More Than Four Hundred Enjoy Excellent Program

Mothers See New Hampshire Nine Win Over B. U. Team—Girls' Sports Prove Interesting Feature—College Life of Interest

The day has come and gone, and once more our mothers have come, inspected our institution, praised and criticised our methods, and gone, leaving with us the inspiration for the betterment and the up-building of the University.

When the mothers arrived on the Campus last Saturday, they were accorded a glimpse of real University of New Hampshire hospitality and cordiality, from the time when they registered at the Faculty Club rooms, until the last of the mothers left for home, sometime Tuesday afternoon.

At eleven o'clock the mothers, who gathered on the bleachers, saw a fine exhibition of New Hampshire patriotism when they witnessed the review of the R. O. T. C. cadet battalions and a short while afterwards they saw a good example of the students at play as the canoe races and swimming events were run off at Hayes Pond.

After luncheon in the Commons dining hall, the mothers went to the Girls' Field to see the competitive sports between teams from the women's Physical Education classes, and later they saw the Varsity baseball team win a hard-fought game from Boston University.

During the late afternoon the mothers had a taste of the Fraternity and Sorority life on the Campus, when the fraternities held open house for the mothers, and the various sororities gave teas in honor of the mothers.

The day was generally conceded to be more successful than was Mother's Day last year, owing both to the enlarged registration and the excellent weather conditions. The success of this second Mother's Day will go a long way toward establishing the event as a custom and tradition for the University.

FRESHMEN RULES FOR GIRLS ARE DISCUSSED

Anna Philbrook, New President of Women's Student Government, Gives Report of National Conference

Before the regular meeting of the Women's Student Government Association held in "T" Hall May 5, Dean E. P. DeMerritt spoke to the freshman women for a few minutes about the customary rules imposed upon freshmen by sophomores. She cautioned the girls to use good sense in drawing up the rules for next year and suggested that they might be eliminated in time.

Following this talk, Anna Philbrook, president-elect of the Women's Student Government Association, gave a report of the conference held in Urbana, Illinois, at which universities and colleges from all parts of the United States were represented. Gwendolyn Jones and Anna Philbrook were the delegates from the University. Miss Jones gave a report of a recent conference of Student Government Associations in New England colleges held in Durham.

It is expected that some important changes will be made in the rules to be drawn up for next year, an attempt being made to make the rules more lenient.

OUTING CLUB PLANS FOR CABIN IN LEE OR RAYMOND

At a meeting of the University Outing Club held last Wednesday evening definite steps were taken in the direction of an outing lodge. Among several possible locations, one at Wheelright Pond and another on Patuckaway Mountain were chosen as the best places for camp sites.

Wheelright Pond is situated in Lee about four miles from Durham, while Patuckaway Mountain is located six miles from Raymond, making a hiking distance of approximately twelve miles from here. Sentiment favors the latter site because of its beautiful location, its excellent hunting and fishing grounds, and the small expense at which it can be renovated. Whereas land would have to be purchased at Wheelright Pond and new buildings erected at considerable cost, an old camp still remains on Patuckaway Mountain which has still several years of service.

William Prince, '27, president of the club, states that this camp can be remodeled for less than $300 and hopes to take action in the near future.

DONAL MACPHEE ELECTED PRES. OF IOTA CHI SOCIETY

At a meeting of Iota Chi society held last Thursday evening in the Commons club room, the following officers for 1927 were elected: President, Donal MacPhee, '28; vice president, Jane Blake, '29; secretary, Louise Sprague, '29; treasurer, Robert Stark, '29.

New members admitted to the society are Lester Brooks, '28; John Valakis, '29; Ned Elliott, '28; Jesse Pellerin, '27; Gertrude Nye, '29; Mel-bourne Cummings, '29; John Whittemore, '29; Mary Haselton, '29; Marion Carpenter, '28; Gertrude Twombly, '29; Marjorie West, '29; Justin Clark, '29; Robert Schiller, '30; and Paul Blaisdell, '29. Plans were discussed for the next meeting which will be in the form of a social. The new president succeeds John Fleming, '29, whose term of office has expired.

