

Wildcats Face Lowell Textile

Bay State Team Comes with Formidable Record

Robinson Only New Hampshire Regular Likely to Be Out of Game—Blue and White Hopeful of Continuing Winning Streak

The University of New Hampshire football team will meet the powerful Lowell Textile eleven at Memorial Field as one of the features in commemorating the fifth annual Dad's Day this Saturday.

Lowell has thirteen veterans from the last season and with a dearth of material coming from their freshman squad, they present almost an unbeatable combination for their opponents. Though the southern team has had an even break in the games played this Fall, the year before their gridiron forces came through with a clean record. This season they have won from Arnold and the Coast Guards and lost to Amherst and Rhode Island by fairly close scores.

In the workouts this week by the varsity the coaches have been stressing the importance of a smooth running machine in order to keep up the winning streak of the Wildcats this season. A slump that comes usually at an unexpected moment in a team's schedule is something Coach Cowell hopes to avoid. Most of the time has been spent on fundamentals with short periods of light scrimmages.

The injuries to the team seem to be confined mostly to sprains, with a probability that only one man, Robinson '31 at left tackle, will not be in shape to start the game Saturday. Captain Shea '29, Dick Eustis '32 and Bill Nelson '29, had slight injuries from the Tufts encounter but it is believed that they will be ready to start against Lowell Textile.

In the comparison of the points scored in previous games by both teams this season, an unusual coincidence comes to the foreground when it was discovered that eighty three units have been chalked up for each team. For the visitors this week-end it has been learned that Kendrick, Savard and Captain Allard, all backs, have been responsible for most of the scores of the Lowell team and that they may uncover some spectacular line plunging and broken field running.

MANTON CHOSEN TO LEAD NEW EXETER SINGING CLUB

Professor Robert W. Manton, of the music department has received the honor of being chosen to take charge of the new Exeter singing club, which has recently been formed at Phillips-Exeter academy. The purpose of this club, which now consists of three hundred boys, is to institute a singing club which is not selective but which embraces almost the entire student group. The members will be taught to sing the finest examples of choral music.

WILDCATS OUTFRAN SPRINGFIELD 24-31

Bennet of Springfield Places First—Hazen Leads N. H. Men—Second Win This Season for Blue and White

Although Springfield college finished the first man in the cross country meet with the Wildcat harriers on Homecoming day, the New Hampshire varsity won the second race of the season 24 to 31.

Bennet of the visiting team led Henry Hazen across the finish line by a few yards, but the New Hampshire star threatened Bennet's honors on the home stretch, before the enthusiastic football crowd. The best time was 28 minutes, 6 3-5 seconds for the 5.05 mile grind.

New Hampshire also took third, fifth and sixth places by the respective finishes of Albert Lazure, Stuart Richardson and Carleton Noyes.

The following is the order of finish: Bennet (S), first; Henry Hazen (NH), second; Albert Lazure (NH), third; Mitchell (S), fourth; Stuart Richardson (NH), fifth; Carleton Noyes (NH), sixth; Anderson (S), seventh; Wade Roberts (NH), eighth; Brown (S), ninth; Babcock (S), tenth; Seth Lamson (NH), eleventh; Alec Szuch (NH), twelfth; Dwight Perley (NH), thirteenth; Watts (S), fourteenth; and Prisk (NH), fifteenth.

Durham's Mayor Makes Debut

Blaisdell Victorious in Homecoming Campaign

Appearance of Jumbo Between Halves Causes Much Amusement—Record Crowd at Outing Club Dance—Most Successful Homecoming

After a week of most hectic campaigning Durham presented to its alumni and football fans last Saturday its mayor in the person of "Soap" Blaisdell, who was clearly the peoples' choice. Being the chief event during the week preceding Homecoming, the fourth mayoralty campaign aroused wide-spread interest both on campus and among the surrounding communities. It is said that the curiosity of the citizens of Portsmouth was greatly aroused upon seeing several cars in their metropolis wearing the stickers "Soap" Blaisdell for Mayor.

The entire student body showed considerably more interest in this campaign than in former ones and attendants at the ballot box on Friday were kept very busy during the entire morning distributing ballots. The winning candidate was announced at the rally held on Friday evening and to say that there was a record crowd there would be no exaggeration. The floor and balcony of the gym were filled with members of the student body who were most enthusiastic in their cheers. Besides being addressed by the mayor himself, the crowd heard the two defeated candidates, "Cy" Perkins and Florence Weast; and also the alumni secretary, Charles Pattee.

