Five Hundred Dads See Varsity Trounce Lowell

Memorial Field—Dad's Pictures Taken—They Meet Faculty at Gym

Four hundred and ninety dads, the largest number to ever register for a "Dads' Day" at the University, were present at the fifth annual "Dads' Day" which was held in Durham last Saturday.

The program for the day started, after registration at the Faculty club, with tours of the campus led by members of the faculty.

The program for the day started, after registration at the Faculty club, with tours of the campus led by members of the faculty.

Following the picture a reception for the dads was held in the gymnasium. There they were given an opportunity to meet members of the faculty.

The most important event of the afternoon which was also the focal point for the day's program was the football game with the team from Lowell Textile which the Wildcats won with little difficulty.

During the game fathers of boys who were on the squad were given the opportunity of seeing the game from the sidelines on benches which were adjacent to the benches used by the players themselves.

DELTA KAPPA JOINS PROMINENT NATIONAL

Local Sorority, Founded in 1919, Goes Kappa Delta—Installation to Take Place This Month—National has Over 60 Chapters

The local chapter of Delta Kappa, social sorority, announces that its petition to Kappa Delta, national sorority, has been granted.

After performing the third degree on Saturday, November 23, a formal banquet will be served in the Commons.

The local chapter of Delta Kappa was organized in 1919 and soon began to take an active part in campus life.

The national sorority, Delta Kappa, was founded on October 2, 1897 at Virginia State Normal school, Farmville, Virginia.

A Journal is published by the national at regular times during the year and one number a year is devoted to a list of members, undergraduates, and alumnae.

Wildcats Meet Conn. Aggies

Blue and White go to Storrs Next Saturday

Opponents to Provide Test—Nutmegs Have Lost but Two Games—Each by 7-0 Scores—Squad Loses Jacques Grenier and Nelson

While embodying all the fine qualities that go to make up a complete version of a brilliant season, the University of New Hampshire football team will face for their next opponent, the Connecticut Aggie eleven, on their home field this Saturday.

The Lowell Textile game having failed to give the New Hampshire squad needed offensive and defensive tests so essential before the important game with Springfield, it is urgent that Connecticut, Saturday's opponent, provide those tests.

If the Wildcats win Saturday's game and the Springfield conflict in another week, the Blue and White will once more claim the New England Conference Title after a lull in her gridiron fortunes for two years.

The Aggies have had a good season to date with eight games played; they have tied the Submarine Base, won from Wesleyan, Maine, Coast Guard, and Vermont.

Jake Grenier, halfback, and Bill Nelson, fullback, are the only members of the varsity squad who will most likely sit on the sidelines for the next game because of injuries.

Both of them were playing at their best for their last year at New Hampshire when the unforeseen jinx relegated them to the bench.

In the backfield Eustis and Gaunt will most likely start at the halfback positions while Lane and Wettergreen will be ready and capable to relieve them during the game.

The tentative line up for Saturday's game, given out by coach Cowell is: Hanley, left end; Robinson, left tackle; Wright, left guard; Averka, center; Bianchi, right guard; Clapp, right tackle; Donovan, right end; Woods, quarterback; Gaunt, left half; Eustis, right half; and Shea, fullback.

The office of vice-president is held by John Shea, '30, of Manchester, N. H. Shea is captain of this year's football on which he plays fullback,

VARSIITY AND FROSH MEET TECH RUNNERS

University Harriers to Run at Franklin Park Saturday Prior to New England Intercollegiate

The New Hampshire varsity and freshman cross country teams journey to Boston this week-end where they will meet the M. I. T. runners on Saturday afternoon.

Fortunately the meet is to take place at the Franklin Park course where the New England Intercollegiate events are run off a week from Saturday. This gives N. H. an opportunity to traverse the course before the real competition.

