Campus to Engage in Forensic Battle

Intra-mural Speakers to Have Choice for the Edward Monroe Stone Cup

by Prof. Edmund Corzatt

The forensics team, which is the most popular team at the University, is to speak December 9 on the topic of "The Uses and Disadvantages of Service Clubs." The team consists of six men who have been chosen for their debating ability. They will begin work at the beginning of the semester.

The team, six men have been chosen. They will begin work at the beginning of the semester. It is hoped that good material will be developed in the team, and that the team will be successful in their work.

FRUIT JUDGERS COMPETE IN NEW ENGLAND CONTEST

Recently the Horticultural department sent out its annual fruit judging team to Storrs, Connecticut to represent New Hampshire. This year, New Hampshire was unable to send their team due to the highest and lowest scores. The top team was the Connecticut team, on its home ground, with a score of 95.7, topped the other teams.

The candidates for the forward positions, R. Norris, Goodley, Tucker, and Genge, last year's team members, will have to work minus the services of the freshmen skimmers this year.

The Basketball team's prospects for the last two years have consistently been good. However, this season, one team member, Trudgen, is no longer a factor in the lineup.

The candidates for the forward positions, R. Norris, Goodley, Tucker, and Genge, last year's team members, will have to work minus the services of the freshmen skimmers this year.

This year's team will be a much stronger team, with several returning members from last year. The winter season is in full swing, and the team is looking forward to a successful season.

Harry C. White was a prominent member of the varsity team last year. He was a integral part of the team's success and will be missed this season.

CHRISTIAN WORK

Almost every Sunday a group attended the World Fellowship banquet, and the students who were members stayed at the mission room for the evening. Monday, Wednesdays, and Fridays were the only days they were able to stay at the mission room. Then on Tuesday, Thursdays, and Saturdays, they went to the new mission hall. The members of the group were always on display. In one room there was a large table with many chairs, and in another, two large tables with many chairs. On these tables there were letters, and the group was seated around them. There was a weekly meeting held on the first floor of the mission hall where the members could discuss the various topics that were being discussed in the group. Each week there would be a new topic that was chosen by the group. The titles of these topics are: The West Indies; Africa; Asia; South America; Australia; and Europe.

June 18, 1943

The group was invited to visit the new mission hall, which was located in the middle of the city. The mission hall was built in 1932 and was open to the public. The members of the group were very impressed with the new building and were grateful for the opportunity to visit it. The group was also able to meet some of the missionaries who were working in the mission.

The group was very excited to learn about the different cultures and traditions of the various countries that were being discussed in the group. They were fascinated by the different ways of life and the different customs that were practiced in these countries.

The group was able to learn about the different religions that were practiced in these countries. They were able to hear about the different beliefs and practices of the different religions and were able to gain a deeper understanding of the diversity of the world.

The group was also able to learn about the different languages that were spoken in these countries. They were able to hear about the different dialects and the different ways of speaking that were practiced in these languages.