The chief event of the week-end was the football game on Memorial Field where the legs of the lumbering Jumbo from the wilds of Medford slipped in the soap spread by the Wild-

Novelty Dance Saturday Night

"Bowery Brawl" to be Held in Thompson Hall

Hobo Costumes to be Feature of Affair Planned by Student Social Committee to take Place of Regular Informal

Days of the early nineteen-hundreds are to be recalled Saturday evening, when the second annual Bowery Brawl will be held in the men's gymnasium at eight o'clock in place of the regular Saturday night Informal.

This is to be a costume affair, the dress of which can probably be best depicted through reference to stories on "Life on the Western Front during the early 1900's." Each and everyone is requested to come in dress that will be in harmony with the occasion, such costumes as were worn by the attendants of the Bowery Brawl held last year in connection with the Sigma Alpha Epsilon-Theta Chi house party in the Town Hall in lower Durham.

This year, as previously mentioned, emphasis will be placed on costume although unlimited effort will be spent by the sponsors to make the hall into a real Ballroom of New York's East Side. Also special musical selections, numbers which were extremely popular during the days which are to be brought back to the memory of the dancers will be featured by the orchestra which will play for the dancing.

The University Social Committee is sponsor of this novel fair and look to the student body for a firm backing in order that more dances and other forms of entertainment may be presented throughout the school year. The chairman of this committee is Ray Sawyer, the other members being Bertha Hill, Marion Berquist, Jane Lenman, Robert Callahan and Gerald Morin.

BASKETBALL TEAMS NOW IN DEADLOCK

Intramural Games Progress Slowly—Phi Mu Delta, Tri Gamma, Phi Alpha, Theta Kappa Phi, and Kappa Sigma in Lead

Another week has passed and the fraternity basketball leagues still remain in practically the same order in which they were last week, with Phi Mu Delta, Tri Gamma, and Phi Alpha leading one group of teams in the race for supremacy and Theta Kappa Phi and Kappa Sigma sharing top honors in the other league.

The games for the past week consisted of victories for Theta Kappa Phi in two contests, and one for Alpha Gamma Rho, Phi Mu Delta, Tri Gamma, Delta Pi Epsilon, and Theta Chi. Incidentally, it was the first win for Alpha Gamma Rho and Delta Pi Epsilon.

This week's games consist of contests between Phi Alpha and Tri Gamma, Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Alpha Tau Omega, tomorrow afternoon. On Monday afternoon Delta Sigma Chi takes on Delta Pi Epsilon, and Phi Delta Upsilon meets Lambda Chi Alpha. Next Tuesday, November fifth, Theta Chi and Tri Gamma play at four o'clock and Alpha Gamma Rho bucks up against Kappa Sigma at 5.00 P. M. One game will be played on Wednesday when Alpha Tau Omega meets Delta Pi Epsilon. Next Thursday S. A. E. meets Alpha Gamma Rho and Theta Chi meets Theta Upsilon Omega.

After the above week's games there will be but four more contests in each league. Then the final game will be staged, with the leaders of each group competing for the championship.

DELTA SIGMA CHI HOLDS HOMECOMING HOUSE DANCE

At the home of Delta Sigma Chi last Friday evening Soap Blaisdell and His Seven Soap Chips furnished music for the fall house dance. Decorations were in keeping with the season of Hallowe'en and the dance was attended by many alumni as well as student members of the fraternity. The chaperones were Dr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Rudd, and Mr. and Mrs. Burt Huggins. Evan J. Edwards was general chairman.

ALEXANDER SPEAKS AT SPHINX BANQUET

Annual Initiation Held Last Monday Evening at Simpson's—Lundholm, Miller, and Ryder Included Among Speakers

The annual Sphinx initiation banquet was held at 6.30 P. M., Monday evening, at Simpson's—Lundholm, Miller, and Ryder included among speakers.

Following the banquet, Henry Stenberg, incoming president, acted as toastmaster and introduced Dean Alexander, Carl Lundholm, who is faculty advisor of the 1932 Sphinx, and Al Miller, of Harvard football fame. Miller, at present coach of the varsity backfield, has played some professional football and gave a very interesting talk on the subject. A farewell address was presented by Chandler Ryder, president of the retiring Sphinx. Between speeches the group was entertained with stunts and songs by the new members.

The officers of the 1932 Sphinx are as follows: President—Henry Stenberg. Vice-President—Carleton Noyes. Treasurer—Lawrence Barker. Secretary—Jean Moreau.

