From Bill Boyd

It never should have happened – it never should have had to happen is a more correct statement. The incident took place at an advances/challenge convention and the caller is the one who had to make the statement from the stage, on the microphone to the dancers. We are, or should be, taught to take hands to establish position and keep our square tight for easier dancing. While we all know dancers who fail to take hands we also know many dancers who like to show and prove their strength and this was the problem. At least two, if not more dancers complained first to the people in the square and then to the caller, some of these dancers are grabbing and holding too tight. We should be taught when we first begin dancing to take hands. We should be taught that if we place the thumb along the side of the index finger and leave it there we will not grab, grasp or in other ways hurt any other dancer in the square. It does not matter if it is a hand touch, forearm touch or even a right and left grand. I can think of no reason for a gorilla grip. Take hands, keep the square or column close, but be gentle. Keep dancing fun.

On a personal note, I felt a twinge of pride as my wife and I took the dance floor along with my son-in-law, daughter, our teenage granddaughter and teenage grandson all in the same square. I know we are not unique, but it has been a long time since I saw three generations in the same square. There is room for more; our two younger grandsons also are square dancers. Square dancing is still, and can continue to be, a family tradition of fun.

There are many components in an automobile that make it run. Lose one and it usually stops in its tracks. The same holds true with regards to a square dance club. In order to function well, a square dance club needs dancers, leaders, and a caller. The caller provides the music, choreography, teaching, and the entertainment necessary to create a dance. The club provides the platform for dancers to enjoy the social fun and interaction our activity offers. Regular maintenance is necessary to keep an auto in tip-top shape. Oil is changed, filters are replaced, fluids are checked, tires rotated, and in some states, an annual inspection is required. Granted callers and clubs are less complex, but there are things that need service. Ever change a caller’s spark plug or check the clubs oil?

First let’s do a diagnostic check up for the caller. It doesn’t take long for a caller to become rusty and fall into ruts. All the music starts to sounds the same, dancers anticipate the choreography, enthusiasm reduces, applause dies out, and finally dancers stop attending. When taken for granted, a caller could care less if he/she is really working at all. What can be done to avoid this? First the caller must desire to change and improve their skills. If so, several options are available. Area caller associations help by providing information and training can be obtained to spark interest. Weekend seminars offered across the country, as well as full curriculum caller schools can also do the trick. A concentrated forty-hour school can open the eyes of most callers today. You can teach an old dog new tricks. If funds are scarce, there are groups that offer scholarships. CALLERLAB offers several scholarships every year. Contact the home office at 321/639-0039 to apply.

Another great opportunity to avoid the doldrums is to attend an annual CALLERLAB convention. This year’s convention is being held in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Next year it will be held in Los Angeles, California. Some callers choose not to attend because they think it’s just another meeting. Actually, there is a whole lot more offered at a CALLERLAB convention. Seminars are conducted prior to and during the convention. One on one voice training is available by a leading voice specialist. One on one coaching is available by several CALLERLAB accredited caller coaches. Various refreshment breaks are planned, along with other social parties, luncheons and evening banquets. These events provide the opportunity to network, socialize, and exchange ideas with some of the best entertainers in our business. Yes, committee meetings are conducted during the day generating some great discussions. Some callers are very passionate about the activity and wish to share these views with everyone they meet. In the end, compromises are made and work gets accomplished. Most every evening some dance form associated with our activity is available. Folks gather at after parties or other watering holes to discuss the daily results. Overall, callers obtain new skills, sharpen old ideas, and cherish the memories and reunions of fellow leaders. The net result is a caller who returns to a club invigorated and eager to energize the dancers.

Next, let's take a look under the hood of our dance leaders. Many ideas are passed down from one leader to the next only because that's just the way it's always been done. If what you are doing is currently not working, seek new ways. Area dancer associations can offer assistance. National organizations can also help. Check out websites that offer winning ways, new approaches and try again. Experiment with new strategies for recruiting, teaching and maintaining members. Don't give up.

Often new dancers are thrown into leadership roles to either sink or swim. This should be avoided. Past officers should provide training to new recruits. Give incoming leaders an owner's manual or some sort of training guide documenting full duties and timelines. Don't just hand them the gavel or they will waste time and money reinventing the wheel. Some regions of the country offer leadership seminars that teach basic skills necessary to operate a dance club. If such a program is not available near you, start one. It's a great place to share ideas, learn responsibilities, and build bridges to the future. It is also a super way to train the leaders of tomorrow.

Those that seek a greater understanding of our square dance craft will be better prepared to mold its' future. Enthusiasm and passion drives our activity; leadership guides the journey. Take on an active role to pave the way. Callers and clubs which are properly motivated and well maintained will secure a better legacy for Square Dancing.

