Recently I went to a Christian Youth Camp outside of Kerrville to teach 150 high school teenagers some square dancing. Their high energy was unnerving but I’d dealt with teens before. I got them through several of the basic moves and they were doing so well, I told them that if a couple of them wanted to try calling, I would tell them what to say and they could be on the microphone to say it. Teens today are NOT shy. Several, including girls, jumped up raising their hand hoping to be chosen. Eventually, I pick one young blonde boy that must have been the class clown. He jumped up front with me; grabbed the microphone; and excitedly awaited the first command. I put the music on and we began... Bow to the Partner, Corner too. Join hands, circle left. As I said each command I pause so he could repeat it. The floor was moving to every beat. I said, “Allemande Left” and he repeated it... “Alab...left.” It came out a mumble with all the noise and I didn’t pay much attention. I gave him more commands and came back to “Allemande Left” and he repeated “Alabam...Left.” I was now wondering exactly what he was saying, but it was difficult to distinguish his words with all the noise. I gave him more commands and this time when I said “Allemande Left” I watched his lips as he said “Alabama Left!” I stopped everything and asked him if he were saying “Alabama Left?” And he very innocently and wide-eyed admitted “YES” with a voice of confidence as if “Isn’t that what is supposed to be?” There were chuckles in the audience. I told him that the command was “ALLAMANDE Left” not Alabama Left. The crowd roared! He reveled in this attention and gave an “I’m GOOD!” sign. I told everyone, “Oh well. There is a California Twirl...why not an ALABAMA LEFT!” From then on, the rest of the night it was ALABAMA LEFT.

My view:

I have been calling square dancing since 1976 and I think part of our problem of losing square dancers and recruiting new square dancers into our activity is because some of our callers do not sight call. When I learned to call, I learned to sight call. It took me about five years to become good enough and comfortable enough to call a good dance. I learned to call and within a few months was recommended to CALLERLAB. I didn’t know how to sight call very well and wasn’t ready to go out and call dances as a CALLERLAB member, although I was recommended and became a CALLERLAB member myself. This is still going on today. We have too many callers out there who don’t know how to sight call, they call patter from notes and are members of CALLERLAB. This is not a good thing. I feel that if these callers want to be better callers they should learn to sight call. It sure restricts their abilities as a caller if they don’t learn to sight call, yet, we have CALLERLAB members that are recommending these callers to CALLERLAB without teaching them to sight call. I am working with a new caller now. He showed up for our first session with a microphone and a record case with two patter records and about a dozen singing call records. I told him I would teach him to sight call and to resolve the square first and we wouldn’t need the singing call records for a while. I know when I learned to call, I did the same thing. All I wanted to do was singing calls. After about two years, I attended a caller school by Ed Foote. I learned there is more to square dance calling than singing calls. I think it is important to teach new callers to learn to sight call, because they can create a fun and challenging dance and we owe that to our dancers. This is just my viewpoint.

58th National Convention Callers School

If you have been thinking about attending a callers school this year, here’s your chance. The 58th National Square Dance Convention and Grand Square, Inc. are co-sponsoring the Second Annual GSI/National Convention Callers School during the week of the Long Beach Convention - AND IT’S FREE!!!!!!

The school will be held June 21 to 24, 2009, at the Hyatt Hotel in Long Beach. It will start at Noon on Sunday and run through Wednesday afternoon. The school will follow the full CALLERLAB Curriculum and will feature the following caller coaches:

- Jon Jones (Accredited CALLERLAB Caller Coach)
- Deborah Carroll-Jones (Accredited CALLERLAB Caller Coach)
- Vernon Jones
- Jerry Story (Accredited CALLERLAB Caller Coach)
- Jerry Jestin
- Tony Oxendine (Accredited CALLERLAB Caller Coach)
- Ken Ritucci (Accredited CALLERLAB Caller Coach)

The only requirement is that you must be registered for the 58th National Convention. It promises to be a sellout, so you need to register as soon as possible. You can register for the convention at www.58nsdc.org/index.html. For further information or to register for the school, contact me directly at tony@tonyxoxendine.com. Don’t miss out on this great opportunity. I hope to see you there!

Tony Oxendine
Bill Gordon in his letter to the editor talks about callers not having the ability to sight call. While there is a great deal of truth to that belief, many callers do read or just use singing calls. Darryl Clendenin, while conducting one of the annual Florida Callers Association Clinics, asked if there were any callers who only did singing calls. When one caller answered in the affirmative, he then ask, “Why are you only giving the dancers one half of the fun?” Bill Gordon is correct, Callers should not exclusively use singing calls. Singing calls are only a portion of you’re your entertainment value. With help from a local Caller, and a good Callers School, a Caller can learn sight resolution and greatly expand his or her repertoire.