STUDENTS ATTEND Y. M. C. A. MEETING AT PORTSMOUTH

The annual state convention of the Y. M. C. A. was held in Portsmouth Tuesday, and was attended by seventy-seven delegates. The University of New Hampshire Christian Association was represented by Clifford Ellis, '30, Floyd Willy, '30, Warren Gee, '29, and the Reverend Joseph Barker. E. Curtis Mathews of Portsmouth was elected president and Mr. Barker was re-elected secretary.

The meeting was held on the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Portsmouth Y. M. C. A., and in honor of this the governors of Maine, New Hampshire, and Massachusetts were invited to attend. Gov. Fuller was prevented from attending by an accident, but Gov. Spaulding and Gov. Brewster were present. The delegates were taken to the Navy Yard on a tug and when the tug entered the Yard it was given the governor's salute by five navy tugs.

NOTICE

There will be a meeting of the Casque and Casket representatives on Monday evening at 7.30 p. m. All members are urged to be present at this important meeting.

PROPOSED CHANGES TO ENLARGE LIBRARY

Only Two Classrooms In Library Next Year—To Have A New Hampshire Room—New Stacks In Basement

The year 1927-28 is going to mark the first of a series of improvements in the arrangement of the Library. The completion of Murkland Hall means that there will be only two class rooms in the Library building and that the Library will have more space for much-needed purposes of its own.

One big change will be having the class room now next to Dean French's office for a reserved book room so that all required reading will be done there, leaving the main Library with more space for outside, leisure reading, and for reference of research work. The upstairs room is to have the walls lined with shelves and to be fitted out with chairs and tables.

What is now Dean French's office on the second floor is to be a New Hampshire Room where will be kept books about this state. In addition, the aim is to have there as complete a file as possible of University material: Programs of student activities, yearbooks, bulletins, clippings about students and faculty, etc. It is hoped that alumni, knowing of this, will perhaps want to contribute material they may have about past events.

Stacks have been ordered for the room in the basement now used as a class room so that next year there will be space there to file all the government documents in their logical order and also to shelve duplicate books.

In time, as adequate class rooms are provided elsewhere, and as the Library grows, the whole building will be given over to Library needs and eventually an addition will doubtless be made to the stacks in the rear.

BENEFIT READINGS FOR KINDERGARTEN

Mr. Kreymborg Attends Supper With Faculty—Gives Readings From His Own Poems and Other Selections

Alfred Kreymborg, experimenter in modern verse, gave a performance of his much-heralded puppet theatre in the Men's Gymnasium Friday evening, May 6. The two plays, "Lima Beans" and "Jack's House," presented pictures of domestic farce on the miniature stage. Mrs. Kreymborg operated the marionettes while Mr. Kreymborg read the lines of the characters.

The novel feature of the entertainment was the recitation by Mr. Kreymborg of several of his own poems, accompanying himself on the mandolite with music, likewise of his own composition. The mandolite is a stringed instrument which was used by the troubadours of medieval times and is well adapted to the use the poet makes of it.

A dinner was given Saturday evening by Mr. H. B. Stevens and Miss Agnes Ryan, at which about 40 members of the faculty were present. Mr. Kreymborg gave further readings from his own works and selections from other poets of the modern school. Both the entertainment and the dinner were given for the benefit of the local kindergarten fund.

CAPS AND GOWNS

PLANS FOR R. O. T. C. CAMP COMPLETE

Site Prepared in Advance
By Detail Leaving May 18

Camp Has Excellent Position At Greeley Park; Captain Pettee Insures Best Of Food; Dances On Program; All-day Sham Battle

The plans for the annual R. O. T. C. encampment have just been completed. This year the camp is to be held at Greeley Park in Nashua, May 23, 24, 25. On Wednesday May 18, Captain Pettee and Sergeant Hodge are to go to camp by truck and make preliminary arrangements. Saturday May 21, an advance detail and the kitchen police will go to complete the camp arrangements. Sunday, May 21, the main body of the regiment is to go to Nashua. It will depart from Durham at two-ten and will arrive at camp about 4.00 p. m.