Coach Paul Sweet will choose his teams from the following men: Varsity: Capt. Hazen, Lazure, Noyes, Richardson, Roberts, Szuch, Lamson, Perley, Moore, Prisk, and Carleton. Frosh: Capt. DeMouplied, Andberg, Roberg, Patch, Varney, White, French, Mackey, Bruce, and Ahlgren.

Shea Foremost Eastern Passer

To Lead Wildcat Team Against Conn. Aggies

New Hampshire Captain Receives Praises of Prominent Football Coaches for Forward Passing Ability—73 Percent of Passes Completed

The man on the Wildcat football team who will be most closely covered by the Conn. Aggies in the game between the two teams Saturday at Storrs is without doubt Captain John Shea. The New Hampshire forward pass attack, which has played an integral part in all the victories chalked up this season, is built around the throwing ability of Captain Shea and his work has been source of favorable comment by many well known Sports writers.

To date Shea has personally thrown 51 forward passes and 37 of these have been completed, many for substantial gains, and not a few have resulted, directly or indirectly, in touchdowns for the Blue and White eleven.

Backfield Coach "Al" Miller states, "Shea's throwing will compare favorably with, if not exceed, that done by any back in the East this season. I also believe that the work of Oberlander, Dartmouth's throwing ace of 1925, and other passers who have attracted national attention, is not superior to that of Shea."

Director of Athletics, William H. Cowell says, "As a passer Shea is as good as any football player I have ever had any contact with." Coaches Cowell, Miller, and Christensen agree that the accuracy and speed, even when hard pressed by opposing linemen, with which Shea gets off his passes is remarkable.

Arnold Horween, Head Coach of football at Harvard, paid a tribute to Captain Shea when, after the Harvard-New Hampshire game, he said, "Put Shea behind the Harvard line and he would make monkeys out of any secondary."

Statistics on the Harvard game show the importance of the Wildcats' overhead game. Forward passes were completed for a total distance of 105 yards, 70 yards of which were made with the Blue and White captain on the throwing end.

defeated basketball season by defeating Alpha Gamma Rho, Tuesday, November 5, by a score of 25-16.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY HELD BY DELTA CHI FRATERNITY

A quiet Hallowe'en party was held last Thursday evening by Delta Chi, the honorary Mathematics fraternity, at the new home of Dr. George N.
Bauer on Madbury road.
Philip Nudd, '30 gave a very interesting account of his inspection of the steel mills at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, after which games were played. Cider and doughnuts were served. The party was planned by the recently elected Social committee which consists of F. Madeline Lord

Monroe Walker '31, chairman.

Having been severely chastised for saying naughty things in this 'ere Spigot column, we'll give you a little First Primer stuff this week. If you don't like it, send us a letter or a telegram and we won't do it anymore.
(Aw rats!)

We are all students. We go to Durham collidge. Durham collidge is in Durham. Durham is in New Hampshire. New Hampshire is in North America. Three silent cheers and a dumb whistle for North Tusgeegee High.

Who is that pretty girl Rollo?
That is a co-ed Oswald. Where is the co-ed going Rollo? She is going to see Jim, Oswald. Jim who Rollo?
Jim Nasium, Oswald. (Ugh! Isn't that terrible!)

No one can say that Bug Farland isn't taking a pipe course.

It seems that we had a track meet Saturday.

There's a new book out: "Gidge Steps Out."

We wonder if the Yale authorities have successfully enforced the rules that were to keep Yale boys in New Haven over the week-ends. We can spare a few of our co-eds—if they want them.

Now that every one has been warned in his courses, why doesn't someone give us a chance to make good in cigarette testing?

Pretty soon we'll begin to identify Dads' Day with prohibition enforcement.

One absent-minded professor, forgetting to take down the grades of his test papers, asked the students to leave their grades with him. And then he marveled at the scarcity of his warnings!

We wonder if our profs would continue to be so darn superior if we had access to their I. Q. scores as they have access to ours. Wouldn't it be fun to say to a particularly snooty one: "Oh, yes, you did rather well on the analogy test, but on the math..... heavens!"