Tri Gamma Goes Pi Kappa Alpha

National Group is 12th on University Campus

Local Organized in 1920—Pi K. A. Founded in 1868—Fraternity Strong in South

The local chapter of Gamma Gamma Gamma, a social fraternity, announces that its petition to Pi Kappa Alpha, national social fraternity, has been accepted by the chapters and supreme council of Pi Kappa Alpha.

Tri Gamma was conceived in the fall of 1920 and was fully established and recognized by Casque and Casquet, the interfraternity council, in the spring of 1921. One of the main objects of the founders was to affiliate with a good national when the local chapter was strong enough, and it was to this end that relations were established with Pi Kappa Alpha, a prominent national fraternity, in the spring of 1929. The chapter was inspected by officers of the supreme council of Pi K. A. and by the local prince of New England, after which permission was granted to the chapter to petition.

The following is an excerpt from Baird's Manual of American College Fraternities. "Pi Kappa Alpha was founded at the University of Virginia, March 1, 1868. It was purely a southern fraternity until 1909, when, at the convention in New Orleans the ban was lifted and there were no restrictions in the United States. Since then expansion has been steady.

"There are at present seventy-four active chapters, with a total membership of about 13,000. There are seventy-four alumni chapters located in seventy-four different cities.

"The fraternity is governed by a supreme council consisting of the Grand Princes, Grand Treasurer, and Grand Secretary. A general office is maintained in Atlanta, Georgia. National conventions are held annually. There are district princes in each of the twenty-four districts.

"A fraternity magazine, The Shield and Diamond is published monthly. The fraternity publishes a song book and its song, The Dream Girl of Pi K. A., is one of the three largest selling fraternity songs in existence.

"Scholarship has always been encouraged. The fraternity has established the Pi K. A. Scholarship cup to be awarded to the chapter having the highest average each year.

"Among the prominent alumni are: U. S. Senator Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama; Congressmen Harold S. Tolley of New York, L. B. Rainey of Alabama, and William C. Salmon of Tennessee; Dean John R. Turner of New York University and Chairman of the Advisory Committee to the Tariff Commission; Edward F. Swinney, president American Bankers' Association; James M. Ambler, Supreme Court Judge of Maryland; Bishop Thomas C. Darst.

Granite Cover Bids Presented

New Hampshire as a State Theme of Junior Annual

Photographic Work to be Completed Next Week—Work in Student Art Contest in Hands of Judges

The work of the 1930 Granite, the Junior Year Book of the University, is progressing rapidly, according to the Editor-in-Chief, Enzo Serafini. Sketches for the cover are now being submitted by the S. K. Smith Company, the David J. Molloy Company, and the E. W. Bredemeier Company, all leading cover firms from Chicago.

All the work in the student art contest has been called in and a judging committee composed of Arthur W. Johnson, associate professor of economics at the university, Paul H. Shramm, instructor in drawing here, and Clinton J. Cheney of the engraving department of the Manchester Union-Leader Publishing Company will pick five or six of the contestants to continue in the contest. This is the first time in recent years that any of the art work of the Granite has been contributed by undergraduate artists.

Practically all of the individual pictures have been taken. Next week the final individual photographs will be taken and also all the rest of the numerous group pictures. The time schedule for the group pictures will be posted on the bulletin board in front of the library. The Juniors will be able to obtain their finished photos about the eleventh of November.

The Juniors have already cast their class ballot, but, of course, the results will be kept in a close obscurity until the final publication of the yearbook. The Granite board is still receiving hee-lers and any freshmen or sophomores wishing to heel for the Granite should get in touch with either Enzo Serafini or Harry Caldwell.

The theme of the Granite this year is to be New Hampshire as a state. It will carry publicity for the state as a whole and will be of import not only as a publication of the student-body of the university but also as a publication representative of the state. Thus there can be no doubt but that the Granite this year will be entirely original in make-up, for no other college would be likely to choose the same theme.

PHI ALPHA FRATERNITY HOLDS DANCE AT HOUSE

The local chapter of the Phi Alpha fraternity was the host at a house dance last Friday evening, October 25. This was the first party to be held by the fraternity in its new home. The home was decorated with Hallowe'en effects, which added greatly to the spirit of the evening. The patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Anne J. Morgan and Professor and Mrs. Cortez. Music was furnished by the Kampus Kutups.