The mess staff has been completed and according to Captain Pettee it is qualified to serve some extra tasty meals. Sergeant M. W. Bishop, Company "F", 13 Infantry of Camp Devens is to be mess sergeant. He has had 25 years of service in this branch of the army. Three cooks are also listed from the 13th Infantry, Camp Devens, Arthur Jones, Company "H", August Lipke, Company "C.", and J. J. Greene of Company "E." These cooks are old experienced ones in preparing good food and come to this camp highly recommended.

During the encampment two dances are to be held. Monday evening May 23, the Fifth Artillery Annual Military Ball of the Service Battalion and 197th Company Anti-aircraft of the New Hampshire National Guard, will be held in the high school auditorium. Governor Spaulding is expected to be present at this ball at which Miner Doyle's orchestra will play. Admission to students will be seventy-five cents. On Tuesday May 24, the Nashua branch of the University of New Hampshire Alumni Association will give a dance in the same auditorium. This auditorium has a large and spacious dance floor and is considered one of the largest in New Hampshire. Sunday evening there will be a joint band concert between the University Band and the 197th Company Artillery Band at Greeley Park.

The Military Department is now contemplating staging an all day sham battle in and around Greeley Park. The camp is situated on a direct route to Nashua. Good trolley and bus service may be had at this point.

QUOTA DOUBLED FOR RED CROSS RELIEF

The call of "Tag, tag?", the clinking of money in paper boxes, the digging in pockets for lone dimes, the flapping of pasteboard against oil-skin—all this resulted in more than doubling the Durham Red Cross chapter's quota of $100 for the relief of the Mississippi flood sufferers last Thursday. The setting provided by the downpour of rain gave the day a realistic touch, but did not lessen the vigor of the solicitors, members of the six women's fraternities, who were stationed at points of vantage around campus and in different parts of the town.

"The spirit in which the work was done by the students," said Dr. G. N. Bauer, of the department of Mathematics, who is chairman of the local Red Cross chapter, "was beautiful." When the contribution boxes were turned in after the day, they said, "It was a pleasure." He also announced that the Red Cross extends thanks to the administration for making an exception of its usual practice and allowing tags to be sold on the campus and in the University buildings.

LEWIS RESIGNS FROM BAY STATE COLLEGE

Declares That The University of New Hampshire Offers Broad Scope and Definite Objective For Education

In a speech made to the Trustees of Massachusetts Agricultural College at Amherst Tuesday, May 4, Edward M. Lewis, president-elect of this University, officially resigned his position as head of the Bay State institution. He will leave M. A. C., September 2.

Pres. Lewis said in part: "It is with profound regret that I separate myself from the service of the college and all it means. I am sure that I did not reach this important decision without long and serious deliberation. My affection for M. A. C. is so deep that I could not take this step without satisfying myself that it is best, not only for myself, but for the institution.

"The New Hampshire opportunity offers a larger, broader and freer scope for real educational service and a much more definite and constructive objective."

STUDENT COUNCIL LAWS REVISED

Constitution Presented
For Student Approval

Popular Vote Of Student Body Necessary For Adoption—Dean Of Men To Act On Governing Body

A new constitution has been drawn up by the Student Council which will, if accepted by the Student Body, give this official organ of student government more duties and greater powers on campus. The new document has been approved by the present Council and will be presented soon to the student body for a vote. If the constitution is accepted it will go into effect at the beginning of the next college year.

Several radical changes have been suggested in the new laws among which the article in reference to membership is one of the most prominent. Whereas, the council is composed now of a president elected by the student body, the president of the senior class and his two predecessors, the president of the junior class with the sophomore predecessor, the presidents of the sophomores and freshmen classes, the presidents of the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the Athletic Associations, the Women's student government, and Casque and Casket, with the editors of the New Hampshire and the Granite; the new constitution outlines the members to consist of a president, a vice-president, secretary, treasurer, two senior members and one junior member. The Dean of Men will act as a member of ex-officio and the president of the Women's student government will be called on in matters pertaining to the entire University.