Little Bits & Pieces

At this time there are over 5,000 dancers registered for the 56th NSDC. This is the first time since Anaheim in 2001 that this many dancers have registered by this date. The 56th NSDC is shaping up to be one of the best attended conventions in the past six years. Register now for the "Greatest square dance event in the world." Visit the official website for a list of the fantastic tours available. If you still want more, there is plenty to see all across beautiful North Carolina. In the West is Grandfather Mountain, the tree covered Appalachians and the Blue Ridge Parkway. You will find many historic communities and battlefields that were part of the Revolutionary and Civil Wars. As you journey East you will find the Outer Banks and the site of the Lost Colony, the first settlement in the New World. This is also the birthplace of Aviation at Kill Devil Hill where the Wright Brothers made their first flight. You will find the towering Cape Hatteras Lighthouse and part of the Atlantic Ocean known as the graveyard of the Atlantic. "Y'all Come now, you hear".

How great it is going to be to dance at the 56th NSDC by having fantastic sound and equipment in all dance halls. Tom and Pam Dillander of Palomino Records will be providing the sound and equipment setup for the 56th NSDC. Four of our halls will have the “hearing enhancement” feature available with designated channels for each hall. These halls will be the Mainstream with the Ghost Riders Live Band, Plus hall, A-2 and Rounds Phase III and IV. We look forward to your “Return to Heaven in ‘07.”

Campers – “Here’s More” Just For You
For those of you campers who will be arriving on Tuesday (June 26) there will be a “free” Hot Dog and Hamburger dinner just for you, followed by square dancing in a 10,000 square foot pavilion. You won’t want to miss this one...

Suggestions to help make this teaching method successful.

This technique of teaching is not the answer; it is just part of an answer to recruiting New Dancers and building or rebuilding a Club. Since changing the Lists is not really practical, for many reasons, it seemed logical to work with what we have by changing the teaching method. If people are allowed to have fun during the learning process we can have our cake and eat it too, everybody wins. To use a cliché think outside of the box, because what we have always done is not working. This is a method that can and does work.

Please note this method of teaching does not encourage drilling the new dancers on a particular call. The dancers are merely taught the figure and dance it enough times that everyone is doing the call correctly. Then in many cases that is the only time during that dance session that they may dance that particular call. Calls with degrees of complexity will be taught one week, re-taught for the next two weeks and reviewed as needed. Singing Calls are a great tool for strengthening newly learned figures.

It is my strong suggestion to use the Long Line Concept for dancers the first tip of the evening. This encourages mixing and discourages cliques from forming. Even more important is that the weaker dancers do not end up in a square, all together, that first tip. Also, an added benefit is that the first tip of the session sets the tone for a person’s success that session. If they are with weaker dancers for all of that time their evening many times is a disaster. Also some new dancers tend to come in late for many different reasons and that requires the instructor to take time to put additional squares together. With the Long Lines all that is needed is for an Angel couple to drop out or jump on the end of one of the lines with the people that just came in and the dancing continues.

If a person is having trouble with a new call being taught or one that is being reviewed all the instructor has to do is move that person by using trades and circulates to a position with three other dancers that are successfully doing the call properly.

When there are visitors it is also a great way to break the ice and get everyone acquainted quickly. If you use the lines in New Dancer Programs and even Plus Workshops you will be amazed by the positive comments.

These lines lend themselves to the Square formation much more than the Caecilian Circles concept and depending on room size the lines may fit better.

If there are too many people to form one set of lines in the head positions across the room, just make another set of lines behind them. To force the mix I often have the lines pass through at some time during the tip and say if you are facing someone pass through again and the others California Twirl.

You and the dancers never have to worry about partners and corners during this tip and many times people seem to dance a little better when they are not with their partner. Interesting isn’t it. You will find that the lines concept is an excellent review tool and their use is great for teaching new calls.

From time to time the dancers may end up with their partners and that is a great time to reinforce their success by commenting that, no one has made any mistakes so far, because if they notice, they all have their original partners back. But, at the end of the tip they will most probably not be with their original partner and that is okay.

Again, please remember that it is not good to drill the dancer with these calls, but allow them to dance through them successfully and move on to something else. You will see by the third and fourth weeks that very little instruction if any is needed for most calls. Other calls will be danced successfully by just giving a little head cue as they dance through the figure.

Always remember KEEP IT FUN! The people don’t have to come to your program, but they will continue to come back week after week if they are having a good time.

These people are not accomplished Mainstream dancers at the end of twelve weeks but if a Caller and Club are willing to work with them they will become accomplished dancers. This method allows many groups to sponsor two New Dancer Programs a year. It works and has been used successfully for over ten years. It has helped to build a Club of well over 100 members that dance seven to eleven squares on 2nd and 4th Wednesdays.

Comments welcome.

American Square Dance, April 2007
Participation and Ownership is the Key

The American Callers' Association in its attempt to be of service to all callers, dancers, and associations has provided current, timely, and effective information on new dancer recruitment, winning ways to retain club dancers, and pitfalls that drive square dancers away. ACA really appreciates the positive comments, encouragement to continue, and contributions from callers and dancers all over North America and abroad to continue these initiatives. ACA will continue to provide information that will help the square dance community recruit, retain and retrieve square dancers as well as encourage the dancers to speak out on the cumbersome dance programs.

