Five unforgettable stories build a wedding plaque for themselves and their Alma Mater in the spring term. The variety follows a pattern that makes each incident new and meaningful. The scenes of marriage and courtship are full of incidental bits of humor that will keep the readers guessing. The story of the "love story" is a fascinating one. "College Boys Saps" Say City Girls Prefer Mechanics

Broadway Damsels Prefer Mechanics

"Give me a mechanic," says one. "I like the look of them."

"Maybe you think they don't think."

"They do, they have nothing to say."

"I find that when a girl is good looking, college boys will go out of their way to talk to her, but when boys must have changed."

"Of course—men and women of the same sex.

YOUTH WILL PLANT MILLION TREES

Planting Demonstrations to Be Held for Sunday School, Boy and Girl Scout Meetings

One million trees will be planted in New Hampshire during the next six weeks, according to C. E. Burr, extension forester at the University of New Hampshire, Durham. Boy and Girl Scouts will be among the first to watch the planting, with demonstrations of the planting to be made by the state foresters.

The trees will be planted in a variety of locations, from the north to the south of the state. The planting will be coordinated with the work of the forestry departments in the various counties.
