Widest Teams to Meet Strong Foes This Week
Winter Sports, Hockey, Boxing and Track Teams to Match for Carnival Events

The stage is set, and the annual winter carnival at the University this year covering a three-week period will be the largest ever. Friday and Saturday will be two busy days events are greater and more varied than any previous event. The week will open with the annual Ski Meet, which is expected to attract 50 visiting athletes.

The skaters hope to duplicate their remarkable performances at Dartmouth last year. They will be led by Bob Stowe, the University's star skater, who is head of the art department. The group is composed of a star figure entitled to national attention, and several of them will be expected to equal the high standards set by their predecessors.

Friday and Saturday will be two busy days. The first day will open with a Ski Meet in the morning, a hockey game at noon, and a concert of both popular tunes of 1930 in the evening. The judges of the inter-fraternity teams will be present for this event, and the proceedings will be carried into the interiors. The course will be plowed to its utmost extent and thus constitute an interesting feature of the Carnival. The course will be 400 feet in length and 15 feet wide, and will be partly covered with snow. The starting line will be 500 feet from the finish line.

On Saturday, there will be a ski race in the University Gymnasium, featuring a dog sled race at one fifteen, and a ski race at two fifteen. The races will be carried into the interiors. The course will be 400 feet in length and 15 feet wide, and will be partly covered with snow. The starting line will be 500 feet from the finish line.

The New Hampshire Ski Star

The stage is set, and the annual Winter Carnival is about to open. The group is composed of a star figure entitled to national attention, and several of them will be expected to equal the high standards set by their predecessors.

Friday and Saturday will be two busy days. The first day will open with a Ski Meet in the morning, a hockey game at noon, and a concert of both popular tunes of 1930 in the evening. The judges of the inter-fraternity teams will be present for this event, and the proceedings will be carried into the interiors. The course will be plowed to its utmost extent and thus constitute an interesting feature of the Carnival. The course will be 400 feet in length and 15 feet wide, and will be partly covered with snow. The starting line will be 500 feet from the finish line.

On Saturday, there will be a ski race in the University Gymnasium, featuring a dog sled race at one fifteen, and a ski race at two fifteen. The races will be carried into the interiors. The course will be 400 feet in length and 15 feet wide, and will be partly covered with snow. The starting line will be 500 feet from the finish line.

The New Hampshire Ski Star

The stage is set, and the annual Winter Carnival is about to open. The group is composed of a star figure entitled to national attention, and several of them will be expected to equal the high standards set by their predecessors.

Friday and Saturday will be two busy days. The first day will open with a Ski Meet in the morning, a hockey game at noon, and a concert of both popular tunes of 1930 in the evening. The judges of the inter-fraternity teams will be present for this event, and the proceedings will be carried into the interiors. The course will be plowed to its utmost extent and thus constitute an interesting feature of the Carnival. The course will be 400 feet in length and 15 feet wide, and will be partly covered with snow. The starting line will be 500 feet from the finish line.

On Saturday, there will be a ski race in the University Gymnasium, featuring a dog sled race at one fifteen, and a ski race at two fifteen. The races will be carried into the interiors. The course will be 400 feet in length and 15 feet wide, and will be partly covered with snow. The starting line will be 500 feet from the finish line.

The New Hampshire Ski Star

The stage is set, and the annual Winter Carnival is about to open. The group is composed of a star figure entitled to national attention, and several of them will be expected to equal the high standards set by their predecessors.

Friday and Saturday will be two busy days. The first day will open with a Ski Meet in the morning, a hockey game at noon, and a concert of both popular tunes of 1930 in the evening. The judges of the inter-fraternity teams will be present for this event, and the proceedings will be carried into the interiors. The course will be plowed to its utmost extent and thus constitute an interesting feature of the Carnival. The course will be 400 feet in length and 15 feet wide, and will be partly covered with snow. The starting line will be 500 feet from the finish line.

On Saturday, there will be a ski race in the University Gymnasium, featuring a dog sled race at one fifteen, and a ski race at two fifteen. The races will be carried into the interiors. The course will be 400 feet in length and 15 feet wide, and will be partly covered with snow. The starting line will be 500 feet from the finish line.
Alumni News

Dr. Horace L. Blake, Advisor of the Alumni Association, has recently returned from the University of New Hampshire for a few days, and was in town on Saturday.

Wildcats Romp at Dartmouth

Sensational Win Scores at Winter Carnival

Exceptional Performance by University of New Hampshire skiers.

Dr. Horace L. Blake, Advisor of the Alumni Association, was in town on Saturday.

The winter sports carnival at Dartmouth was a thrilling experience for the students and alumni who attended. The ski teams from the University of New Hampshire performed exceptionally well, scoring impressive victories against their opponents. The thrill of the competition and the excitement of watching the skiers' performances made the winter carnival a memorable event for all who were present.

The winter sports carnival is an annual event that celebrates the winter sports and traditions of the University of New Hampshire. It brings together students, alumni, and the local community to enjoy a day of fun and competition. The ski teams from the University of New Hampshire have a strong tradition of excellence in winter sports, and their performances at the carnival are always a highlight of the event.

The winter carnival is not only a showcase of athletic skill, but also a time for students and alumni to come together and enjoy the winter season. The University of New Hampshire is proud to host this event and to celebrate the spirit of winter sports and the University community.
McGill Boxers Lose All Boutts

Grenier and Augustin Out

Seattle Champion, Boxed for New York's Best

The University of New Hampshire

Paul McGovern, who knocked out the Wagon. His efforts were in vain, as he

The University of New Hampshire

Alleson knocked out the number one

McGraw knocked out the

It was thus then

The University of New Hampshire

The University of New Hampshire

of the New England Cup was held on

More than once McGraw livened up

McGraw knocked out the

McGraw knocked out the

McGraw knocked out the

McGraw knocked out the

The University of New Hampshire

McGraw knocked out the

McGraw knocked out the

In the 115 pound class, Sacco out-

In the second game of the week the

In the 155-lb. bout Jean Grenier

Deans of the Student Body, en-

Elizabeth Kirk, Robert Griffiths,

Samuel Winfield, Goldie Tannienbaum

The University of New Hampshire

The University of New Hampshire

Bob Augustinus knocked out his man

The University of New Hampshire

The University of New Hampshire

The University of New Hampshire

The University of New Hampshire

The University of New Hampshire

The University of New Hampshire

The University of New Hampshire

The University of New Hampshire

The University of New Hampshire

The University of New Hampshire
THE NEW HAMPSHIRE, FEBRUARY 13, 1930.

YEARNINGS KEEP UP SUCCESSIVE WINS

AS SHOOTING DROPS

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE, FEBRUARY 13, 1930.

A shakedown test, a rescue, and a hundred thrills

An account of carefree Coast Guard

...