Most callers that I know use a combination of sight resolution and memorized modules. Stealing and paraphrasing from Jerry Story, the problem with many callers is in the presentation. By presentation I do not mean showmanship. Presentation falls under the categories of, timing, rhythm, delivery, enunciation, communication formation awareness, body flow awareness, relationship awareness, and a good plan. Presentation requires planning, and as a friend of mine said, “The lower the program, the more planning I have to do.” Square Dance Callers have much to consider – programming, ability of the dancers, dancers physical limitation, music selection and more. Club Callers should prepare their dance considering these factors as well as asking themselves, “What did I call and sing last week”. One really fun and educational thing to do is to use one of the calls from your program list, program that call as a theme for the evening and use it from as many formations as possible. For example Dixie Grand, how many ways can you lead into this call and from how many positions. You really won’t have to teach the call, just use it, first in your hash and then include it in your singing calls. Don’t forget that as you rewrite your singing figures to walk them for timing. Vic Cedar has a great website to help you in your planning.

What is most important is that your dancers leave the dance feeling as though they have had fun, been entertained and they want to come back.
Why Programs and Lists?

CALLERLAB programs define a world-wide standard of square dance calls to be taught in square dance classes or workshops. Program lists, such as this one, list the set of calls that may be called at a dance advertised to be a specific dance program i.e. Basic, Mainstream, Plus, etc. Dance promoters are encouraged to list the program to be danced on flyers, brochures and other advertisements of open dances. Dancers should refer to the program designations to seek out dances that will consist of material with which they are familiar. Program lists are used by callers in programming an appropriate dance for a specific group of dancers. Including the desired program in the caller’s confirmation agreement will provide programming guidance to the caller as well as protection for the sponsoring organization.

The program(s) are not intended to segregate dancers into exclusive groups or to indicate that one who chooses to dance at his or her own preferred program is any better, or any worse, than any other dancer. Dancing skill can be achieved at many programs, and the quantity of calls is not necessarily an indication of dancer proficiency. It is hoped that the program lists will be used to aid in a logical teaching progression and thorough coverage of basics in classes and to provide an enjoyable modern square dance for dancers of all inclinations. In addition, CALLERLAB’s intent is that approved styling and timing of square dance movements will be an integral part of all classes and dance programs. It is also hoped that proper teaching, including timing and styling, will result in smooth dancing for the greater enjoyment of all.

What Next?

Responsible leaders, within and outside of CALLERLAB, recommend that dancers dance regularly at the program at which they graduate for at least one year before they enter into classes or workshops for another program. This means that dancers graduating from the Mainstream Program should dance regularly at Mainstream dances for a year before going into the Plus Program.

There should be no pressure for movement from one program to another once a dancer has graduated. Dancers should be encouraged to take their time, enjoy the fun and fellowship and learn to dance well at that program before moving to another program.

American Square Dance, May 2009
The “Beach Buoys” at the 58th NSDC
At long last the 58th National Square Dance Convention can identify the members of its infamous “Beach Buoys” quartet. The group, which will perform at the 58th’s Opening Ceremony, will feature nationally-known callers Mike Seastrom, Ken Bower, Tony Oxendine, and Wade Driver. Their appearance will definitely be the highlight of the ceremony and worth the price of admission, which, of course, is free, as it’s included in your admission price!

Official Trail-Thru Dances at the 58th NSDC
There are currently 10 officially-recognized trail-thru dances in the Southern California area. We hope you will be able to attend at least one of them. You’ll dance to some of our great local callers as well as some nationally-known callers. All the dances include squares and rounds. Join the fun and excitement during the week prior to the Convention. See the Convention’s website at www.58nsdc.org for all the official trail-thru dances.

Shopping while at the 58th NSDC
Now is the time to plan ahead for your shopping at the 58th National Square Dance Convention in beautiful Long Beach, California. You know your friends and family will want something from your trip. Make your shopping list ahead of time. Go to our website www.58NSDC.org where you can see most of our items in Ways & Means. That way you can make sure you know what size polo to buy and how many of our popular “Woody” cars (with a surfboard on top) to buy. We have a wide variety of items from which to choose. If you are worried about room in your suitcase, you can do your shopping ahead of time and we can have the items sent to your home. (We won’t tell anyone you did this before you left home.)

Free Stuff
Publishing your articles in American Square Dance is free. Anything of national interest will be published (maybe even stuff we just find interesting). Free issues of American Square Dance are always available for your graduating classes. Just let us know how many and when you want them. – Randy Boyd, Editor

The AMERICAN CALLERS’ ASSOCIATION in its attempt to be of service to all callers, dancers, and associations has provided current, timely, and effective information on new dancer recruitment, winning ways to retain club dancers, and pitfalls that drive square dancers away. ACA really appreciates the positive comments, encouragement to continue, and contributions from callers and dancers all over North America and abroad to continue these initiatives. ACA will continue to provide information that will help the square dance community recruit, retain and retrieve square dancers as well as encourage the dancers to speak out on the cumbersome and segregationist dance programs.

