University LYCEUM COURSE

NOV. 8

COMMANDER

RICHARD E. BYRD

In person, lecturing on “Trans-Atlantic and Other Flights,” illustrated by Motion Pictures.

Dec. 7

An entertaineer without a peer in magic and mystery. Mr. Byrd will be accompanied by Miss Marjorie and Mrs. Margaret Harris, University students.

Jan. 4

Famous for appearance with John Barrymore in Toloto’s “Redemption.” Russian and American Folk Songs and Classics.

Jan. 18

CAPTAIN JOHN NOEL

Official Photographer and Survivor of the 1914 Mount Everest Expedition. A gripping story with Motion Pictures.

Feb. 8

PAUL SHIRLEY, the leading exponent in America of the Viola d’Amour, Greta Miolo—Lyric Soprano, one of the younger singers with a charming voice, Edward Goding—a pianist, well worth hearing.

Feb. 29

COTTER’S SATURDAY NIGHT

Interpretation of the famous poem by Robert Burns, interspersed with Scotch Melodies.
FRANKLIN THEATRE

Durham, New Hampshire

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28

A William Inge Play

"FATHER"

Laney Joy

To those who ask if there is a class distinction in America this picture will give no answer.

Connecticut College - PUNCH PAPER

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29

A Metro Picture

"THE RED MILL"

Max Reiter

A comedy drama of a servant girl in a Holland inn who wins the heart of one of his guests and marries the impression she forms with an Englishman. Owen Moore, Louise Fazenda, Karl Dane.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE, OCTOBER 27, 1927.

WHY AN ELECTION?

For the second time in as many years the student body will forget classes, campus clubs, and social affairs, as the campaign gets under way next week.

Jane Blake, '29, Women's Editor

THE UNIVERSITY DINING HALL

The fifth volume of "The New Hampshire Alumnus" made 10 appearances on the campus Monday, October 24, being the first issue under the direction of Edward N. Hoyt, '29, the new alumni secretary and director of publication.

This issue in an eight page booklet accompanied by greetings from President Edmund E. Mussey of the University, and from Martin C. Roraback, President of the reorganized alumni association. It also contains athletics section, alumni personnel and general campus news. The booklet, which is to be published quarterly, will sell a long time in keeping with its theme, and with university activities.

DEAN CASE SPEAKS BEFORE KIWANIS

Dean Case of the College of Technology, addressed the Kiwanis Club of Durham at their weekly luncheon Tuesday. He talked on the economic arrangements that this college has with a number of the industries of Durham.

By this arrangement the industrial manager of students for work during the summer season. A number of the industries in the Pemberton district were present and on examination of their interest in the plans set forth at the workshops, with the view of becoming employers of the graduates of the College of Technology.

OST

Remington Typewriter Co.

One of our varsity football players, Jim Tonkin, has started climbing in the other direction of Durham's favorite sons; so we are showing the football men the ropes.

A bomb was thrown into rival police station last fall, created more interest in the local political battle.

Mr. Slayton, a popular, though not a cough carload, may be seen in the "Granite Cot.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

E. L. Getchell, Finance Manager

Peter Agrafiotis, '29,

candidates will be the central figures in the local stores, and at the rallies.

Mr. Slayton of the local political battle.

Miss Beatrice M. Richmond, cashier and drain the pocketbooks of my fellow citizens. After reading the life of one of those at his store, he was raised on Mullin's food and graduated with a limp ever since. He lost a tooth on the other hand. When questioned, that he was looking for a wife, and blew his tooth off, compelling him to walk with a limp ever since. He thought, "Derum." His campaign was a decided success and we are giving the football men the ropes.

One of our varsity football players, Jim Tonkin, has started climbing in the other direction of Durham's favorite sons; so we are showing the football men the ropes.

A bomb was thrown into rival police station last fall, created more interest in the local political battle.

Mr. Slayton, a popular, though not a cough carload, may be seen in the "Granite Cot.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

E. L. Getchell, Finance Manager

Peter Agrafiotis, '29,

Candidates will be the central figures in the local stores, and at the rallies.

Mr. Slayton of the local political battle.

DASH SLATTON SPEAKS TO KIWANIS

President E. L. Getchell, Finance Manager

Peter Agrafiotis, '29,

Candidates will be the central figures in the local stores, and at the rallies.

Mr. Slayton of the local political battle.

FOOTBALL TUESDAY LUNCHEON

G. B. B.

Peter Agrafiotis, '29,

Candidates will be the central figures in the local stores, and at the rallies.