This article addresses pride in ownership and participation. It encourages people to take more of an active participation in their square dance associations and clubs. I would like to “thank” and “honor” Charles and Kitty Holley in Montgomery, Alabama, for the inspiration of this article and to encourage square dancers to “Rethink” their position and status in their square dancing activities.

Very recently Charlie Holley went through a serious cardiac heart surgery in Birmingham, Alabama. He recovered and is facing long-term therapeutic recovery, but the future looks great.

Charlie is an outstanding example of an “Unsung Hero” in square dancing. He started dancing in 1984. During these short 23 years of square dancing, Charlie has volunteered and held numerous leadership positions in square dancing. He was president of a square dance club in Prattville, Alabama. He was president of the Montgomery Area Square Dance Association in Montgomery, Alabama, for two consecutive terms. He was president of the Alabama Square and Round Dance Association for two consecutive terms. He served as a delegate to the United Square Dancers of America for nine years of which he was the Vice President for the Central Region. He served as president of United Square Dancers of America (USDA) which is an outstanding organization dedicated to watching out for all square dancers. He was a founding member and voting delegate for the Alliance of Round, Traditional and Square Dancing (ARTS).
would also like to recognize and thank Ms. Kitty Holley who has worked unselfishly and hard to support all of Charlie's efforts for the betterment of square dancing.

In recovering from major heart surgery and serving square dancing so well from the ACA perspective, it can be said the Charlie gave his all and heart to square dancing. His recent recover is nothing short of a miracle brought forth by prayer from square dancers, family and friends. It could be argued that square dancers helped give Charlie his healthy heart back.

One night I went to visit Charlie at his rehabilitation facility. What was supposed to be short visit lasted over three hours. Charlie brought up the subject of the decline in the number of square dancers. He also said there is a more serious decline in the number of people who will serve and/or hold office in clubs and associations. Square dancers are failing to realize that when they belong to a square dance club or association that they also hold an ownership interest in that organization including the building, land, equipment, good will, etc.

What is the problem? Charlie believes that people are not interested and won't take an office in their organization or club, because they overlook their ownership responsibilities. Charlie is very passionate that square dancers need to create a "renewed pride" in their organization and do their share willingly to participate in the management of the organization. Charlie also believes that if we increase our pride for our clubs and associations that it will increase participation at all organizational levels. If you know Charlie personally, you will see that he is excited about serving again in an activity he loves so much as soon as he is strong enough. His excitement is contagious and encouraging.

Both Charlie and the American Callers' Association believe that if more dancers would rise up to the occasion, increase their pride in square dancing and serve in offices and assignments that this in itself would slow down the decline in the activity.

Any individual, club, caller, or association who wishes to communicate his/her opinions on this subject is encouraged to contact the American Callers' Association at Loulet@aol.com or Dr. Patrick Demerath at pdemerath@troy.edu. Please visit our website and newsletters at AmericanCallers.com/news.

Until next time, happy dancing.

Dear Mr. Boyd,

The last three years we have taught lessons for the Caterpillar Square Dance Club. They dance the 1st and 3rd Saturdays each month at the Fondulac Park District Administration Bldg., 201 Veterans Dr. in East Peoria, Illinois. This very friendly club celebrated their 56th anniversary this past October. Due to the death of their last club caller (Ed Elder) in 2005, they book all guest callers, some local and several from out of state (to date, Oklahoma, Missouri, Indiana, Kentucky, Idaho and Ohio).

In the past three years we have used multiple forms of advertising, such as flyers, bumper stickers, demo's in malls, video on a small TV at a car show, lighted signs, a paid radio ad, an interview on local TV, and fun nights at churches. Last year a very nice article promoted square dancing, including colored photos was in the local Peoria Journal Star newspaper (Peoria, Illinois).

I believe the best advertising is word of mouth, “one on one meeting.” We recently thought of wearing Tee shirts with advertising. Our tee shirts may be bought in color of choice with wording on back “ASK ME ABOUT SQUARE DANCING” with the phone number underneath. Our club has chosen yellow, due to club colors and Caterpillar colors, (black on yellow), and the phone number can either be the individuals or that of the instructor. We recently wore the shirts to a dance where dancers from other clubs attended and we had inquires where to buy shirts. One has to agree advertising pays off (look at the success of Marlboro and Budweiser).

The shirts are $6.00 each and we’ve also chosen to have a dancing couple on upper left on front. They can be ordered in several different sizes. This is a great walking advertisement. Square dancing is gaining membership and would be great if attendance at national convention could reach that attending the Louisville convention in 1983 of over 30,000 dancers.

Anyone interested in more detail on buying shirts contact Rick Clayton (421 N. Kansas Street, Morton, Illinois 61550; phone 309-635-4999).

Hopefully if anyone has additional ideas, they will submit them to the magazine.

Evelyn and Novis Franklin
45th Anniversary

On October 13, 2006, the Star Thru Squares of Lakewood, New Jersey celebrated their 45th anniversary as a square and round dance club. The club’s caller, Manny Amor, who has been their club caller for all 45 years, celebrated his 1,458th calling date for the club.

