Mrs. John G. Winant to Crown May Queen

Noyes and Knox set new records as Wildcats trounce Bentley.

Entire University in Readiness for May Day Pageant

Selections from "Robin Hood," "Midsummer Night's Dream," and "Taming of the Shrew" Featured in Exercises

Saturday, May Pageant

The New Hampshire

Students Install Council

Gertrude Chamberlin succeeds Nancy Mehan as President of the Association of Women Students

At a meeting of the Association of Women Students last Thursday evening, the presidency for eur year was awarded to Miss Gertrude Chamberlin, Miss Chamberlin, a junior, was the only candidate for the position, and was elected without opposition.

The new president, Miss Chamberlin, is a member of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority and a member of the University Library Board of Directors.

George Arliss at Franklin School

The Man Who Played God

At the Franklin School last Thursday afternoon, a play was given by the school's Drama Club, under the direction of Mr. J. W. Kennedy.

The play was "The Man Who Played God," a modern adaptation of the Shakespearian play "Othello." The play was produced by the school's Drama Club, under the direction of Mr. J. W. Kennedy.

The cast consisted of Messrs. George Arliss, Miss Dorothy Diehl, Miss Frances French, Miss Frances McGraw, Miss Frances Thomas, Miss Mary O'Leary, Miss Frances McDonald, Miss Ruth Libby, and Miss Doris Beane.

Prize Speaking Contest Tomorrow

Nineteen Schools Represented in Twenty-Annual Interscholastic Prize Speaking Contest Held Under Auspices of University

The Twenty-Annual Interscholastic Prize Speaking Contest, to be held tomorrow under the auspices of the University, is the most important event of the year.

The contest will be held in the gymnasium of the University, and will be open to all students in the University.

The judges for the contest will be Mr. J. W. Kennedy, Mr. J. W. B. Smith, and Mr. J. W. B. Smith.

The contest will be held in the gymnasium of the University, and will be open to all students in the University.

The judges for the contest will be Mr. J. W. Kennedy, Mr. J. W. B. Smith, and Mr. J. W. B. Smith.

Student Council Meets in Convio

Nominations for Next Year's Officers of Student Council and Athletic Association

A joint meeting of the Student Council and Athletic Association was held last Thursday evening in the Student Center.

The meeting was called to order by President James A. F. H. Smith, who stated that the purpose of the meeting was to elect the officers for the coming year.

The following were elected:

President: James A. F. H. Smith
Vice President: John A. H. Smith
Secretary: Mary O'Leary
Treasurer: Ruth Witham

The new officers were then introduced to the members of the Council and Athletic Association.

The meeting adjourned at 9:30 p.m.

College Pharmacy

Soda Fountain

Light Lunches

Join the Club

Victor Records

Hot Chocolates are in style again
THE NEW HAMPSHIRE, MAY 12, 1932.

College Clippings

by Sandy

That the ‘Treasons of the college’ series has been played more than once on the radio is true, but to tell the truth the true team of dispellers of the infamy of the college can be found in a sufficient number of college papers. The college paper is the one of the college with the greatest number of members and the one that has the greatest interest in the success of the college. The college paper is the one that has the greatest interest in the success of the college.

Sawyer, Elvira Serafini, Phyllis Shorey, Lee Stimmell, Nathaniel Vidito, and Ralph Wiggin.

Wiggin.

The aristocratic spirit declares for truth and excellence. Hanford Henr.

The aristocratic spirit recognizes the right of each individual to search out and discover what he can for himself. The aristocratic spirit is the spirit of the individual.

As the religion of the church should allow for individuals, so the religion of ours — Hashing over the scandal of the campus reeking with the air of...
The freshmen baseball team was in its sixth game of the season when it met the Phillips-Andover nine at Exeter for the second time. The freshmen by the score of 5 to 4 on the varsity field last Thursday afternoon. McKinstry pitched and was his second game for the freshmen. He allowed five hits, the first hit being scored by the school of Westfield, Massachusetts. He opened the scoring for the Exeter-Ephrata and South Portland W. 9.1; in the last half of the first inning the fowls scored on the third hit. The second and the third were scored on the fence. The third was scored on a fly in the ninth inning by Ed. R. scored in the beginning of the fourth putting his team in the lead 2-0. Cromwell, hit in the left field. The third was scored on a fly in the middle of the afternoon, but their efforts turned around and they gave the freshmen their sixth win in seven starts. Scores: 1-2-3-4-5-5-1-1-0.

The University Dining Hall

TWENTY-ONE OF THE BEST

Everybody is watching expenses closely looking here and there to find most economical methods.

True economy never forgets high quality. At $5.75 the 21-meal ticket (7 breakfasts, 7 dinners and 7 suppers) represents real economy in quality values. For those who prefer, a $6.00 cafeteria ticket may be obtained for Fifth Con-
Students Council Meetings in Conv.: (Continued from Page 3)

An amendment providing for the creation of a dance committee was read. At present, the Council has no provision for a committee, and the amendment was approved.

Infernal Sister Committee

The purpose of the Infernal Sister Committee shall be to supervise all social affairs of the women members. It shall be composed of the President of the Student Council, and two women, each from a different class, who shall be appointed by the Student Council. The committee shall have full charge of all formal and informal dances.