Students Convey President to Home—Charity—Celebration Over Change

May 4, 1933—On Wednesday, the Senate unanimously passed the bill which provides for the University of New Hampshire to be called the University of New Hampshire. The bill was introduced by E. H. G. Sargent, Speaker of the Senate, and seconded by Robert W. Mason, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee. The bill was unanimously passed by both the house and the Senate, and is now ready for the Governor's signature.

The Senate action is a result of the fact that the University of New Hampshire has grown in size and in importance, and it is felt that the name change will better reflect the character of the institution.

Earl Carr

A delightful personality has passed from our midst in the person of Earl Carr. Mr. Carr was a student of our college, and had planned devoting himself to the medical profession. Having been a student of the Medical College of New Hampshire, it is a great loss to the students of the college and to the medical profession of the state. Mr. Carr had the interest of the students in mind, rather than personal benefit.

The New Student Council

It is our opinion that recent Student Councils have been managed in a manner that is quite inadequate. There were some reasons for dissatisfaction, when the various nominees of the student-selected council declined to accept the offices that were offered to them. The new council has started the year with an admirable attitude, and it is expected that they will do great work for the college.

New Student Council

In order to qualify for such positions, a student must be elected by the college. It is desirable in publishing and defining the standard, scope and nature of the college in connection with and as constituting the Board of Trustees of the College in pursuance of the Legislature heretofor enacted for the institution from the change in nomenclature was the broadening of the field of endeavor and service open to her. It had been difficult for graduates in engineering and the arts and sciences, possessing degrees from the University, to find opportunities for valuable work in educational institutions in the field of education and science.

There were some reasons for dissatisfaction, when the various nominees of the student-selected council declined to accept the offices that were offered to them. The new council has started the year with an admirable attitude, and it is expected that they will do great work for the college.

The suggestion that the professors of this University could lead their bands into just another alley of what they would do for their students is not to be considered.

The young council defended themselves after considering only the new situation that they were placed in. For the benefit of the students, the new council has made an effort to appoint one who would be consistent in that spirit.

Presidential Statement

The change from College to University, authorized and made effective by the Legislature five years ago, today, has been attended by some change there were, with few and minor exceptions, all the competents parts which we know today. Perhaps the greatest good which accrued to the institution from the change was the broadening of the field of endeavor and service open to her.