If you see anyone trailing around with a long face, don't fear that he's contemplating suicide. Most probably his Granite pictures didn't look as much like Rudy Vallee as he had hoped.

IRONY
I yearned for a cozy cottage On top of a crazy hill, Where I could be lonely and happy, And sit on my own door sill.
To buy that crazy hill I labored:
I worked for a tedious time.
Yet when I had bought it and started up, I found I was old and unable to climb.

Now that mustaches are becoming so common, why doesn't some unique soul appear with a long, flowing beard?

Have you noticed the men trailing to classes carefully fisting their well-carved pipes? Do they think the co-eds still fall for that advertisement, "I love to see a man smoking a pipe?"
Or do they take their "College Humor" seriously?

VILMA BANKY WENT HOME TO SEE FOLKS

Vilma Banky, whose exotic blonde loveliness is one of the chief attractions of "Two Lovers," Samuel Goldwyn's film version of the Baroness Orczy's novel, "Leatherface," at the Franklin Theatre, November 9, made history in the quaint, centuries-old city of Budapest not long ago.

Three years before, Miss Banky left her birthplace, universally acknowledged a ravishingly beautiful young lady, but almost as unknown in her own country as she was in America, her destination. A five-year contract with Samuel Goldwyn furnished whatever incentive or inspiration was necessary to take the long journey. Mother and father bade her goodbye and heaped the usual parental benedictions on a daughter venturing into the world in search of fame and fortune.

If that initial chapter in her career sounds like a preface to a Hor-atio Alger novel, the best is yet to come. For when she arrived in New York, the professional coiners of glowing tributes and beautifully turned phrases found themselves stunned. They could find no words to describe her beauty. "The Hungarian Rhapsody"—their phrase was ecstatic. But could she act?

"The Dark Angel," Miss Banky's first picture as co-star with Ronald Colman, was what is known as a howling success. Miss Banky was established and recognized,—as an actress as well as a lovely, lovely lady. "The Winning of Barbara Worth," "The Night of Love," and "The Magic Flame" followed in rapid succession, each adding to her fame and to the success of Mr. Goldwyn's team of players. With Ronald Colman, Miss Banky became one of the biggest box office attractions in motion pictures. Their popularity continued to grow so that with completion of their current picture, "Two Lovers," Mr. Goldwyn decided that henceforth his co-stars were to be solo stars. Miss Banky was to be featured in her own pictures; Mr. Colman in his. Consequently, "Two Lovers" is the last picture in which the two stars will be seen together.

Lowell Textile Goes Down 52-7

Largest Wildcat Score Since Last Lowell Game

New Hampshire Fumble Gives Visitors Only Score in First Quarter —Shea Increases Reputation as Passer

The University of New Hampshire football team, functioning as perfect offensive unit, rode roughshod to a 52 to 7 victory over the Lowell Textile eleven on Memorial Field Saturday. The Red and Black line was no match for the Wildcat running attack and the Textile secondary was literally riddled by the New Hampshire aerial game. Although the game was by no means a test for the Blue and White, it served to give experience to the squad, 40 men being used in the fray all of whom acquitted themselves creditably.

Shea kicked off for New Hampshire to open the game. McAllister received and ran the ball back to his own 43 yard mark. Two rushes and an attempted triple pass netted no gain, and Allard punted, the ball going outside on the New Hampshire 39 yard line. Six rushes by Gaunt and Jacques Grenier sufficed to cross the Lowell goal line, Gaunt making the touchdown. Wood added the extra point by a drop kick.

Textile elected to receive, and after a net loss of six yards punted to the Wildcat 45 stripe. A lateral pass, Jacques Grenier to Wood gained 18 yards. On this play Grenier had three ribs broken and was replaced by Lane, who circled left end for a 15 yard gain. Three line plunges advanced the ball four yards, and on the fourth down Shea threw a 25 yard pass to Gaunt for the second touchdown. Wood again kicked the point after touchdown.

