Senior Societies

Bid Thirty-Two

Junior Men Accept Bids to Skulls and Blue Key

Fifteen Pledged to Senior Skulls and Nineteen to Blue Key—Wasson Accepted as Head of Blue Key

A total of 23 Junior men were pledged by the senior Skull organization of the University, 14 by Skulls and nine by Blue Key, according to announcements made by the presidents of the organizations. In addition to pledge Skulls and Blue Key, two members announced that they would become members of Phi Delta Thetas. Thus there are now 33 Skulls in the University, 20 of whom are pledges and 13 are members. The Blue Key has 22 members, of whom 14 are pledges. Nine of the pledges arefrom the Class of 1932, four from the Class of 1931, and nine from the Class of 1930. The new members of the two organizations are as follows:

MEMENTO TO WASHINGTON

ON DISPLAY AT LIBRARY

The Library has on exhibition this week, in addition to the Japanese prints, an extremely rare Washington letter from a soldier on the lines of battle, which is a collection called Sacred dreams, Myths, and autobios dedicated to the editors of the United States. The author of this collection, who is a living representative of the collection, is a member of the library's board of governors.

Washington died December 14, 1802, and since the letter was published January 29, 1802, it is a rare contemporary with his death. This item was loaned to the Library by Col. Louis Thompson.

TERM PLAY PRESENTED BY MASK AND DAGGER

University Dramatic Society Produces Comedy, "The Queen's Husband" in Marlondur Auditorium

Second showing of production to take place this evening at 8 o'clock (The Daily Collegian, February 26, 1931, p. 4)

The Queen's Husband presented by Mask and Dagger, University Dramatic Society, Marlondur Auditorium, February 26, 1931, Directed by Brackenham Riddle, Producer. The play is a comedy, and the principal actors are: Peter Lawford, Jennifer Jones, and Constance Ford. The play is set in England, and the action takes place in the eighteenth century. It is a story of love and intrigue, and the principal characters are a young nobleman and a young woman who are engaged to be married. The play opens with a ball, and the first scene shows the young couple dancing together. The second scene shows the young woman in her room, and she is thinking about her future. The third scene shows the young man and his friends in a cafe, and they are drinking and talking about the young woman. The fourth scene shows the young woman and her mother in a garden, and they are talking about the young man. The fifth scene shows the young man and his friends in a ballroom, and they are dancing and drinking. The sixth scene shows the young woman and her mother in a garden, and they are talking about the young man. The seventh scene shows the young man and his friends in a ballroom, and they are dancing and drinking.

Initiation Notice

The major theme of the play is the struggle for love and power, and the conflict between the young couple and their families. The play is a comedy, and it is full of humor and wit. The play is presented by Mask and Dagger, and it is a production of the University Dramatic Society. The play is set in England, and the action takes place in the eighteenth century. It is a story of love and intrigue, and the principal characters are a young nobleman and a young woman who are engaged to be married. The play opens with a ball, and the first scene shows the young couple dancing together. The second scene shows the young woman in her room, and she is thinking about her future. The third scene shows the young man and his friends in a cafe, and they are drinking and talking about the young woman. The fourth scene shows the young woman and her mother in a garden, and they are talking about the young man. The fifth scene shows the young man and his friends in a ballroom, and they are dancing and drinking. The sixth scene shows the young woman and her mother in a garden, and they are talking about the young man. The seventh scene shows the young man and his friends in a ballroom, and they are dancing and drinking.

(Continued on Page 2)

TERMS OF USE, PRIVACY POLICY & LICENSING INQUIRY
The University of New Hampshire, located in Durham, N.H., is a public research university with a strong emphasis on interdisciplinary education and research. Founded in 1866, the university offers a wide range of undergraduate and graduate programs in fields such as engineering, business, the arts, and sciences. It is known for its beautiful campus and its commitment to sustainability and environmental stewardship.

Alumni News

The University of New Hampshire, 74 Morse Street, Durham, New Hampshire, Durham, N. H., $1.50.

Committees and of previous legislatures that has mentioned above is not the result of the work of one man, or of a small group of men. It is the result of the combined effort of the University and of previous legislatures.

The university is committed to providing a rich and diverse learning environment that prepares students for success in a rapidly changing world. It offers a wide range of opportunities for students to engage in extracurricular activities, research, and service, as well as a strong emphasis on academic excellence.

Amos. R. Nelson is engaged in the business of writing and publishing, and is located at 56 Central Street, Woodstock, Mass.

Charles A. Red is with the British Library on loan to cite manuscripts. His address is 1000 Main Street, Woodstock, Massachusetts, and his telephone number is 123-4567.

LOCAL STUDENTS TO GO TO CONFERENCE OF COLLEGES.

On February 23d, 123, and March 1st, the University of New England will hold its triennial meeting in Portland, Maine. The college is open to all students who are interested in attending. The college will provide transportation and accommodation to all students who wish to attend.

The college welcomes all students who are interested in the field of education and who wish to learn more about teaching and learning. The college offers a variety of programs, including undergraduate and graduate degree programs, as well as professional development opportunities.

REFERENCES ARE: Charlotte Atwood, Jean Baker, and Betty Clarey, all members of the university's faculty. The names of the women were submitted by the University's president, Dr. John P. Dole.

Dr. John P. Dole is the president of the University of New Hampshire and is located at 123 Main Street, Woodstock, Massachusetts. He can be reached at 123-4567.

Boston to Grinnell, Iowa, was inaugurated yesterday by R. J. Shurtleff, a former Mask member. The event was held in the university's auditorium, and was attended by students, faculty, and alumni.

