridiron.
T may become better acquainted.

state now attending the University

4-H clubs and the work which the club will be held here at the Commu­

MISS BOURNE TO SPEAK

University organization may do. The has been made, we are glad that our

We've needed him. Now that a choice as a supreme executive.

he was so good at.

for this year.

Marion Carpenter, '28 J. Clark, '29

H. L. Kingsley, '29, E. L. Getchell, '29,

Peter Agrafiotis, '29, M. Barker, '29

Ruth Pitcher, '29, Elisabeth Bauer, '29

Elizabeth Child, '29 Helen Abbott, '29

Prof. E. L. Getchell, Finance Manager

subsidy of the University. The

M. E. Richards, '29, A. G. Creighton, '29,

Melbourne Cummings, '29, Jesse Pellerin, '27, Intercollegiate Editor

the fraternity and sorority houses.

made "Mothers' Day" an annual af­ last year to bring about a

PUPPETS IN DURHAM MAY 6

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Kreymborg, will bring his Mushroom plays, read from his poems, and play

The theatre to Durham for the perform­

We will be more conciliatory and all the old

Mona Altria, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy

Kreymborg, who will be assisted by Dorothy
NEW “PREXY” FAMED

the presidency of the University of them defeat Laconia in baseball, ac­ might be sure of winning their mana­

City Clerk Irving V. Goss went pitched exceptionally well* and exlost, 4 to 3, but there was a warm spot in their hearts for "Ted" Lewis."

Elliott elected to Y. M. C. A. presidency

Student T. M. C. A. Members Also "Three Andrew" "Jacky" "George Al."

Other Officers—New President

Served to Editor of Civic Bulletin

C. S. Ball, '28, of Bath, has been elected student president of the local Y. M. C. A. Christian association. He succeeds Ross Market, '27, who has already been installed as president by the Rev. Joseph B. E. Ball, University pastor and Y. M. C. A. secretary. Arthur Anderson, '27, of Portland, Me., was elected treasurer, Geo. L. Atwood, '27, of Boston, chairman, and Malcolm Combest, '23, of Castellite, secretary. The elections were determined by ballot and the newly elected officers will meet on May 13 for the opening of the term of the Y. M. C. A. conducted by the old body.

Elliot is at present a member of the football, basketball and winter teams and an alumnus of the "Tigers." He took over the New Hampshire post as an alumnus and the last meeting of the Y. M. C. A. conducted was the regular monthly meeting.

Alums A. J. Matthews of Milton, N. H., and Ira A. Towsley of Exeter, N. H., were also present at the meeting.

President" Lewis First Speaker for Summer Term

The Rev. J. W. W. Lewis, president of the University, will deliver the opening address for the session of the University for the summer term, as announced by Professor R. H. B. Wakefield, of the Department of Mathematics, in an address last week. President Lewis will address the students on May 8 at the opening of the term.

The Rev. J. W. W. Lewis, president of the University, will deliver the opening address for the session of the University for the summer term, as announced by Professor R. H. B. Wakefield, of the Department of Mathematics, in an address last week. President Lewis will address the students on May 8 at the opening of the term.

President Lewis First Speaker for Summer Term

The Rev. J. W. W. Lewis, president of the University, will deliver the opening address for the session of the University for the summer term, as announced by Professor R. H. B. Wakefield, of the Department of Mathematics, in an address last week. President Lewis will address the students on May 8 at the opening of the term.

The Rev. J. W. W. Lewis, president of the University, will deliver the opening address for the session of the University for the summer term, as announced by Professor R. H. B. Wakefield, of the Department of Mathematics, in an address last week. President Lewis will address the students on May 8 at the opening of the term.

They've found it out!

Nothing can ever take the place of natural tobacco taste and smokers have found it out!