Shea kicked off again, but the ball was recalled and set back five yards for an offside penalty. Niles received the second kick for the "Yard Wide" team and ran it back to the 34 yard mark. Allard punted to Wood who was downed on his 28 yard stripe.
A try at tackle netted a yard, and a fumble on the next play was recovered by the visitors 13 yards from the Blue and White goal. A sweeping end run brought the pigskin seven yards nearer, and a try at the line gave another. A lateral pass gained four more, and on the next play Niles crawled under a pile of red and blue jerseys to cross the line for the only Lowell touchdown. The same Niles took a wide pass from Allard to add the extra counter, making the score 14 to 7 for New Hampshire.

Lowell kicked off and New Hampshire started a march down the field that was halted on the Lowell 12 yard line by the end of the period. At the opening of the second period the Wildcats were set back 15 yards for holding, but promptly made it up when an overhead, Shea to Gaunt, gained 2 yards. Another forward, Shea to Wood scored a touchdown.
Wood kicked the goal.

At this point Coach Cowell sent a new team onto the field, and the fresh eleven marched up the field to their opponents 8 yard mark, where Lane's pass was intercepted. Textile was forced to punt, and the Wildcats came back down the field with a running and aerial attack and soon had another tally chalked up. The attempt for point kick failed.

For the remainder of the half the play sawed back and forth in mid-field, Lowell their second first down in this time by an end run from spread formation.

To open the second half, Lowell kicked off to Wood who was downed on his 33 yard line. Rushes by Eustis and Gaunt coupled with a 25 yard pass, Shea to Donovan, put the ball across for the fifth Wildcat touchdown.

The Red and Black elected to receive again, but could not gain and were forced to punt. However, the New Hampshire linemen were through on Allard and blocked his kick, Bianchi falling on the ball over the goal line for another six point tally.

Shea's kickoff was fumbled by a Bay State back and Bianchi recovered for New Hampshire on the visitor's 30 yard stripe. Five rushes by Eustis, Gaunt, and Shea raised the total score by another six points.

On the try for point after touchdown, Lowell tried slugging tactics and as a result the kickoff by the Blue and White was made from the formers 30 yard line. The kick went over the goal for a touchback. Three rushes brought a first down, and a pass, Allard to Savard gave another.
Four rushes failed to gain the necessary ten yards by 4 inches and the ball went to New Hampshire, and they in turn lost the ball on downs.
Textile could not gain and punted into the New Hampshire territory as the period ended.

Eustis made the last and most sensational score of the game when he cut loose around left end after evidently preparing to throw a pass and twisted through the entire opposition to trot across the goal line. In the last few minutes of play the visitors started a consistent overhead game, but succeeded in completing only three out of seven attempted.

In all New Hampshire made 19 first downs against eight for Lowell, seven of them being registered against the Wildcat substitutes. New Hampshire attempted ten forwards, completed seven and had one intercepted; Textile attempted 14, completed four, and had three intercepted.

The Wildcat linemen showed the most aggressiveness in this game they have so far this season. The Bianchi-led forward wall repeatedly stopped the opposing backs behind the line of scrimmage and at no time allowed an interference to form for the shifty Allard whose playing against such odds was especially commendable.

BOOK AND SCROLL HOLDS REGULAR BUSINESS MEETING

A meeting of Book and Scroll was held at the Alpha Xi Delta house last Monday evening.
After the regular business meeting, a program of sea poems was read by the members and several original poems were offered. A feature of the program was the singing of one of Masefield's songs by Leona Priest.

PHI MU DELTA AGAIN WINS INTRA-MURAL RELAY RACE

The Phi Mu Delta relay team defeated the Kappa Sigma quartet to win the intramural relay race for the third consecutive time last Saturday between the halves of the New Hampshire - Lowell Tech. football game at Memorial Field. The crowd was greatly amused when the starter could not find an explosive cartridge until his fourth attempt, but once the race was started, they were given a fine exhibition of running.