UNIVERSITY GOES ON DISPLAY FOR DADS SATURDAY MORNING

Governor Charles W. Tobey to Appear as Dad Rather Than in Official Capacity of State

Fathers Will Register at Faculty Club—Five Hundred Expected for Holiday—To Leave Faculty Club in Three Groups at Nine O'Clock for Tour of Classrooms and Laboratories

Rehearsals For Play Progress

Miss Pearson Likened To Well Known Actress

Mr. Haseltine Successfully Taking Place of Paul Kirvan—He Who Gets Slapped Chosen for Winter Term Play

According to reports from Professor William G. Hennessey of the department of English, rehearsals for The Truth About Blayds are progressing satisfactorily. The eight players have learned their lines and stage business, and the grueling polishing process has begun, the process so necessary if a play given by amateurs is to be a professional performance in every detail, rather than just "an amateur show."

As the student body knows, the Mask and Dagger players are selected with great care and drilled with all the care and exactness that are given to the members of the varsity football team. Since the play started, rehearsals have been held four nights a week, starting at 7:00 P. M. and concluding anywhere from two to four hours later. Yet it is a fact that scholarship averages of those participating do not suffer because of participation in a play. For one thing, the demands of rehearsing compel a strict concentration of attention and an equally strict budgeting of time.

Marion Pearson and Edward Haseltine play the leads. According to Professor Hennessey, Miss Pearson has certain mannerisms on the stage which pleasantly suggest Maude Adams. Miss Pearson has a certain charm well suited to the characterization of the lonely Isobel Blayds. Mr. Haseltine fills the place of Paul Kirvan, lost to the society when he graduated last June. Mr. Haseltine is easy on curtain. It is a fascinating play.

It will be produced on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, November 20, 21, and 22 at 8:00 P. M. All seats will be reserved at one price, fifty cents. Tickets will go on sale at the bookstore, the College Shop and the College Pharmacy one week before the first performance. They will also be sold at the door.

This winter Mask and Dagger hopes to produce "He Who Gets Slapped," the famous tragedy of circus life by Andriev. If the play is given, William Nelson will play the lead, made famous in this country by Richard Bennett.

INITIATION NOTICE

Theta Alpha chapter of Theta Upsilon Omega announces the initiation of Aldis J. Christie, '31; Kenneth S. Savage, '31; Philbert E. Remick, '31; and John Walstrom, '32 on October 22, 1929.

The presentation of a program which will enable everyone to see the University at work and at play is the purpose of the schedule of events which have been planned for the fifth annual "Dad's Day" to be held at Durham Saturday, according to the invitation sent the father of every student in the University from the president's office last week. Governor Tobey will be present during the day. He will, however, appear as a "dad" rather than as the governor of the state. His daughter, Francelia Tobey, is a sophomore in the College of Liberal Arts. Registration for the fathers will be at the Faculty club where they will procure tickets admitting them to a luncheon at the University dining hall and to the football game with Lowell Textile in the afternoon. About five hundred fathers are expected to register.

Three groups of fathers will leave the Faculty club at 9 o'clock under the leadership of members of the faculty for tours of the University. One will go first to the College of Agriculture where it will spend an hour or so, and then it will visit the other two colleges more briefly. A second will go first to the College of Technology, and then to the other two colleges. The third will go first to the College of Liberal Arts, and then to the other two colleges. In this way it will be possible for each "dad" to spend most of his time at the college in which he is most interested, and relatively less time at the other colleges. In case any of the fathers come too late to go with the 9 o'clock groups there will be three more groups which will leave the Faculty club at 9:30 for the same purpose. Fathers may, if they would rather, explore the University by themselves. Laboratories and classrooms will be open for all those who wish to visit them.

There will be a parade of the R. O. T. C. regiment on Memorial field at 11:15. Classes will be dismissed at 11 o'clock in order to allow the regiment plenty of time to form. After the parade the fathers will have their pictures taken as they sit in the stands. This will probably occur at about 11:30.

The members of the faculty will be assembled according to their respective colleges after the taking of the picture, for an informal reception will be held in the gymnasium. The organized assembling of the faculty has been arranged so that it will be comparatively easy for students to introduce their fathers to their own particular instructors. The address by President Lewis which was to come at 12:00 has been postponed to 12:10 in order to give more time for the reception.

At 12:45 luncheon for the fathers will be served at the Freshmen dining hall. The luncheon hour for the freshmen will be from 11:30 until 12 o'clock in order that there may be an opportunity to prepare for the fathers.

Geology Class Climbs Mountain

Sixteen Members Make Journey to Mt. Chocorua

Last Thursday the Class with Professor White Made First Major Field Trip in Connection with Geology Work—Observed Physiographic Features

Sixteen members of Professor George W. White's class in physiography climbed Mt. Chocorua last Thursday to make a study of the physiographic features which are to be found there.