The hall was decorated with 111 original flyers of past dances, specials, classes, and coming events, and the history of the club’s past was noted all over the hall in these flyers. The stage was decorated with 45 rpms and a banner proclaiming “45 years of Fun.” Also there was a listing of 45 different figures that were workshoped sometime in the past, and the numerals 45 were scattered throughout the hall.

One of the original charter members, Aurora Steig was present and was honored, and all of the singing calls that night were tunes of the 1960s. The dance was chaired by Pete and Beat Humphris, who also contributed artwork for this dance. Nine squares, plus attended the celebration and everyone is looking forward to “50.”

Squarely yours,
Fred Chagrin Secretary, Star Thru Squares
Little T Squares

When a small group of friends gathered in the War Memorial Building on B Street in 1976, little did they realize that what they had started would last, and still be going strong after more than 30 years. They had come just to have fun, dance and socialize.

It was not until 1980 that they would receive their charter from the state of Tennessee as the “Little T Squares” and today can boast as the largest square dance club in the state. With the addition of a newly graduated class of 41, it will bring their total to just over 160 active members.

One member, Ron Marion, who is also the caller, has been the real impetus for the club since it’s inception. Ron and his wife Pat, began square dancing when he was in the U.S. Navy in 1972. After 20 years in the service, they moved to Maryville, so he could finish his degree requirements at the University of Tennessee. They continued to be very active in the Western Square Dance movement.

It wasn’t long until Ron was bitten by the “calling bug” and with the encouragement of another caller and friends, Ron began his calling career. He went on to make several square dance records on the Pioneer Label. Ron now calls for only the Little Ts, where he remains the only club caller they have had in their 31 years existence. Regional and national callers are scheduled for at least one dance a month. Dances are held the first, third and fifth Fridays of every month.

The official folk dance for the State of Tennessee is square dancing. There are approximately 65 clubs across the state in more than 35 communities. Round dancing and lines are also included in the Little T’s agenda.

The 41 recent graduates included several adolescents, most of whom, are home schooled. Square dancing satisfies requirements for a certain amount of physical activity in their curriculum, and they really enjoy it; their attendance helped attract other youngsters to the classes.

If you’re passing through East Tennessee, and want to enjoy a night of good food, fun, fellowship and dancing, stop by the Memorial Building on B Street, in Lenoir City on 1st, 3rd and 5th Friday from 8:00 to 10:30pm.

American Square Dance, April 2007
Lori Morin of Chepachet, Rhode Island has always had a passion for square dancing, in fact she just loves to dance. She has been dancing traditional (barn dances) and contras since she was a young girl. She met Dave at a barn dance and they dated through high school. In 1966 they married and shortly afterwards her mother got them involved in Modern Western Square Dancing and they are still dancing when she isn’t calling.

She called her first tip at Dick Leger’s Amateur Callers Night twenty years ago and has been calling ever since. In addition to attending Dick’s timing schools, Lori has also attended Al Robert’s Mental Image, Al Brundage and Earl Johnston’s Caller School, and Colorado Callers School with John Kwaiser, Jerry Junck and Tony Oxendine.

Lori served as secretary of the Narragansett Callers Association for nine years and two years as president. She also belongs to The Connecticut Caller Association, New England Council of Callers Association and has been a member of CALLERLAB since 1989. She is currently serving on the following CALLERLAB committees, CCTD, Education, Mainstream and RPM. And has attended nine CALLERLAB Conventions. Another one of her achievements is recording for Silver Sounds Records.

Seventeen years ago Lori and Dave started their own Caller Run Club (Ruffles ‘N Beaus) where she teaches square and round dancing and many mixers. Ruffle ‘N Beaus is an easy level Mainstream club for the dancer who has worked all week and just longs for a fun night of square dancing. Ruffles 'N Beaus classes are open so new dancers may join anytime during the season and are always welcome at their club dances. Lori and Dave also run The Lori Morin/Joe Casey, Basic/EZ Mainstream Weekend in New Hampshire.

Being the only lady Modern western Square Dance Caller in Rhode Island, Lori enjoys teaching squares and rounds for their club as well as calling fun nights and calling and entertaining for clubs all over New England. She typically tries to make each visit special for every club, calling their favorite yodeling numbers or changing into a different outfit for a song or theme. She says, "I love to take a figure and add a little twist and make it fun and easy."

Besides teaching, calling, cueing, dancing, entertaining, running a home and being both Mom and Grammy, Lori owns and operates her own Beauty Salon in Chepachet. She is the mother of three and grandmother of seven.

Many times at a one night stand program one runs into a gender balance situation. Following is a routine written by Hope Pennock of Edmonton, Alberta, Canada which doesn't consider any sexual identification by those participating. It comes from the book, “Dancing For Fun” which is available from Jim New, #101 – 100 Foxhaven Dr. Sherwood Park, AB T8A 6B6, Canada.

                     who has to turn 1/2 while still holding hands; Every-

This month's article will be somewhat challenging for your dancers for a few reasons. The concept of working on a diagonal box will be new terminology for them. And the quick set-up we used, in most cases having dancers pass the ocean from lines with same sexes will be new. But, it's a lot of fun for the dancers. Have fun!