Mr. Slayton of the local political battle.

TWO TELLS AY ALUMNI BULLETIN NOW ON Campus

The fifth volume of "The New Hampshire Alumnus" made 10 appearances on the campus Monday, October 24, being the first issue under the direction of Edward N. Hoyt, '29, the new alumni secretary and director of publication.

This issue in an eight page booklet accompanied by greetings from President Edmund F. Mussey of the University, and from Martin C. Roraback, President of the reorganized alumni association. It also contains athletics section, alumni personnel and general campus news. The booklet, which is to be published quarterly, will sell a long time in keeping with its theme, and with university activities.

DEAN CASE SPEAKS BEFORE KIWANIS

Dean Case of the College of Technology, addressed the Kiwanis Club of Durham at their weekly luncheon Tuesday. He talked on the economic arrangements that this college has with a number of the industries of Durham.

By this arrangement the industrial manager of students for work during the summer season. A number of the industries in the Pemberton district were present and on examination of their interest in the plans set forth at the workshops, with the view of becoming employers of the graduates of the College of Technology.

OST

Remington Typewriter Co.

One of our varsity football players, Jim Tonkin, has started climbing in the other direction of Durham's favorite sons; so we are showing the football men the ropes.

A bomb was thrown into rival police station last fall, created more interest in the local political battle.

Mr. Slayton, a popular, though not a cough carload, may be seen in the "Granite Cot.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

E. L. Getchell, Finance Manager

Peter Agrafiotis, '29,

Candidates will be the central figures in the local stores, and at the rallies.

Mr. Slayton of the local political battle.

FOOTBALL TUESDAY LUNCHEON

G. B. B.

Peter Agrafiotis, '29,

Candidates will be the central figures in the local stores, and at the rallies.

Mr. Slayton of the local political battle.

TWO TELLS AY ALUMNI BULLETIN NOW ON Campus

The fifth volume of "The New Hampshire Alumnus" made 10 appearances on the campus Monday, October 24, being the first issue under the direction of Edward N. Hoyt, '29, the new alumni secretary and director of publication.

This issue in an eight page booklet accompanied by greetings from President Edmund E. Mussey of the University, and from Martin C. Roraback, President of the reorganized alumni association. It also contains athletics section, alumni personnel and general campus news. The booklet, which is to be published quarterly, will sell a long time in keeping with its theme, and with university activities.

DEAN CASE SPEAKS BEFORE KIWANIS

Dean Case of the College of Technology, addressed the Kiwanis Club of Durham at their weekly luncheon Tuesday. He talked on the economic arrangements that this college has with a number of the industries of Durham.

By this arrangement the industrial manager of students for work during the summer season. A number of the industries in the Pemberton district were present and on examination of their interest in the plans set forth at the workshops, with the view of becoming employers of the graduates of the College of Technology.

OST

Remington Typewriter Co.

One of our varsity football players, Jim Tonkin, has started climbing in the other direction of Durham's favorite sons; so we are showing the football men the ropes.

A bomb was thrown into rival police station last fall, created more interest in the local political battle.

Mr. Slayton, a popular, though not a cough carload, may be seen in the "Granite Cot.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

E. L. Getchell, Finance Manager

Peter Agrafiotis, '29,

Candidates will be the central figures in the local stores, and at the rallies.

Mr. Slayton of the local political battle.

FOOTBALL TUESDAY LUNCHEON

G. B. B.

Peter Agrafiotis, '29,

Candidates will be the central figures in the local stores, and at the rallies.

Mr. Slayton of the local political battle.

TWO TELLS AY ALUMNI BULLETIN NOW ON Campus

The fifth volume of "The New Hampshire Alumnus" made 10 appearances on the campus Monday, October 24, being the first issue under the direction of Edward N. Hoyt, '29, the new alumni secretary and director of publication.

This issue in an eight page booklet accompanied by greetings from President Edmund E. Mussey of the University, and from Martin C. Roraback, President of the reorganized alumni association. It also contains athletics section, alumni personnel and general campus news. The booklet, which is to be published quarterly, will sell a long time in keeping with its theme, and with university activities.

DEAN CASE SPEAKS BEFORE KIWANIS

Dean Case of the College of Technology, addressed the Kiwanis Club of Durham at their weekly luncheon Tuesday. He talked on the economic arrangements that this college has with a number of the industries of Durham.

By this arrangement the industrial manager of students for work during the summer season. A number of the industries in the Pemberton district were present and on examination of their interest in the plans set forth at the workshops, with the view of becoming employers of the graduates of the College of Technology.

