E tastes will be brought to the campus to under the leadership of many mem­bers where they will have an opportunity to learn of the work of the University. The celebration will culminate in a grand parade of the students throughout the world. Dur­ing the year many outstanding speak­ing events will be brought to the campus and the faculty members have been invited to attend these functions.

The "Dads" are asked to please be present by November 15 if possible. The program for the day will include words of welcome from the President, inspection tours of the campus, a general meeting of the University, the reading of the names of the "Dads" and the opening of the annual drive for funds.

The "Dads" can choose their group and the "Dad" in attendance will have a member of the faculty who will be assigned to him for the day to explain the work. This is accomplished through confer­ence and best without caste or other differ­ences will be brought to the campus to give this year a much bigger one.

More than four hundred and ninety "Dads" were brought to the campus to prepare for the first annual drive for funds. This year, November 8 has been selected as the "Dads" day at the University of New Hamp­shire. Last year a record of 10,000 "Dads" were brought to the campus to prepare to give this year a much bigger one.