1) HEADS pass thru
   separate around 1 to a line
   pass the ocean
   BOYS on a DIAGONAL BOX,
   circulate
   girls trade, centers trade hinge
   right and left grand

2) SIDES pass thru separate around 1 to a line
   pass the ocean
   BOYS on a DIAGONAL BOX,
   circulate
   centers trade girls trade
left allemande

3) Sides lead right and circle to a line pass thru Centers step forward, ends slide together behind them leads trade single circle to a wave
BOYS on a DIAGONAL BOX,
circulate
swing thru boys trade
right and left grand

4) HEADS pass thru
   separate around 1 to a line
   pass the ocean
   BOYS on a DIAGONAL BOX,
   circulate
   swing thru boys trade
   right and left grand

I can remember the “good ‘ole days” when Bobby and Sissy glided across the tv screen during the Lawrence Welk Show. The This & That Squares have their own version of skilled dancers. Norm and Terry Koharski stood out with cued round dancing skills plus the many others who attended the family picnic at Father Baker Manor in Orchard Park, New York. The picnic had a Ringling Brothers, Barnum Bailey atmosphere with its big top. Our enemy was Mother Nature. It was a dark and windy day. It refused to rain, but the occasional gust of wind was another story. The women had a hard time controlling their skirts and records and paperwork went flying, during one gust. The microphone smashed on the blacktop and is now in “microphone heaven.”

American Square Dance, April 2007
Your Rovin’ Corners

Jim and Betsy travel across the US and around the world, dancing and promoting dancing. Each month we share with you our experiences and thoughts. This month we want to talk about people who give of themselves in square dancing.

“Glad you are here! Did you bring your records?”

This was how Dennis Ray, caller for the Huntsville Promenaders SDC greeted Eberhard and Traudel Walz. Eberhard and Traudel were here in Texas for a brief visit so we took them (where else?) Square Dancing. The annual “Go Texan” dance by the Conroe Country Cousins, a regular Monday dance night with the Promenaders and a Tuesday evening with Lake Livingston Levis and Lace. Wayne Morvent, caller for LLLL greeted Eberhard and Traudel in German. Wayne learned to call in Germany and called there many years.

Dennis Ray was suffering from allergies and hoarseness, but kept his usual sparkle and fine teaching style. He was really happy for Eberhard to give him a chance to rest his voice when Eberhard called a guest tip. The Huntsville Promenaders had heard about the Russian clubs and donated many square dance outfits, including several petticoats. This supplemented the wonderful clothing donations from Jack and Martha Jaremco from Florida. The new Russian dancers do not have a source of supply for square dance clothing and paraphernalia.

Traudel and Eberhard were so impressed by the reception accorded them everywhere we took them! Texas square dancers welcomed them, just as Betsy and Jim have so often been welcomed into square dance groups where ever they have been.

We all know that the motto of square dancing is “Friendship Set To Music.” We also know that the greatest reward of square dancing is the friends we meet and dance with. Of course this is not possible without many people giving and helping in square dancing. One of the most beautiful things about square dancing is that it requires eight people (and a caller) to work together to make it happen. That is why square dancing is never competitive! Each dancer in the square is dependent upon the others – to follow commands accurately, and to be aware of his or her correct position in the square. Of course, we all get hints and directions from each other when we are dancing. Now I am not talking about being “assistant caller” or anything like that, I just mean the subtle hand pressure, the occasional pointing, and even the rare calling out of a name. And when all else fails we get into lines and pick up the next “up to the center and back” or “Left Allemand.”

We have other ways to assist one another in square dancing. Volunteering to be an angel is perhaps the most common. You might get a square together in someone’s garage to let a newer caller practice. Dancing as guinea pigs in a caller school is one of the more selfless things you can do. Our neighbor and budding caller, Scott Henry, needed work, so we convened eight willing dancers for a couple of hours of practice for him.

Regular readers of this column know Eberhard Walz, from Germany who took as his mission in life to export square dancing from Germany to Russia. He has helped start four clubs in Russia and is creating callers and dancers. This is another example of the selfless spirit that permeates square dancing. Yes, some people just dance for their own pleasure, but most dancers and callers are infused with the passion for the activity that builds and sustains dancing. Do you regularly express your appreciation to your caller for all of his or her hard work, diligence, and study? It is sometimes easy to believe that callers just call for the pleasure of it, as they all express joy in the dance. For many callers, the only thing they get from their clubs is an occasional “thank you” from the floor.

Betsy and Jim are at Jimbetsy@aol.com and we would love to hear from you!

A Tip For Better Dancing

If you break down, get to normal facing lines. Most dancers know that a caller will often get the floor back to normal (boy-girl couples) facing lines, so as to pick up those who have broken down. Dancers who break down and get to facing lines will thus be able to resume dancing sooner than those who wait in a squared set for the next Left Allemande.