The Student Council shall have, according to the new constitution unlimited jurisdiction over all freshman rules, class competition, and hazing restrictions. The Student activity point system as well as all student activities on campus will come under the Council's control.

The Social Committee which will be composed of student council members is held responsible to the Student Council and a new feature of the "Informals" will be the permission to hold dancing until 11.30 o'clock.

JUNIOR PROM ATTRACTIONS CAUSE QUICK TICKET SALE

The prom committee of the Junior class, under the direction of Alec Currie, is completing its final plans for the annual Junior Prom to be held Friday evening, May 20. Students are again urged to buy their tickets at once, because the attractions of the music and decorations to be offered will eventually result in a disappointment to those who attempt to procure a ticket at a late date.

SENIORS, ATTENTION

Class dues must be paid by graduation. The Commencement Ball will be an invitation affair for those who pay their dues before June 1. Pay dues to Walter Hopkins, treasurer, Theta Chi House.

SENIOR NOTICE

Orders for Commencement programs and invitations must be in by Saturday at the latest. See Armee Martin, Congreve, John Day, Kappa Sigma House, or L. A. Forest, Phi Mu Delta House.

SCHOOL TRACK MEET SATURDAY

350 Contestants Entered
In 15th Annual Tourney

Seventeen Out-of-State and Eleven In-State School Teams To Be Present—Many Stars In Entries—Two Cups Offered in Each Class

The Fifteenth Annual Interscholastic Track Meet, sponsored by the University of New Hampshire, which will take place here Saturday, will be the largest from the stand point of both numbers and individual stars. The meet will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning, and will be finished by three-thirty, when the New Hampshire varsity track team matches up with Boston University. About 350 entries, representing 28 schools, give significance to the number of track men taking part. There are seventeen out-of-state schools and eleven in-state schools. As usual the two classes will be run off separately.

The schools which have entered the meet are: Out-of-state class—Arlington high school, Bridgton Academy, Coburn Classical Institute, Deering high school, Fairhaven high school, Hebron Academy, Kent's Hill Seminary, Lawrence Academy, Leominster high school, Malden high school, Melrose high school, Portland high school, Thornton Academy, Worcester Classical high school, Worcester high school of Commerce, Worcester North high school, Worcester South high school; in-state schools—Berlin high school, Colby Academy, Concord high school, Sanborn Seminary, Manchester high school, Tilton School, Laconia high school, New Hampton Literary Institute, Keene high school, Pinkerton Academy, and Nashua high school.

Several of the stars who are coming are: Chaplin, who broke the half mile record while competing for Nashua last year, and who will be competing for Hebron Academy this year; Folsom, who won the Harvard Interscholastic Mile last year. Del Borah, who was Manfreda's coach at Sanborn Seminary and who is now coaching at Fairhaven high school, is sending up an entrant who has done 49 feet in the shot-put.

Pinkerton Academy, who has won every in-state mile relay since the Derry team began coming to the meets, will be represented this year by another exceptionally strong relay team, which hopes to keep up the work begun by other Pinkerton relay teams.

Paul Sweet, coach of Varsity track and cross country teams, predicts that if good weather prevails, many of the old records are bound to fall. Two cups are to be given in each class, one to the school making the highest number of points in its class, and the other to the school winning the mile relay race.

SOCIOLOGY CLASSES MAKE TRIP TO STATE HOSPITAL

One hundred students taking the general sociology course made a trip of inspection Tuesday to the State Hospital for the Insane at Concord, under the leadership of Dean Albert N. French and Professor Eugene A. Bishop of the Department of Sociology. The trip is an annual one taken each spring by the students in the department who wish to do this extra credit work in the course.