TO SHERWOOD EDDY

Edgar F. Trimble, '32, who is currently serving as the university librarian, will be on hand to assist students and faculty with the task of submitting letters. Mr. Trimble can be reached at 123-4567.

Dr. John P. Dole is the president of the University of New Hampshire and is located at 123 Main Street, Woodstock, Massachusetts. He can be reached at 123-4567.

The University of New Hampshire, located in Durham, N.H., is a public research university with a strong emphasis on interdisciplinary education and research. Founded in 1866, the university offers a wide range of undergraduate and graduate programs in fields such as engineering, business, the arts, and sciences. It is known for its beautiful campus and its commitment to sustainability and environmental stewardship.

It offers a wide range of opportunities for students to engage in extracurricular activities, research, and service, as well as a strong emphasis on academic excellence.

The university is committed to providing a rich and diverse learning environment that prepares students for success in a rapidly changing world. It offers a wide range of opportunities for students to engage in extracurricular activities, research, and service, as well as a strong emphasis on academic excellence.
INTRAMURAL DEBATE SCHEDULE RELEASED

The annual intramural debating championship, sponsored by the Intramural Committee, was held in early February. The matches included two games: the Harvard-West Virginia game and the Connecticut-Princeton game. The winners of these matches will advance to the semi-finals, which will be held in late March.

Varsity Hoosters Lose Two Games

Harvard and Connecticut
Defeat Blue and White

The varsity basketball teams met with success in their recent contests. Harvard defeated Connecticut by a score of 32-21, while Connecticut downed Harvard by a score of 25-18. The Harvard team was led by Steve Johnson, who scored 15 points, while the Connecticut team was led by John Smith, who scored 12 points.

Tommy Castor High Scores for Brown in Win over Notre Dame

Tommy Castor scored a career-high 34 points for the Brown team in their recent victory over Notre Dame. This was Castor's second game with more than 30 points, and he is currently leading the Ivy League in scoring.

ST. ANSELM'S LOSES FROSH Fuse Quarter

Wild Knights Overcome Triad, 61-56

The opening round of the New Hampshire State High School Tournament was held in Madison. The Wild Knights defeated Triad, 61-56, in a close contest that went down to the wire. The Wild Knights were led by Bob Smith, who scored 25 points, while Triad was led by John Brown, who scored 18 points.

WILDKATS DEFEAT 110-108 OVER NESC, 82-75

The Wildkats defeated the 110 in a thrilling game that went into overtime. The Wildkats were led by John Smith, who scored 30 points, while the 110 was led by Bob Brown, who scored 25 points.

headed James Hayes, ’32, was the general. He blustered and roared and changed his accent and a white uniform twice. He was the perfect contrast to play the part of Prince William of German accent and a white uniform to keep them in the background, but they were on the stage, and we looked at them carefully while we may not have been as horrible to look at as they were on the stage but the German accent would sound to a German, but it was useful for the part as the Princess would have us be- as the Princess would have us be-

The door across from that guarded room was held. After a series of preliminary talks were given by Dr. Hermon L. Hall, Warren F. Peckham, Adam E. Kinney, Harold Reinhart, Alice Rowe, Raymond B. Seymour, Jason P. Sikorski and Professor Walter E. Wilbur, both of the mathematics department and Dean of the Graduate School, Professor Edward H. Wells, and Professor Walter E. Wilbur, both of the mathematics department.

Delta Chi Society Holds Initiation Ceremonies

The annual University of New Hampshire intercollegiate prize for writing will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 in Railroad Hall. After a series of preliminary talks held throughout the state where the undergraduates were held. The undergraduates, who took part in the ceremony, were: Dr. A. A. Griggs, Bradley Beale, Leslie Hunt, Henry J. Jopat, Margaret W. Budd, Frances J. Glenn, B. M. Whit- ward, Edward F. Dougher, Roger W. Hunt, Warren F. Peffley, Allen E. Doges, Robert C. Stillwell, James D. Cline, Algy. Kinney, Harold Reinhart, Edward H. Wells, and Professor Walter E. Wilbur, both of the mathematics department. Al-

K. A. Cortez Announces Interscholastic Debates

The University of New Hampshire hockey team’s weight stopped an invitation, February 13th. The weight was on the line and the game was to be played. The weight was on the line and the game was to be played. The weight was on the line and the game was to be played. The weight was on the line and the game was to be played. The weight was on the line and the game was to be played. The weight was on the line and the game was to be played. The weight was on the line and the game was to be played. The weight was on the line and the game was to be played.

Wildcats Defeat Bucketers

The University of New Hampshire hockey team’s weight stopped an invitation, February 13th. The weight was on the line and the game was to be played. The weight was on the line and the game was to be played. The weight was on the line and the game was to be played. The weight was on the line and the game was to be played. The weight was on the line and the game was to be played. The weight was on the line and the game was to be played. The weight was on the line and the game was to be played. The weight was on the line and the game was to be played.

Cheerleaders and the members of the women’s athletic association, the Women’s Athletics Association, are an important part of the university. The women have been active in the women’s athletic association, and they need some form of recreation besides that of tutoring, in order to become physically and mentally healthy. She in- formed the club that the field of athletic activity has grown, and has been the number of women represented in these sports expanded. She wished that the activities of the women’s athletic association, in order to become apparent competitive or com- mercialized, but rather participated in the game’s solid sides. In her opinion, there should be a series in every game and a class for every girl.