Obviously, common sense says that those waiting to be picked up in facing lines must look at the rest of the floor so as to know when everyone has facing lines. Then they can resume dancing. So I am constantly amazed at the number of squares which get to facing lines and then start doing calls the caller is giving without looking to see if the floor is in facing lines. Naturally, these people immediately break down again within a few seconds, because they are working from a different formation than what the caller is using.

As a caller, when I see a square break down, I do not immediately bring the floor to facing lines. I wait to see if the broken-down square will form facing lines, because some people will just stand there in a squared set and do nothing. Once I see the square moving to form lines, then I start moving the floor to lines.

For me to get the floor to facing lines, this may take a few calls to accomplish, and often one of the calls used is a Slide thru or a Star Thru. If the broken-down square which has formed lines immediately reacts to one of these calls without checking if the rest of the floor is in facing lines, the square is doomed, because the dancers have taken themselves out of facing lines just as I am working the floor to get to facing lines. At this point I give up on this square.

Dancers must remember that making facing lines is only the first half of the solution. They also have to be alert to when the rest of the floor gets to facing lines, and not start to do calls until they see the floor in facing lines.

Two quotes recently caught my attention. The first is from Jim Lee, one of the leading Canadian callers. He says: “It is vital for new dancers to (1) slide your feet and (2) touch hands. I rarely see any newer dancers (dancing for less than five years) sliding and touching – mostly it’s stomp and grab.”

The second quote comes from Don Conrad, a long-time caller from Columbus, Ohio. He says: “If a dancer learns what he/she must know at any dance program, they will have fun. Dancers who do not have fun generally have not become proficient at that program.”
Over the course of these articles, I frequently mention the National Teacher’s Association for Country Western Dance (NTA). What is the NTA? Its website states that the “NTA is a nonprofit organization that was founded in 1986, to promote Country Western dancing, establish communication among dance teachers, develop standardized terminology and school figures, and develop and maintain high standards for teachers to more effectively instruct others in the art and practice of Country Western dancing. The NTA is a professional organization with members from all over the world which is able to serve dance teachers and dancers alike.”

I have been a member since the mid-1990’s. My wife and I are currently the State Co-Directors of Kansas, Arkansas, and Oklahoma for the NTA. We also serve on the Dance Committee of the NTA. The organization is not limited to instructors, but is for anyone that wants to learn to dance better.

Here are some of the things that make a dancer look better:

- Proper foot positions
- Good posture and poise
- An understanding of the mechanics of how each movement works
- Application of basic technique

Do you have to use these items to do a line dance? Obviously not, but any dancer that applies these concepts looks better and dances with ease. If you see someone that looks really good on the dance floor, they are assuredly applying these concepts whether consciously or just naturally. If you would like more information about the NTA, visit its website at www.nationalteachersassoc.com, or you can contact me at the address below.

This month’s dance is an older dance that dancers always enjoy. I hope you enjoy this dance. If you have any questions about this dance or a suggestion for a future column, please contact me at PO Box 2685, Topeka, Kansas 66601-2685. I can also be reached via email at KSDanceguy@aol.com. Until next time, I will save you a spot on the dance floor.

This Month’s Line Dance: X Out

Basic Steps (Official NTA Definitions):

Coaster Step: A triple step that changes direction forward and back. Stepping backwards in 4th position on count 1, stepping backwards with other foot bringing the feet together in 1st position on the & count, and stepping forward with the beginning foot in 4th position on count 2. The first two steps of the movement are executed on the balls of the feet with weight slightly forward.

Diagonal: 45 degrees away from the center of the Line of Dance (direction).

Pivot Turn: A change of direction turn in the opposite direction of the forward foot in 5th position. Usually making 180° turn, returning or replacing the weight to the original foot.

Point: To point the free foot forward, backward, sideward, or crosswise.

Scuff: To brush the heel forward.

Step: The transfer of weight from one foot to the other.

Stomp: To step with a change of weight.

Touch (Tap): The toe or heel of the free foot touches the floor without a weight change.

Twist Turn: From a lock in 2nd position with the foot crossed either in front or behind, turn on the balls of both feet making a 1/2 turn.

Let's Dance It Again and Again
A New England Chestnut

This column started out to be about two classic New England contra dances, but as I started my research, I came across a marvelous book I had almost forgotten. Roger Knox, of Ithaca, New York, photocopied pages from the Stockton, California, folk dance camp and from Ralph Page's Northern Junket.

One of the dances I wanted to cover is Money Musk, and I struck gold in Roger's book with Ralph's description of Money Musk. So here it is, straight from the typewriter of the grand master of New England contra dancing. [A quick note, when Ralph presented a dance in print, he usually hand-wrote the lead-sheet for musicians. It is in the original article, but I will not include it here.]

Money Musk: Regular contra dance formation. Six or nine couples in a set make an ideal combination. 1st, 4th and 7th couples active. Do NOT cross over to become an active couple.