This month’s ACA Viewpoint looks at a large group of potential square dancers and describes them and relates to their needs and not to the needs of callers and square dance organizations. Who are these people and what pleases them? The ideas and guidelines come from Bob Farnell in Texas, who calls and teaches in the San Antonio region to Bracketville, Texas.

Bob spent 20 years calling in the United Kingdom is a member and supporter of Callerlab, but Bob believes the American Callers’ Association is totally correct in urging and arguing for a one-floor national dance program which can be taught in a much reduced time frame.

During these twenty years Bob called one night stands in the UK and Texas. People come off the street to have a night of fun and friendship. These are really Good and Great nights as people came in droves. Rarely did and does Bob see them later at square dance clubs. Bob continues that when he started dancing they danced the 1st ten basics for about 25 weeks. On Saturday night dances, they extended their learning. The third tip was a work shop tip where a movement was taught and added to the program for the rest of the night.

The second year, due to financial problems with the club caller, Bob was asked to learn to call. His club paid for the Callers College of his choice as long as he agreed to call for the Club for a year.

In 1962 Bob returned to his spon-sorring club, and successfully called there for five years. When Bob left the UK in 1990, he was calling up to ten dances per week three for clubs and the rest were one night stands.

His secret was that at Club Level he never forgot to keep it both one night stands and dances equally FUN as his fun level progressed as much as the dancers fun levels. He learned to call the Advanced and Challenge programs, but kept them fun. Due to health reasons, Bob moved to the USA where he viewed advanced dancing as a chess game, not a fun activity.

He prefers fun level type dances and finds that good callers using these movements are very few and far between.

Bob believes that some of the basic “principles” used in “One Night Stands” help with square dance lessons and square dances as well. One of the differences between teaching a “One Night Stand” and teaching lessons may not only be the attitudes of the callers, but may just be the attitudes of the dancers.

Bob continues: “Dancers at a ‘One Night Stand’ see the callers as skilled practitioners and entertainers who can teach them anything. On the other hand, some square dancers feel they know more than the club callers. This is a difficult situation for callers to manage.” Bob argues if the caller can make lessons a “Blast”, then the square dances can also be a blast. Some of Bob’s techniques are to treat a lesson as a dance and teach each movement in an All Position Format. Additionally, Bob often uses music that people do not associate with square dancing such as: Irish Jig, Waltzes, Reels, and Pop music. Some of Bob’s selections were Hands Up, Give Me Your Heart – Ottowan, Chacka Chacka – Rossana Ricci, Walk of Live – Dire Straits, Heyo – Fragrance, and Magic Fly – Space. The only time Bob uses a Singing Call is if it is requested.

Bob argues that people join square dance lessons and clubs because of new friendships and fun that square dancing offers. If either of these is missing, the new dancers drop off. To deny the fact that the absurdly long period of square dances lessons take for new dancers and the stressful and unequal and segregated dance programs awaiting new dancers cause the dancers to leave square dancing is kin to “putting our heads in the sand”.

The One Floor Dance Program is a start to bring in excess of 95% of the dancers together by reducing and simplifying the current cumbersome and separatist dance programs.
The American Callers’ Association International One Floor Dance Program was created to unite the vast majority of the dancers and to simplify square dancing. The American Callers’ Association maintains and provides definitions of each call currently in use. The Board of Directors of the American Callers Association unanimously encourages callers to teach movements as they were written, teach more than one approach to the maneuvers, and show patience and understanding to their students. This way we can do more with less, reduce the stress on the callers and dancers, increase the FUN, and help stop the loss of dancers.

The American Callers’ Association is indebted to Bob Parnell for sharing his specialties of success and fun. Bob’s approach brings the dancers back together to dance on a one floor program fun filled program which stays tuned into the desires and needs of the dancers.

The Board of Directors of the American Callers’ Association invites each of you to visit our website and newsletters at americancallers.com/news and communicate with us. Give us your ideas “We Will Listen”.

Any individual, club, caller, or association who wishes to communicate his/her opinions on this subject is encouraged to contact the American Callers’ Association mac@americancallers.com or Dr. Patrick Demerath at pdemerath@uwa.edu. Please visit our website and newsletters at American Callers.com/news. Bob can be emailed at rfarnell@satx.rr.com. He would love to hear from you.

Until next time, happy dancing with a special HELLO to Bob’s friends in the Kinney County Kickers Square Dance club in Brackettville, Texas, who dance at Fort Clark Springs with Bill Pritchard.
The weekends are great. We can go to the beach and have a lot of fun then it's time for the dreaded work week "EXCEPT FOR MONDAY" when it's a holiday.

