Varsity Debate Activities Open

Program of Forensics Announced by Director

Twenty-six Secondary Schools to Participate in Intercollegiate League Varsity Teams to Have Fall Season to Revive Intramural Debate

The program of debating to be introduced this year by the University of New Hampshire Forensics Board will bring about a stronger, more systematic program. Among the new features of the program will be regular intercollegiate debates, intramural debates, and informal debate sessions.

Mr. Charles W. Curb, coach of Debate, announced that tryouts for the debate team will take place from 1:30 to 3:00 p.m. on Thursday, October 12, in the debate room of Memorial Hall. The tryouts will be closed to the public.

The debate season will begin on Friday, October 20, with a debate between the University of New Hampshire and the University of Maine. The debate will be held in the debate room of Memorial Hall, and the audience is invited to attend.

The weekly debate meetings will be held on Tuesday evenings at 7:00 p.m. in the debate room of Memorial Hall. All interested students are encouraged to attend these meetings.

The University of New Hampshire will have two teams, one for the junior class and one for the senior class. Each team will be under the guidance of a faculty advisor.

The University of New Hampshire Forensics Board is looking forward to a successful season of debate and is planning to make this year's program the best ever.

VOTE

On the front page of this issue we publish the results of the straw vote taken by the students at Colby College on November 1st of last year, when Lawrence Livermore was defeated in the presidential campaign which ended with the election of Warren G. Harding. The majority of the students voted against Livermore, but we do not urge that every student vote for someone. As we have said before, a sense of respect to himself. We continue the custom. Let's have no more of this kind of thing.

SPRINGFIELD ALUMNI AND COLLEGIATE HUMOR

Coach Corvallis Guest of Honor at Meeting and Banquet of the Collegiate Humorists

The annual alumni and collegiate meeting and banquet of the humorists of Springfield was held at the Rigging Club at Springfield, Mass. on Saturday afternoon, November 3rd.

The Springfield alumni always enjoy the presence of the collegiates, and the collegiates think the alumni are just as good. They seem to be able to get along with each other, and we are able to get along with each other.

Next Saturday, both the varsity and collegiate teams will compete in a double match, which promises to be a good one. The collegiates will be chosen from the younger men and the alumni will be chosen from the older men. The collegiates will probably be picked from the following men: Roberts, Byrd, Adams, Davis, Cline, Smith, Bradley, Nye, Clark, Sharp, Smith, Potter, and others.

BOYHOOD AND CAREERS WITH ENGINEERS

The following report of the careers and contributions of the men and women who were engineers during their boyhood was received through the courtesy of the American Society of Civil Engineers:

We were all freshmen at one time, and our boyhood experiences were not exactly the same as those of our fathers. We were, however, we believe that Durham should be glad that there are so many candidates for the presidency of the United States.

FROM OUR MAIL BOX

To the Editor:

We read all freshmen at one time, and our boyhood experiences were not exactly the same as those of our fathers. We were, however, we believe that Durham should be glad that there are so many candidates for the presidency of the United States.

One of the most interesting and humorous parts of the campaign is the attempt of the candidates to make their speeches heard from the campaigns as a whole have the advantage of the candidate, who should be a permanent part of the party. We will be glad to publish any and all letters which are signed by the writers who are interested in the subject.

Last week our team was defeated by the better leading Malise aggregate, so the war was won by the Team. We did not seem possible that there would be any war at all, but we are convinced upon further consideration that we have been fighting a war of a different kind.

We humbly suggest that a vote for someone.

There is style in the prices, too!

Now no longer need the well-dressed man pay the prices of out-of-date production methods.

Efficiency is outsold. Modern methods enable John Wards to head prices in style, yet pay for difference in prices of materials.

When the old boys came together at their reunion on October 15 at the Odd Fellows' Building, Dover, N. H., this year, they were able to bear an excellent speaker in the person of Mr. Merritt C. Huse, recently graduated from New Hampshire in 1898. Mr. Huse graduated from New Hampshire in 1898 and entered the class of 1899 in the fall of 1898. He was a member of the Hanover College Students' Union and of the College Glee Club. He is a graduate of an engineering school and has held various positions as an engineer. He has done some electric engineering and is now associated with the New England Electric Railway Company.

Wildcats Win At Springfield

Defeat Springfield Team By Close Score of 6 to 0

Townsman—Matched—Reply

Wildcats broke into the winning column again last Saturday by defeating the Springfield College football team by a score of 6 to 0. This was the final game of the 1928 season. Last year the Red and White won their first defeat of the year and the Springfield team was forced to the same fate this year. There was not much to choose between the teams, both having had a successful season, and had the desire necessary to win.

Background

The battle was all through the first half of the game. In the third period the Blue and White started a drive that was not stopped. Scoring on the last yard, they marched steadily down field until a punt brought them to the Springfield 4. A punt by Springfield was returned for a touchdown by the Blue and White. The final score was 6 to 0.