THE DANCE

Right hand to partner, turn once and a half around (8)
Go below one couple and forward six and back (4+2+2)
Right hand to partner, turn three quarters around (6)
Forward six once more and back (2+2)
Right hand to partner, turn three quarters around to place (6)
Right and left four. (with couple above) (16)
[Note: the numbers in parentheses indicate how many beats per action]

Here's how you do it

Some of you will run into trouble right off. The call is to go once and a half around. Think a minute. If you went once around you'd be exactly where you started - right? So, if you go half around from there you'll be directly across the set from where you started. That's where you ought to be. That's once and a half around. Now go behind the nearest person; go a bit below that person and stand between that same person and the next below. Join hands - with both of them - take two short steps forward and two steps back. The active man will be between two ladies, and the active lady between two men. Think nothing of it, for you'll not be there long.

From this position, walk toward your partner, join right hands with partner and turn three quarters. Here's where most novices get fouled up. Again, stop and reason it out. If you made one complete turn you'd be where you started the turn - right? Half way around would be opposite to where you are standing — right? Then three quarters round be half way between the two terms. The active man will have his back to the caller; the active lady will be facing the caller, and you will both be in the middle of the set. Join hands with nearest people, take two short steps forward and two short steps back.

Now step toward your partner, join right hand with partner, turn three quarters around and head for home. There SHOULD be a convenient hole over there, between the second and third couples; or fifth and sixth if you’re a fourth couple. Go and stand in the space and do a right and left over and back with the person above you.

The right and left movement with two men and two ladies side by side ought to offer no difficulties, but it always does to the novice. If the person beside was of the opposite sex how would you do it? Alright (sic), then do it exactly the same now without benefit of helping each other around when reaching the opposite side. [Note: all directions are given to the active dancers – couples 1, 4, 7, etc. The inactives must counter-dance.]

About the dance

[Note: Ralph included two hand drawn images in the text – this one of the thistle, Scotland’s national flower, was inserted here. The second image was of a Scottish piper.]

Seems like everybody who ever heard of a contra dance wants to learn Money Musk. Often it’s the first contra they attempt, and after getting gloriously mixed up decide then and there that contra dances aren’t for them and stand steadfast in their determination. Did you ever run a hundred yard dash the first time you walked? Then why do you expect to dance Money Musk the first contra you try.

Money Musk is not easy; neither is it too difficult. The steps are based on split second timing though, and therein lies much of your difficulty. To make matters a lot worse – about one hundred (sic) years ago in this part of New Hampshire the people dropped eight measures of music, tho (sic) retaining the same number of figures. So you are doing and 32 measure dance to 24 measures of music. Done correctly you’ll not have to run; but you will have to keep moving.

The dance comes to us from Scotland, and originally was known as “Sir Archibald Grant of Moniemusk Reel.” The name was unwieldy and was soon shortened. The name “Moniemusk” was that of an estate. The first 16 measures make up the original tune, written by Daniel or Donald Dow, a musician of note who died in Edinburgh in 1783. It was first published in “McGoun’s Repository of Scots and Irish airs, Strathspeys, Reels, etc.; Glasgow, 1803” ‘tis a fine dance and one of our favorites.

Buddy of mine was going Somewhere,
He said, "tag along & have not a Care!"
We drove a lot that Amazing Night,
Until we got to this Wonderful Site!
Glory be! It was an ole Dance Hall,
Ain't nobody there knew ME at All!
They was a mighty friendly Group,
Rushed to greet us, all that Troop!
The gents shook my hand & by Heck,
The ladies, they all hugged my Neck!
Then came the music of a Country Fiddle, somebody hollered "Circle up in the Middle!"
A pretty gal dragged me out on the Floor,
Said, "Honey I've surely done this Before!"
All joined hands in a great big Ring,
& did the bidding of a man who could Sing!
We circled left & whooped & Hollered,
Folks pulled me 'round & 'course I Jollered!
Next that gal taught me how to Swang,
Sure was fun with that pretty little Thang!
They broke us up into couples of Four,
& showed us how to do a lot More!
From a circle to a Square of right nice Folks,
Trick was to hold on & not get "Broke!"
So much fun & golly we'd Prance,
Yep, a grand ole Country Square Dance!
If you want Pleasure & just Great Fun,
Go to a Square Dance, you Son-of-a-Gun!
I will Return & I'll bring some More,
Gotta git back on that Square Dance Floor!

Finding The Right Caller For Your Club
by Debi Bliss

Every once in awhile it becomes necessary to find a new caller. Change of any type is difficult and finding a new caller is not always an easy task. Some areas are limited by the availability of callers, but as long as your choice is more than just one there are a couple of things to keep in mind when deciding on a new caller.

1) You are not going to make everybody happy so get over that right away. I have yet to see a club who didn’t have at least one member that threatened to quit if such-and-such caller was hired. Don’t let this concern you, simply count this as a no vote that carries no more weight than any other vote. It may be in the best interest to lose one club member in order to make the club happier as a whole than to give in to the pressure from this one person only to find that others quietly slip away.

