Three Hundred and Sixty One Graduated on May 15

Wednesday, May 21, 2014

⋮

The University of New Hampshire at Manchester celebrated the achievements of 361 graduates at the college's 29th annual commencement proceedings on Thursday, May 15 in the historic mill yard. The ceremony recognized 242 undergraduate and 120 graduate students who have earned an associate, baccalaureate, or master's degree, or an advanced graduate certificate at the University of New Hampshire's campus in Manchester.

The program included remarks from student speaker Raquel Gawron, a 2014 graduate of the history program, and a keynote address by Deborah Watrous, Executive Director of the New Hampshire Humanities Council. The program also included the presentation of the college's teaching excellence award to John Cerullo, professor of history, and the adjunct teaching award to John Blumberg, adjunct professor of computer science. The 2014 Granite State Award was presented to the Boys & Girls Club of Manchester and will be accepted by Gary Frost, Executive Director. UNH President Mark Huddleston will lead the proceedings.

The graduates are listed below by city, state, academic degree, and their graduation term.