Registration Information for the 58th NSDC

Time is running short to register for the 58th National Square Dance Convention in Long Beach, California. The registration price goes up to $60.00 after May 31, 2009, an increase of $20.00 per couple. Also, those who do not register by May 15 will not be able to take advantage of the great hotel rates that we have negotiated with the Long Beach hotels. Some of them are already sold out, but the Hilton Hotel has increased our room block and reduced their rate to $119.00 per night (plus applicable taxes). Also, the Queen Mary Hotel has reduced its rate to $119.00 per night (plus applicable taxes). Packets for members of groups will be available for pickup at the registration counter by the respective group leader. Once registered, the Registration & Housing Committee gives a warm welcome to all. Drop by the registration booth located in the main lobby off of Pine Avenue to pick up your registration packet. Our hours will be 9:00am to 9:00pm from Tuesday the 23rd through Friday the 26th. Your packet will include the Convention Badge and any items that you pre-ordered, such as program book, syllabus, sew & save book, and Wednesday night show tickets. We'll be "California Dreamin'" of seeing you then.

Dancers are quite good at doing an explode the wave from one position (boys on the ends of ocean waves to start). Have you ever seen the reaction of dancers when you put the girls on the ends to start? Or how about a boy, girl, boy, girl ocean wave? It’s amazing how much more the dancers are challenged by simply changing the starting position of this call. Don’t underestimate the degree of difficulty of this call from a new starting position.

Jim and Betsy travel across the US and around the world, dancing and promoting dancing. Each month we share with you our experiences and thoughts. This month we want to talk about Special Dancers and Callers we have known.

Jay Klassen was the first caller who tried to teach me to dance. He was followed by Johnny Robertson and then Gary Carnes. I think it was with Gary that I finally “got it.” He taught me the fun and pleasure of square dancing. For years I was convinced he was the best caller in the world — maybe he was, then! Since, we have danced with probably hundreds of callers. Along the way, we have formed close friendships with many dancers and callers. We have always reveled in our personal relationships with many callers over the years. Only in square dancing do the leaders and followers work so closely together for fun and enjoyment. After all, neither operates in a vacuum, but in a rich stew of mutual talents. Only in square dancing can the “headliners” and the “fans” form such a tight and lasting friendship.

The helpfulness and generosity of callers is legendary. Many work for nothing, while all are asked repeatedly to donate their time and talents for the good of square dancing. As Churchill said after the Battle of Britain, “Never have so many owed so much to so few”.

Along with all the callers we have danced to we have danced with many dancers. One who stands out in memory is the lovely, young, single, blind woman. She was an excellent dancer, but the other dancers had to be near perfect, as she was always letter perfect — and other dancers had to be too! Then there was the dancer who could not participate heavily, so she would have someone push her wheelchair to the forming square. She would dance, then collapse into her wheelchair to rest. We have watched square dancing on horse-back, tractors, cruise ships and many foreign lands.

Our interest in dancing away from the U.S. has led to many friendships around the world, including some outstanding callers in Europe. Uli Shingen and Kenny Reese. They are two callers who have become involved in Russian square dancing.

Uli has made several trips to Russia to help with beginner callers. He has fans in Pskov, Petraoovodsk/Karelia, and, of course, St. Petersburg. Kenny called the very first Special Dance in St. Petersburg in 2008. He was the star guest at “Golden Autumn,” hosted by the “Palace Square Dancers in St. Petersburg.

Meanwhile other newer, well known callers have become interested in and desirous of calling in Russia. Walt Burr of England will soon go to Murmansk to call for the “Polar Lights.” He will be welcomed by a young and charming group of dancers. Tomas Machalik of the Czech Republic has a ticket for St. Petersburg to support the “Palace Dancers” and their callers.

Last, but not least, the famed American caller Ken Ritucci will arrive in Petrosaavodsk in the fall where he will teach a caller school and he will be the guest caller for the Onega Wave Dancers’ fifth anniversary. The Smiling Sunday Dancers of Pskov look forward to a mainstream workshop in May by Eberhard Walz, pioneer of teaching Square Dancing in Russia. Eberhard founded the German/Russian square dance club in Germany and Russia to introduce and promote Square Dancing in Russia. He is pleased that various other callers will follow in his footsteps and help the growing Square Dance movement in Russia. For more about square dancing in Russia contact him at his email address e.walz@gmx.de.

Next month we will talk about ‘graduation’ and, of course, the National Square Dance Convention in Long Beach, California, June 24-28, 2009.
Take a look at what is just released...