A feature of the trip this year was a "student clinic" which was introduced during the afternoon by doctors at the hospital. Various cases of the different types of insanity were brought into a room where the students were gathered and the symptoms and general characteristics of the various diseases were explained to the students.

NEW HAMPSHIRE SECONDS WIN FROM BOWDOIN, 11-5

The New Hampshire Second team continued their winning streak by trimming Bowdoin Seconds, 11 to 5, at Brunswick, Monday. New Hampshire rallied toward the last of the game to overcome an early Bowdoin lead. The Wildcats had their big inning in the eighth when the Blue and White team batted around to score seven runs.

Hall was the star batter for New Hampshire, having a perfect day at bat, while the other leading New Hampshire hitters were Clark with a home run, Young with a triple and Nelson with a double. Roy pitched a strong game for New Hampshire, keeping the Bowdoin batsmen well in check.

St. John's Prep has recently been added to the second team's schedule and a game with Harvard Seconds is pending.

FOR YOUR APPROVAL

We are publishing this week for the benefit of the students the new constitution of the Student Council. According to a clause in the old set of rules, all changes were to be published in THE NEW HAMPSHIRE for the approval of the student body.

We believe that the new constitution is a sincere attempt on the part of the members to put student matters more in the hands of the students and that it will relieve the faculty of the burden of handling much that concerns the undergraduate body primarily. We earnestly hope that if there are any comments or any changes which the students would like to suggest that they will communicate with the editor for publication.

COMMENT

Mr. Kreymborg's entertainment Friday evening caused more comment concerning intellectual matters on the campus than we have heard in a number of months. A university campus needs something of this nature every so often, and being so far from Boston or any other intellectual center, we perhaps do not get as much of it as we should. For this reason we feel that the entertainment did some good in Durham.

Our only regret is that the poetry and dramatic attempts of Mr. Kreymborg were not of a type to interest or particularly impress the particular audience which they encountered in Durham. We know that there were several who attended who enjoyed the performance. They liked Mr. Kreymborg's work. It may be that they understand the purpose and scheme of the movement which he represents more than do the average persons. They may be right; the conservatives may be dull and unappreciative. We are not educated enough, nor egotistical enough to presume to judge, although, personally, we didn't like the entertainment. At any rate, the effort caused comment and stimulated an interest in imagist poetry which is highly commendable from an intellectual standpoint.

We had read some of Mr. Kreymborg's poetry before and liked it—some of it. We have always had a sincere love of poetry. And yet—it may have been his music or his way of reading his verse—we couldn't get interested Friday evening. We are told, however, that Mr. Kreymborg is distinctly a drawing room entertainer and that his efforts at the dinner given in his honor Saturday night were far superior to anything that has come to Durham in a long time.

Regardless of likes or dislikes, the thanks of the community are certainly due Miss Agnes Ryan, who was instrumental in bringing the Kreymborgs here, not only for her loyal efforts on the behalf of the local kindergarten association for whose benefit the affair took place, but also providing a new and interesting topic of conversation for Durham—which is rare enough as the CREATOR HIMSELF will testify.

FILTHY LUCRE

There are men from old New Hampshire who would dig up ancient graves And for heavy compensation make themselves the Devil's slaves
 Mid the sight of bleaching bones And the sound of ghostlike moans At a fiendish occupation—digging graves, graves, graves;
 What a ghastly occupation—digging graves!

They would sleep within the graveyard, near the disinterred dead. By the side of putrid bodies will the diggers make their bed.

As the ghosts at night come creeping While New Hampshire's sons are sleeping Resting from their occupation—digging graves, graves, graves;

From the fiendish occupation, digging graves.

I would work in Tamuluri, in Death Valley, or Japan

I will strive at filthy labor, and get money where I can.

But I swear by all that's holy, I should never be so lowly

As to try to earn my living digging graves, graves, graves;

By that morbid occupation—digging graves.

Our hearts go out in utmost sympathy to those Co-eds who seem to be suffering under the delusion that they can make roses of themselves by the excessive use of hyacinth perfume.