The first lap was an even run, but in the second lap Colburn of the Phi Mu Delta established a three yard lead that was increased to about eight yards at the finish.
The teams: Phi Mu Delta: Thayer, Colburn, Mitchell, Harrington. Kappa Sigma: Whitehouse, Dresser, Morin, Toolin. Time 1.35 4-5.

Key Town selling —a new telephone idea

Commercial development men of the Bell System have originated a new use of the telephone which is proving economical and efficient for modern salesmanship. From important central towns the salesman makes periodic visits to customers and prospects by telephone.
To conceive this idea, to make it practical by selecting Key Towns on a basis of most advantageous rates to surrounding points,

"Eyes" for blind flying!

Three new G-E contributions to the conquest of the air LINDBERGH, flying blind much of the way, hit Ireland "on the nose" as he winged toward Paris. Now, as an aid to air navigation comes the magneto compass, a product of General Electric research, which gives pilots a navigating instrument of extraordinary accuracy. Meanwhile, two other General Electric contributions to aviation have been developed—the electric gasoline gauge and the radio echo altimeter. The ordinary altimeter shows only height above sea level. The radio echo altimeter warns the pilot of his actual distance above ground or water by flashing green, yellow, and red lights on the instrument board.

Every year hundreds of college-trained men and women enter the employment of General Electric. Research, similar to that which developed "eyes" for blind flying, is one of the many fields of endeavor in which they play an important part.

MORE FOOTBALL

Not bad on our predictions for last week's game. The greatest blow to our mind and pocketbook came in the Dartmouth-Yale upset. Now that it is over there is little to say, but there are two questions in our mind regarding the game. Until the Yale game Al Marsters looked like sure-fire material for All-American quarterback. Did Albie Booth displace "Arlington Al" or did the "Big Green" star give a good enough performance to retain the position? And the other question. In losing to Yale did Dartmouth lose an invitation to the Tournament of Roses game at Pasadena to Pittsburgh, which team is still bowing its opponents over and remains undefeated?

It seems hard to believe that the Lowell Tech line that faced New Hampshire Saturday was the same line that was undefeated last season and had met with more than average success this season. The game was marked by more "crabbing" on the part of the players than the writer had ever before seen.

Speaking of the New Hampshire-Lowell game we note with interest that four out of eight tries for the point after the touchdown on the part of New Hampshire went true over the bars from the educated toe of Mr. Wood. Who knows, perhaps they read our comment last week. At that time we suggested a forward pass method in place of a kick, and its possibilities were shown by Lowell who added the extra point via the air route and caught the Wildcats napping.

Bates came back into the running for the state of Maine championship by defeating Bowdoin. The Colby-Bates game on November 11 will tell the story. If Colby wins they are clearly champions, but if the Bates' Bobcat turns the trick it will take a Philadelphia lawyer and an expert accountant to figure it out.

The Vermont state championship will be decided this week when Norwich meets Middlebury. Your money is safest on Norwich.

The annual Exeter-Andover prep school classic is held Saturday at the new Exeter stadium. There is an old superstition that a team wins when it dedicates its new field. If so watch for a Crimson victory, but we personally think that the truth might be expressed in Grantland Rice's poetic manner as follows:

When the game is done and the day is dead,
The Blue will wave above the Red.

And now our predictions:
Holy Cross to beat B. U.
Dartmouth to beat Brown.
New Hampshire to beat Connecticut.

Colgate to beat Columbia.
Cornell to beat Western Reserve.
Springfield to beat Mass. Aggies.

Norwich to beat Middlebury.
R. I. State to beat Worcester.
Amherst to beat Tufts.
Yale to beat Maryland.

On Saturday we are going to attempt to cover the Exeter-Andover, Norwich - Middlebury games as well as the New Hampshire-Connecticut encounter. Watch for comment next week.