Tiny Bubbles

Hi Folks. The line dance activity today is a far cry from the early days of line dancing. In the late 80’s and early 90’s there was an abundance of good, upbeat, danceable country music. Today’s country music consists of mainly ballads and slow Cha Cha rhythms. New peppy country music is hard to come by. Therefore, choreographers must search for good, upbeat, danceable songs from many different music genres. Choreographers use music from genres like: Standards, Oldies, Hip Hop, Ballroom, Latin, and Pop music. They also are using a variety of rhythms that are just not generally associated with country music, much like Round Dancing has always used. The rhythms are not limited to the standard country fare of Two-Step, Waltz, East Coast Swing, West Coast Swing, and Cha Cha, but also include Foxtrot, Mambo/Salsa, Samba, Tango and others. This is a definitive plus for the line dance activity.

A reader from Florida sent me a note and asked for an easy Tango line dance. This month’s dance is a fun and easy Tango. I hope you enjoy it.

If you have any questions about this dance or a suggestion for a future column, please contact me at PO Box 2685, Topeka, Kansas 66601-2685. I can also be reached via email at KSDanceguy@aol.com. Until next time, I will save you a spot on the dance floor.

Let's Dance It Again & Again
The Greatest Dancer I Ever Saw

At first I didn’t notice him at all. I was on a stage calling for about eight squares at a Plus dance in a Philadelphia suburb. Then I saw that he moved slightly differently from everyone else, always doing the calls, but maybe a second or so late. Finally I understood. He was blind.

He was fascinating to watch, because he never made a mistake. His wife would guide him slightly on occasion, and the dancers would be sure to always take his hand. But he didn’t really need help, certainly not the way we tend to think of help in assisting weak or new dancers.

I talked to him between tips. He was very cheerful and upbeat and truly happy to be dancing. Some people who are legally blind have some limited sight, but not him. He was totally blind.

Because he danced so well, I didn’t have to worry about his square. Yet I found myself being drawn to watch him, fascinated that he was so good.

I decided to test him. The most difficult thing for blind dancers is to do calls where they are touching no one, such as Cloverleaf or Chase Right. He did them perfectly.

The ultimate test for a blind person is to do the outsides part of Load the Boat, because this involves walking about 3/4 around the outside of the square without touching anyone. I told him during a break that he had passed the other tests, so I was going to put him on the outside for Load the Boat. He laughed and said something to the effect that all callers are mean. When I put him in that position the next tip, he did it almost perfectly. And while he was doing it, he turned his head toward the stage, laughed, and shook his fist at me.

It became our standard ritual. Whenever he attended one of my dances, I always put him on the outside for Load the Boat. He would always turn his head toward me, shake his fist and laugh. In fact, one night he decided to back up around the outside on Load the Boat. He got there fine, but everyone else was so shocked that they broke down. Oh by the way, he also danced Advanced.

I haven’t seen him for over 10 years, but he is still dancing. Found his phone number and called him recently. Lost his first wife due to illness and has remarried. He’s now doing rounds along with squares, and has been to the last two National Conventions. He will be at the National in 2010 in Louisville. If you’re there, look for him. John Falter. The greatest dancer I ever saw.
Dear ARTS-Dance,

It’s so cool having teen dance competitions at Nationals this year! Our youth group just loves the competitions at State Convention, so we are rearing to go. Tell me more!

Lisa from Long Beach

Dear Lisa,

I’m with you! These competitions are especially targeted towards youth, like yourself. However, there will be adult competitions also, separate from youth categories. It’s very exciting and totally new to have competitions at the Nationals! It’s important to note, competition is not mandatory, but a fun option, if desired.

Calls will be Mainstream. The competition will be timed hash calls, full speed ahead. Last square dancing takes 1st place. There will also be awards for 2nd and 3rd place, plus Honorable Mention. Medals will be awarded.

There’s no extra charge to enter, but you must pre-register a complete square for the competition. Details are still being ironed out. Please check the web site: www.58nsdc.org for registration form and further information. Get your square together and have a blast!

This month I am going to toot my own horn a bit — you’ll see what a little further down the column.

There is a web discussion group specifically for traditional dance callers – mostly contra callers, but also square dance callers who call the old time dances. The threads of conversation are fascinating, and we get to share ideas with people from all over the country.

I got a chuckle out of one thread a while back. A “wannabe” choreographer announced loudly that he had invented a new call for contra dancing. Part of the chuckle I got was seeing that there was no way on God’s green earth that the figure would work. Another part of the chuckle was that several other people saw that the figure would not work. And the last part of the chuckle was recognizing that the contra dance world was beginning on the same slippery slope that modern square dancing and round dancing had already been down: making dancing more complex.

The late, great Bob Osgood (who not only published the most widely read square dance magazine in the world, but was also the driving force behind the formation of CALLERLAB) was very aware and distraught about what was happening in square dancing. He knew that CALLERLAB, as an organization, was not guilty of making square dancing so complex, but he felt responsible nonetheless. Bob said that it would be very easy to make square dancing hard, and very hard to keep it easy.