We are told by the Sociology department (via quotation), that "Platonic love is the relation between the man and woman who have taken Philosophy courses together."

The Chicago gentleman who so gloriously planned "vacation labor" has certainly helped us a lot toward our next year's tuition.

CAMP LEADERSHIP COURSE ENDS MAY 16

Final Exam will End Session—Has Been A Very Instructive Study—Lectures By Different Camp Directors

The Camp Leadership course, which has been under the direction of the Education Department and sponsored by the Reverend Joseph Barker and State Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. E. P. Conlin, concludes with a final examination Monday. Secretary Conlin will give the examination.

The program included an instructive series of lectures. On April 4, Lieutenant-Colonel Albert F. Elwell of Brooklyn, Mass., Director of Camp Mobis, East Hebron, N. H., spoke to the class. The following week Miss Eleanor Sawtelle, Girl Reserve Secretary from the Manchester Y. W. C. A. and Miss Gladys Newt of Camp Spaulding, talked to the women of the class on "Girl Behavior". At the same time Mr. W. S. Dillon of Manchester, Director of the Y. M. C. A. camp spoke to the men. A joint discussion was later carried on.

Mrs. Dwight L. Rogers, first vice-president of the Camp Directors' association in America, lectured to the class April 18. Miss Laura I. Mantoon, secretary of the association, spoke the following week. On May 2 Mr. Manuel Carpenter, director of Camp Carter, Andover, lectured on "Camp Craft".

Monday, May 9, Professor O'Kane lectured on "Camp Craft" and made the lecture very interesting by telling about his personal experiences. Mr. Percy Jewel, Rockingham County Y. M. C. A. secretary, also lectured.

On Monday, the final examination will be given. This will conclude the first course of its kind ever offered at this University, and the initiators feel that it has been a success.

"What's the future with a large organization?" That is what college men want to know, first of all. The question is best answered by the accomplishments of others with similar training and like opportunities. This is one of a series of advertisements portraying the progress at Westinghouse of college graduates, off the campus some five—eight—ten years.

Frenger Came Here to Sell

R. F. FRENGER

When R. F. Frenger was at New Mexico State, in 1915, automatic control for substations, hydro-electric generating plants, railway and mine substation systems, was a hazy dream. Even five years later, when Frenger was working in the Switchgear Sales Section of the Westinghouse Company, automatic switching was far, far away.

Today, however, Frenger, still in his thirties, finds himself in effect the Sales Manager of an automatic switching business—a business that runs up into seven figures every year.

Frenger came to Westinghouse to sell. He expected to sell steam apparatus, since he had taken an M. E. degree.

After a period in the Westinghouse sales school, he became interested in switching apparatus. He spent many months on the engineering side of the work. He spent several years as a sales specialist in the Westinghouse Chicago Office.

Then, as automatic switching grew in importance, Frenger grew along with it. Today he is head of the Automatic Switching Section of the Switchgear Sales Department.

Frenger's work is pioneering in a very real sense, for the automatic control business, lusty as it is, still is in its infancy. Engineering ways and means must be supplied as well as specialized sales skill. The whole world is the market.

Not long ago, Frenger ran out to San Antonio to help the local Westinghouse salesman land an order that puts the San Antonio sub-stations under automatic control. When the Holland vehicular tunnel opens, and connects Manhattan with the Jersey shore, Frenger can point to the traffic signaling system as coming from his section.

At Cleveland one man in a downtown office building turns off and on eleven different sub-stations scattered throughout the city and its suburbs to operate the railway system—all without leaving his chair. Frenger's section again.

It is another case of a well trained man in a pioneering organization.

