Durham Players Become Active
Faculty Theatre Guild Begins Promising Career

Members of University Faculty Interested in Drama to Present Two One-Act Plays and Several Sketches at Community Theatre February 14

The first of a series of seasonal entertainment presentations to be given by the Durham Players, a group of the faculty of the University of the city, will be held at the Durham Community Theatre Friday evening, February 14th. The plays, "Generations" by French and "Without a Shadow" by Gifford, will be given on this occasion for the benefit of the University Faculty Club.

The plays will be directed by E. N. Gifford, who will also act in the production. The scenery of "Without a Shadow" will be designed by "Lupa." A. R. Richards as "The Eclipse" and W. E. S. Edwards as "The Wall" are among the other players present.

TAKING PART will be Miss Kathleen Kelly, Miss Betty Lee, Miss Margaret Perry and E. N. Gifford. The show will begin promptly at 8 pm.

Guests should order from the several branches of the 50-300 firesale with the slogan "Free Fireworks: 30 Cents" at any of the branches of the 50-300 organization. The sales will be open until 5 pm at all branches.

The count was 25 to 18. At this point Strother of the Army was high point man, having a great advantage over the Pointers' ability to outreach them. For Gaunt, Patch for Stolovsky, Foster for U. OF N. H. ARMY, Conroy, rb. If., Minkstein for Kreuger, Besson for Gaunt, rf. lb., Foley for Tiord, Strother 4, Hutchinson 3, Kreuger 2, Tiord 2, Mansfield 2. They do not aim to be pals. Their idea is that the girl really is a mistress of her home. Of course, she should be a pal while she is with them. They find that she really is a 'sweetie' really coming from the North, and this is the reason that the Alpha Xi Delta house, one from the second, the Alpha Xi Delta house is located, is noted for clean and sportsmanlike one from the second.