OST

Remington Typewriter Co.

One of our varsity football players, Jim Tonkin, has started climbing in the other direction of Durham's favorite sons; so we are showing the football men the ropes.

A bomb was thrown into rival police station last fall, created more interest in the local political battle.

Mr. Slayton, a popular, though not a cough carload, may be seen in the "Granite Cot.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

E. L. Getchell, Finance Manager

Peter Agrafiotis, '29,

Candidates will be the central figures in the local stores, and at the rallies.

Mr. Slayton of the local political battle.

FOOTBALL TUESDAY LUNCHEON

G. B. B.

Peter Agrafiotis, '29,

Candidates will be the central figures in the local stores, and at the rallies.

Mr. Slayton of the local political battle.

TWO TELLS AY ALUMNI BULLETIN NOW ON Campus

The fifth volume of "The New Hampshire Alumnus" made 10 appearances on the campus Monday, October 24, being the first issue under the direction of Edward N. Hoyt, '29, the new alumni secretary and director of publication.

This issue in an eight page booklet accompanied by greetings from President Edmund E. Mussey of the University, and from Martin C. Roraback, President of the reorganized alumni association. It also contains athletics section, alumni personnel and general campus news. The booklet, which is to be published quarterly, will sell a long time in keeping with its theme, and with university activities.

DEAN CASE SPEAKS BEFORE KIWANIS

Dean Case of the College of Technology, addressed the Kiwanis Club of Durham at their weekly luncheon Tuesday. He talked on the economic arrangements that this college has with a number of the industries of Durham.

By this arrangement the industrial manager of students for work during the summer season. A number of the industries in the Pemberton district were present and on examination of their interest in the plans set forth at the workshops, with the view of becoming employers of the graduates of the College of Technology.
Chesterfield smokers don’t change with the tides!

...but watch how other smokers are changing to Chesterfield!

FOR THE BEST OF GOOD REASONS
BETTER TASTE!

LIDA A. MORRIS
FOR SALE
1925 Chevrolet Touring Car
Phone 47, Durham

STUDENTS!
Have that picture, certificate, or diploma framed now!
We will frame it well, quickly, and reasonably.
Paul Johnson and Frank Rogers
We Call for and Deliver Work.
See us or Call 106-3

A cherished honor
That is a real college roomie everywhere is but one of many honor homes by the indigo-green pen with the little white dot. And because this lifetime pen needs must days in the writing hand and least in repair shops, it is worthy of honor. Unconditionally guaranteed for a lifetime of flawless writing, it costs more because it is worth more. Its careful, sturdy construction makes possible the guarantee. And the indigo pencil is a twin in dependability.

FACULTY MEMBERS

ADDITIONAL ADDRESS TEACHERS

Mr. Edmond A. Carter and Professor William G. Hennessy speak at New Hampshire State Convention

At the New Hampshire State Teachers’ Convention held in Lebanon last Saturday, Mr. Edmond A. Carter, instructor in art department of the University of New Hampshire, addressed the meeting. Before beginning his address, Mr. Hennessy emphasized the importance of the subject of the day, namely, "The Importance of the Drama in History," taking for his theme the "Dramatizing history by humanizing figure-heads, urging the introduction of a novel feature this year is a novel feature of the Homecoming Day program, a luncheon at the Woolworth Dairy, which will present at this time several new songs and a surprise souvenir is to be given at half the usual cost.

The election of mayor of Durham is only to be had by the Frankford team on the evening of Friday, November 4, at the official public appearance made by the Homecoming students, Saturday, November 5, at which time the -ball will be opened with a dance in the men’s gymnasium. The men’s gymnasium will be open to the public from seven to eight o’clock. The Homecoming Day program will be the regular Homecoming program, with the addition of the homecoming dance, which will be held in the Woolworth Dairy, Friday, November 4, at which time the -ball will be opened with a dance in the men’s gymnasium.

The election of mayor of Durham is only to be had by the Frankford team on the evening of Friday, November 4, at the official public appearance made by the Homecoming students, Saturday, November 5, at which time the -ball will be opened with a dance in the men’s gymnasium. The men’s gymnasium will be open to the public from seven to eight o’clock. The Homecoming Day program will be the regular Homecoming program, with the addition of the homecoming dance, which will be held in the Woolworth Dairy, Friday, November 4, at which time the -ball will be opened with a dance in the men’s gymnasium. The men’s gymnasium will be open to the public from seven to eight o’clock.