John Harvard and Big Green Bow to Wildcat Harriers

By R. E. Wiggie

New Hampshire's New England Invitational varsity cross country champs were to the new heights last Saturday when, in a triangular meet between the Big Green, Harvard and Dartmouth, the Little Green crossed the finish line in 1st place.

Hampshire harriers. The Wildcats opened up in the third period and were pushing forward to the third place, but with four Wildcats at his heels, Dr. W. W. G. Andberg was not greatly impressed. He was to find the finish line with 101 points.

To those acquainted with the race, it was not much of an upset, but with four Wildcats at his back, Dr. W. W. G. Andberg was to find the finish line with 101 points.

The game was featured by the University of New Hampshire's defense of the season with the team, the leading team in the country. The Cats were in the lead the whole time and were able to hang on for the win. The Cats won by 9-0.

The second half was more of the same, with the Cats scoring four goals to take a 4-0 lead. The Cats were able to hold off the Wildcats and maintain their lead throughout the game. The Cats' defense was solid and they were able to keep the Wildcats from scoring.

WITH CLIVE IN INDIA
By J. C. Blythe

In this column we return to the topic of the recent visit to India, described by the noted author, Kahlil Gibran, in his famous book "The Prophet." This visit is of great interest to all who have ever been interested in the subject of spiritual and moral growth. Clive Blythe's account of his journey, as described in his book, "With Clive in India," is a inspiring read for all who are seeking a deeper understanding of the world and its peoples.

Loveland and Wiggins Speak

The president of the Alumni Association, Mr. Loveland, and the vice-president, Mr. Wiggins, were invited to address the members of the chapter. Mr. Loveland spoke on the subject of "The Value of Alumni Association Membership." He stressed the importance of maintaining active membership and urged all members to renew their memberships promptly. Mr. Wiggins spoke on the subject of "The Role of the Alumni Association in the Future of the University." He emphasized the need for the Alumni Association to work closely with the administration in order to enhance the welfare of the University and its students.

Save Money

Girls who attend the University of New Hampshire can now save money by taking advantage of the "Save a Dollar" program offered by the Alumni Association. This program allows members to purchase special savings cards that entitle them to discounts on a variety of goods and services. The savings can be significant, especially for students who frequent the University bookstore or other University-related stores.

The University Dining Hall

The University of New Hampshire's Dining Hall is open to all students and staff members. The menu offers a variety of options, including breakfast, lunch, and dinner options. The dining hall's hours of operation are posted on the University's website, and students are encouraged to check these hours before visiting the dining hall.
FROSH HARRIERS BEAT HARVARD 36
Captain Robert Playfair Shatters Crimson Record as His Team Loses

New Hampshire's freshman harriers defeated the Harvard freshman eleven, 36-12, last week on College Field. Although the final score indicated a big margin, the game was one of the closest ever played against this promising Harvard team, and the New Hampshire forwards were considered the superior team in the first half of the game.

New Hampshire's first chance to score came in the first quarter when they executed a series of clever running play that was halted only by a fumble on the Harvard 10 yard line. After this, the Harvard defense worked like a well-oiled machine to prevent the New Hampshire offense from scoring.

Second half scoring was of the same nature with the New Hampshire offense working with great skill and precision to outmaneuver the Harvard defense. The New Hampshire forwards were well set to take the lead in the game, and they did so in the third quarter when they scored on a long touchdown run.

Kellvin S. B. Lose to Hampton

The New Hampshire junior varsity defeated the Hampton junior varsity, 22-0, last week on College Field. The game was a close one with both teams scoring in the first half. In the second half, the New Hampshire offense worked like a well-oiled machine to outmaneuver the Hampton defense and score two touchdowns.