The crazy era of everyone inventing new figures is over, but we (callers) keep new figures coming at dancers by way of encouraging them to climb the ladder from Basic to Challenge II... Round Dancing has gone from easy rounds that the square dance caller could teach in a couple of minutes and the dancers could memorize to at least six levels of increasing complexity.

Dorothy Stott Shaw made a valid point when she said that the measure of a good dancer is not the number of figures he/she knows, but how well they dance them.

The same can be said of callers. It is not how many figures you claim to know, it is how well you put them together to make an interesting and danceable combination. In my not-so-humble opinion, it is not dancing if the dancers have to stop every few steps to check the formation.

I sat in on a marvelous workshop by Tony Oxendine in which he showed how he programmed a whole evening. He had a fantastic singing call figure he wanted to use; it was all mainstream figures, but they were put together in such a way that most dancers could not dance it cold. So during each tip of the evening he made sure he highlighted the basics that would be in the singing call. He started those basics from standard position, then worked them around so that the dancers were doing them from many different formations. When the dancers sailed through the singing call figure at the end of the dance, they floated off the floor. They knew that they had danced something very special and it was because Tony had set them up for success.

So back to tooting my horn. Contra dancing has been around for several hundred years, and it still uses a very limited list of basics. The challenge to a choreographer is to put combinations together that have not been done before, but are still danceable. I think I have done that in the following dance (if not, I humbly beg your forgiveness).

Dancing With Grace

Formation: Alternate Duple

Music: Try a hornpipe, otherwise, use a smooth 32 bar reel

Intro: - - - -, with your neighbor dosado

1-8: - - - -, same one balance

9-16: - - and star thru, - - ladies center for hey for four

17-24: - - - -, - - - ,

25-32: - - - -, catch left hands and half promenade

33-40: - - - - , - - ladies chain

41-48: - - - - , same four circle left 3/4

49-56: - - - - , - - balance the ring

57-64: - - California twirl, - - new neighbor dosado

Most of the dance is glossary dancing – in other words, the figures are well known by dancers and are arranged in a way that flows and counts out to the music. The initial dosado identifies the two couples who are dancing together. The balance is with both hands joined and step towards each other and touch, step back and touch (four beats). The star thru also takes four beats, and it sets the couples up to be facing each other.

The ladies lead into the hey for four by passing right shoulders with each other, then passing left shoulders with the men. The floor pattern for the ladies is like ladies chain over and back, but without hands. The men follow exactly the same route, but four beats behind the ladies, and always allow one dancer to pass in between.

What is new in the dance is at the end of the hey for four, the ladies have turned to their left to face in, while the men have passed right shoulders with each other and are approaching the lady (original neighbor) with the left shoulder. The two dancers simply join left hands, the man pivots in beside the lady to promenade to the opposite side.

The ladies chain puts everyone with their own partner, but on the wrong side of the set for the men. Circle left 3/4 puts both the men and ladies in the wrong line and facing the wrong way, but they are looking at the couple they just danced the figure with. Balance the ring is joining hands in a circle of four and balance forward and back in four beats. California twirl turns the couple around. All the dancers are now back in the line they started in and are facing a new neighbor.

The title of the dance has a double meaning: to dance with grace is to dance beautifully with poise and style. To dance with Grace is to dance with a lovely lady who lives in Northern California.
Retaining The Class Dancer

Reprinted from the October American Caller’s Association Newsletter

From the first night of class there are forces beyond our control that will work against each class member’s goal of completing the class and becoming a SQUARE DANCER.

These forces such as job change, illness, family problems etc. will force some folks to drop out of class. The “Drop Out” due to forces we have no control over, we must accept as part of any class program. The ones that leave our class because we have “PUSHED” them out due to poor teaching, trying to teach too much for them to learn in a short period of time, a short teaching fuse, lack of dancing for fun and success to build up their confidence and many other aspects of class, WE DO HAVE CONTROL OVER.

IMPORTANT ASPECTS FOR THE RETENTION OF CLASS DANCERS.

1. Be aware of the feelings, fears and mixed personalities of those who are attending the class especially during the first month or so.
2. A good teacher will have lots of patience.
3. A strong regard for the feelings of others.
4. Add humor to the program.
5. Get to know the class members by name as soon as possible.
6. Avoid a tone of voice that shows you are annoyed with them.
7. Create an atmosphere for learning that is relaxed and positive.
8. Have ways to gain their attention without being offensive.
9. Avoid singling out an individual who is having a problem.
10. Visit with the dancers between tips. Avoid visiting with the same few dancers, move around the floor to various locations.
11. Show your enthusiasm throughout the length of the program. It shows you really enjoy calling and teaching.

