Old Grads Gather to Witness First Contest Between Wildcats and Catamounts in Seven Years—New Mayor to Preside at Game

Remarking the day on which the grad, old and young, look forward to the coming term. The day they will again see their alma mater. The day when their potential power as voters in the impending Municipal election will be manifest to their enemies, and not to their friends. This is the day on which they will preside at the New Hampshire Infirmary Site.

FROM OUR MAIL BOX

BY GINNIE SHERIDAN

To assisting me in the operation of these facilities, and to add to the variety of services available, I have recommended an increase in the staff. I believe this will be beneficial to all students who wish to take advantage of our facilities. I hope that you will all support this effort, and look forward to seeing you soon.

President: Louis, in his talk at the recent convocation, emphasized the importance of the student body. He expressed the belief that the students should be the custodians of the institution, and that they should take an active part in shaping its policies and making it better. He also referred to the importance of the faculty in providing guidance and support.

Our present position is that the faculty has a significant role to play in the development of the institution. We must continue to work together to achieve this goal.

I am looking forward to working with all of you, and to the opportunities that lie ahead for us.

ANNOUNCING THE COLLEGE WORLD...

By ANTONIO L. CAMERON

The College World will have "gone Sheaffer!"

The plain fact is that among the hundred leading American colleges, each having 1,700 or more students, the average number of Sheaffer's is not more than one that any other makes. That's understandable, once you're acquainted with Sheaffer's "Bungy" (1) a genuine "Balance" design that makes for easier, speedier writing; (2) the "Balance" design that makes for easier, speedier writing; (3) the modern beauty of the "Balance" design that makes for easier, speedier writing; (4) the Lifetime guarantee of satisfactory service.

Since all that comes with Sheaffer's Balance, why be content with anything else?"