Led by Professor White, the party left Durham about six o'clock Thursday morning and, after stopping to see various geologic features on the way, arrived at the foot of the mountain at ten o'clock. The ascent of the mountain, over the Piper trail, required only slightly more than two hours. At the top Professor White pointed out many of the physiographic features which can be seen from the mountain and much valuable first-hand information was gained by the class.

After the study at the top of the mountain had been concluded the party descended to the half-way cabin where a most enjoyable lunch was prepared over an open fire. After a short wait there the descent was completed and the party returned to Durham, arriving back around six o'clock.

Those students who made the trip report a most interesting day and believe that much was gained by the opportunity to apply practically some of the knowledge which they had gained in the class-room. Professor White says that, although this is the first time that a major field trip has been made in connection with the work of the department of geology, many more such trips will be added next year and in the years following.

APPLES ARE MOST USEFUL OF FRUITS

Contain Minerals, Make Good Mouth Wash, and When Cooked are Good Accompaniment for Meat

The apple can be used in more ways than any other fruit. Acids of fruit such as are contained in the apple even make a satisfactory mouth wash, according to Miss Elizabeth Ellis, nutrition specialist of the University of New Hampshire Extension Service. An apple eaten at night will cleanse the teeth mechanically and chemically, she says, and if followed with a vigorous brushing will protect them from bacteria during the night.

Although the apple is largely made up of water, its composition makes it a valuable addition to the diet just the same. It contains sugar in an easily digestible form, and minerals, including lime, phosphorus, potash, and magnesium, in forms that the body can use.

Apples still harbor some unexplained secrets of cooking and serving, says Miss Ellis. The crisp, tart varieties like the McIntosh Red will cook up fluffy but whole. Apples should not be overcooked; although they may have a long slow cooking in the oven to blend and enrich the flavors. The crispness and tartness of cooked apples, unsweetened, makes them an excellent accompaniment for meats.

Schedule Ready For Debaters

Plans Rapidly Taking Shape For Annual Trips

Material for This Year's Team Thought to be Exceptionally Good—Topics for Discussion Not Yet Definitely Decided

J. Raymond Sawyer, '31, manager of intercollegiate debating, announces that the schedule for this year's debating team is rapidly taking definite shape. He has been successful in obtaining dates with several colleges in New England. The following is a partial list of engagements:

The affirmative team: February 26—University of Maine at Orono.

February 27—Bowdoin at Brunswick. February 28—Colby at Waterville (date pending).

March 1—Boston college at Chestnut Hill.

The negative team: February 26—Middlebury at Middlebury.

February 27—University of Vermont at Burlington (date pending).

February 28—Norwich at Northfield, Vermont.

March 1—Springfield at Springfield.

Manager Sawyer is also negotiating to bring Norwich to Durham on March 6 and Bates on March 13.

The questions which are to be debated upon this season are not as yet decided, but may be one or all of the three following topics:

1. Resolved: That the U. S. Government recognize Soviet Russia.
2. Resolved: That censorship over books and theatres should be established.
3. Resolved: That the Canadian method of liquor control is preferable to that of the U. S.

According to Professor Cortez, coach of forensics, the material for this year's debating team is exceptionally good. The undefeated negative team remains intact, being composed of Daniel Perkins, '30, of Dover; Harry Smith, '30, of Dover, and J. Raymond Sawyer, '31, of Franklin. On the other hand the members of last year's affirmative team have all graduated with the exception of Louis Schwartz, '30, of Portsmouth, who was alternate.

Mr. Cortez hopes to mould a team from the candidates, who will be called for try-outs sometime after Thanksgiving. Intramural debating last year uncovered some fine material and it is hoped that they will become interested in intercollegiate debating.

CHI OMEGA SORORITY HAS HOME-COMING TEA DANCE

Chi Omega sorority held the second of its tea dances Saturday, October 19. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Red Ramblers. The chaperones for the afternoon were Mrs. Carl Lundholm and Mrs. Mary Langley.

The dance proved to be very successful due to the return of some of the Alumnae and the presence of a few off-campus guests who came up for the week-end, including Virginia Haines of Brookline, Massachusetts, Gertrude Eldridge of Cambridge, Mass., Peggy Edison of Brookline, and Mary Mullins of Portsmouth, New Hampshire.

HOME ECONOMICS NOTES

Miss Emily Savory did substitute teaching in Home Economics at the Durham Junior High School, Thursday and Friday of this past week.

The Home Economics Club, Psi Lambda, with the Y. W. C. A. organization are planning a Christmas sale to be held early in December.