IMPORTANT OF TEACHING SQUARE DANCING.

1. Be prepared for the night’s lesson. This includes what needs to be reviewed from previous lessons either in dance or from a walk thru.
2. Short and to the point explanations. A good clear “teach”
3. Teach from the Heads and the Sides.
American Square Dance will always be happy send you free magazines to give to your graduating class!

4. Make your presentation without having to learn another call in order to get started learning the “feature” calls.
5. Have several simple dance routines ready for practice with a quick return to a Left Allemande.
6. Provide LOTS of practice dancing using the new call and as the call becomes well understood mix it into routines with other WELL known calls.
7. Do not rush through the teaching program at a pace only the best in the group can keep up with.
8. Prepare a lesson plan that provides for:
   A. The introduction of new calls.
   B. A review of the past two weeks calls.
   C. Time for dancing for fun and practice that simulates “dance” not a class.
   D. Teach the basic styling as you teach the mechanics of the call.
   E. From experience, note the trouble spots in each call.
   F. Note mistakes made by some dancers so they can be smoothed out either by a bit of talking while calling or a walk through between tips.
   G. Your plan must be flexible to allow for “Good” and “Bad” nights.
9. Develop several ways to teach and explain how to do a call. Use demonstrations so all can see their part of the call.
10. A picture is worth a 1000 words.
11. Use the two-couple mountain style circle to maximize the practice time and as a mixer.
12. Provide equal time for the heads and sides to start off the action.
13. Use helping words that dancers can hang on to.
14. Teach formation awareness. Have the dancers learn that it is important to know if they are ends or centers of lines or if they are facing in or out in waves, in and out facing couples in two faced lines, etc.
15. Pat the dancers on the back at every opportunity and be positive when things go badly.
16. Allow the class time to ask questions.
17. Take time to talk a bit about our activity, the history and how the area functions with clubs etc.

DEALING WITH ANGELS

There are several viewpoints on the use of angels. If you use angels be sure to spend time with them on how to be an angel. Caution angels about:
1. Showing off with fancy twirls, kicks, etc.
2. Over helping – allow the class dancer to make a mistake.
3. Being the teacher – that is your job.
4. Dancing with the same couples all the time.
5. If used for demonstrating a call show them what you are planning so they know what to expect.
CALLERLAB Applications
Review Committee

Jon Jones, Chairman of the Application Review Committee (ARC) is pleased to announce the committee has completed the review of 13 questions regarding the usage/application of certain calls as follows:

1. From a Completed Double Pass Thru formation, the call given was All Eight Circulate.
The Question is: Does the application comply with the written CALLERLAB Basic Definition?
The Answer is NO, it does not meet the Basic definition; however, it would be proper at C-1 and beyond as it complies with the Challenge definition for 16 matrix. The ending formation would be Ocean Waves far apart and the right hand rule would apply to this application.

2. From Facing Lines formation, the call given was Coordinate.
The Question is: Does this application comply with the written CALLERLAB Plus Definition?
The Answer is NO, this application does not comply with ANY CALLERLAB definition and should not be used.

3. From Three and One Lines formation (the ends facing in and the centers in a right hand Mini Wave), the call given was Coordinate.
The Question is: Does this application comply with the written CALLERLAB

Plus definition?
The answer is YES, BUT, only from the 3 and 1 line formation and should NOT be used at Plus nor A-1/A-2 without a thorough workshop. It would be proper at C-1. The ending formation is Facing Diamonds.

4. The call Crossfire was given from Facing Diamonds.
The Question is: Does this application comply with the written CALLERLAB
Plus definition?
The decision is NO, however, it would be proper at A-1 as it complies with “Do your part of” type calls. The ending formation is “T” Bone Boxes.

5. The Question: Is it proper to call Spin Chain Thru, Relay The Deucey, Spin
Chain The Gears and Spin Chain and Exchange The Gears from a Tidal Wave?
The answer is NO. None of these applications comply with the CALLERLAB written definitions.

6. The Question: Is it proper to call Chain Reaction from an “I” formation?
The answer is NO because this application does not comply with the written CALLERLAB definitions.

7. The call Transfer The Column was given from a Completed Double Pass Thru formation.
The Question is: Does this application comply with the written CALLERLAB
A-1 definition?
The Answer is NO, this application does not comply with any written CALLERLAB definition.

8. From a Thar formation, the call given was All 8 Turn and Deal.
The Question: Does this application comply with the written CALLERLAB
A-1 definition?
The Answer is YES but, it should not be used at A-1 without a thorough workshop. It would be proper at A-2 without a workshop. The ending formation is Mini Waves in a Static Square (SS) position.

