Winning Streak

The University of New Hampshire football team will meet the powerful Lowell Textile Team at Memorial Field as one of the events in commemorating the fifth annual Dad's Day.

Lowell has thirteen veterans from its last year's squad, all of whom are expected to be in the game, and the squad has been in camp for the past four weeks. The Textiles is also expected to be a formidable team, having been picked as one of the favorites in the Eastern division of the New England Conference.

Durham has twelve veterans from last year's team, including seven on the line. The Wildcats believe that their team can hold its own against the powerful Textiles.

Durham's Mayor Makes Debut

Ratcliffe House Party

The Ratcliffe House, under the leadership of President Henry Stenberg, held its annual Ratcliffe House Dance on October 31. The event was attended by a large crowd of students and alumni, and the dance was a great success.

The dance featured music by the Ratcliffe Band, and the dance floor was packed with students enjoying themselves. The Ratcliffe House proudly displayed its decorations, which were designed to capture the spirit of the fall season.

The dance concluded with a fireworks display, which was a spectacular ending to a memorable evening. The Ratcliffe House is known for its festive atmosphere and exciting events, and this year's dance lived up to its reputation.

Durham's Mayors of the Future

Durham's mayor-to-be, Charles W. Tobey, was a guest at the Ratcliffe House Dance. The event was a chance for the mayor-to-be to meet and greet students and alumni, and to get a sense of the vibrant community that makes up the University of New Hampshire.

The Ratcliffe House Dance is just one of the many events that take place at the University of New Hampshire throughout the year. These events provide students with opportunities to socialize, meet new people, and enjoy the many talents that exist on campus.

Wildcats Outrun Springfield 24-21

Resort of Springfield Places First—New Hampshire Men Win First Time in Season

Although Springfield coded first the man in the crowd, 24 points to 21, the Wildcats went home on the wrong end of the scoreboard, 24 points to 21. Best of the wrestling was Henry Blake's against the frisky feline of the new Big Ten, the Shiraz. Blake's moves were so swift and so accurate that the opposition was unable to follow the maneuvers of the spokesmen.

Days of the early morning hours are to be predicted at the New Hampshire campus, where the sun has been rising for the past few days while the New Hampshire campus was still asleep. Following the language, Henry Blake was able to outmaneuver and outmaneuver the Shiraz. The Shiraz's swift moves were met with equal speed and accuracy, and the result of the regular Saturday night affair is to be a close call, for which no doubt the outcome of the game will be decided.

The University School Committee is publisher of this novel fair and took over the work of the New Hampshire campus, where the sun has been rising for the past few days while the New Hampshire campus was still asleep. Novelty Dance Saturday Night

"Bowery Brawl" to be Held in Thompson Hall

The Student Association has announced the initiation of the "Bowery Brawl," a novelty dance to be held in Thompson Hall on Saturday night. The dance will feature music by the New Hampshire campus band, and guests from other colleges are welcome to attend.

The "Bowery Brawl" is a traditional event at the University of New Hampshire, and it is always a fun and exciting time for all who attend. The dance is named after the popular New York neighborhood, and it is a popular place for students to socialize and meet new people.

The dance will begin at 8:00 PM, and it will continue until 11:00 PM. Tickets are available at the Student Association desk, and they are $5 each. All proceeds will go to the University of New Hampshire Student Association.

A special feature of the "Bowery Brawl" will be the "Mask and Dagger" dance, which is a traditional New Hampshire event. The Mask and Dagger is a secret society that has been in existence since the late 1800s, and it is known for its elaborate costumes and dramatic presentations.

The "Bowery Brawl" is a great opportunity for students to have fun and celebrate the spirit of the University of New Hampshire. It is a must-attend event for all students, alumni, and friends of the University.

Granite Cover Bids Presented

New Hampshire As a State Theme of Junior Annual

Photographic Work to be Completed Soon

The Granite Cover, Bids Presented, is the state theme of the Junior Annual, and it will feature photographs of New Hampshire's natural beauty and history.

The Junior Annual is the University of New Hampshire's student publication, and it is published annually. The Granite Cover, Bids Presented, will feature photographs of New Hampshire's natural beauty and history, and it will be a tribute to the state's rich heritage.

The Junior Annual is a great opportunity for students to showcase their photography skills and share their love of New Hampshire with others. The photographs will be selected by a panel of judges, and the winners will receive prize packages.

The Junior Annual is a popular publication, and it is always a hit with students, alumni, and friends of the University. It is a great way to celebrate the beauty and history of New Hampshire, and it is a must-read for anyone who loves the state.
