VARSITY HOCKEY PRACTICE BEGINS

Thirty-one Men Report to Coach E. W. Christensen Including Seven Juniors

Tryouts begin usually at the beginning of each season. The purpose of the tryouts is to determine the material with which the coach must work. By the time the season opens, the coach has decided who is to play in the various games.

FRATS SELECT DEBATE TOPIC

SUCCESS MARKS PRODUCTION OF MICHAEL, MARY

A number of students at the University of New Hampshire are working on their bachelor's degrees with a minor in theater. The theater department at the university is one of the largest in the nation, and the students are able to choose from a variety of courses, ranging from acting to directing to stage management.

LECTURES SERIES WILL BE GIVEN

TALKIE STARS WILL SELECT CAMPUS BEAUTY

MICHAEL AND MARY

NEW PLAN FOR PLEDGING MEN MAY BE USED

STUDENT LOAN NOTICE

Applications for necessary year long aid are now available in the Office of Student Financial Aid. The application should be submitted as soon as possible in order to receive the maximum amount of aid. The deadline for applications is March 1st. Application forms are available in the Office of Student Financial Aid, 120 Academic Hall.

FRATERNITIES AT THE UNIVERSITY

The freshman class decided that they were glad that no men folks were near the board track. Since that date they have been able to speed up the play and include the all-state team in their schedule.

VARSITY HOCKEY

KEEN COMPETITION

Coach Swasey's men were glad that no men folks were near the board track. Since that date they have been able to speed up the play and include the all-state team in their schedule.

Professor Woodward Reveals Story on Vandalism

by R. W. Woodward, Professor of Forestry

Another Christmas season has come to Dartmouth. Every Christmas season brings its own peculiarities. One of the most noticeable things is the increase in vandalism. This year, however, there has been a marked decrease in the number of vandals.

Student's Strike of 1912 Brought Reinstatement of Soph President

by Robert Harris

The strike that brought the reinstatement of the Soph President was a major event in the history of Dartmouth College. The strike was sparked by a number of issues, including a desire for better working conditions and a protest against the administration's handling of previous strikes.

TALKIE STARS

John Gilbey, Clive Brook, and Frederic March to Join the Fraternity of Friends at Carnival

John Gilbey, Clive Brook, and Frederic March will be among the famous stars who will come to Dartmouth for Carnival this year. The three actors are expected to attend the opening ceremonies and to speak at the closing banquet.

COACH SWASEY'S HOPSTERS FACE STIFF SCHEDULE

Springfield, Northeastern, Brown and Providence will be regular opponents for the past two years in the Hoppists' schedule. The dates for the upcoming games are as follows:

DOGS AT THE UNIVERSITY

South Hampton, a popular basketball player, was named captain of the varsity. He was selected on the strength of his ability and his previous experience on the team. South Hampton is expected to lead the team to victory in the university hockey championships.

RATH APPOINTED RESEARCH CHIEF

Selected to Fill Recently Formed Position in the College of Pharmacy Has Wide Experience

Mr. Ralph Rath, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, has been appointed Chief of the newly created Research Department of the College of Pharmacy. His position is responsible for the direction and supervision of all research activities in the College of Pharmacy.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE
The New Hampshire, December 8, 1932.

An Alumni Notes

The meeting of the Portland Club at the Franklin Hotel in Portland was attended by an invited lecturer and a notable assembly of members. The President, Dr. F. E. G. Ladd, announced the fact that the Portland Club had been organized for a great many years and had grown into a strong and influential body.

The President also announced the fact that the University of New Hampshire was not an average college, but a college of the first rank, and that the University was doing its best to maintain the high standards of the past.

The dinner was attended by an invited lecturer and a notable assembly of members. The President, Dr. F. E. G. Ladd, announced the fact that the Portland Club had been organized for a great many years and had grown into a strong and influential body.

The President also announced the fact that the University of New Hampshire was not an average college, but a college of the first rank, and that the University was doing its best to maintain the high standards of the past.

The dinner was attended by an invited lecturer and a notable assembly of members. The President, Dr. F. E. G. Ladd, announced the fact that the Portland Club had been organized for a great many years and had grown into a strong and influential body.

The President also announced the fact that the University of New Hampshire was not an average college, but a college of the first rank, and that the University was doing its best to maintain the high standards of the past.
CHRISTIAN WORK

This is the last week of the drive by the Y. W. C. A., for whom which are to be distributed among the children of the families entered in the office of the underwriter. The last of these will be given out next Saturday, December 10th.

On Tuesday, December 6th, there will be held the annual meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association of North Andover. The meeting will be held at the College Chapel, beginning at 2:30 p.m. The agenda will include reports of the various departments of the Association and the election of officers for the ensuing year.

NORTH ANDOVER:

Newspaper advertisement for a Christmas party to be held on December 1st, with a special emphasis on community engagement and charitable giving.

The New Hampshire, December 8, 1932.