9. From a Double Pass Thru (DPT) formation, the call Checkmate The Column was given.
The Question: Does this application comply with the written CALLERLAB
A-2 definition?
The Answer is YES, this application is proper at A-2 as it complies with the definition. The ending formation is Lines Facing Out.

10. From a Completed Double Pass Thru (CDPT) formation the call given was Checkmate The Column.
   The Questions is: Does this application comply with the written CALLERLAB A-2 definition?
   The Answer is: YES, this application is proper at A-2 as it complies with the definition. The ending formation is Facing Lines.

11. The call is All 4 Couples Do Sa Do from a Static Square (SS).
    The Question is: Does this application comply with the written CALLERLAB A-2 definition?
    The Answer is: YES, this would be proper at A-2 BUT with caution. Although this complies with the definition, it is NOT recommended as it DOES NOT DANCE WELL and could be dangerous. The ending formation is a Static Square.

12. The call is All 4 Couples Box The Gnat from a Static Square (SS).
    The Question is: Does this application comply with the written CALLERLAB A-2 definition?
    The Answer is: YES, this application is proper at A-2, HOWEVER callers and dancers are cautioned about its usage The dancers must back into their ending position and must be careful of the other dancers around them. The ending formation is a SS in the opposite persons position.

13. From a Thar formation, the call given was All 8 Spin Chain Thru.

The Question is: Does this application comply with the written CALLERLAB A-2 definition?

The Answer is NO. This application does not comply with any CALLERLAB definition. Callers may use calls and applications from other programs provided there is a thorough workshop to introduce them. This applies to experimental calls as well. Good caller judgement should be utilized with the introduction of unfamiliar calls or applications!

The CALLERLAB Board of Governors established the ARC in 1998 to review the proper/improper usage of calls on the various programs. If anyone has a question in this regard, contact the CALLERLAB Home Office and it will be forwarded to the proper place.

Diamond Jubilee – July 13, 1950
Reprinted from Sets In Order, August 1950

Bob Osgood, Editor’s Note: Post mortem accounts of news events usually get pushed into the background. However, the dance that was advertised as “The Largest Square Dance In The World,” developed into such overwhelming proportions, that even the most optimistic were surprised beyond description. For that reason, the first portion of this issue is dedicated to the Jubilee Square Dance.

“FANTASTIC!” That’s the description of the Diamond Jubilee used by the Santa Monica Evening Outlook the day following Santa Monica’s Diamond Jubilee, July 13, 1950.

Estimators working for the Santa Monica paper made a conservative estimate of the dancers at 15,000, and approximated number of spectators somewhere around 35,000.

Although the original three block area had to be expanded another city block, and this entire area filled with squares dancing in areas only six feet and seven feet across, the spirit of enthusiasm and gaiety was practically unparalleled in any square dance ever held.

A tight schedule ran each of the 37 callers one right after the other, with round dancing wedged in between every third dance.

The highlight of the evening came with the mass greeting of Dr. Lloyd “Pappy Shaw” as his shiny new convertible edged its way through a seething sea of dancers down the center of Wilshire Boulevard to the caller’s platform as the band played, “She’ll Be Comin’ Round the Mountain.” Dr. Shaw and Mrs. Shaw accepted the greeting of the crows, and “Pappy” took over with Master of Ceremonies, Bob Osgood, to introduce the callers that followed.
Another long to be remembered moment of the Jubilee was the entrance of California's Governor, Earl Warren to the tune of "California, Here I Come." Again Wilshire Boulevard was spaced momentarily so that the Governor's car and escort could find its way to the caller's stand. Amazed, as were the rest of those at the event, Governor Warren stayed in the stand until the last caller had finished his call.

Most amazed of all, perhaps, were the officials of Santa Monica who many had had tongue in cheek when preliminary figures of eight thousand attending were given out as publicity. Their amazement was equaled by the City of Santa Monica's Police Department. "We've handled lots of dance crowds in our life. We've handled parking problems," said one of the police officers, "but never have we had so orderly a crowd." Many plain clothes policemen were out looking for something to do, only to find that the crowd was not the type that needed supervision.

The dancers were surprised at the smoothness of the asphalt payment with its surface of powdered soapstone (talc), and the unusually clear sound system strung throughout the four block long area.

As the dance was in its final stages, a young teenage couple leaned over the rail of the bandstand to ask the orchestra leader if he wasn't going to play some music for popular dancing. Not sarcastically, the bandleader looked first at the youngsters, then out over the vast throng of thousands enjoying the World's Largest Squares Dance, and said, "You may not know it, kids, but this is popular dancing."
Association/Federation festivals, conventions or benefit dances can be listed free of charge in What's Ahead.

We need the event date, name, location including city and state, contact address, phone number, and email if any.

Please send us the event information as early as you want, but we prefer to receive it more than six months in advance of the event’s scheduled date.
