UNIVERSITY OBSERVES EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY

Present Title of This Institution Approved
on May 4, 1922 by New Hampshire Legislature

Former President Ralph D. Borden and Alumnae Association Vital Factors in Obtaining Change—Hoard of Trustees, Faculty, and Student Body Also Influenced Story

By J. S. E.

Monday, May 4, was the eighth anniversary of the changing of the name of this institution from New Hampshire College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts to the more revealing and consistent appellation, "The University of New Hampshire.

The bill making this change effective on July 1, 1922, was introduced to the college trustees, the faculty, and the student body furnished the news as a step in the move for the future progress of the institution. The idea of change in title before the time of adoption by the state legislature is a special note of pride in the history of the New Hampshire College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts, and the Borden plan provides a brief statement of the reasons and details it is all to the betterment of the college.

The New Hampshire Exhibits of Homes to be Held Today

Mrs. Oren V. Henderson, state president of the National League of Women Voters, will address the May meeting of the local League on Monday, at 2 o'clock, in the Granite Club. The program will consist of a brief talk on "Women and the New Homes," followed by an exhibition of homes to be held on Wednesday, May 6th. The exhibits will be held at the University of New Hampshire, and will be open to the public. The homes will be arranged in a sketch format, and will feature various styles of architecture and design. The exhibits will provide an opportunity for visitors to learn about the latest trends in home design and construction. The event is free and open to the public, and will be a great opportunity for those interested in home improvement and design.
The Blue and White varsity nines finished second in its last two meets. Harvard tossed the Wildcats, 2-7, May 18, in the seven-inning game at Lowell, 11-7. The club that was leading, 7-2, in the sixth stanza temporarily broke even on Tompkins’ two-out single, but Brooks had the last word when he smashed a three-bagger to left field, giving the wildcats a 10-10 tie to end the game.

In league two the Lambda Chi nines won by defeating the Delta Delta’s, 10-2, May 18, in the eight-inning game at Exeter. It was a degrading defeat for the Delta Delta’s in its last two meets, but the Lambda Chi’s were off to a strong start in the field events, when the Iglesias’ mad dash for the win was stopped on Fathers’ Day. The Lambda Chi’s in the field event will be held on June 2. The meet will be in Lowell and the outdoor event will be held on the campus of the University of New Hampshire.

The score of the Sanborn game was 10-3, won by Harvard. The Harvard varsity nines defeated the Sanborn nines by winning their respective league two meets, May 1 and 2. The final score of the Sanborn game was 14-2, won by Harvard.

The meeting at Harvard was a close one and the Sanborn nines were hard put to keep their opponents both the Delta Sig’s and the Lambda Chi’s at bay during the early innings. The Lambda Chi nines won by over forty pins on the bowling trophy by defeating the Delta Delta’s 2-1 in the first stanza.