Hill and Dalers Win Over Army

Frosh Harriers Defeat Tilton School 18 to 37

Varsity Second Team Finishes Fourth at Harvard—Varsity Wins from Army by 23 to 32 Margin

Coach Paul Sweet's cross country team all saw action during last week-end, with the varsity first team and the freshman hill and dalers winning the meets which they competed in. The varsity second team took fourth place in the meet sponsored by the Harvard athletic association, at Cambridge.

The varsity first squad traveled to West Point, New York, and won the meet from the United States Military Academy by the score 23-32. The West Point ace, Lermond finished in front, with Captain Hazen and Albert Lazure of the New Hampshire team tied for second place. Clark, another Army man, was the fourth man to cross the finish line. Noyes, Richardson, and Roberts were the next to finish, coming in in that order.

The winning time was 30 minutes and 53 seconds. This is the first time in recent years that New Hampshire has met a West Point team in cross country.

The second varsity team went to Boston last Friday, and competed against the first teams of several New England colleges; Holy Cross, Springfield, Northeastern, and Clark university being those entered. The wildcats finished fourth out of this field. Brisk was the first New Hampshire man to come in, finishing in sixteenth place. Moore finished 19, Perley, 23, Mulford, 32 and E. Smith, 33.

Springfield won the meet with the lowest score, 30. Northeastern was second with a total of 48 points. Third Ryder is a member of the football squad and is very active in various campus activities. He is a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

Herbert R. Hagstrom, Worcester, Mass., was elected Vice-President. Hagstrom is a member of the football squad, played on the basketball team last year, was a member of the track squad, and has been an honor student for two years. He is a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Marion A. Phelps, Durham, N. H., was chosen as Secretary. She is a member of the Phi Mu sorority.

Edward D. Haggerty, Nashua, N. H., was elected Treasurer. He is a member of the Theta Kappa Phi fraternity.

place was taken by Holy Cross with 92. New Hampshire's score was 123, while Clark was last with 142 points. The meet was run over the historic Charles river course and only those who had never competed in the New England or the Inter-collegiate were allowed to enter.

All members of the teams were given tickets to the Harvard-Florida football game which was held in the Harvard stadium the following day, Saturday.

Saturday during the Lowell Textile game the Freshman cross country team won from Tilton school, 18-37. Captain De Moulpied, Andberg, and Roberg were the first to finish, crossing the line together. The time was 15 minutes and 11 seconds. Daley was the first Tilton man to cross the line, with Patch of the Kittens close on his heels. Lloyd, of Tilton, took sixth place with White and K. Varney of the Freshmen taking places seven and eight.

Ukelele Ike's newest record hit—a corking good pair of numbers crooned by an ace performer.

A plaintively sentimental song that packs a kick in every sob is backed by a peppy dance-provoker from a talkie—and both put over in stop-the-show style by Cliff Edwards.

WHAT YOUNGER COLLEGE MEN ARE DOING WITH WESTINGHOUSE

This 5,000 h. p. motor in the Columbia Steel Company's plant, with its frame of arc-welded steel, is physically the largest synchronous motor ever built.

Ninety days to go—teamwork wins

While you Seniors were shuffling worries about machine stresses and saturation curves with those of football last fall, a group of your predecessors, not so many years ahead of you, were playing the game with grim realities.

The Columbia Steel Company of Pittsburg, California, completed plans on September 12th to build a new tinsplate plant. On the 13th they gave an order to Westinghouse for two 5,000 horsepower synchronous motors to drive the rolls, to be physically the largest synchronous motors ever built. Delivery of the first was wanted in ninety days.

Ninety days in which to design, manufacture, assemble, test and ship any large unit, let alone a new achievement in size and type of construction, affords no time for idle speculation. Westinghouse men went at the job as only an experienced and thoroughly equipped organization could do. And on the scheduled date, four flat cars and a box car rolled out of the Westinghouse plant, carrying the completed and tested motor.

It was an industrial victory, as satisfying as any athletic gain. Teamwork and individual skill had won. Westinghouse had once more made good and upheld the reputation that earns the big electrical jobs for Westinghouse men.