2) Determine the characteristics of your club. This is the time to take a good hard look at what kind of club you do have and decide if that is what you want or if it is time to make some changes. It’s not enough to just say, “We are a Mainstream Club” or “We are a Plus Club” and then find a caller based on that one item.

Clubs have a personality of their own. I’ve labeled each of the three types but it is important to realize that no label is better than the next. People dance for different reasons and when dancers gather at a club with the same goals in mind then the only important issue is that they are having fun. You will even find that clubs are really a combination characteristics but generally there is one characteristic that describes them best. Once you have determined what your main characteristic is and how important additional characteristics are, you can begin to successfully find the caller that will fit your club.

a) Social Club – This club is generally close-knit. They enjoy chatting with each other and it may even appear as if dancing is just something they do between visiting. Dancing for them is not supposed to be a challenge to the mind but a joy to the feet.

b) Workshop Club – It’s not that this club likes to workshop every tip. It just means that some type of workshop during the evening is important to them. Determine how much or how little you wish to workshop.
e) EA (Extended Application) Club – This club finds their type of fun in mental exercises. They like to be stretched most of the evening. They like workshop in things not often seen on the regular dance floor and they enjoy the challenge of unusual setups.

Next, it is important to realize that callers also fit into one of the above labels. Callers call for various reasons but even the caller wants to have fun. Some call for pure simple fun and other call because they enjoy the mathematics of the dance.

Social clubs should look for a caller that enjoys mixing with them during breaks and socializing on a personal level. They may even place importance on the caller being available to attend functions with them beyond club nights. It is important here to find the caller that considers square dancing a big part of his social life. A good indication of this is the caller’s wife (ok.... caller’s partner). If the partner attends on a regular basis you will often find that they consider this to be their social life too. Another indication is how many weekend and festival events they attend as dancers. When interviewing a caller you can ask these questions, but remember that it is best to look at his past performance with other clubs (if you can). Sometimes a caller may believe one thing during an interview and reality might end up to be something else.

Workshop clubs need to find a caller that gets his pleasure from workshopping. It is important that the caller is also a capable teacher as teaching will be his major function in the club. Have him do a workshop tip and listen to the way he expresses himself. If he sounds exasperated (even in the slightest) it may only get worse over time. Often the caller is not exasperated with the dancers, simply frustrated at his inability to get his point across, but knowing this does no good if it starts driving club members away. If you find his attitude demeaning or cross in any way you should take care in deciding if this is the caller for you. A good caller.
is not necessarily a good teacher.

EA clubs may do well to find a caller that calls a higher program than their club dances. It is this experience that gives the caller ideas to bring back to your club. He must be willing to find new material on a regular basis and not necessarily from the higher programs, but from the Basic and Mainstream programs also. The best callers for this type of job are often the newer callers as their enthusiasm to explore new material will often match the clubs desire. His desire to teach is more important than his actual capabilities as the dancers are often quick to pick up on what the caller means.

It also may be important to look at the average age of your club and match it with a caller of the same generation. Choice of music, preferred speed and even choice of choreography does seem to run along the age lines though there is always exceptions to every rule. This shouldn’t be your determining factor, but don’t overlook it altogether.

In addition to the above, I would strongly recommend that clubs have contracts with their club caller and I suggest contracts that are renewed once a year. Over the years clubs can change in their desires and a written contract can be the opening for negotiations on either side. A club may find they want more or less workshop. The caller may even find that he wants something different. Either can make this request at contract renewal time and if either party is not satisfied then the contract can simply NOT be renewed. A contract is a physical item that acknowledges that things do change over time and each party should have the right to look for the things they want from square dancing. Too often a negative feeling is left when a caller is fired or quits and it can easily be avoided with a contract.

And last, but not least, don’t be afraid to try the new callers. The interview might be a little tougher as there is no track record (or not much of one) to look back on, but each of the different types of clubs could find that their perfect caller is a new caller. The important thing to look to is how much time and desire this new caller has to devote to homework. Is he interested in attending caller seminars? The social club can afford to hire the new caller who is limited in his amount of time to do homework, but the EA club will want a caller who is anxious about learning and practicing every chance he gets. Nevertheless, a new caller who isn’t interested in homework will not make any club happy over the long run.

The Foundation
For the Preservation and Promotion of Square Dancing

The Foundation's purpose is to support the funding of projects that will preserve and promote square dancing.

To be considered for the funding, projects must first protect the heritage of the activity and contribute to its growth. The projects must also emphasize the social, physical and mental benefits of square dancing. The Foundation also works to increase public awareness of the activity by showing the fun and fellowship that makes square dancing a popular recreation today.

The Foundation is registered with the Internal Revenue Service as a 501(C)(3) corporation and depends on private contributions, public grants and endowments for its operating capital.

In order to ensure that the American folk art of square dancing will continue to flourish, the Foundation solicits your support through your tax-deductible contributions.