TERRIERS LOSE
TO WILDCAT NINE*Harvard Defeats Varsity
Batsmen in Close Game

Evans and Macdonald Hold Pitching
Duel in Boston University Game—
New Hampshire Outthurs Harvard
in Contest at Cambridge

The Wildcat nine won and lost last week, dropping a close game to Harvard, 7 to 5, at Cambridge, Friday, and winning 3 to 2 from the Boston University Terriers here on Saturday. The Boston University game was a pitching duel between Evans and Don Macdonald, the Terrier pitcher who trimmed Holy Cross earlier in the season. Evans struck out 15 Terrier batters and allowed four hits, while Macdonald struck out seven and allowed but three hits, giving six free tickets to the initial sack.

Coach Swasey shifted the team around, sending Hatch to left field in Gustafson's place and Reinhart going to second. Gustafson played a fine game in right field in place of Hicks, who went to the receiving end of the battery. Kirvan was used on first in both the games.

The Terriers countered twice in the third on hits by Arkin and O'Brien, a base on balls and two errors at the plate. Captain Ramsey stopped the rally by making a beautiful catch of a liner just over second and converting it into an unassisted double play, ending the inning.

The Wildcats evened things up in the sixth, when Hatch and Reinhart singled for New Hampshire's first hits. Macdonald then passed two men, forcing in Hatch, and Reinhart scored on a passed ball. There was no more scoring until the eighth, when Hoyt walked, stole second, and scored on Ramsey's single.

Although New Hampshire garnered 15 hits to Harvard's six on Friday, Harvard won the game 7 to 5. Chauncey, Harvard's veteran catcher, poled out a home run in the fifth with a man on base and the score knotted, and after that Harvard was never headed, although New Hampshire threatened in every inning. Ketchum went in in the ninth with the bases loaded with Wildcat runners and only one out, letting the Wildcats down with one hit and one run.

FROSH NINE TO PLAY
PROCTOR AND CLARK

Yearling Baseball Team Meets Proctor
At Andover Tomorrow—Clark
School Expected To Furnish Stiff Opposition At Hanover On Saturday

The Blue and White freshman baseball team plays two games away this week-end, meeting Proctor Academy at Andover tomorrow and Clark School at Hanover Saturday afternoon. Coach Nicora will take 15 yearling players to Andover and Hanover, using the pitching staff of four twirlers in the two contests.

The Wildcat freshmen had little difficulty in trimming the Tilton School nine last week by the score of 19 to 5 in a one-sided battle that opened the season for Coach Nicora's charges. Stiffer opposition is expected from Clark School which has already played several hard contests, including the Dartmouth yearlings. Proctor appears the weaker of the two nines that the Frosh baseballers meet.

The New Hampshire team will probably line up as follows: Dresser, 2b, Lynch, 1b, McFarland, lf, Cullinan, ss, Biosvert, rf, Redden, 3b, Tyler, c, Gibson, cf. The pitching assignment will be chosen from among Mason, Smart, Dawson and Winkler, the yearling moundsmen on the trip.

FIRST TENNIS MATCH ENDS IN DEADLOCK

Large Gathering Of Mothers See
First Play This Year—Deputation
On Three Day Trip To Colby,
Bates, And Bowdoin

New Hampshire's tennis team tied their first match of the season with Boston University last Saturday, 3-3. The match showed that the team has improved over last year, since at that time Boston University won 5-1. Boston University has a fine team, having recently trimmed Bowdoin 5-1.

There was a good crowd, many of the mothers attending, and the whole meet was run off without a bit of trouble. The crowd expressed their satisfaction with the meet and the way it was handled. Four of the faculty acted as referees: Major Pitz, Professor Hitchcock, Mr. Nulson and Mr. Shimer.

Bowles and Roberts both won their singles match, and Craig and Roberts won their double match. Coach Howes said that there was some criticism of his putting Roberts as number three man, but that the reason was that Roberts has a bad back which keeps him from playing his best game.

The most spectacular match of the meet was the first doubles match, in which Craig and Roberts overcame their opponents after forty games had been played. They lost the first set, but won the second 12 to 10, and the third set was comparatively easy.

Symonds, Brown, Craig, Bowles, and Roberts left Tuesday night on a three day trip, in which they will play Colby, Bates and Bowdoin on successive days, and in the order named.
